NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 81.) PACIFIC OCEAN—WASHINGTON.

Light at Shoalwater Bay.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that on and after the 1st of October, 1858, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Toke Point, the north point of the entrance of Shoalwater Bay, Washington.

The light is a fixed white light, varied by flashes, placed at an elevation of about 90 feet above the sea at high water, and should be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel at a distance of 15 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by Fresnel lenses, of the fourth order.

The lighthouse consists of a keeper's dwelling with a tower rising through the roof; it is coloured white and surmounted by an iron lantern painted red: and the height of the whole is 41 feet. It stands at about a mile from the extremity of the point, and in lat. $46^{\circ} 44' 11''$ N. long. $124^{\circ} 2' 24''$ W. of Greenwich according to the U. S. Coast Survey.

Light on Smith Island, Juan de Fuca Strait.

Also, that on and after the 18th of October, 1858, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Smith or Blunt Island, in the eastern portion of the strait of Juan de Fuca.

The light is a white revolving light, showing a bright face every $\frac{1}{2}$ minute, placed at an elevation of 93 feet above high water, and in clear weather should be visible from a distance of 16 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses, of the fourth order.

The lighthouse consists of a tower rising through the roof of a keeper's dwelling, both whitewashed, and surmounted by an iron lantern painted red. The whole is 41 feet in height. It stands on the highest part of the Island, in lat. $48^{\circ} 19' 11''$ N.; long. $122^{\circ} 50' 46''$ W. of Greenwich according to the U. S. Coast Survey.

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
4th December, 1858.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—America, West Coast, No. 2531; Pacific Ocean, Sheet 3, No. 2461; Strait of Juan de Fuca, No. 1911; Vancouver Island, No. 1917. Also, West Coast of America Lights List for February 1858, No. 58, 61.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 82.) SCOTLAND—WEST COAST.

Light on Rudha Mhail, Sound of Islay.

THE Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses have given notice, that on and after the 1st of January, 1859, a light will be exhibited from the lighthouse recently erected on Rudha Mhail, the northern extremity of the Island of Islay, and at the north entrance of the Sound of Islay.

The light will be a fixed light, showing red to the northward, from about N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. to about N.N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., and white in every other direction where not intercepted by the land. It will be placed at an elevation of about 147 feet above the sea at high water, and in clear weather should be visible from a distance of 15 miles.

The illuminating apparatus will be dioptric, or by lenses, and of the second order.

The light-tower is 113 feet in height, and with the keepers' houses will be painted white. It stands in about lat. $55^{\circ} 56' 6''$ N. long., $6^{\circ} 7' 30''$ West of Greenwich.

Directions.—Mariners are to observe, that the white light, when seen in any direction from the westward, is to be regarded as a warning light, and is not intended to encourage an attempt to pass between Islay and Oronsay, but to indicate their position so as to enable them to keep an offing. The red light, which will show in the direction of Oronsay and Colonsay, will indicate to vessels their approach to those islands when navigating the sound of Islay to the northward. The white light, when seen in any direction from the eastward, will be a leading light for the sound. [The bearings are Magnetic. Variation $26\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ West in 1858.]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

J. Steuart, Master of the Supreme Court.

Inserted pursuant to instructions from the Government of the Cape of Good Hope, by the Agents-General for Crown Colonies, No. 5, Cannon-row, Westminster.—14th December, 1858.

CONTRACT FOR NECESSARIES FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-Place, December 6, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 23rd instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles of

for the Royal Marines, as shall from time to time be demanded, for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning; viz.: Tin Mess Cans, Tin Mess Can Covers, Button Brushes, Button Sticks, Ornaments for Foraging Caps, Hand Towels, and Linen Bags.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of one and four.

The conditions of the revised contract may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner, the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

CONTRACT FOR SWINGING LAMPS AND MESS UTENSILS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 13, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Transport Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of Swinging Lamps, Knives, Forks, Spoons, Bowls, Plates, and Dishes, &c., &c., as shall from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles and the conditions of the revised contract may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

London Dock House,

December 7, 1858.

THE Court of Directors of the London Dock Company hereby give notice, that a Half-yearly General Meeting of the Proprietors will be held at this House, on Tuesday the 4th January next, for the purpose of declaring a Dividend on the Company's stock for the half year ending the 31st December (instant); and on other affairs.

The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely.

Thomas Chandler, Secretary.

The London Wine Company (Limited.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the resolution passed at an extraordinary general meeting of the above Company, held on the 1st day of November last, whereby it was resolved "that the London Wine Company (Limited) be wound up voluntarily," has been duly confirmed at a subsequent extraordinary general meeting of the said Company, held on the 2nd day of December instant, and that the affairs of the said Company are now being wound up accordingly by Mr. William Turquand, of No. 16, Tokenhouse-yard, London, Public Accountant, the Liquidator appointed for that purpose.—Dated this 9th day of December, 1858.

J. and J. H. Linklater and Hackwood, 7, Walbrook, London, Solicitors for the said Liquidator.

Freehold Property at Morley.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Hardwicks and Best, on Wednesday, the 22nd day of December instant, at six o'clock in the evening, at the house of Mr. John Raynes, the Dartmouth Arms Inn, in Morley aforesaid, in such lots as may be agreed upon at the time of sale, and subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced.

All that plot or parcel of land, with the five several messuages or dwelling-houses now standing and being thereon situate at a place called the Chapel Hill, in Morley, in the county of York, now in the respective occupations of Messrs. Henry Dixon, John Longley, Josiah Longley Todd, Thomas Gledhill, and C. S. Floyd, together with the appurtenances which said plot of land, including the site of the said buildings contains 354 superficial square yards or thereabouts. And also all that other plot or parcel of land, with the three several messuages or dwelling-houses now standing and being thereon situate, at a place called the Bottoms, in Morley aforesaid, one of which said messuages is now in the occupation of Edward Drives, and two are unoccupied, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging.

The above premises have been very recently erected. They are most substantially and conveniently built, and stand in an excellent situation. The messuages firstly described are well adapted for grocers' and other shops and offices, and are now used as such. The secondly-described messuages are admirably adapted for manufacturing purposes, being four stories high, and having two large workshops above the chambers of each house.

The occupiers will show the premises, and further particulars may be obtained, and a plan of the premises seen, on application at the offices of Messrs. Terry, Watson and Watson, Morley, near Leeds.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture, dated the 29th day of November, 1858, Joseph Shepherd, of King-street, Melksham, Wilts, Baker and Grocer, conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects to Benjamin Barton, of the Market-place, Melksham, Baker and Miller, and Giles Shepherd, of King-street, Melksham, Yeoman, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, upon trust, for the benefit of the creditors of the said Joseph Shepherd; and such indenture was executed by the said Joseph Shepherd and Giles Shepherd on the day of its date, and by the said Benjamin Barton on the 30th day of November, 1858; and the execution thereof by all the said parties is attested by Edw'd Francis Slack, of No. 1, Manvers-street, in the city of Bath, Attorney-at-Law, and by Cunnings Collins, Clerk to the undersigned, at whose offices the said deed now lies for creditors' signatures.—Dated this 9th day of December, 1858.

SLACK and SIMMONS, No. 1, Manvers-street, Bath, Solicitors to the Assignees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, dated the 9th day of December, 1858, made between John James Gascoine, of Mansfield, in the county of Nottingham, Cordwainer, of the first part; John Parker, of Mansfield aforesaid, Currier, and Thomas Cuthbert, also of Mansfield aforesaid, Factory Overlooker, trustees for themselves and the rest of the creditors of the said John James Gascoine of the second part; and the several other persons whose names and seals are thereto subscribed and set, being respectively creditors of the said John James Gascoine, of the third part; the said John James Gascoine did bargain, sell, assign, transfer, and set over unto the said trustees, their executors, administrators, and assigns, all and singular the personal estate and effects of him the said John James Gascoine, in trust for the equal benefit of such of the creditors of the said John James Gascoine, as should come in under the said indenture; and that the said indenture was executed by the said John James Gascoine, John Parker, and Thomas Cuthbert on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and was attested by, William John Neale, of Mansfield aforesaid, Solicitor, and Samuel Turner, Clerk to William Woodcock, of the same place, Solicitor; and that the same indenture now lies at the office of the said William Woodcock, in Mansfield aforesaid, for execution by the creditors of the said John James Gascoine.—Dated this 10th day of December, 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of Michael Byers and Thomas Byers, both of Monkwearmouth Shore, in the borough of Sunderland, in the county of Durham, Ship Builders, Ship Repairers, Rope Manufacturers, and Mast and Block Makers, and copartners in trade, under the firm of Michael Byers and Company, against whom a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy was filed on the 11th day of September, 1856, in the Newcastle-upon-Tyne District Court of Bankruptcy, whereupon they were duly adjudicated Bankrupts, will be held at the offices of us, the undersigned Anthony, John, and William Moore, No. 4, in Bridge-street, in the said borough of Sunderland, on Thursday, the 6th day of January, 1859, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of considering, determining, and agreeing to, or refusing a certain proposition made by Thomas Parker, of the said borough of Sunderland, Gentleman, for the compromise of the claim of Thomas Baker, Taylor Potts, William Nicholson the younger, William Doxford, and Robert Kirkaldy, the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, to a certain sum of £25,000, and the interest which has accrued thereon deposited with the Northumberland and Durham District Banking Company, in the joint names of the said assignees, and of the said Thomas Parker, and for the acceptance of a reasonable part of such sum and interest by way of composition, and in full discharge and acquittance of all claims thereto, by the said assignees representing the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, and for the purpose of considering and determining the propriety in consideration of the payment of such composition, of assigning over, transferring, and releasing, to the said Thomas Parker, all claim of the said assignees representing the estate and effects of the said bankrupt to the said sum of £2,500, and the interest thereon, and for the purpose of considering and determining the propriety in consideration of such payment, of authorizing the said assignees to enter into, and execute mutual releases with the said Thomas Parker, in respect of the said sum of £2,500, and interest, and of all matters in dispute between him the said Thomas Parker, and the said assignees, representing the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, and arising out of a certain indenture of mortgage, bearing date the 14th day of August, 1856, and made between the said bankrupts of the one part, and the said Thomas Parker of the other part, whereby certain of the said bankrupts' estate and effects was assigned to the said Thomas Parker. And in case the payment of the proposed composition by the said Thomas Parker shall not at such meeting be assented to by the creditors then and there assembled, or represented, then for the further purpose of considering and determining the propriety of authorizing the said assignees to institute proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise, for determining and putting an end to, and obtaining a judicial decision on the subject of the differences and disputes between the said assignees representing the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, and the said Thomas Parker, in reference to the said sum of £2,500, and the interest thereon, and the disputes arising out of the said indenture of the 14th day of August, 1856.—Dated this 11th day of December, 1858.
