Whitehall, January 17, 1859.

The following Warrant has been issued by the Queen, under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Warrant of the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the first year of Our reign, We commanded that certain Forms of Prayer and Service made for the Fifth of November, the Thirtieth of January, and the Twenty-ninth of May, should be forthwith printed and published and annexed to the Book of Common Prayer and Liturgy of the United Church of England and Ireland, to be used yearly on the said days in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chapels, in all Chapels of Colleges and Halls within Our Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin, and of Our Colleges of Eton and Winchester, and in all Parish Churches and Chapels within those parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland.

And whereas in the last session of Parliament, Addresses were presented to Us by both Houses of Parliament, praying Us to take into Our consideration Our Proclamation in relation to the said Forms of Prayer and Service made for the Fifth day of November, the Thirtieth day of January, and the Twenty-ninth day of May, with a view to their discontinuance.

And whereas We have taken into Our consideration the subject of the said Addresses, and, after due deliberation, We have resolved that the use of the said Forms of Prayer and Service shall be discontinued.

Now, therefore, Our will and pleasure is, that so much of Our said Royal Warrant of the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the first year of Our reign as is hereinbefore recited, be revoked, and that the use of the said Forms of Prayer and Service made for the Fifth of November, the Thirtieth of January, and the Twenty-ninth of May, be henceforth discontinued in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chapels, in all Chapels of Colleges and Halls within Our Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin, and of Our Colleges of Eton and Winchester, and in all Parish Churches and Chapels within the parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, and that the said Forms of Prayer and Service be not henceforth printed and published with, or annexed to, the Book of Common Prayer and Liturgy of the United Church of England and Ireland.

Given at Our Court, at Saint James's, the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the twenty-second year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,
S. H. WALPOLE.

THE following Addresses to the Queen, on the occasion of the assumption of the direct Government of India by Her Majesty, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned, President and Members of the Bombay Association, being your Majesty's faithful Hindoo, Mahomedan, and Parsee subjects, natives of the Bombay Presidency, duly impressed with the importance of the recent change effected in the Government of British India, whereby your Majesty has assumed the government of the territories in India, heretofore administered by the Honourable East India Company, beg, as dutiful subjects, to avail ourselves of the present auspicious occasion, to convey to your Majesty, with sentiments of the deepest respect and humility, the expression of our sincere allegiance, warm attachment, and dutiful devotion.

Fully impressed as we are with the conviction, that the due exercise and strict observance of the same principles of moderation, impartiality, justice, liberality, and toleration, will mark your Majesty's government of the Indian Empire, as have heretofore characterized your Majesty's Government in every other part of your Majesty's dominions, and animated as we are with lively feelings of gratitude and joy, we hail with unfeigned delight, the auspicious change of administration, and beg respectfully to tender to your Majesty, the humble tribute of our hearty congratulation, on your Majesty's assumption of your Royal supremacy over this vast empire, firmly hoping, as we do, that the important change of administration which has thus been inaugurated, may tend to establish your Majesty's rule on a firm and lasting basis, and secure the happiness of your Majesty's Indian subjects.

With sincere and earnest prayers for the welfare of your Majesty, of the Prince your illustrious Consort, and your Royal Family, as well as for the speedy restoration of peace and tranquillity in the disturbed provinces of British India, and for a long continuance of peace and prosperity in your Majesty's dominions,

We, with the profoundest respect, subscribe ourselves, your Majesty's most humble and devoted subjects.

Bombay, November 8, 1858.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Indian mail has brought to us from home the glad tidings proclaimed throughout India on the 1st of November. We certainly did look forward to a Royal Proclamation, worthy of the supreme ruler of the British nation,—a proclamation full of mercy for the past and hope for the future, but this far exceeds our utmost expectations. It is not only an amnesty, but is, and must ever be, regarded as the great charter of India's liberty. Hitherto we have been permitted to see you only as through a glass darkly; we now behold the sun in Her meridian glory, intercepted by no cloud. Her beams, no longer refracted, reach us at once, full of light and life. Every Indian subject, capable of reflection, must be impressed with the great truth, so beautifully expressed in the Royal Proclamation, that "in our prosperity will be your strength, in our contentment your security, and in our gratitude your best reward."

We deeply, deeply regret that we could not, by reason of our absence from Madras, mingle, on that eventful day, our congratulations and prayers with those of our fellow countrymen, but we are consoled when we reflect, that our presence here enables us to prostrate ourselves at the very foot of the British Throne, and there, in person, renew our fidelity and allegiance to your Majesty.

We should, indeed, be unworthy members of the illustrious House of Arcot and the Carnatic if we lost one moment in hesitation, if we did not (as we now do with our whole heart and strength) pledge ourselves to aid in fulfilling to the utmost measure of our humble abilities, the gracious will and pleasure of your Majesty as set forth in the Royal Proclamation; and lastly, permit us to join in the prayer that "the God of all power may grant to your Majesty and to those in authority under you, strength to carry out those your wishes for the good of your people."

We, with the profoundest respect, subscribe ourselves,

*Hydur Jung.
Hofey Sudrool Islam Khan.*

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's native Indian subjects residing in the town and island of Bombay, duly considering the importance of the modification introduced into the Government of British India, whereby the direct sovereignty of these territories, has devolved upon your Majesty, desire on this auspicious occasion, to approach your Majesty's Throne with an expression of our sincere loyalty, attachment, and devotion.

Firmly assured as we are, that the great principles of moderation, impartiality and justice, characteristic of your Majesty's Government in all parts of the British Empire, will henceforth, as ever, be scrupulously recognized; we venture to offer to your Majesty our humble and hearty congratulations on the assumption of your Royal Supremacy over this vast country, and we beg leave at the same time to express our cordial hope, that the important change of administration which has thus been inaugurated, may have the effect of placing your Majesty's rule in India, on a basis still more secure than that upon which it has rested for so many years.

With earnest prayers for the welfare of your Majesty, of the Prince, your illustrious Consort, and of your Royal Family, as well as for the speedy restoration of tranquillity in the disturbed provinces of British India, and for a long continuance of peace and prosperity in your Majesty's dominions,

We, with the profoundest respect, subscribe ourselves, your Majesty's most dutiful, humble, and devoted servants,

*Jamsetje Jejeebhoy,

Bombay, 18th November, 1858.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's native subjects, residents in the town and city of Poona, in the presidency of Bombay, rightly estimating the great change in respect to the government of British India, which has lately been made known to us by Royal Proclamation, venture, on an occasion like the present, to offer to your Majesty, this humble tribute expressive of our fidelity, regard, and respectful esteem.

We rejoice in the assurance given in your Majesty's gracious Proclamation to the princes, the chiefs, and the people of India, that your Majesty's rule in this country will be marked by those important principles of equity and justice which form the essential elements of every good government, and which have always more particularly distinguished your Majesty's sway in every dependency of the British dominions.

Reposing the fullest confidence in the strict maintenance of these most important features of your Majesty's Proclamation, we humbly lay before your Majesty this sincere expression of our hope that the assumption of your direct sovereignty over British India, may tend to strengthen and confirm British power in this vast empire, and that thus the social advancement of your Majesty's native Indian subjects may be secured.

With many heartfelt and devout wishes for the well being of your Majesty, of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, and of your illustrious family; praying also that peace may be soon restored throughout the unsettled districts of this land, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign in Great Britain and its numerous dependencies, over a prosperous, contented, and happy people;

We remain, with respect, your Majesty's most humble and dutiful subjects.

Pestonjee Sorabjee,
and others.

Poona, 20th November, 1858.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Colonies and Dependencies thereof, in Europe, Asia, Africa, America, and Australasia.

WE, your Majesty's devoted and loyal subjects, citizens of the capital of British India, humbly approach your Majesty, to express our heartfelt congratulations on your assuming the government of this Great Empire, and creating a Viceroy for its rule. Animated by affectionate and grateful attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, we rejoice at this extension of your authority over these fertile and populous regions.

We anticipate with confidence, under the benignant influence of your Majesty's Government, the progress of this country in material wealth, and in moral and intellectual enlightenment, and the fulfilment of your Majesty's gracious desire, for the restoration, under the blessing of Providence, of internal tranquillity, the growth of peaceful industry, the promotion of works of public utility and improvement, and an administration of Government for the benefit of all your Majesty's subjects in these realms. Most devoutly do we hope that the wish so benevolently proclaimed by your Majesty may be realized, that the prosperity of this people may be your strength, their contentment your security, and their gratitude your best reward.

J. W. Colville,
and others.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, the Madras Chamber of Commerce, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, approach your Throne with the most respectful, yet sincere and hearty expression of our feelings of satisfaction, at your Majesty having been pleased to assume the direct Government of your East Indian dominions.

We hail this auspicious event as the promise to this great country of an era of enlightenment and prosperity.

We pray Almighty God, so to aid your Majesty with his Divine Counsels, that your Government of your Indian Empire may be distinguished by the blessings of peace, and by the advance of civilization.

On behalf of the Chamber,

John Danl. Agnew,
Chairman.

Madras, 14th October, 1858.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA, QUEEN of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

Madam,

ON the 31st of August, the British Empire in the East passed under the direct authority of your Most Gracious Majesty. The benign rule of your Majesty now extends also to India, and its moral and physical effects will soon be felt throughout the land, especially by rendering justice attainable to all, rich and poor, and by developing the boundless natural resources of this great empire. I hail the event as the commencement of a new era in the history of India, and as the forerunner of a mighty change, which opens a vision of a bright future. Wherever the banner of your Majesty is unfurled, industry, arts, and science follow in its wake, and carry with them prosperity, civilization, and education, those inestimable blessings which everywhere so largely contribute to the happiness of your Majesty's faithful subjects, and add fresh stability to the throne.

As the descendant of one of the oldest ruling families of Hindostan, and the acknowledged faithful ally of the British Government, I desire permission to be one of the first to lay this, my humble tribute of loyalty, respect, and affection, at the foot of the throne of your Most Gracious Majesty. May the God of mankind shower his choicest blessings upon your Majesty and Family; and that long life, health, and happiness may be the portion of the mighty Sovereign of Great Britain, is the fervent and sincere prayer of, Madam, your Majesty's most humble and faithful servant and subject.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said new parish of West Lavington is at present ill endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said new parish.

"And whereas the Reverend James Currie, Clerk, the present incumbent of the said new parish, is willing to augment the endowment of the same by conveying to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, in trust for the benefit of the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish, a certain messuage and premises situate within the limits of the said new parish, and now inhabited by the said James Currie, the estimated annual value of which premises is forty-two pounds, upon condition that the patronage of the said new parish should be transferred, as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of a notice given to us the said Commissioners, under the hand of the treasurer for the time being, of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, certifying that such conveyance of the said house and premises as is hereinbefore mentioned and contemplated, has been duly made to and accepted by the said Governors, the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of West Lavington, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto and to the church thereof, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly Gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be assigned and transferred from the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, and his successors in the said see, and become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by, the Right Reverend Samuel Wilberforce, now Bishop of Oxford, and by the patron for the time being of the said rectory of Wool Lavington for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Chichester.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property, formerly belonging to the See of Lichfield, and now vested in us.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth-day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Prebendary of the prebend of Wiveliscomb in the cathedral church of Wells, for the property belonging to such prebend.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said prebend will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required.

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Richard a'Court Beadon, the present prebendary of the said prebend, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Richard a'Court Beadon, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) now belonging to the said Prebend of Wiveliscomb as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Richard a'Court Beadon to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Richard a'Court Beadon, the sum of seven thousand pounds sterling; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall since the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Richard a'Court Beadon, or any of his predecessors prebendaries of the said prebend.
