AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the eighteenth day of November instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the thirteenth day of January next.

India Office, November 11, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for India has received the following papers.

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Military Department,
Allahabad, August 7, 1858.

No. 341 of 1858.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following report from Major Peto, Her Majesty's 73rd Foot, of his successful attack upon a body of rebels on the 20th July, 1858, and their dispersion from the vicinity of the Grand Trunk Road.

No. 2.

Major W. T. Peto, 73rd Regiment, to the Officer Commanding Troops.

Benares,
Nowbutpore, July 21, 1858.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to inform you, that having proceeded yesterday to the Suspension Bridge over the river Doorghootee, as I informed you in my letter of yesterday was my intention, with force as per margin,* I then gained information that the rebels (whose numbers were variously stated) had burnt the mail and looted a village some two miles distant, and were at that time, half-past 3 o'clock p.m., cooking their dinners in a garden by the side of the river Doorghootee.

I therefore proceeded towards the village named Derkillee, and previous to arriving, I saw traces of the rebels, in smouldering timber and ashes along the road side, which apparently had been hakeries or carts. On arrival at the village of Derkillee, I found the place had been looted and the Dak horses taken, and obtained information from an old man who had been slightly maltreated, that the rebels were cooking in a garden beside the river, about a mile from the road. I therefore advanced, and after seeing many running away before I came within shot, I detached a party under Captain Godfrey to the front, diverging slightly towards the left flank, myself with the main body proceeding direct through the village, in which we found no one, but saw large bodies of armed men and a few horsemen fleeing on the other side of the river.

Captain Godfrey had commenced firing on the left, where the rebels were posted in a tope of trees, and drove them across the river into a village the other side. I therefore crossed the river with the main body to intercept their retreat, and drove them out of a garden (where we saw their dinners cooking), and through the village, but their flight was so expeditious that I could not get near enough to them to do much damage.

Captain Godfrey reports that there were at least 200 men armed with firelocks, in the part of the village on his side of the river, and at first they seemed inclined to stand, firing at his men from the houses, but on hearing the firing on their flank, and receiving some sharp volleys from his men, they fled, pursued by him through the village, and by my party on emerging from the cover; but I regret to say, from my having to skirt a bend in the river, the distance was too great to permit me to do much execution.

It being now sundown, and the rebels in full retreat in a south-west direction from the main Trunk Road, I ceased the pursuit, and returned to my waggons, which I had left at the village of Derkillee, now some four miles distant, and reached them at about half-past 8 o'clock p.m., when I started again for this place, and reached it about 12 o'clock at night. I am happy to say there were no casualties on my side. The loss on the side of the rebels was 10 killed, and there were probably more slain in the villages. It is impossible to determine the numbers accurately, but I should say there must have been some 150 or 200 men armed with firelocks, and 300 budmashes. The Sikhs captured some six horses, which I believe to be Dak horses.

On the road home some of the men picked up torn shreds of letters and envelopes, which I have in possession.

I have, &c.,
W. T. PFTO, Major, 73rd Regiment.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-
GENERAL OF INDIA.

No. 342 of 1858.

Allahabad, August 7th, 1858.
Military Department.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch from Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding Sarun Field Force, No. 253, dated 27th April, 1858, reporting the operations of that force against the rebels at Belwa, in the Goruckpore district, on the 25th April last, and subsequent skirmishes with them.

No. 4.

Brigadier F. Rowcroft, Commanding Sarun Field Force, to the Secretary, Government of India, in the Military Department.

Camp, Captaingunge, District of Goruckpore, April 27th, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report to you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, that several contradictory reports were brought in by spies, on the morning of the 25th instant, regarding the enemy at Belwa. One was that two guns, one of them a horse field-battery gun, had been sent, with about 200 Sepoys and some Irregulars, by the Rajah Dabee Bux, to Gonda, the afternoon before, and that he himself and the rest of the force, with the other field-battery gun and three or four other guns, were to follow the same evening or next morning. Another report came in that there was a large body of the enemy, with several Sowars, out in front of our left, not far from camp. Shortly after, it was reported that the enemy were advancing on us in three columns, but no guns. The enemy had deceived the spies, for in the evening after dark the guns and men sent to Gonda returned to Belwa. I ordered out the force immediately, being always ready to stand to our arms, and moved out a little in front of Amorah and our camp, to meet and attack the enemy. Other reports soon came in that the rebels were coming down in force, in three separate columns, considerably separated, on our right, centre and left. This obliged me to divide my already small force into two columns. The left column I detached with Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, and Captain Sotheby, R.N., Commanding Naval Brigade, with two guns, 12-pounder howitzers, one a small mountain train gun, taking the other two with me. We moved, separating to the right and left. The left column first came into action with the enemy. The Sowars and body of rebels on our right soon gave way as I advanced with the right column, and I ordered a couple of 24-pounder rockets, under the superintendence of Lieutenant Grant, R.N., to be thrown into a large body of the enemy, in a wood and village, creating great confusion among them, and causing them rapidly to retire. My move to the right, no doubt, also shook, and tended to the retreat before our left column, of the centre of the enemy with their two field battery guns, a 12-pounder howitzer and a 9-pounder, firing our own government shot, shell and shrapnell. I pressed on more completely to drive the enemy back, and the left column moved to their left, after a large body of the enemy with guns. Receiving reports from Major Cox, by orderly troopers and Dr. Kirwan, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, that the enemy were in force on his left, I retraced my move, and proceeded to form a junction with the left column across country for about two miles, and over very bad ground for guns. On reaching the left column I formed up in line on their right, immediately sending forward skirmishers from the 13th Light Infantry and Naval Column. This reinforcement and movement, and Captain Sotheby advancing with his two guns, and the left column moving forward at the same time, shook the enemy into retreat; but this was hardly done when I received an urgent report from a villager that the enemy were again advancing on our right by the Belwa road. Bringing them into our then rear, and directly on our camp, I prepared immediately to move back again to the right with the right column, sending out a patrol of cavalry for information, and sending word of this to Major Cox and Captain Sotheby, and that I must leave them to deal with the enemy, on the left. I was obliged to return with the loss of a part of the 13th Light Infantry, and my portion of the Naval Column, who had got considerably in advance skirmishing, and at Captain Sotheby's request I left him the rockets. Lieutenant Burlton, with his party of 40 Seikhs, left by Major Cox, in his rear, as a support on the Belwa road, till I should join him, I attached to my column. While moving back across country the cavalry patrol came back, confirming the report of the villager. As soon as I crossed the Belwa road I formed up in order our small thin line, with the two guns in the centre, and had just sufficient time for these gallant troops to rest and refresh a little on the ground, and to get water after the great heat and fatigue, when the enemy moved into and occupied a wood and a village to their left in our front, and very shortly opened fire on our line from their two horse battery guns. The 9-pounder shot and shell at first fell short of our line, the former rolling by or through it. I ordered a few skirmishers of the 13th Light Infantry immediately to occupy a wood to our right front, and the right squadron, under Captain Jenkins, the portion of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry then with me, to move from our left by the rear, rapidly round to the right by the wood, and advance and threaten the enemy on their left flank, and to press them as close as possible, and to charge whenever it was practicable. The line was immediately advanced, with the Marines and a few more of the 13th Light Infantry and the Seikhs; as skirmishers in front, to get the two small howitzers within range. After throwing a few shells, and the rifles of the skirmishers beginning to tell on the enemy, and Captain Jenkins, with the right squadron of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, making a bold, steady and rapid movement, within a few hundred yards of the enemy, they retired, but again halted in position and continued their fire. The enemy opened fire repeatedly on the cavalry, and three horses were wounded by a shrapnell shell; but they had no opportunity for an effective charge. Our advance was continued until we got into the wood and position the enemy had occupied. Before the enemy retired Captain Sotheby had ordered two or three rockets from the left to be thrown into the direction of the enemy at about 2,000 yards, one of them setting fire to the village on the enemy's right. On advancing to attack I felt anxious to be reinforced on account of the weakness of my column; and, not knowing what numbers the enemy might bring up from their rear, and feeling certain the enemy must have completely retired from the left column, as there had been little or no firing since I left it, I availed myself of the Commissioner, Mr. Wingfield's services, who was well mounted, to carry orders to Major Cox and Captain Sotheby to join me without delay, sending forward the left squadron Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry quickly in advance, both my Orderly Troopers' horses being too fagged to move rapidly. In consequence of a nullah with deep water and mud between, us the left column had to move a considerable distance round by the rear to join me, and by the time they came up the enemy had completely retired towards Belwa. After the troops had rested a little and obtained water, and there being no enemy in sight, we returned to camp, reaching it about 7 P.M.

* All ranks. 2 12-pounder howitzers, 2 mountain train ditto, 155 Naval Brigade, 246 Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, 188 Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, 388 Gorucknath Goorkha Regiment, and 45 Bengal Police Battalion.

I am happy to say we had no casualties, but the troops had to encounter great fatigue and great heat during operations, taking up nearly the entire day, and most zealously and cheerfully did the officers and men of all arms go through it, though not without adding, I regret to say, to our sick list. The enemy were reported to be about 4,000 Sepoys and Irregulars, 150 Sowars, and 4 guns. One tumbrel, with some ammunition, was captured and brought in the next morning by a detachment of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry. The enemy are reported to have lost, killed and wounded, about 60 or 80. The rebels are very quick and expert in carrying off their killed and wounded, especially the latter, from their great dread of falling prisoners.

My best thanks are due to Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry; Captain Sotheby, R.N., of Her Majesty's ship Pearl; to Major Richardson, Commanding Yeomanry Cavalry; to Captain Barclay, 68th Native Infantry, in military charge of the Gorucknath Regiment; and to my Major of Brigade, Captain Morgan, 22nd Native Infantry, who has so often and constantly attended me in the field, for their zealous services, and to Lieutenant and Adjutant Rowley, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, who was most active and intelligent as my Orderly Officer during the chief part of the day. The zealous, active services of my acting aide-de-camp, the Honourable V. A. Montague, I am sorry I lost on this day, from his being on the sick list. My best thanks are also due to Colonel Byroop Singh Kooer, and to Major-Captain Sewukram Thappa, of the Gorucknath Regiment, for their zealous exertions with their men, and to all the officers and men of all arms engaged in action during these operations, for their unwearied and cheerful exertions. I was very glad to avail myself of the services of Captain Brooks, 1st Cavalry, though on the sick list, to take charge of our camp, and the few details of troops I could allow for its protection. To Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner, my best thanks are due, for his kind readiness to afford me every assistance in the field, and also to Deputy-Magistrate Shekh Kairoodeen, present in the field, and ready and active in giving every assistance. I beg to bring all to the most favourable notice of the Governor-General, the Right Honorable Viscount Canning.

I beg to annex reports from Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, and from Captain Sotheby, R.N., having reference to the action and operations of this day, for the further information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General.

I have, &c.,
F. ROWCROFT, Brigadier,
Commanding Sarun Field Force.

Captain E. S. Sotheby, Commanding "Pearl's"
Naval Brigade, to Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding Field Force, Camp, Amorah.

SIR, Camp, Amorah, 26th April, 1858.

I BEG to acquaint you, after leaving you yesterday, in charge with Major Cox, of the Left Wing and two small howitzers, we soon found the enemy, about 1,000, in position on the road, with two guns, and in the topes and villages on either side. A sharp fire was kept up by both parties; but as we advanced they retired, and pushing forward the skirmishers, they eventually retreated along the road, firing their guns occasionally; in doing so, having pursued them for two miles, and the heat being intense, we slowly retired about the same distance, when information was received that another body, with three guns, were firing on a small body of cavalry thrown out to watch our left flank. We immediately moved towards them, and found, at about two miles off the road, a considerable force with the Rajah of Gonda in some topes and villages. After waiting about twenty minutes to keep up communication with you, I advanced with the howitzers, and after a few shots from the enemy they retired, fourteen dead bodies being discovered in their position. We rapidly advanced on them, when Captain Chapman, with a troop of Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, moved quickly to the right to threaten their return to Belwa, when they precipitately retreated to the Gogra, and I understand many crossed.

At it was useless pursuing any farther we halted, the men being much fatigued and many struck down by coup-de-soleil. We then retired in order to join your party, when we observed you being in hot action with another body of the enemy, and had an opportunity of throwing a few rockets right into the tope where the enemy was, and which appeared to hasten their retreat.

All the men and officers with the left wing behaved admirably, and though the enemy made very good practice with their guns I am happy to say we met with no casualties; the fatigue from the intense heat was most harassing.

I beg to inform you of the officers on the field, and strength of the Naval Brigade.

Lieutenant Turnour, with two howitzers.

Lieutenant Grant, with the seamen.

Lieutenant Pym, with the marines.

Mr. Ingles, mate, with the skirmishers, well advanced.

Mr. Foot, midshipman, with the other two howitzers.

Mr. Parkins, gunner, with rocket.

Mr. Burton, carpenter, early struck down with a coup-de-soleil.

Mr. Stephenson, my aide-de-camp, well forward with me.

Drs. Shore and Dickenson, assisted by the Reverend Mr. Williams and Mr. Bowling.

Naval Brigade, 130.

Four small 12-pounder howitzers, two of them Mountain Train.

I have, &c.,

E. S. SOTHEBY, Captain, R.N.,
Commanding "Pearl's" Naval Brigade.

No. 6.

Major J. W. Cox, 13th Light Infantry, to Brigadier Rowcroft.

SIR, Camp, Amorah, 26th April, 1858.

HAVING, during the engagement which took place yesterday, been entrusted by you with the command of a column, as per margin,* I have the honor to report as follows as to its proceedings.

Seeing that the enemy were posted in force on the Belwa road, I at once advanced in that direction, covered by skirmishers of the 13th Light Infantry and Bengal Police Battalion, with the seamen and guns of the Naval Brigade, supported by the Ghoorkhas and the squadron of cavalry on the left flank. We soon came within range of the enemy's guns (9-pounders), and were for a short time exposed to a sharp fire from them, but continued steadily to advance, Captain Sotheby taking every opportunity to bring his howitzers into action. We moved on in this manner for nearly three miles, and drove the enemy clear away from our front.

I then halted for about half an hour, when, being informed by the cavalry patrol which I had sent out on our left, that the enemy were forming up in that direction with three guns and 1,500 men, I immediately started off and took up a position opposite them, keeping them occupied with our guns and skirmishers until your arrival, when a simultaneous advance was made; however, as immediately afterwards you found it necessary to return to check the enemy in another direction, I continued to advance with the column under my command until the enemy were completely driven from the field, and a number of them, having their retreat in the direction of Belwa intercepted by Captain Chapman's squadron, were compelled to cross the Gogra.

This operation having been completed, I received orders to rejoin you, which I did with as little delay as possible, considering the very exhausted state of most of the men.

Both advances were made with the utmost steadiness and precision by all the troops under their respective commanders; but I would beg especially to express my obligations to Captain Sotheby, R.N., for his cordial and zealous co-operation with me; it is mainly to be attributed to the skill and promptitude with which the two guns were worked under his immediate direction that we were enabled, without any casualty on our part, to cause a considerable loss to the enemy, as, from the number of dead bodies we saw on the field, they must have had 50 or 60 killed and wounded in our second advance; they were also obliged to leave a tumbril on the field, which fell into our hands. Lieutenant Leet, 13th Light Infantry, acted as my orderly officer during the day, and was conspicuous for the steadiness and zeal with which he carried and explained my orders to the skirmishers on several occasions under a heavy fire.

I have, &c.,

J. W. COX, Major,
13th Light Infantry.

* Naval Brigade, 50 men, with 2 12-pounder howitzers, under Captain Sotheby, R.N.; Right Squadron Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, 80 men, under Captain Chapman; Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, 80 men, under Captain Van Straubenzee; Bengal Police Battalion, 40 men, under Lieutenant Burlton; Goorkha Regiment, 200 men, in charge of Captain Barclay.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Military Department,
Allahabad, August 7, 1858.

No. 347 of 1858.

THE Right Honorable the Governor General of India has much pleasure in directing the publication of the accompanying letter from Captain T. Dennehy, Commandant Allahabad Division Police Battalion, No. 107, dated 1st August, 1858, and from F. Thompson, Esq., Officiating Magistrate, Allahabad, dated 2nd August, 1858.

They describe an important service admirably performed by a Detachment of the Allahabad Police Battalion, under Captain Dennehy, aided by a small force of Bengal Artillery.

The Governor-General congratulates the officers and men of the Allahabad Police Force, upon the spirit and effect with which their duty was discharged:

No. 8.

Captain Dennehy, Commandant, Allahabad Division, Police Battalion, to C. B. Thornhill, Esq., Officiating Commissioner, 4th Division.

SIR, Allahabad, August 1, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, that in obedience to the orders received by me on the 27th ult., directing me to proceed up the Ganges with Mr. Thompson, Magistrate and Collector of Allahabad, for the purpose of seizing and destroying any boats that might be in the possession of the rebels on the north side of the river opposite this district, I embarked on the 28th ult., on board the Honorable Company's steamer, Berhampooter, in command of the force detailed in the margin.*

In accordance with the wishes of Mr. Thompson, Magistrate of Allahabad, we steamed up the river to observe the positions of the boats on the Oude side, of which we had already pretty accurate information, and on the morning of the 30th arrived below Manickpore, where we found that the rebels, under Madho Sing, a brother of Benee Madho, of Shunkerpore, were assembled to the number of 800 or 1,000 men, and had erected a battery to oppose the further progress of the steamer.

As their arrangements appeared to be made principally with a view to the defence of the front, or river face of their position, I determined to land and attack them in rear, while the guns from the steamer shelled them in front.

I landed a little below Manickpore with Lieutenant and Adjutant Shaw, and 90 men of the Allahabad Military Police, and Captain Golab Sing, Attariwallah, and 40 men of his Seikh Police Corps. As we advanced, we found the rebels strongly posted in and below the Fort of Manickpore, and in the villages of Manickpore, Meergurwah and Shahabad, from whence they opened upon us and upon the steamer with round shot and musketry.

We drove them from each of these positions in succession, killing several, as they endeavoured to make a stand at each place, and took possession of their fort, which we had no means of destroying, as it is an old Gurree strongly built of pucca bricks.

* 1 Serjeant and four gunners of the 3rd Company 5th Battalion, Bengal Artillery; 5 Golundazes of the 6th Company, 9th Battalion, Bengal Artillery, with two 12-pounder howitzers; 40 men of Captain Golab Sing's Seikh Police; 110 Seikhs of the Allahabad Military Police.

They had, however, got their guns away before we got into this place, and on our perceiving a large body of men, many of whom were apparently old sepoys, formed up with two guns in a tope of trees on a rising ground about half a mile to the north-west, I again advanced to attack them, and, thanks to the steadiness and gallantry of the officers and men who were with me, notwithstanding that their guns opened upon us at 200 yards, we again drove them out of this position, and followed their guns up to within two miles of Kalleekunker; but my men were then too much exhausted to run any distance, and we could not overtake them, although we got close to them several times; they were drawn by horses, and were pressed on with all speed.

During all this time, nothing could be better than the practice from the two 12-pounder howitzers which had remained on board the Berham-pooter with Mr. Thompson; they were served by Serjeant J. Carroll and four gunners of the 3rd Company 5th Battalion Bengal Artillery, and continued throwing shell and shrapnell, mostly at ranges of 500 and 600 yards, among the rebels in our front, as Captain Dixon, the Commander of the steamer, brought his vessel steadily up the river by the battery on the bank, until within sight of the Fort of Kalleekunker; and now having accomplished the object for which we landed, and finding that a large force was coming down from the direction of Kalleekunker, I returned on board, and we proceeded down the river again to Kurra.

I cannot give an accurate estimate of the loss which the enemy may have sustained in killed and wounded, as although I personally can only speak with certainty to twenty men on their side having been killed, I should say that their real loss, from our fire and that of the steamer, was very much greater. Native spies who have since been at Manickpore, report 150 killed and wounded.

We had altogether seven men wounded, of whom two very severely.

Captain Golab Sing was in the front the whole time with his men, and behaved with gallantry and courage; many of his men are old soldiers. But I would wish particularly to bring to your notice, the conduct of the men of the new Sikh levies of his division, who were during the first advance kept in the rear as a reserve, until finding the second village we attacked (Meergurwah) rather obstinately defended, I ordered them up to the front; they were led by Lieutenant Shaw, under the fire from this village for more than eighty yards before they were allowed to cap; nor did they show any disposition to waver, although two of their number were shot down, but delivered their fire by word of command as steadily as if on parade, and took the village with a rush.

On our return downwards towards Allahabad, we landed and destroyed, or took away boats at the following places:—

At Gutnee we destroyed one boat and took away two more.

At Karaytee, we took away three boats.

At Sumejpore, we expected to be opposed, as the boats at that place were close under the Gurree which is held by Chutterpal Sing, with about 600 men and three small guns. On our landing, however, he evacuated the fort and retired, allowing us to burn, without opposition, the seven boats we found there.

At Jehanabad, we burnt eight boats; and about two miles below Jehanabad, another boat was destroyed, making altogether twenty-two boats taken away or destroyed during the expedition.

We returned to Allahabad this morning, the 1st August, 1858.

I have, &c.,
T. DENNEHY, Captain,
Comdt., Allahabad Division,
Military Police.

No. 9.

F. Thompson, Esq., Officiating Magistrate of Allahabad, to C. B. Thornhill, Esq., Officiating Commissioner, Allahabad Division.

SIR, Allahabad, August 2, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor General, that the expedition sent under my charge, for the seizure of the boats on the Oude side of the River Ganges, returned yesterday morning, having taken and burnt the boats noted in the margin.*

The expedition met with no opposition till its arrival at Manickpore, four miles on the east or this side of Kalleekunker. Here we found two guns with some 800 men posted in the villages surrounding the Fort ready to oppose us. Captain Dennehy, in command of the Police Battalion, will give you an account of the dislodgement of rebels from the various posts, and of the successful issue of the fight.

I was enabled, while Captain Dennehy was occupying the rebels on shore, to examine the river, but could find no boats. Two had been reported to me as being near the Fort, but these must have been removed up to Kalleekunker, or sunk in deep water, as no trace could be found of them.

The Fort of Manickpore is situated on a mound some 300 feet high and rising abruptly from the river, and is surrounded by houses, with broken ground on the north or land side. The work, therefore, to be performed by Captain Dennehy's small force was no light one. The rebels, with 600 matchlockmen, 200 regular sepoys, and two guns, disputed every inch of ground, and it was not till they found their guns were on the point of being captured, that they eventually retreated across the open country. The fight had, however, lasted for two hours and a half, and Captain Dennehy's small force was too much fatigued (even if it had been advisable) to follow up the fugitives.

I have mentioned these few facts of the nature of the engagement, in hopes that you will prominently bring forward to the notice of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, the cool and steady conduct of this newly raised corps.

In conclusion, I beg to testify to the willingness and alacrity with which Captain Dixon, in command of the steamer, and the rest of his crew assisted us on every occasion.

I have, &c.,
F. THOMPSON,
Officiating Magistrate.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter, dated 20th July, 1858, from Brigadier Douglas, C.B., commanding the disturbed districts of Behar and Ghazee-pore, reporting his operations against the rebels in the Ghazee-pore district, from the 16th to the 19th July, 1858.

No. 11.

Brigadier John Douglas, to the Acting Adjutant-General, Her Majesty's Forces in India.

SIR, Steamer Patna, July 20, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to state, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that hearing at Dinapore, on the 13th instant, that the post at Beyriah, of 100 Seikh infantry, and 20 Seikh cavalry, was besieged by a force of about 1,000 men, 250 of whom were supposed to be sepoy, I proceeded there on the morning of the 14th, with 200 men, Her Majesty's 10th Foot, and accompanied by Major Sir H. Havelock, and Captain Stevenson; the force had no tents, no baggage of any description. On arriving at Sheopore Ghaut, six miles from Beyriah, I was met by Lieutenant Jennings, 3rd Seikh Cavalry, commanding the post, and Mr. Probyn, joint magistrate of Ghazepore, who informed me that the enemy, after attacking them for two days, had retired to Bulliah, having lost about 20 sepoy. Not wishing to give the men an unnecessary march, I left them at Sheopore, and went up to Beyriah with my staff to inspect it. The house chosen for the troops stands in a large enclosure, with a deep tank on one side, a high wall on another side, a nullah on a third side, and on the fourth small houses. I cannot give too much credit to Lieutenant Jennings and Mr. Probyn, who received great assistance from Mr. Dunne, an indigo planter, for the excellent dispositions for defence made, all the walls loop-holed, breast-works and barricades thrown up, and flanking fire obtained; they had also stored plenty of provisions. At 3 P.M., I marched for Bulliah, and arrived there on the morning of the 16th; the enemy had retired, and were in a tank a few miles off. On being attacked, Captain McMullin, Seikh Police Battalion, commanding the post, had sent express off for reinforcements, and the number of cavalry and infantry sent, principally from Buxar, was unnecessarily large. This party consists of 200 Seikh infantry and 30 Seikh cavalry; the men are at present in a building in an enclosure which has been loop-holed; regular barracks for 300 men will be ready in about a month. Finding so large a number of troops, I at once sent off a force, under command of Major Rolleston, 84th Regiment, consisting of 24 men, 84th, on elephants, 72 men Madras Cavalry, and 3rd Seikh Cavalry under Lieutenant Baker, Police Battalion, and 392 men of the Police Battalion, under Captain McMullin. In about four hours they came up with the enemy and exchanged some shots, but, night coming on, they lost the track. On the morning of the 17th, I proceeded with 20 men, 84th, on elephants, 60 men, 3rd Seikh Cavalry, and 30 men, Military Train, in the same direction as the other force. We came up with Major Rolleston's party about ten o'clock (they not having been able to discover the enemy's track), and all proceeded together. The villagers baffled us in every way as to information, and it was not till the afternoon that Sir Henry Havelock discovered their true track. I sent him on with the native cavalry to endeavour to come up with the enemy, and intercept them, if possible, till the infantry could arrive. Sir Henry Havelock came up with them about 6 P.M.; they were marching in regular order in column of companies, about 200 strong, the villagers having all left them. He kept as close to their flank as he could, but lost them in the dark. I followed with the Military Train; and the infantry and elephants came on as well as they could, but were totally unable to keep up. The day had been extremely hot, and the march could not have been less than forty miles. It was 8 P.M. when I halted at Munuhar on the Gogra. On the morning of the 18th, Sir Henry Havelock again picked up the track, but so fast had the sepoy marched, that he was ten miles behind them, and his horses were completely beat. On reaching the village of Phursata, in the Azimghur district, he sent back to me for orders, and on my telling him that I could give him no assistance whatever with infantry, he gave up the pursuit. The enemy were at this time making the best of their way through the Azimghur district into Oudh. On the 19th, the force returned to Bulliah, and proceeded to their different stations. I consider great credit is due to Sir Henry Havelock for the untiring zeal and ability he displayed in this pursuit, and none but one so conversant with the language could possibly have tracked out the enemy as he did. I beg to forward Captain McMullin's report from Bulliah. Lieutenant Jennings' report from Beyriah has been sent to Arrah and will be forwarded.

Nominal and numerical casualty returns will be sent in as soon as received.

I have, &c.,

JOHN DOUGLAS, Brigadier.

SIR, Camp, Bulliah, July 16, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, that yesterday, the rebels came down in force, and advanced to within a quarter of a mile of my post, and surrounded it at half-past 6 A.M. On this, I ordered out the cavalry, 30 in number, and 80 men of the detachment under Lieutenant Costley, who advanced very steadily, the enemy doing the same, and when within range, the lieutenant fired a volley into them. On this the firing became general, and the enemy during this time gradually closed round their right into a village close to an entrenchment I had thrown up the previous day. Seeing this, I ordered the village to be fired, and the enemy not finding it tenable, the whole gradually retired at half-past 8 A.M., and took up a strong position on a tank about a mile from my post, where they remained all day; the firing was kept up the whole day between the advanced picquets I had thrown out and the enemy.

I am happy to say that all ranks behaved remarkably well, and only one sepoy was wounded; it is impossible for me to say what number of the enemy were killed and wounded, but several were seen to drop on the right and centre.

Number of the enemy, as far as I could ascertain, 400 sepoy and about 500 men armed with matchlocks and swords.

The enemy hearing of a force advancing to my relief retired during the night.

I have, &c.,

J. McMULLIN, Captain,
Commanding Seikh Police Corps.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Allahabad, August 12, 1858.

No. 354 of 1858.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch from Brigadier Rowcroft, commanding Sarun Field Force, transmitting a report from Captain Garrard, 27th Madras Native Infantry, of a successful attack made by the detachment under his command on a body of rebels at Debreheah in the Goruckpore District, on the 23rd July last:—

No. 16.

Brigadier F. Rowcroft, commanding Sarun Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp Bustee, District of Goruckpore,
July 26, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to transmit to you, for submission to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying copy of a report, dated Camp Debreheah, 23rd July, 1858, from Captain Garrard 27th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, of a very successful attack made by a detachment* under his command, on a body of rebels under their leader Bisram, at Debreheah, on the morning of the 23rd instant.

2. I had received information that the rebels between 300 and 400 strong, had collected at Debreheah, and sent out orders and careful instructions to Captain Garrard, to unite the 2 detachments from Amorha and Hurryah, and make a night march to Debreheah, about 12 miles from Hurryah, and attack and disperse this body of rebels, and destroy a large loop-holed house and enclosure in the village.

3. Unfortunately, the leader Bisram had gone with some of his followers, on the night of the 22nd instant, on a plundering expedition, and had not returned when our troops attacked at early morning, and so escaped all chance of being captured or destroyed.

4. Captain Garrard carried out very zealously and ably this successful attack, in which the rebels were completely defeated and dispersed, with the loss, since well ascertained, of upwards of 50 killed and several wounded; and 10 prisoners, 1 since dead of wounds, and 1 zumbooruk, 4 muskets, some 50 matchlocks, and as many swords were taken.

5. The whole detachment is reported to have behaved remarkably well, and Lieutenant Freese, commanding the 3rd and 4th Troops, 6th Madras Cavalry, particularly distinguished himself in charging the rebels, cutting down 2 with his own hand, but not, I regret to say, without being badly wounded by a sword cut. Trumpeter John Dore, Troopers Mahomed Ali and Mahomed Akbar, and farrier Betreen, are noted for their brave and forward conduct in the action. The enemy were driven out of 3 villages by the infantry in succession, and then charged by the cavalry.

6. I have thanked Captain Garrard, and the officers and men, in field force orders, and I beg to recommend all engaged to the favorable notice of his Excellency Sir Colin Campbell.

7. I beg to solicit of the Commander-in-Chief, that some mark of favor and reward may be shown the two troopers Mahomed Ali and Mahomed Akbar, and also to trumpeter John Dore, and farrier Betreen, of the 6th Madras Light Cavalry, to such extent as his Excellency may deem proper.

I have, &c.

F. ROWCROFT, Brigadier,
Commanding Sarun Field Force.

No. 17.

Captain F. T. Garrard, commanding Detachment Amorha Outpost, to the Brigade Major, Sarun Field Force.

SIR,

Camp Debreheah, July 23, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the officer commanding the Sarun Field Force, the total defeat and dispersion of the rebels collected in the fortified house and compound of

* 6th Madras Cavalry, 72; 27th Madras Native Infantry, 80; Seikh Military Police, 32.

Bisram Sing of Debreheah. The place attacked somewhat resembles a Serai; it is about 150 yards long by 100 broad, with one large and a few smaller houses inside. The rooms running round the inclosure are covered with a high tiled roof, and outside runs a trench so as to give a slight flanking defence. The walls of the houses and parts of the outer wall are loop-holed. I arrived early this morning before daylight, with the force noted in the margin,* within 3 miles of this entrenchment, when hearing that 100 of the rebels were encamped in a tope a short distance outside, I detached Lieutenant Freese, with the 4th troop of Cavalry to the left, and Subadar Ameenoodeen, with the 3rd troop to the right, with orders to make a circuit, and take up position from which they might be able to cut off the enemy's retreat when expelled from the tope by the infantry. The infantry were still a mile from the entrenchment, when I heard heavy firing; the enemy had retired from the tope on the approach of Lieutenant Freese's party, and taking up a position just in front of their entrenchment, were firing at and abusing the troopers. That officer placed his men under shelter until I brought up the infantry. I immediately occupied the tope they had vacated; the fire between my skirmishers and the rebels (who now lined their advanced trench) was brisk, but the distance was too great for effect. I next pushed on to a small village directly fronting and about 200 yards from the main gate. For a few minutes the fire was well kept up, until the enemy, unable to support it, suddenly withdrew; whilst was arranging for a closer attack, the enemy unexpectedly appeared in the open, retreating in a compact and orderly body across a morass towards a small village. They numbered about 120 or 130, and whilst I pursued with the infantry, Lieutenant Freese charged down with his troop, and succeeded in cutting up 5 or 6 before they could enter the houses. Out of these they were driven by the infantry, and were then charged a second time by Lieutenant Freese. Those who escaped succeeded in reaching a second village, from which the infantry a second time expelled them. For a third time the same scene was acted, and the affair might be called over; upwards of 40 killed, and 9 prisoners were the result. One zumbooruk, two or three muskets, with many matchlocks and swords have been taken, and the entrenched buildings burnt and partially levelled. I cannot speak too highly of the behaviour of both cavalry and infantry; (the Burkundazes were not employed further than a baggage guard.) Lieutenant Freese always led his men with the greatest gallantry, and on one occasion, I saw him, supported only by one man (trooper Mahomed Ali,) charge a body ten times his number, cutting down two of them with his own hand. This officer, who I regret to say, is severely wounded, speaks very highly of the conduct of trumpeter John Dore, in leading a charge down the steep bank of a difficult nullah into the very ranks of the enemy, who were about to make a stand, imagining no cavalry could reach them. The farrier Betreen with troopers Mahomed Akbar and Mahomed Ali were foremost in this, as in every encounter. Lieutenant Shaw, attached to the infantry part of the force, rendered me every assistance, and I have already mentioned the gallantry of all ranks under him, most of them just off an 18-mile march.

I have, &c.,
F. T. GARRARD, Captain,
Commanding Detachment Amorha Outpost.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Brigadier Barker, C.B., commanding at Lucknow, forwarding a report from Colonel Eveleigh, C.B., Her Majesty's 20th Foot, commanding at Nawabgunge, of the result of an expedition with a portion of his force against the rebels at Mohan, on the 4th instant.

No. 20.

Brigadier Geo. R. Barker, Commanding, to the Chief of the Staff, Allahabad.

SIR, Lucknow, August 6, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to forward for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a letter from Colonel Eveleigh, C.B., commanding at Nawabgunge, reporting the result of an expedition, with a portion of his force, against the rebels at Mohan. Colonel Eveleigh having asked permission to keep a small force in constant readiness to act against the enemy in the event of their approaching his position, and if opportunity offered, to attack their outposts, making use of elephants for the conveyance of the infantry, I had, with the sanction of Major-General Sir J. Grant, approved of his acting as he suggested, confining his expeditions, however, within such limits as would enable him to return to camp the same day.

I have also to report that the Chief Commissioner has now sent a police force, consisting of one regiment of infantry 900 strong, and one regiment of cavalry 500 strong, to occupy Mohan.

The column under Colonel Maxwell returned to quarters, from Hydergunge, on the 5th instant.

*Colonel F. Eveleigh to the Officiating Deputy-Assistant-Adjutant-General,

*Camp, Nawabgunge,
August 5, 1858.*

SIR, I HAVE the honor to state, for the information of the Brigadier commanding the troops at Lucknow, that at one o'clock on the morning of the 4th instant, I started from the camp with the troops named in the margin* for Mohan, distant about 11 miles, where I had information, there were supposed to be from 700 to 800 of the enemy's forces. I was delayed on my march in consequence of the country in parts being under water and the roads bad, and arrived therefore at Mohan an hour after daybreak, instead of one before, which was my intention.

On my arrival I found that the enemy had not a single man in the place, and the houses were all shut up, though the occupants remained; it was ascertained, however, that the enemy had some 400 or 500 troops in the neighbourhood.

At about 7 A.M. I recrossed the river Sye, and placed the troops under topes adjoining the bridge, for the purpose of resting and cooking breakfast.

During the time that this was going on, and until about 10-30 A.M., the vidette sent in frequent reports, stating that, on my right flank, the enemy was appearing in considerable number, cavalry and infantry, in a tope about half a mile off, and that some of his sowars were also in a tope to my front, and were approaching slowly.

After the artillery horses were fed, and the troops had breakfasted, I sent one company of Her Majesty's 20th Regiment, extended amongst the trees to my right, and I myself started to my left with 2 guns and 200 sowars.

The enemy's sowars, on seeing the small force on the right, began to move quietly away, and as the ground was rough, I directed the guns to open, which they did at 1,000 yards, when the enemy's sowars galloped off.

I then followed up for about half a mile, and had again three distant shots at them, when both sowars and infantry retired as fast as possible.

In the meantime the company of Her Majesty's 20th Regiment had driven the enemy from my right flank.

From the extreme heat of the night, both troops and horses were very much fatigued, and immediately after the enemy had been driven off, a heavy shower of rain fell, when I decided on returning to camp at once, in case the roads should become impassable from its continuance.

I arrived in camp with my force about 3 o'clock P.M.

One man of the enemy was killed by a rifle shot at great range. One horse had both his legs broken by shrapnell, and myself saw two of their horses running away without riders.

I did not see certainly more than about 150 sowars and 100 infantry of the enemy's forces; but there were a number of thick topes, and it is difficult to say therefore what force there was.

I have, &c.

Commanding at Nawabgunge.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, copy of a report, dated the 9th instant, from Colonel F. C. Eveleigh, C.B., of Her Majesty's 20th Regiment, commanding at Nawabgunge, of an affair with insurgents in the neighbourhood of Mohan, on the previous day, which his Excellency considers to have been very well managed.

W. MAYHEW, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 24.

Colonel F. C. Eveleigh, C.B., commanding at Nawabgunge, to the Officiating Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General.

SIR,

Nawabgunge, August 9, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier commanding at Lucknow, that yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, I received a letter from Mr. Carnegy, Deputy Commissioner at Mohan, stating that the enemy in force had attacked the police battalion stationed there, on the previous evening (7th instant), crossed the bridge, and driven in the police picquets, and as he expected to be again attacked the following morning, he requested me to come to his aid.

I accordingly started from Nawabgunge with the troops named in the margin,* at 6 A.M. yesterday morning, the 8th instant, and on my arriving at a village three miles this side of Mohan, I turned to the left towards the village Hussengunj, as I conceived that, should the enemy in the topes about Mohan obtain intelligence of my approach, he would in all probability retire in the direction of that village, which is on the direct road to Rusoolabad, and where he has generally a force from six to seven hundred men.

On crossing the open maidan towards Hussengunj, and when about a mile from it, I perceived the enemy's sowars and infantry rapidly retreating from the village, apparently towards Rusoolabad.

I immediately pursued at a gallop for about a mile and a half, but finding that the guns could not approach near enough to open fire, I halted them, and sent on two squadrons of the Irregular Cavalry, under Lieutenant Godby, who followed the enemy in pursuit for about five miles.

The result was most satisfactory, for between 40 and 45 men of the enemy were killed, his only gun, a brass 3-pounder, captured, together with one elephant and two camels.

* 300 1st Seikh Cavalry; 2 guns Bengal Horse Artillery; 25 gunners mounted, to support the guns; 12 rank and file H. M.'s 20th Regiment, mounted on limbers.

After a short rest, I proceeded through Hus-sengunj to Mohan, about three miles off, and met the Deputy Commissioner coming out with the police force.

I remained at Mohan, under a tope for some hours to refresh the troops, and finally arrived at camp at 5:30 P.M.

The enemy's forces did not appear to be more than about 150 sowars and 200 infantry, but I am inclined to think, from information afterwards received at Mohan, that numbers were lurking about in the neighbouring topes, which are thick and numerous.

The brass gun I left at Mohan, and it was placed in an excellent position to command the bridge.

I beg to express my thanks to Lieutenant Godby, for the able manner in which he handled his Irregular Cavalry.

I inclose a return of the casualties of the force.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE GOVERNOR-
GENERAL OF INDIA.

Allahabad, September 9, 1858.

* No. 393 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication in the Gazette, of the subjoined report from Captain Dennehy, Commanding Allahabad Division Military Police, of his operations against a body of rebels in Pergunnah Bara on the 27th ultimo.

The Governor-General highly commends the gallantry evinced by Captain Dennehy, his officers and men of the Allahabad Military Police, in this successful affair:—

No. 27.

Captain Dennehy to E. C. Bayley, Esq., Officiating Commissioner, Allahabad.

Camp Ghadamow, August 28, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, that on the night of the 26th instant, I marched with the force detailed in the margin,* from Bara to Ghadamow, a village in the Pergunnah of Bara, about nine miles to the south-west, to which the rebel force, under Panjaub Sing, which had been plundering a number of villages all round the tehseel of Bara, had retreated on my arrival at that place.

On coming close to Ghadamow, shortly after day-light on the 27th, I found that the rebels, to the number of 1000 or 1200 matchlockmen, a few old Sepoys, and 90 or 100 cavalry, had taken up their position in the village itself, and in some topes of trees in its immediate neighbourhood.

I directed Lieutenant and Adjutant Shaw to advance straight on the village with the infantry, throwing out one-half his men as skirmishers, and keeping the remainder as a support, while I kept with the cavalry towards the more open country to the left, where a large body of the rebels were posted in some thinly planted topes of trees. Lieutenant Shaw was to dislodge the enemy from the village, and if possible, drive them towards the open country. And this he did with great gallantry; advancing at the double as the rebels opened fire upon him, he succeeded in driving them before him through the village, and a large tope behind, killing seven and wounding several more.

In the mean time, the rebels in my front had, as I advanced, retreated from the trees which had hitherto sheltered them; and now having the whole of them fairly in the open, I gave the cavalry orders to charge.

We cut our way completely through the rebels, and dispersed them in every direction, following them up for more than four miles; and on our return we saw lying about in the fields more than one hundred dead bodies; among which that of Sirdar Panjaub Sing, the leader of the rebels, is said to be recognised. Altogether their loss must have been very considerable. The whole of the baggage, and the baggage camels which they had with them, fell into our hands, as also a large number of cattle, most probably plundered from the villagers of this Pergunnah, many of whom are coming in to recognise their property.

The loss on our side was one trooper killed; two native officers of cavalry, five troopers, and fourteen horses wounded.

I would earnestly beg you to bring particularly to the notice of the Right Honourable the Governor General, the conduct and gallantry of the native officers and men of the 9th, 17th, and Sikh troops of the Allahabad Military Police, who were with me on this occasion, the first on which they have been engaged with the enemy in the field.

I have the honour to forward the depositions of some of the men, who swear to recognising the body of Panjaub Sing, as also a number of papers found in his baggage.

I have, &c.,

E. DENNEHY, Captain, Commanding
Allahabad Division, Military Police.

* Allahabad Military Police.—Cavalry; 6 native officers, 12 duffadars, 7 naib duffadars, 1 trumpeter, 155 troopers. Infantry; 3 native officers, 12 havildars, 1 bugler, 163 rank and file.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the twenty-fifth of November instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued in St. Mark's Churchyard, in the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe, BATH, except so far as was compatible with the observance of the Regulations for New Burial-grounds, and it seems fit that the said order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interment in the said churchyard be discontinued, except in graves and vaults used exclusively for the burial of members of the same family, with respect to which the Regulations for New Burial-grounds shall be observed, on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and that, in the meantime, one body only be buried in any grave, which shall not be less than five feet deep, nor opened unless that can be done without exposure of any coffin or remains.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, COGGESHALL, Essex, and such Order was varied, in so far as respects the said burial-ground, by an Order in Council of the twenty-eighth of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and it seems fit that the said first-mentioned Order be again varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the use of brick-vaults, in the said burial-ground, be permitted upon the same conditions as those which were applied to certain family-vaults in that ground by the aforesaid Order of the said twenty-eighth of July.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel, LYMINGTON, and such Order was varied by an Order of the thirty-first of July last, and it seems fit that such Order be again varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be permitted in those portions of the said burial-ground which have never yet been used and are three yards from the chapel and day-school ; that, with the exception of family graves and vaults, only one body be buried in a grave ; and that, with the same exception, no grave be re-opened.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eleventh of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of January then next, in the churchyard of MILTON-NEXT-GRAVESEND, which Order was varied by an Order of the twenty-eighth of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and it seems fit that the said Order be again varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be permitted to take place in now-existing family earthen-graves in the said churchyard, provided that, when required, the graves be opened without disturbing human remains ; that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick ; that no body be buried within four feet of the surface ; and that the only bodies interred be those of the husbands, wives, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of persons already buried therein.

APPPLICATION is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for the following (or some of the following), among other purposes:—

1. To make and maintain a railway with all necessary works, stations, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the authorised line of the Epsom and Leatherhead Railway at or near the authorised termination thereof near the gas works, in the town and parish of Leatherhead, passing through the same parish and the parishes of Fetcham, Mickleham, and Dorking, all in the county of Surrey, and terminating in the said parish of Dorking by a junction with the Reading, Guildford, and Reigate line of the South Eastern Railway Company, at a point about 440 yards to the east of the Dorking station of that railway, and also by an independent terminus at or near that point.

The said Bill will either incorporate a Company for the foregoing object, or will confer on the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company, power to make and maintain the said railway and works, and will enable the newly incorporated Company, or the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company, to purchase lands, houses, and other property compulsorily for the purposes of the said intended railway and works, and to levy tolls, rates, and charges, in respect thereof and the Bill will incorporate with itself all or some of the provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

The said Bill will enable the Company (if a new Company be incorporated) and the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company to enter into arrangements for the working, maintenance, and use by the last mentioned Company of the intended railway, and for the receipt and apportionment of the tolls, charges, and revenue arising therefrom, and for the appointment of joint committees.

The Bill will also enable the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Company to contribute out of their existing funds, or out of capital to be raised by them, either by shares or loan, the monies or some part of the monies necessary for the construction and maintenance of the intended railway and works, and for that purpose to create any fresh shares or stock, and to attach to the same any preference or priority of dividend or other advantage which the Bill may define.

The Bill will enable the Company owning or working the intended railway, or any other Companies or persons authorised by such Company, to use with their engines and carriages the railway and works authorised to be constructed by "The Epsom and Leatherhead Railway Act, 1856," together with all stations, watering places, and approaches connected with the same railway. Such use being upon the terms and conditions stated in the said Bill, and upon the payment of such tolls and charges as the Bill may prescribe or as may be settled by arbitration. And the Bill will enable the said Companies, and the Epsom and Leatherhead Railway Company, to enter into agreements touching the matters aforesaid. For these purposes the Bill will alter and extend the powers of the last-mentioned Act, and, if necessary, will alter the tolls and charges authorized by that Act.

For the purposes aforesaid it is also intended to alter and enlarge the powers of the Act 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 283, entitled "An Act to consolidate and unite the London and Brighton, and the London and Croydon Railway Companies and the Undertakings belonging to them," and the other Acts relating to the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company.
