FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1858.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the Justice of the Peace for the county of SOUTHAMPTON, in quarter sessions assembled, on the eighteenth day of October last, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county of Southampton was insufficient, and praying that the town of Whitchurch may be a polling place for the said division, within which such place is situate:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the said town of Whitchurch shall be a polling place for the northern division of the county of SOUTHAMPTON; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to facilitate and arrange proceedings in the County Courts," it is enacted that if the council of any city or borough, or a majority of the ratepayers of any parish, within the limits of which a court of local jurisdiction other than a County Court is established, under the Act of the ninth and tenth Vic., cap ninety-five, or into the limits of which the jurisdiction of such court of local jurisdiction shall extend, shall petition the Queen in Council, that the jurisdiction of such court of local jurisdiction may be excluded in any causes whereof the County Court hath cognizance, and if notice of such petition shall be given two months before it is presented, by public advertisement in such city, borough or parish, and in some newspaper therein circulated, Her Majesty, by Order in Council, may declare such exclusion of the jurisdiction of such court of local jurisdiction throughout the whole or any part of the district assigned or which may hereafter be assigned to such County Court, if no petition against declaring such exclusion be presented, and no caveat be entered at the Council office.

"And whereas the council of the borough of NOTTINGHAM have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, setting forth that a Court of Record for the trial of civil actions arising within the said borough, (being a court of local jurisdiction) commonly called Her Majesty's COURT OF RECORD for the town of NOTTINGHAM, was then and had long been holden in and for the said borough; that a County Court, established under
