THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Lisbon, stating that the following orders respecting Quarantine have been issued by the Board of Health of that capital:—

1. All vessels arriving from ports suspected with cholera-morbus, shall be subject to a quarantine of observation for three complete days; and those arriving from infected ports, having cargoes susceptible of infection, shall be subject to a rigorous quarantine of five days. Vessels arriving from those infected ports in ballast, or with cargoes not susceptible of infection, shall be subject to a quarantine of observation of three days, the quarantine to be modified or increased should the circumstances of the vessel or the security of the public health require it.

2. The port of Charleston is considered to be infected with the yellow fever, and all the other ports of the United States of America are considered suspected, with the exception of New Orleans, which continues to be considered infected.
