THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 8th February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, the Captain Superintendent will put up to sale, in Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, several lots of

VICTUALLING, MEDICAL, AND TRANSPORT STORES,
SEAMEN'S AND MARINE CLOTHING,
BEDDING, &c., &c.,

Consisting of Salt Beef and Pork, Biscuit, Staves, Implements, Tobacco, Flushing and Blue Knitted Jackets, Shirts, Blankets, Bed Rugs, &c., &c., &c., all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, January 20, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 3rd February next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Rum, 50,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR TEA, PEPPER AND VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for
Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, January 20, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 7th February next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Tea, 50,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper, 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tea and pepper to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Samples of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the tea (not less than 2 lbs. from the Bonded Warehouse), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Samples of the vinegar, which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted.

The vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination, and any portion of the quantity required may be tendered for, but not less than one quart must be sent as a sample.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefore, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR CANDLES.

Department of the Comptroller for
Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, January 21, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 3rd February next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into the Royal Marine Barracks at Woolwich and Chatham, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and, together with samples, at the office of the Barrack Master at Woolwich and Chatham.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above office, and signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR MATERIALS FOR SEAMEN'S CLOTHING.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, January 25, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 10th February next, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Whited Brown Linen Thread, 1,400 lbs.; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

White Dutch Linen Tape ($\frac{1}{2}$ -inch), 15,000 pieces of 18 yards each; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

White Dutch Linen Tape (narrow), 65,000 pieces of $8\frac{1}{2}$ yards each; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sewing Cotton (fine), 250 lbs.; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

White Metal Buttons (4 hole), 6,000 gross; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Horn Buttons, 1,700 gross; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Blue Worsted Tape (indigo dyed), 6,000, pieces of 20 yards each; one half to be delivered in two months, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, and at the Victualling Yards, at Gosport and Plymouth.

Tenders will be admitted for any portion of the above quantities.

Samples of the articles may be seen at the said Office between the hours of ten and two only, and also at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.
