93rd Regiment ...	Private D. Mackay Date of Act of Bravery, 16th November, 1857	For great personal gallantry in capturing an enemy's colour after a most obstinate resistance, at the Secundra Bagh, Lucknow, on the 16th of November, 1857. He was severely wounded afterwards at the capture of the Shah Nujiff. Elected by the private soldiers of the Regiment.
93rd Regiment ...	Private P. Grant Date of Act of Bravery, 16th November, 1857	For great personal gallantry, on the 16th of November, 1857, at the Secundra Bagh, in killing five of the enemy with one of their own swords, who were attempting to follow Lieutenant-Colonel Ewart, when that officer was carrying away a colour which he had captured. Elected by the private soldiers of the Regiment.
93rd Regiment ...	Lieutenant and Adjutant, (now Captain) William McBean Date of Act of Bravery, 11th March, 1858	For distinguished personal bravery in killing eleven of the enemy with his own hand in the main breach of the Begum Bagh at Lucknow, on the 11th March, 1858.
Rifle Brigade, 2nd Battalion ...	Captain (now Brevet-Major) Henry Wilmot Corporal W. Nash Private David Hawkes Date of Act of Bravery, 11th March, 1858	For conspicuous gallantry at Lucknow on the 11th March, 1858. Captain Wilmot's Company was engaged with a large body of the enemy, near the Iron Bridge. That officer found himself at the end of a street with only four of his men, opposed to a considerable body. One of the four was shot through both legs, and became utterly helpless: the two men lifted him up, and although Private Hawkes was severely wounded, he carried him for a considerable distance, exposed to the fire of the enemy, Captain Wilmot firing with the men's rifles, and covering the retreat of the party. Despatch of Brigadier-General Walpole, C.B., dated 20th of March, 1858.
