FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1859.

Buckingham-Palace, February 3, 1859.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart., C.B., Deputy Great Chamberlain (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), and the Treasurer of the Household, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order; —the sword of state was borne by the Earl of Derby, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Duke of Brandon.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness The Prince Consort on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esq., Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In recurring, at the usual season, to the advice of my Parliament, I am happy to think that, in the internal state of the country, there is nothing to excite disquietude, and much to call for satisfaction and thankfulness. Pauperism and crime have considerably diminished during the past year, and a spirit of general contentment prevails.

The blessing of the Almighty on the valour of my troops in India, and on the skill of their commanders, has enabled me to inflict signal chastisement upon those who are still in arms against my authority, whenever they have ventured to encounter my forces ; and I trust that, at no distant period, I may be able to announce to you the complete pacification of that great empire, and to devote my attention to the improvement of its condition, and to the obliteration of all traces of the present unhappy conflict.

On assuming, by your advice, the direct government of that portion of my dominions, I deemed it proper to make known by proclamation the principles by which it was my intention to be guided, and the clemency which I was disposed to show towards those who might have been seduced into revolt, but who might be willing to return to their allegiance. I have directed that a copy of that proclamation should be laid before you.

I receive from all Foreign Powers assurances of their friendly feelings. To cultivate and confirm those feelings, to maintain inviolate the faith of public treaties, and to contribute, as far as my influence can extend, to the preservation of the general peace, are the objects of my unceasing solicitude.

I have concluded, with the sovereigns who were parties to the Treaty of Paris of 1856, a convention relative to the organization of the Principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia. Those Ruman provinces are now proceeding to establish, under its provisions, their new form of government.

A Treaty of Commerce which I have concluded with the Emperor of Russia, and which will be laid before you, is a satisfactory indication of the complete re-establishment of those amicable relations which, until their late unfortunate interruption, had long subsisted between us, to the mutual advantage of our respective dominions.

The measures which, in concert with my Ally the Emperor of the French, I thought it necessary to take upon the coast of China, have resulted in a treaty, by which further effusion of blood has been prevented, and which holds out the prospect of greatly increased intercourse with that extensive and densely peopled empire.

Another treaty into which I have entered with the Emperor of Japan opens a fresh field for commercial enterprise in a populous and highly civilized country, which has hitherto been jealously guarded against the intrusion of foreigners. As soon as the ratifications of these treaties shall have been exchanged, they will be laid before you.

I have great satisfaction in announcing to you that the Emperor of the French has abolished a system of negro emigration from the East Coast of Africa, against which, as unavoidably tending, however guarded, to the encouragement of the slave trade, my Government has never ceased to address to His Imperial Majesty its most earnest but friendly representations.

This wise act on the part of His Imperial Majesty induces me to hope that negotiations, now in progress at Paris, may tend to the total abandonment of the system, and to the substitution of a duly regulated supply of substantially free labour.

The state of the Republic of Mexico, distracted by civil war, has induced me to carry forbearance to its utmost limits, in regard to wrongs and indignities to which British residents have been subjected at the hands of the two contending parties. They have at length been carried to such an extent that I have been compelled to give instructions to the Commander of my Naval Forces in those seas to demand, and if necessary to enforce, due reparation.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed that the estimates of the ensuing year shall be submitted to you. They have been framed with a due regard to economy, and to the efficiency of the public service.

The universal introduction of steam power into naval warfare will render necessary a temporary increase of expenditure in providing for the reconstruction of the British Navy; but I am persuaded that you will cheerfully vote whatever sums you may find to be requisite for an object of such vital importance as the maintenance of the maritime power of the country.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Your labours have, in recent sessions, been usefully directed to various measures of legal and social improvement. In the belief that further measures of a similar character may be wisely and beneficially introduced, I have desired that Bills may be submitted to you, without delay, for assimilating and amending the laws relating to bankruptcy and insolvency; for bringing together into one set of statutes, in a classified form, and with such modifications as experience will suggest to you, the laws relating to crimes and offences in England and Ireland; for enabling the owners of land in England to obtain for themselves an indefeasible title to their estates and interests, and for registering such titles with simplicity and security.

Your attention will be called to the state of the laws which regulate the representation of the people in Parliament, and I cannot doubt but that you will give to this great subject a degree of calm and impartial consideration proportioned to the magnitude of the interests involved in the result of your discussions.

These and other propositions for the amendment of the laws which will be brought under your notice as the progress of public business may permit, I commend to the exercise of your deliberate judgment; and I earnestly pray that your counsels may be so guided as to ensure the stability of the throne, the maintenance and improvement of our institutions, and the general welfare and happiness of my people.

By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS, in and by the Treaty of Peace, Friendship, and Commerce, agreed upon and concluded between Us and His Majesty the Tycoon of Japan, and signed on the twenty-sixth day of August last, it is (amongst other things) stipulated and agreed, that there shall be perpetual peace and friendship between Us and His said Majesty; that certain Ports and Towns therein mentioned, in the Dominions of His said Majesty, shall be opened to British Subjects at the respective dates therein also mentioned (the earliest of such dates, as to the Ports of Hakodadi, and Kanagawa, and Nagasaki, being the First day of July, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine); and it is thereby further stipulated, that the Articles for the regulation of Trade, which are appended to the said Treaty, shall be considered as forming a part of the same, and shall be equally binding on both the contracting parties to the said Treaty, and on their subjects; AND WHEREAS, until the Ratification of the said Treaty (of which due notice will be given), the existing laws and regulations of Japan remain in full force; and British subjects are thereby interdicted, under severe penalties, from all trade and intercourse with Japan, otherwise than in strict accordance with such laws and regulations; AND WHEREAS We have been given to understand, that divers persons, being British subjects, have despatched, or are preparing to despatch, to Japan certain ships and vessels, which ships and vessels are appointed or intended to proceed to, and to trade, or endeavour to trade with, and to hold intercourse with, Japan, contrary to, and in violation of, the existing laws and regulations of Japan, and before the Ratification of the said Treaty, and otherwise, in contravention of the said Treaty, if the same shall be hereafter ratified; AND WHEREAS all attempts to violate the said laws and regulations before the Ratification of the said Treaty, and all attempts to contravene or violate the stipulations thereof, after its Ratification, will tend seriously to frustrate and will greatly endanger the success of Our attempts to establish and maintain friendly relations, and promote commercial intercourse with His said Majesty the Tycoon of Japan, and His subjects, and will be in derogation of the laws and usage of nations, and will prove highly prejudicial to Our dignity and good faith, no less than to the rights and interests of all Our loving subjects, and will tend to the perpetration of serious crimes and offences, and will be of great public danger and detriment: WE HAVE THEREFORE thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby WARNING all Our loving subjects, that all such enterprises and practices hereinbefore mentioned, are and will be carried on and committed in violation of the laws of Japan, and in contravention of the provisions of the said Treaty, if and when the same shall be ratified, and that We will not in any manner whatsoever interfere to prevent the forfeiture of any ships, or vessels, or goods, which may be employed in such enterprises or practices, or the infliction of pecuniary penalties or fines upon any persons engaged therein; and We do hereby further make known to all Our loving subjects, that instructions have been given to the Commanders of Our Ships of War in the ports of Japan, and in the waters near the same, to assist and support by all lawful means, His said Majesty the Tycoon of Japan and His Government, in preventing any violation, evasion, or contravention by British subjects, of the laws of Japan, or of the provisions of the said Treaty, or of the Articles for the Regulation of Trade appended thereto, if and when the same shall be ratified, and to prevent and hinder, by all lawful means, any attempt whatsoever by British subjects to violate or evade, in any manner whatsoever, the laws of Japan, within any of the dominions of His said Majesty the Tycoon of Japan, or to contravene, in any manner whatsoever, any of the provisions of the said Treaty, or of the said Articles; if and when the same shall be ratified.

Given at Our Court, at Buckingham Palace, this second day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and in the twenty-second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Major-General Roberts, Commanding Rajpootana Field Force, to the Quartermaster-General of the Army.

*Camp Koorj,
August 17, 1858.*

SIR,

No. 655.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a report by Lieutenant Colonel Holmes, 12th Native Infantry, whom I sent on the 8th ultimo, from the further side of Tonk, to pursue the rebels.

2. I trust that the perseverance which Colonel Holmes displayed, and the patient endurance by the troops, forced marches for 340 miles, partly during heat so intense that I lost 22 Europeans in three days; by sunstroke alone, when marching in the early morning, and partly during rains, said to be heavier than any which have been known in Rajpootana, will meet with the approval of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

3. I beg to bring to notice, that these men had already gone 135 miles with me, when we marched to save Jeypore, and that, on rejoining, after one day's halt, they accompanied me during the three forced marches, which enabled me on the fourth day (August 14th) to close with the rebels on the Bunnass.

I have, &c.,

H. G. ROBERTS, Major-General,
Commanding Rajpootana Field Force.

No. 6.

Lieutenant-Colonel Holmes to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Rajpootana Field Force.

SIR,

*Camp, Moe,
August 16, 1858.*

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Major-General commanding Rajpootana Field Force, the operations of the Light

Field Detachment* which he did me the honour to place under my command, in division orders of the 8th ultimo. At 9 P.M. of the 8th ultimo, the column marched on Seelah, (distant about 18 miles,) which I reached about 6 A.M. on the 9th. On the march, the sound of cannonading at Tonk was heard, and, on arrival, reports were brought of the rebel force being in possession of the town of Tonk.

Under instructions from head-quarters, I moved on the morning of the 10th to the ford of the Bunnass river, at Kakray. Here I received information that the rebels, having knowledge of the approach of the British Force, abandoned Tonk and fled in the direction of Bunneetah, carrying off 4 guns and 4 tumbrils, besides spare ammunition belonging to the Nawab of Tonk.

On the 12th I marched to Ghans (distant 12 miles). Reports of the rebels' movements were conflicting. Some said they were at Bunneetah; others at Allyghur Rampoor; and others again, that their force, said to amount to 20,000 men, were divided between the two places above-named.

On the 13th I marched to Soontallah, where, hearing that the enemy were still on my left flank, I halted. In the evening I received information that the whole rebel force was at Koostulah and Mahdapore, trying to obtain possession of the latter place.

At midnight I continued my march for Koostulah, (distant about 18 miles); at a village about 4 miles from Koostulah, I heard that the rebels were encamped at Koostulah. Giving time for the ammunition to close up, and directing the baggage to remain at the village (Poochalla), I moved forward with the hope of bringing the enemy into action.

On our cavalry skirmishers approaching Koostulah, parties of horse and foot of the enemy were seen in flight through the ravines up to the hills. In that direction the Belooch Horse pursued, but were not successful in killing more than four men, one said to be a Jemadar of the Kotah Contingent, as also three men of that corps. Several prisoners were made that day, but they were followers of the rebels, and not worth detaining, and they were, after examination, dismissed.

A large body of the enemy it would appear had gone off to Ghodee and Pachowlass, the first thing in the morning or the night before; and, as the force under my command had made a long march, our baggage and commissariat behind, and bodies of the enemy on the hills to the left of our route, and a column of them said to be on our left rear, I ordered a halt, sending the Belooch Horse to reconnoitre; they came upon one abandoned tumbril.

A large part of my baggage did not come up till late in the evening and some not until the next morning, just as I was about to resume my march.

During the night, numerous camp fires could be seen along the ridge of the hills to our left front and left rear, and at 10 o'clock P.M., I received information from a christian officer (whose name I forget) commanding the Nagur Battalion, in Meh-dapore, that his Battalion had gone over to the enemy, and intended, in concert with the rebels on the hills, to attack my camp during the night; this obliged me to wait till daybreak, before I could attempt any further advance.

On the morning of the 14th, I marched to Pachowlass, starting at 7 o'clock, and was obliged to halt there, the Europeans being much exhausted with the heat.

The march to Koostulah forced many of the rebels up the hills, and these I believe were never able to rejoin their main body.

Before me in flight remained the rebel leaders, Tantia Topce, Rao Sahib, the Nawab of Banda, Raheem Ali and others, two Regiments of Sepoys (Scindiah's), some hundreds of Bengal mutineers, 5th and 7th Regiments of Irregular Cavalry, and some 3,000, or 4,000 other horsemen; in all 10,000 or 12,000 men; no accounts that I could obtain made them less.

On the morning of the 15th ultimo, I marched to Goolee, 6 miles, and in the evening to Augora, 6 more. The country becoming very difficult from jungle, ravines and nullahs, I was obliged to move during daylight.

On the 16th I halted, in consequence of requiring supplies of flour for the troops, and extra carriage, and grain, and grass for the horses, all supplies on the line of march having been eaten up by the enemy.

On the 17th I moved to Pontara, 13 miles distant, through a strong pass, and entered a valley formed by hills on our right, and the Mey river on our left; all this valley to Kutkur is full of ravines and jungle, and would be unsafe for cavalry and artillery to traverse without the protection of infantry.

Information was brought that the enemy was halted on the Mey river in front of Kutkur, unable to pass the river.

At daylight on the 18th I moved on Kutkur (distant about 15 miles); on arrival I heard that the rebels had mostly passed the ford the day before, and the rear guard at daylight, but I am disposed to think that all had passed the day before. On this march one more tumbril was found abandoned, and was made over to the Tonk horsemen accompanying me; and some gun ammunition was strewn along the road.

The ford of the river was deep and it took all that day, and a greater part of the night, to pass the troops and baggage over.

On the 19th, hearing that the rebels were entrenching at Matoonda, determined to make a stand at 2½ P.M. I moved on Nowagaum (distant 6 miles); on arrival, being informed that they had moved to Boondee, I halted for the night, and marched at early dawn to Boondee, on the 20th ultimo.

At Boondee on the 20th, I obtained information that the rebels had marched the day before to Neem Keekera, and that they were moving through the Keena Pass, and intended marching upon Johaypore.

The road through the Keena Pass was described as difficult in the extreme, and supplies not procurable. I therefore decided on leaving the direct line of pursuit, and, by marching through the Boondee Pass to Johaypore, if I did not meet the enemy there, to move on in pursuit, in the direction of Mundel Gurh, and intercept them between the river Bunnass and the hill country which they were traversing.

On the 21st I marched to Nowagaum and encamped on the banks of the Mey. This river, which on my arrival was ankle deep, rose most rapidly, and, within an hour after, was totally impassable, and it was not until the morning of the * Strength of the Light Field Detachment.—2nd Troop Horse Artillery, Captain Petrie, commanding; Her Majesty's 8th K. R. I. Hussars, Lieutenant-Colonel Naylor, commanding, 8 officers, 139 sabres; 1st Bombay Lancers, Captain Dennis, commanding, 3 European officers, 5 Native officers, 115 sabres; Her Majesty's 72nd Highlanders, Major Roske, commanding, 10 officers, 13 sergeants, 5 drummers, 199 rank and file; 12th Regiment Native Infantry, Lieutenant-Colonel Holmes, commanding, 8 European officers, 14 Native officers, 31 Havildars, 11 drummers, 422 rank and file; and Belooch Horse, Lieutenant Macauley, commanding, 300 sabres.

25th, that I was enabled to cross the column over to the village of Manglee.

On the morning of the 26th I commenced my march for Etonda. The advance guard of cavalry and detachment 72nd Highlanders crossed a nullah a short way in my front, and the artillery was about to follow, when the water rose so rapidly that no further progress could be made, and it was with difficulty that I could recross that portion of the force which had already passed over. After doing so, the river to my rear and the nullah to my front rose to so great a height, that I was obliged to halt till the 30th instant.

During the halt it was with the utmost difficulty that I could obtain supplies, and it was only by the construction of rafts, and by the employment of some men of the 12th Regiment Native Infantry (expert swimmers), that I was enabled to procure supplies for the subsistence of the troops, and horses of the artillery and cavalry. During this protracted delay, I was receiving intelligence of the rebels being at Keera, Jellodra, Maunpoora, Hora and Mundelgurh.

On the 31st at 10 A.M. the nullah becoming fordable, I crossed the force over, encamped the cavalry and infantry just across the nullah.

On the 1st August at 3 P.M. I marched to Sarspoora, distant 4 miles, the road exceedingly deep in mud.

On the 2nd August, at 2½ I marched to Tookra, distant 5 miles; the road most difficult for artillery, and it was with the greatest exertions that the Troop Horse Artillery reached the encamping ground, between 7 and 8 o'clock; and part of the baggage, sick, carts, &c., did not arrive till the next morning.

On the 3rd August I was obliged to halt as the road ahead which I had directed to be examined, was pronounced impracticable.

On the 4th August, having discovered another route, I marched to Johaypore, where I received information of the Rebels being at Mundelgurh.

It was my intention to have resumed my march on the 5th, but I was prevented in consequence of the want of carriage with the force, great numbers of camels having died on the march from Indagurh to Boondee, and during the eleven days' detention at Nowagaum and Manglee, as also on the march to Johaypore.

On the morning of the 6th I marched to Kujooru, where information was brought that the rebels were crossing the Bunnass river at the Turbanee ford, and intended to march to Bheelwara.

On the morning of the 7th I marched to Kurhola. The Bunnass river was 4 or 5 miles in front, and said to be impracticable, excepting where the rebels had crossed, and it was not till after many hours' search, and till too late to make any further movement, that the Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, Captain Heathcote, was able to discover one.

At 4 A.M. on the morning of the 8th, I moved on the ford, which was broad and upwards of three feet deep; and the passage of troops and baggage was not effected till nearly 5 o'clock.

About 2 o'clock P.M. I received intimation from the Assistant Quartermaster-General, that the General's camp was at Sanganeer, and that the rebels were encamped at Bheelwara. I immediately made arrangements to march on Bheelwara as soon as the men had dined.

The troops had fallen in for the march at 6½ P.M.; but, not being furnished with proper guides, the march was not commenced till 9½ o'clock. The troops marched all night, and between 2 and 3 o'clock P.M., on the 9th instant, reached Bheelwara, having marched about 35 miles, when I had the gratification of hearing of the successful action that had been fought the evening before.

From the date of my leaving head-quarters camp, it had been my earnest endeavour to pursue as rapidly as possible, but the difficulties of the road were great, and the heat of the weather in the first instance told upon the Europeans, and afterwards the heavy rains impeded the progress of the artillery and baggage, and for eleven days the force was obliged to halt at the villages of Nowagaum and Manglee, in consequence of the flooded state of the Mey river, and a swollen stream in front of Manglee; yet in spite of these difficulties, added to the loss of a large number of our baggage camels, the troops had marched upwards of 240 miles from the date of leaving, till joining the head-quarters-camp; and though I was unable to overtake the rebels, yet they were so constantly kept on the move, that they were prevented from plundering many villages and towns, which, but for the fear of being overtaken, they would have done.

The conduct of the troops was admirable; they met every difficulty and privation with the utmost cheerfulness; and, from the commanding officers of the different detachments of the force, I have received the most cordial support.

A native gentleman, Moulvee Mehomed Moheedeem, Vakeel of Jeypore, who accompanied me through the pursuit, rendered me so much good service (in procuring information, carriage, supplies, &c.) that I beg strongly to recommend him to the Major-General's consideration.

I have, &c.,

J. HOLMES, Brevet-Lieutenant-Colonel,
12th Regiment Native Infantry, late in command Light Field Detachment.

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to transmit, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, the accompanying despatch from Major-General Michel, C.B., detailing further successful operations against the rebels in Malwa.

The arrangements made by the Major-General, and the conduct of his troops, European and native, appear to his Excellency to deserve much commendation, as resulting in the defeat of the enemy, with a very trifling loss on our side; and Sir Henry Somerset much regrets that circumstances deprived the Major-General of the valuable services of the main body of his cavalry, who could have rendered the discomfiture of the enemy complete.

I am to convey the expression of his Excellency's hope, that the favourable notice of Government will be accorded to the officers prominently brought to notice by the Major-General.

No. 10.

The Major-General Commanding Malwa Division to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Mungrowlee, October 10, 1858.

SIR,

No. 323.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that from a report I received during the night of the 8th, whilst at Bhaderpore, I had reason to believe that the rebels had reached, late that night, a village two coss from Mungrowlee; en route from Chandairee. I consequently marched with force as per margin, before daylight.*

2. On reaching Mungrowlee, I was informed by scouts well in advance, that the enemy was seen advancing about two miles from Mungrowlee, their number about 5000.

3. We found the advance of the enemy, about 1000 strong, close to the village of Barulpore. A few rounds of shell drove this force back on the main body, who were strongly posted at the elevated village of Shajehan Mhow.† The whole country round the village was covered with high scrubby jungle, in which infantry could not see the enemy until quite close to them; our force then advanced, each regiment affording a quota of skirmishers.

4. The guns were brought up, and the enemy, deserting the village, endeavoured to outflank our left, and from six guns played upon our troops advancing.

5. The jungle was so thick that a column of the enemy, without being perceived, got entirely in the rear of our support; when, luckily perceiving this, I ordered Sir W. Gordon, with a troop of the 17th Lancers, to disperse them.

6. He charged them, dispersed them, and cut up between one and two hundred.

7. I solicit to bring this officer's services prominently to the notice of his Excellency, and the squadron under his command, who did their duty admirably.

8. The enemy stood fairly to their guns, one or two of which were taken by a rush of the 92nd and 71st combined.

9. The 19th Regiment Native Infantry, under their very able and zealous commander, Captain Barrow, emulated the conduct of the British troops.

10. At one period the enemy, in great numbers, were on all sides close to our front, flanks, and rear, and yet so dense was the jungle that their fire was utterly ineffective.

11. After their guns, 6 (six), were taken, they dispersed in every direction.

12. Unfortunately, all my cavalry, except 85 of the 17th Lancers, were detached to Brigadier Smith's column, near Chandairee, or hardly a man would have escaped.

13. The heat of the day and the distance the men had already marched, together with the want of cavalry, prevented pursuit beyond the village. I have since learnt that about 2500 of the fugitives crossed the Betwah that night, at a ford about eight miles from Shahjehan Mhow, near the road to Chandairee, the water up to their chins.

14. In my telegram of yesterday's date, the amount of killed was rated by me at about 150. I have since reason to think that I then much understated the number; perhaps double the number would be nearer the truth.

15. As at Rajgurh, so our loss has been trifling, although in this fight the enemy stood their ground for about an hour well, and the principal portion of the killed was in the middle of our column to the rear.

16. My warmest thanks are due to Colonel Lockhart, commanding the Brigade.

17. No. 551 of 1858.—The Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Major-General Whitlock, commanding Saugor Field Division, forwarding one from Brigadier Carpenter, reporting the forcing of the Pass of Punghatee, en route to Kothee, and subsequent encounter with enemy on the 6th September, 1858.

No. 14.

Major-General Whitlock to the Adjutant-General of the Bengal Army.

Camp near Chirkaree, September 20, 1858.

SIR,

No. 363.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for submission to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, the copy of a letter received from Brigadier Carpenter, commanding the 1st Brigade of the Division, under my command, reporting the forcing of the Ghat Punghatee, with a field detachment under his command, and subsequent encounter with the enemy on the 6th September, 1858.

I have much satisfaction in submitting, for the favourable consideration of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, the good conduct of all engaged in this affair.

I have, &c.,

G. C. WHITLOCK, Major-General,
Commanding Saugor Field Division.

No. 15.

Brigadier Carpenter, commanding 1st Infantry Brigade, Saugor Field Division, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Saugor Field Division.

Camp, Kothee, September 7, 1858.

SIR,

No. 96.

I HAD the honour in my communication, No. 89, dated 27th August, 1858, to announce the departure from Kirwee of the troops under my command, now noted in the margin,* on an expedition into the hills, south of Tirohan and Chitrakote, for the purpose of destroying the enemy who were in possession of the towns and villages of Dudree, Tekurree, Doondha, Entowa, Doondhela, Kurrereeah, Koreri, and Dingrahit; numbering not less than 7,000 men, 500 of them being mutinous Bengal sepoys and sowars, by whom the peace and security of the country around were continually disturbed.

2. I reserve for a future despatch, on the termination of this duty, the details of my proceedings, merely observing that our march has been successful, and that the enemy evacuated every place

* Horse Artillery 6-pounders drawn by bullocks; 2 cohorn mortars carried on an elephant; 1 brass gun carried on an elephant; detachment Royal Artillery 46, including officers; detachment Her Majesty's 43rd Light Infantry 160, including officers; Head-Quarters 1st Regiment Native Infantry 196, including officers; Sikh Horse 30, Native officers included; Hyderabad Sowars 23, Native officers included; 280 levies of Native Chiefs armed with matchlocks, sword and shield, commanded by their own Sirdars. 10 elephants accompany the force.

I have named, in succession, as we approached; but on the evening of the 5th instant, when encamped about 6 miles from Entowa, and 15 or 16 from Kothee, I received intelligence that they had rallied to the extent of 4,000 or 5,000 men, and were determined to make a stand at, or near this place; moreover, that they had driven off, fired upon, and wounded one of a party sent by me to repair the difficult pass of Punghatee, where they intended to dispute our further progress.

3. We were under arms at 4 A.M., on the 6th and reached the ghât about 7, when the enemy appeared in large numbers, many Bengal sepoys and some sowars being with them; they had taken the precaution to crown the heights commanding the pass, and presented a somewhat formidable appearance to my gallant little band; however, I led the advanced guard, composed of a party of Her Majesty's 43rd Light Infantry, and of the 1st Regiment Native Infantry, commanded by Ensign Young, of the former regiment, in skirmishing order, to within 200 yards of the gorge, the main body being in reserve, a portion of them protecting the guns. I also sent a similar party to the advanced guard, under Captain Rishton, of the 1st Regiment Native Infantry, directly up the thickly wooded hill on our right, and running parallel to the pass, our left being protected by a deep ravine, also covered with thick jungle, with instructions to crown the summit and sweep the brow of the hill right shoulders forward, so as to join the advanced guard in its ascent, a duty Captain Rishton well performed. Meanwhile, Captain Palmer, of the Royal Artillery, prepared his guns for action, the enemy, during this time, keeping up a desultory but very harmless fire, which we did not return until all was ready, when I ordered the pass to be forced, Captain Palmer's guns and mortars playing with admirable precision over the heads of the advancing skirmishers. The sound of the guns, bursting of the shells, and the sight of the Europeans, seemed to terrify the enemy; for, before we had proceeded 500 yards, he turned and fled in all directions into the dense and almost impervious jungle, leaving us in possession of a ghât which 500 brave men could easily defend against 10,000!

4. After a short halt at the top of the pass, to bring up the guns, we again moved on, and in about an hour came in sight of another body of the enemy, apparently an outpost, 400 or 500 strong, who moved off on our approach; but as there was a small open space between them and the jungle, to which they rapidly retired, I had an opportunity to cut up several of them, by a dashing charge of the Seikh Horse, under Jemadar Nadan Sing, and Hyderabad Sowars, under Jemadar Novinya Inayut Oolla Begh, headed by Lieutenant and Adjutant Gompertz, of the 1st Regiment Native Infantry, and Lieutenant Wood, of the Engineers; by this time it was noon, I therefore halted to refresh the men, who were much exhausted by their morning's work, but in high spirits and ready to push on, which I determined to do, as I had reason to believe the main body were still in our front; we reached Kothee, at about 6 P.M., and found that the enemy had abandoned their position some hours previously, before we could have surmounted the pass, and evidently in the utmost confusion, judging from the state of their encampment, Radho Govind's tent being amongst the spoils!

5. Hitherto my intelligence department, furnished by Mr. Mayne, the Magistrate of Banda, has been most efficient, but now we are in a terra incognita; the villagers have all fled from dread of the rebels, and I am therefore somewhat at fault, the surrounding country being entirely unknown to any of my guides, nor do I yet know even the direction they have taken, but it is probable, either into the Rewah country or towards Kalinger.

6. The troops throughout this trying day, for they were fourteen hours under arms, exhibited all the best qualities of British soldiers, and if gallant bearing and ardent pursuit could have secured the prize, they would assuredly have won it! I trust the Major-General will approve their conduct, and submit it to the favourable consideration of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, and of the Madras army.

7. It is almost impossible to estimate the casualties on the part of the enemy, in such an affair and in such thick jungle, as I have described, but, from what I heard and saw, I do not think they could have exceeded 40 or 50; our own loss being blank!

8. A nominal roll of officers accompanies.

I have, &c,

W. CARPENTER, Brigadier,
Commanding 1st Infantry Brigade,
Saugor Field Division.

I HAVE the honour, by order of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to the Governor-General, a despatch from Brigadier E. R. Wetherall, C.B., to the address of the Assistant Adjutant-General of the Lucknow Division, in which that officer mentions the capture of Rampore Kussiah, by the Brigade under his command.

2. His Excellency would bring to special notice the gallantry displayed by the troops on this occasion, and more particularly the conduct of Captain J. B. Thelwall, and the 9th Punjaub Infantry under his command.

3. It is a matter of sincere regret to his Excellency, that the distinguished commander of the Belooch Battalion, Lieutenant-Colonel R. Farquhar, has been so severely wounded as to deprive his Excellency of his services for some time to come.

Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 19.

Brigadier Wetherall to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Lucknow Division, Camp Etayah.

Camp, Rampore Kussiah, November 6, 1858.

SIR,

AT 2 o'clock P.M., on the 1st November, I received an order from the Chief of the Staff, to advance from my position at Deerea, through Lallunge, to drive the enemy from Kurriya Bazar and the neighbouring posts.

No. 22227.

B

2. I marched at 4 P.M. the same day, as there was a difficult ravine at Baboogunge, about 4 miles distant, that I was anxious to cross with the siege train, and heavy baggage during the night. I had previously prepared a passage across it. The force bivouacked on both banks of the ravine. By daylight every thing had crossed, and the force moved on to Lallunge.

3. I there received the information that Kurriya Bazar had been evacuated, the enemy having retired on Rampore Kussiah, and entrenched camp on the river Sae, and that the Fort of Kythola, about 2 miles to the right of my line of march, was occupied by the enemy.

4. After two hours' halt to refresh the troops, I advanced to Kaepore, a village situated at the junction of the roads leading to Rampore Kussiah, and Kythola, and where the road is traversed by a large swamp that extended laterally some miles across my front; there were but two passages across it, both being impassable for guns or baggage; by halting in this position, I could attack Kythola, threaten Rampore Kussiah; and a passage across the swamp could be made during the night.

5. Upon summoning Kythola, it was found to be evacuated, the garrison having also retired upon Rampore Kussiah, abandoning the entrenchments and a few stand of arms.

6. Owing to the exertions of Lieutenant Scratchley, commanding the Royal Engineers with this force, assisted by the Delhi Pioneers, the causeway was reported practicable the following morning at 8 a.m., the 3rd November.

7. At 8.30 a.m., the force crossed and advanced upon Rampore Kussiah.

8. Upon approaching that place, the country became very close and intricate, being covered with large clumps of trees, low brushwood and standing Indian-corn, rendering it impossible to see more than a few yards, either to the front or flanks. Great caution had, therefore, to be observed in the advance; the enemy, however, did not make use of the advantages of ground thus offered to him.

9. The force arrived in front of Rampore Kussiah about 10 a.m. Upon reconnoitring the place, I found it to consist of an elaborate system of entrenchments of great extent, constructed on both banks of the river Sae, with the old fort as a citadel.

10. The works immediately in my front consisted of a line of six bastions, connected by curtains constructed across a neck of land formed by a deep bend of the river to the northward. The length of this work was about 700 yards in a direct line. This work was flanked on its right, and taken in reverse, by the works on the opposite bank of the river.

11. The north and east sides, and the south-west angle of the works, were surrounded by a dense jungle of prickly thorn; on the south and north-west sides the ground was comparatively clear, but broken and wooded, and every available spot covered with Indian corn, rendering it impossible to see more than the crest of the parapet.

12. The works were surrounded by a ditch, that I had been informed was 15 feet broad and 25 feet deep, which was subsequently found to be nearly correct. The ditch was covered in front by an abattis of prickly thorn.

13. The interior of all the works was a dense jungle, the only open spaces being the parapets and the terreplein, so that, on making a lodgment, the assailants were exposed to the fire of the defenders, protected by this cover.

14. There were 17 guns and 5 mortars in the place (two of these were upwards of eight inches in diameter). The garrison consisted of between 4,000 and 5,000 men, about 2,000 being mutinous sepoys, principally of the 17th, 28th, and 52nd Regiments, who could be plainly discerned on the parapets, dressed in red, and some in the same coloured linen uniform, with red turbans, as worn by the Punjaub Infantry. They were all armed with the musket and bayonet.

15. Having received information that the left, or last extremity of the advanced entrenchment, rested on the jungle, and that the work had not been continued down to the river, I determined to make the attack on that flank.

16. The force under my command was formed in position behind the village and fort of Agaiya, about 1,500 yards from the place, concealed from the view of the enemy by the village and the shape of the ground, which here rose to a gentle eminence, sloping down to the northwards, in the direction of the river Sae.

17. The heavy battery, Royal Artillery, consisting of two 8-inch howitzers, and two 8-inch mortars, under the command of Major Le Messurier, C.B., was formed on the crest of this eminence, protected on its left by the fort of Agaiya, in which a company of the 79th Highlanders was placed. A company of the same regiment under Captain Currie was directed to skirmish in the broken ground, in front of the battery, as sharpshooters, to keep down the fire of the enemy from the entrenchments; this it did very effectually. The 4th Company Royal Engineers was also posted with the heavy battery. On the right I placed the right wing of the 9th Punjaub Infantry, under Captain Thelwall, H.M.'s 24th Regiment, who commands that corps, with instructions to force his way through the jungle, and endeavour to turn the left of the entrenchment.

18. The 1st Punjaub Cavalry, under Major Hughes, was divided into two bodies, and one placed on each flank, to endeavour to discover any fords across the river, to prevent the passage of them by the enemy, and to complete the investment on this side.

19. The strength of my force did not allow of any bodies of troops being detached across the river, to invest the northern front.

20. The remainder of the force was held in reserve under Colonel Taylor, C.B., commanding 79th Highlanders.

21. These dispositions had just been completed when I received a quill despatch, by a spy, from Major-General Sir J. Hope Grant, commanding the Division, then encamped at Etayah, offering his co-operation the following morning, the 4th November, at daylight. Anxious as I was for the assistance of the Major-General, and conscious that, with the force under his command, under his able direction, the result of the action must be more satisfactory than it would be without that co-operation, yet, as my force was then engaged with the enemy, and the artillery already suffering from the fire of the place, I considered that I could not withdraw without dishonour to Her Majesty's arms; I therefore resolved to continue the attack. My intention was to carry the outworks, and there wait for the Major-General's arrival, to attack the interior defences.

22. After the fire of the heavy battery had continued for some time, I directed the skirmishers to advance nearer to the works. Captain Thelwall, with the wing of the regiment under his command, forced his way through the jungle, strongly opposed by the enemy, to within 60 yards of the entrenchment, where he was met with discharges of grape; finding that his position was becoming untenable, and that he must either advance or retreat, he, with the prompt and daring resolution of a true soldier, determined to storm, the bastion from which the guns were playing upon him. A passage was found across the ditch near its extremity; the men with great gallantry dashed across, and, entering by an embrasure effected a lodgment; they captured two guns, one of which was immediately turned by them upon the enemy, who, advancing with 1,500 men, endeavoured to retake the bastion. Captain Thelwall, though opposed to fearful odds, and exposed to a crushing fire from the works on the north bank of the river, losing men and officers fast, still held his ground, until the supports sent to his assistance came up. They consisted of two companies 79th Highlanders, under Captain Miller, and four companies of the first Belooch Battalion, under Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, C.B. The troops now assembled in the work repulsed two attempts of the enemy to retake it. I would beg to draw the attention of the Major-General to the gallantry of these troops led by the officers I have named.

These operations were covered by an increased fire of artillery and skirmishers, along the front.

23. I much regret to say that Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar had hardly entered the works when he was struck by a ball in the left knee; he has since suffered amputation of the limb. I was thus deprived of the services of an old, gallant, and experienced officer, at a most critical time.

The command of the troops in the works then devolved again upon Captain Thelwall, under whose leading the capture of the outer works was completed.

24. I cannot speak too highly of the conduct of this officer and of his regiment. I am indebted to it for the success I have described, which ultimately led to the capture of the place. I trust the Major-General will do me the favour of bringing Captain Thelwall's name to the most prominent notice of the Commander-in-Chief, together with the officers and soldiers he has named in his report herewith enclosed.

25. Lieutenant Scratchley, commanding Royal Engineers, volunteered to accompany the supports, for the purpose of rendering assistance, should it have been necessary to retrench themselves. I would also wish his name brought to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief.

26. The enemy, having failed in his repeated efforts to retake the outworks, was observed about 2 o'clock to be retiring from the position on the north bank of the river.

27. I directed Major Hughes, with all the cavalry that could be collected, to cross the ford on the right of the enemy's position and pursue. The nature of the ground, cut up with ravines, and covered with wood, precluded any horse artillery being sent, as guns, used under such circumstances, would have been an encumbrance, instead of a help to him.

28. I then directed the troops in the works to advance. Just as we were entering the principal work, or citadel, a large mine was exploded, it is supposed by a Ghazee, burying in its debris the leading files of the Belooch battalion; had the explosion occurred a few minutes later, my loss must have been most severe.

29. It was subsequently discovered that this mine was the principal powder magazine of the place, said to have contained 8,000 lbs. of powder.

30. The enemy then evacuated the whole of the works, abandoning all his guns, together with large quantities of ammunition, stores, and provisions.

31. Major Hughes pursued the enemy for five miles, and pressed him hard, cutting up a great many men. The regimental colour of the 52nd Regiment was captured by Lance Duffadar Waller Mahomed Khan, who slew its bearer.

32. I much regret that the 1st Punjaub Cavalry has been deprived of the services of Assistant-Surgeon Clement Smith, who was severely wounded in the pursuit, heading a small party of cavalry, in the endeavour to reach his regiment, to give assistance to the wounded.

33. The entrenchments and fort of Rampore Kussiah are most extensive and complete. The enceinte is 3 miles in circumference, enclosing an area of 190 acres, situated in almost unapproachable ground; on the west side, there are three lines of entrenchments, each covered by a ditch; most of the parapets of the whole work are 20 feet thick.

34. The place was found to contain a foundry for cannon and shells, with mould ready prepared for use, a quantity of gun metal, a laboratory for making fuzes, and a carriage manufactory fitted with English circular saws, and other tools; in fact, from the solidity and completeness of the place, it must have been a long time in preparation, and an arsenal for the rebels and mutineers. I trust its capture will inflict a heavy blow upon them.

35. Seventeen guns and five mortars, 22 pieces of ordnance in all, were captured in the place.

36. From the nature of the ground, both inside and outside the works, which affords every facility for concealing both killed and wounded men, and the high crops outside, it is impossible to arrive at a correct estimate of the loss of the enemy. Many killed are constantly being found in the jungle and other places, and many were seen to be carried off in all directions on ponies and the country bedsteads. I consider that the loss of the enemy was not less than 300 killed; the wounded cannot be computed.

37. My loss was severe; it amounts to two English officers, severely wounded, four native officers, and 73 of all ranks; total, 79 killed and wounded; but I trust that, considering the nature and extent of the works, and the importance of the capture, it will be considered unavoidable.

38. I cannot close this Report without expressing the greatest admiration of the gallantry and good conduct of the troops under my command. I trust I may be permitted to mention how much I am indebted to the Officers commanding corps, and to the Staff Officers of this Force, for the cordial support they have at all times afforded me.

Colonel Taylor, C.B., commanding 79th Highlanders; Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, C.B., commanding Belooch Battalion; Major Middleton, C.B., R.H.A., Senior Artillery Officer of this force, are entitled to my warmest acknowledgments.

Major LeMessurier, C.B., who commanded the heavy battery, worked his guns with surprising rapidity and accuracy, under an annoying fire from the place. I am also indebted to him for the zeal and ability displayed in getting his guns across a most difficult country, without roads, during these operations.

Of Major Hughes and his excellent regiment, I cannot speak too highly; its conduct under this officer's good leading, has been admirable.

Captain Thelwall, commanding 9th Punjaub Infantry, and Lieutenant Scratchley, commanding Royal Engineers, I have already brought to the Major-General's notice.

After the fall of Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, the command of the Belooch battalion devolved upon Lieutenant Nicholletts, who is highly spoken of by Captain Thelwall in his report.

Captain Briggs, Officiating Assistant-Commissary General, has been unremitting and successful in his exertions to supply this force, under circumstances of great difficulty.

Mr. Power, Civil Service, and Captain Bunbury, Assistant-Commissioner, attached to this Force, have been most active in procuring intelligence, and in affording every assistance to me. They both accompanied me throughout the action.

The officers of my Staff, Lieutenant Acton, 53rd Regiment, Major of Brigade; Captain O'Brien, 20th Regiment, Deputy Assistant-Quartermaster General; and Ensign Duff, 79th Highlanders, Orderly Officer, have displayed indefatigable zeal and ability in the discharge of their duties, on this and on every occasion.

I beg to enclose a state of this force, on the morning of the 3rd November, together with a return of casualties, a return of captured ordnance, and a sketch of Rampore Kussiah, with a report on the works, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief.

I have, &c.,

E. R. WETHERALL, Brigadier,
Commanding Field Force in South Oude.

Report upon the Fort and Entrenchments of Kussiah Rampore, Oude.

November 7, 1858.

THE fort and entrenchments of Kussiah Rampore are situated on a bend or loop of the River Sac.

The fort being at the top or north-west of this loop, surrounded by the southern entrenchments, which close the loop to the south, and by the northern entrenchments, which enclose it on all sides.

They occupy an extent of ground equal to 200 acres, and are $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles in length.

The interior of these entrenchments is a dense, impenetrable bamboo and thorn jungle, through which a number of covered ways, similar to parallels, afford communication.

On the outside the jungle grows close up to the works, and in most places 500 or 600 yards or more to the front. Paths lead through it into the fort, but they are of no use, except to the defenders.

Besides this, a very close and impenetrable abattis of cut-thorn jungle, is to be found close upon the counterscarp of the ditch of the work, following it in all its sinuosities.

This ditch varies from 12 to 18 feet in depth (in one or two places nearly 23 feet), and 8 to 20 feet in width, and surrounds the whole of the works, except in a few places where a formidable abattis supplies its place.

The profile of all the entrenchments is good; the command varying from 10 to 20 feet, the thickness of parapet from 10 to 18 feet, and well able to resist the heaviest ordnance from the nature of the soil, which is principally clay.

In some parts the profile consists of two lines of parapet, separated from each other by a ditch; in others two ditches are to be found.

The interior fort or entrenchment, is of the nature generally found in this country, a rectangle with circular bastions at the angles, connected by straight curtains, which also have bastions.

This fort has a very great command over the works surrounding it, and the country around.

It also affords a good defence against an attempt to take it from the south, especially across the ford.

The trace of the entrenchments is very irregular, consisting of circular bastions, connected by irregular curtains, every bastion having four or more embrasures for guns.

In front of each bastion, a low line of parapet for musketry is to be found, and this generally flanks the entrances (mentioned before) into the fort.

The trace on the whole is good. It has a few weak points on the river, where the entrenchments close upon it.

But these could be strengthened at the very last moment.

In fact, if a European force had possession of such works, it could defy any attack, except that of a regular blockade to starvation.

The date of the construction of the different parts of the works, is of course difficult to ascertain. I should think that all the works, with the exception of the fort, and western entrenchments, have been built since the first outbreak of the mutiny.

The ditch surrounding them is, however, very old. It has been deepened in a great many places. The works have also been considerably strengthened and repaired since the rains; and in some parts there are signs showing that more works were contemplated.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

No. 577 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Report from Colonel Eveleigh, commanding a Moveable Force, of a successful action with the rebels at Morar Mow, in Oude, on the 8th November, 1858.

No. 29.

Colonel Eveleigh.

SIR, Camp at Simree, November 9, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to state, for the information of the Major-General commanding Oude Field Force, that I marched from Poorwah with the troops named in the margin,* at five o'clock on the morning of the 8th instant, leaving a small force behind, for the protection of the town, under Major Bulwer, Her Majesty's 23rd R. W. F.

Having been informed, on the previous night, that Oomero Sing was in occupation of the village of Morar Mow, with about 4,000 men and 3 guns, 1,400 of whom were estimated to be cavalry, I advanced with 2 horse artillery guns and 400 cavalry, finding the approach to the village very difficult, and the surrounding country intersected with deep nullahs, and abounding in salt pits, especially about the vicinity of the village.

I ordered a troop of cavalry to the right and one to the left of Morar Mow, to turn his flank, and advanced with considerable difficulty with the remainder of the advanced force.

Hearing from Lieutenant Chamberlain, of the Oude Police Force, who was on the right, that the enemy was in retreat on that flank, I despatched another squadron in that direction, and galloped forward with the remainder.

* 4 guns B. H. H. Artillery; 2 guns R. Artillery; Siege Train; 300 1st Sikh Cavalry; 424 3rd Police Cavalry; 236 5th ditto; 240 H.M.'s 20th Regt.; 250 H.M.'s 23rd R. W. F.; 190 H.M.'s 80th Regt.; 360 4th Police Infantry; 550 7th ditto.

On reaching the other side of the village, I sent the whole of the cavalry in pursuit, under Captain Jones, 1st Sikh Cavalry, the senior Officer, who pursued them for several miles, over almost impassable ground, and through thick crops and topes of trees.

The result was most satisfactory; two of the enemy's guns being captured, and about 100 men killed, chiefly sepoys of the Bengal Army, and a few of the 2nd Cavalry.

The Police Cavalry, under Lieutenant Chamberlain, and the 1st Sikh Cavalry, under Lieutenant Godby, behaved remarkably well.

Captain Jones, who commanded the whole, brings to my notice Lieutenant Stewart, of his corps, who particularly distinguished himself in a hand to hand encounter with some sepoys; also Naib Rissaldar Subhan Khan, who acted as his Orderly, and showed himself a true and daring soldier, and has been at all times most zealous in the Intelligence Department, and saved the lives of many of his officers when his regiment, the 9th Light Cavalry, mutinied at Sealkote; also Lance-Duffadar Sham Sing, who distinguished himself in an encounter with some sepoys.

Lieutenant Chamberlain, commanding the Police Cavalry, brings to my notice also Rissaldar Ummer Sing, of the 5th Cavalry, and Jemadar Purubdiah, of the 3rd, who was wounded when leading in a hand to hand fight, and showed a good example to his men.

I beg to thank Captain Jones for the zeal and activity he displayed with his force over most difficult ground.

Lieutenant Chamberlain, commanding the Police Cavalry, and those under his command, also merit my best thanks.

I beg to annex a list of the casualties and captured ordnance.

I have, &c.,

FRED. EVELEIGH, Colonel,
Commanding Moveable Force.

No. 578 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch from Brigadier Troup commanding a moveable column, reporting his operations against the rebels at Mittoulee, on the 8th November, 1858.

The Governor-General entirely approves of the operations of Brigadier Troup, and of the conduct of the officers and men engaged in this action.

No. 33.

Brigadier Colin Troup, commanding Moveable Column, to the Chief of the Staff.

*Camp Mittoulee,
November 8, 1858.*

SIR,

No. 3.

SINCE my last No. 15 of the 4th November, 1858, I have had the honour of receiving your telegram, but before it arrived, however, I had made up my mind to defer my advance on Mittoulee no longer, as the rebels were collecting there in great numbers, and I saw no probability of the Mittoulee Rajah coming in.

2. Having now fully determined to take Mittoulee, and having received no camels to relieve me of my carts; at noon on the 5th I started the whole of my heavy baggage, tents, carts, &c., off to Mahomlee, having first obtained Sir Thomas Seaton's sanction to the arrangement, and requested Colonel Watson, who was commanding there, to take charge of my baggage, and so leave me unencumbered to operate against the Rajah of Mittoulee.

3. The escort which accompanied the baggage to Mahomdee, returned to camp at noon on the 6th, having been out 24 hours.

4. My position at Nikana was immediately opposite the Pumorah Ghat on the Rutna, by which I intended crossing the river, and advancing on the fort; but, hearing of the preparations the Rajah and his allies had made to oppose my progress, and the obstacles they had thrown across the road by felling large trees, and cutting double rows of trenches, at intervals across the track through the jungle, this was represented to be so narrow as barely to admit of a passage for the light guns; this information has since proved true, I abandoned this project, and determined to make a flank movement by Mahouly, and so come on to the south-eastern face of the fort, where the enemy did not expect me.

5. I kept my own counsel, and continued sending patrols in the direction of Pumorah Ghat, so as to deceive the enemy, and lead the Rajah to suppose that my advance was to be by that road.

6. The deception was more successful than I thought it possible for it to be; the Rajah seemed quite sure that I should advance on this Ghat, and sent guns to command it, which he placed in such a position (a sketch of which is enclosed) that, had I gone that way, my troops might have suffered considerably, and the loss of life might have been great.

7. My plan being matured, I fell in my column at 1 A.M. on the morning of the 7th, and marched (viâ Norrungabad) to a Ghat, some miles down the river, called the Simara Ghat, but on arrival there found it impracticable, so I had to move about 2 miles further down the river and cross the river by a fine stone bridge to Mahouly, and bivouacked there for the day.

8. Mahouly is a very large village on the eastern side of the Rutna, occupying a commanding position on the Seetapore road, with a small ghurree on an eminence, on the river side, viz., the west, with various other commanding sites on either side of the river; had the enemy occupied this position, the passage of the river by the bridge would have been accomplished with great difficulty. The reason for my digressing to describe the position of Mahouly, is to make Lord Clyde acquainted, as far as possible, with the passage of the Rutna, between Nurrungabad and Seetapore.

9. At daybreak on the 8th, I formed my column of march, as shown in the margin,* with my flanks protected by cavalry and skirmishers, and moved on Mittoulee about sunrise.

10. Proceeding about 2 miles to the village of Chuhor, through light jungle, I found a large body of rebel cavalry watching us. The ground was very unfavourable for our cavalry to act on, so I brought my light guns under Lieutenant-Colonel Remington, C.B., under the direction of Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, C.B., commanding the artillery, to bear upon them, and after a few rounds cleared the place.

11. I then went on 2 miles further to the village of Burragaon, where I expected to find Khan Ali and Feroze Shah, but they had disappeared, and I passed through the village unmolested: a little delay took place in getting my column through the village: as soon as the column was closed up, which was rapidly done, I again advanced; and, proceeding a short distance, I saw the enemy's cavalry to my front a second time: I again cleared them with my light guns, supported by a party, 6th Dragoon Guards and Rifles.

12. After this I went on feeling my way to a village called Lulloa, and then a mile on to Tundoa, a small village just within very long range of the guns of the southern face of the fort.

13. In rear of this village, I halted the head of my column, and, reconnoitring the fort, moved up my guns and attacked the south-eastern bastion, my light guns being on the left, the heavy battery in the centre, and the mortars under cover of trees to the right. My guns were in position, and opened fire, between 1 and 2 P.M., at a distance varying from 800 to 1,200 yards, the enemy's guns playing on our artillery while we were getting into position, and their fire increasing, as they brought nearly all their guns to the southern face.

14. The guns were supported as follows: by four companies 60th Rifles, with the light artillery, strengthened by the head-quarters of that regiment, as the heavy battery came up, the Carabiniers being judiciously placed in support on the flanks, while the Moltanee cavalry were feeling the jungle and country about and watching the enemy.

15. The fire from the fort increasing, and it being evident that the enemy was bringing all his artillery to the southern face of the fort, both on the enceinte and in the jungles on our front, it was found necessary to advance the heavy battery to within 600 or 700 yards, so as to overpower the rebel guns, the two guns, No. 7 Light Field Battery, being judiciously placed under cover to the left front, to keep that flank clear, Lieutenant-Colonel Remington having at the same time been detached with four horse artillery guns to the left of the main body, with instructions to watch the enemy, but reserve his fire as far as circumstances justified; these guns were not again required to come into action. The other two guns of his troop remained for the protection of the baggage and parks.

16. Towards dusk, the favourable effect of our fire became perceptible, and as it appeared that the enemy were still unshaken, arrangements were made for a night bivouack; the advanced artillery was consolidated with the mortar battery, in judicious order, with reference to a night attack. The night past without molestation, with the exception of a shot or two fired from the fort, and a few shot from matchlocks.

17. In conjunction with Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, commanding the Artillery, and Captain Maunsell, commanding the Engineers, I made arrangements for continuing operations on the following morning, but, from ignorance of the nature of the ground around the fort, and the impossibility of collecting trustworthy information from the people of the country, though the largest inducements in the shape of pecuniary rewards were offered, together with the darkness of the night, I deemed it advisable to defer all operations till daylight, with the hope of obtaining, by observation and expected information from our scouts, a clearer knowledge of the difficulties we might have to encounter.

18. At daylight, on the morning of the 9th, I directed Captain Cureton to reconnoitre the fort; he advanced with one troop of his regiment to the south-west angle, and, seeing no sign of its being occupied, proceeded close under the walls; not being molested in any way, he sent me information to this effect. I immediately directed some light troops to move on to the front, Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, C.B., commanding them; this party entered the fort, and, finding it empty, took possession of it. I followed immediately after, and went over the fort and its defences, a description of which, by Captain Maunsell, I do myself the honour to enclose.

19. The Rajah and his allies carried away or secreted all the guns they had, with the exception of those shown in the return of captured ordnance.

20. It is now my pleasing duty to bring to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief, the conduct of the whole of the troops under my command; the behaviour of the artillery was remarkable, who followed the noble, energetic, and cool example of their Commanding Officer, Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, C.B. Both Officers and men worked like slaves throughout the entire day, to the admiration of all who witnessed them. On this occasion this branch of the service upheld its reputation. The fire that our guns and mortars were under from the fort guns, worked under cover of the works of the fort, was very severe; notwithstanding this, our artillery engaged the enemy without shelter of any kind, and, doubtless by their coolness and precision of fire, paralyzed the enemy, and forced him to take advantage of the night to make a hasty retreat. To Colonel Brind, C.B., commanding the Artillery, every praise is due for the cool and judicious manner in which he placed his guns; and I wish particularly to bring the assistance I receive from this officer on every occasion, whether connected with his own branch of the service or any other, with reference generally to the operations in which we are engaged, prominently to the notice of Lord Clyde. Lieutenant-Colonel Remington, C.B., commanding 3rd troop, 3rd brigade Horse Artillery, with his guns, cleared our road of the enemy's cavalry wherever they showed themselves. My thanks are especially due to him for the splendid manner in which he worked his troop throughout the entire day. I was greatly pleased at the way Captain Cox, with the heavy guns, and Captain Stubbs, with the mortars, and Lieutenant Wake, with 2 guns No. 7 Light Battery, commanded their respective batteries, and at the manner the guns and mortars were worked. I wish to bring the names of these officers to the notice of Lord Clyde, as being artillery officers of great coolness, judgment and experience, and well worthy of his favourable consideration. I fully concur with Lieutenant-Colonel Brind in the high estimate he has formed of Captain Bishop, Divisional Staff to the Artillery, and recommend him strongly to the favourable notice of the Commander-in-Chief.

21. Captain Maunsell, commanding the sappers, is worthy of every praise I can give him, and is well known to his Lordship; he has rendered me most willing and able assistance since the time of his joining my column, and, with his sappers, is a very great help to me; he is now engaged in the heavy work of destroying the fort of Mitoulee, on the completion of which I will more fully allude to the valuable services of this officer. I must beg to be allowed to bring to his Lordship's notice, in conjunction with Captain Maunsell's services, the name of Lieutenant Humphrey, Adjutant of the Sappers, who had volunteered to undertake the important, but dangerous, duty of blowing open the gate of the fort in case of an assault.

22. To Lieutenant-Colonel Custance, C.B., I feel indebted for the manner in which he disposed of his cavalry, and kept my flanks completely protected. On Captain C. Jones, commanding Her Majesty's 1st battalion 60th Rifles, and his officers and men, I cannot bestow too much praise. In bringing Captain Jones's name to his Lordship's notice, I am sorry to be obliged to add, that he received a severe contusion from a round shot, just as it was getting dusk. On Captain Jones being wounded, the command of the regiment devolved on Captain McQueen. I hope it may not be out of place for me to add, that the 60th Rifles, although employed on bad ground, under most harassing circumstances, performed their duty with great willingness and cheerfulness, and with a degree of order and precision that would have done credit to a review parade. To every officer and man of that regiment I wish to tender my best thanks.

23. I also offer my best thanks to Colonel Hay, C.B., commanding 93rd Highlanders, and Captain Hockley, commanding 66th Goorkas, who, with the men under their respective commands, carried out all the duties allotted to them to my entire satisfaction. It is my pleasing duty again to bring to his Lordship's notice Captain Cureton, and his regiment of Mooltanee Cavalry.

Commanding officers and men are always willing and ready to perform any duty, whether fighting the enemy, seeking information, or whatever may be required of them. Whatever they undertake they perform right well.

24. To my own personal staff, viz.: Brevet-Major Cox, Major of Brigade to the column; Captain C. Warde, Officiating Deputy Quartermaster-General; Lieutenant Prendergast, Orderly Officer, I beg to tender my best thanks for their services, and for the ready and efficient aid they gave me on all occasions throughout the entire day.

25. To Captain Law, Sub-Assistant-Commissary-General, I am deeply indebted, and thank him for the excellent arrangements he made, under considerable difficulties, for provisioning the force, and wish to bring him prominently to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief as an excellent commissariat officer.

26. Doctor Tienin, Senior Surgeon of the force, ably and readily assisted by the other medical officers of the column, made all their arrangements entirely to my satisfaction; and my best thanks are due to them for the manner in which all the medical arrangements were carried out.

27. It is now with great satisfaction that I record the obligations I feel myself under to Mr. Balmain, Lieutenant Clarke, and Captain William Hearsey, civil officers with my column, for the ready and cordial assistance they have rendered me, in an unknown and difficult country, where the greatest judgment is necessary in testing the information received from doubtful sources.

Captain Hearsey, in a bad state of health, has, at all hours of the day and night, been engaged in his duties connected with the Intelligence Department, though suffering from great pain, and unable to mount a horse. I beg, therefore, that I may be allowed to solicit his Lordship's interest and most favourable report to Government of this meritorious officer.

28. I beg to enclose a return of killed and wounded; also one of captured ordnance, with the reports from commanding officers.

I have, &c.,

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it was enacted that "Her Majesty might, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, reduce all or any of the dues, for the time being payable in respect of existing or future lighthouses, buoys, or beacons, for the time being, under the management of the General Lighthouse authorities therein named (that is to say), the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation."

And whereas, by an Order in Council, made in pursuance of the said Act, and dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, certain consolidated tables of light dues were approved by Her Majesty; and by the same order it was directed, that until Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, might see fit otherwise to determine, there should be allowed to every person paying the dues specified in the said tables, an abatement or discount upon the amount payable by him, which should, in the case of every over-sea vessel, be twenty-five per cent., and in the case of every coasting vessel, be ten per cent.

And whereas by an Order in Council, made in pursuance of the said Act, and dated the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, it was directed that until Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, might see fit otherwise to determine, there should be allowed to every person paying the dues mentioned in the said consolidated tables, so approved as aforesaid by the said Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, a further abatement or discount upon the amount payable by him, which further abatement or discount should, in the case of every over-sea vessel, be fifteen per cent., in addition to the abatement of twenty-five per cent. allowed by the said last-mentioned Order; and in the case of every coasting vessel, fifteen per cent., in addition to the aforesaid ten per cent. allowed by the said last-mentioned Order.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty, that the said light-dues may be further reduced, without injury to the services in respect of which such dues are levied.

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," is pleased to direct that the said light dues shall, on and after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, be further reduced as follows, that is to say, until Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, may see fit otherwise to determine, there shall be allowed to every person paying the dues mentioned in the said consolidated tables, so approved as aforesaid by the said Order in Council of the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, a further abatement or discount upon the amount payable by him, which further abatement or discount shall in the case of every over-sea vessel be ten per cent., making, together with the aforesaid abatements of twenty-five per cent. and fifteen per cent., respectively allowed by the said recited Orders, a gross abatement or discount of fifty per cent. upon the amount of the dues specified in the said consolidated tables, and payable in respect of such over-sea vessels; and which further abatement or discount shall in the case of every coasting vessel be ten per cent., making together with the aforesaid abatements of ten per cent. and fifteen per cent., respectively allowed by the said recited Orders, a gross abatement or discount of thirty-five per cent. upon the amount of the dues specified in the said consolidated tables, and payable in respect of such coasting vessel.

Wm. L. Bathurst

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the new part of the present churchyard of LYMINGTON, from the first of February to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the parish churchyard of NEWPORT, Salop, from the first of February to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in certain parts of the churchyard of ST. PAUL, CHICHESTER, as therein mentioned, and certain regulations were made with respect to burials in the said churchyard; and whereas by another Order in Council of the eleventh of January last, permission was granted, subject to certain provisions, for the use of then existing vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard, and it seems fit that the said Orders be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments be permitted in the unoccupied ground in the said churchyard of St. Paul, Chichester, until the eighteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February, 1859.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" beyond the limits of the metropolis, and "to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:

BODMIN.—Forthwith in the parish church, and on and after the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the parish churchyard of Bodmin, except in now existing family vaults and walled graves, which can be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner; and also in the additional churchyard at Berry Tower, with the like exception, and except in graves made in ground not before buried in.

OUNDL.—Forthwith in the parish church of Oundle, and also in the churchyard within five yards of the Grammar School and all dwelling-houses and workshops; and from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the whole of the churchyard, with the exception of brick graves which were in existence on the thirtieth of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, which can be opened without disturbing human remains, in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and in which no body shall be interred within four feet of the surface, measuring from the top of the coffin to the general level of the ground.

BRADFORD, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith under all churches and chapels in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York; and on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the Thornton Episcopal Chapelyard, and in the burial-ground adjoining the Independent Chapel and Schoolroom, Thornton, except in now existing vaults and walled graves,—every coffin buried in which shall be separately entombed in an airtight manner; also that in the detached Independent Burial-ground, and in the burial-grounds of the Wesleyan and Primitive Methodists, at Thornton, and of the church, and of the Baptist, Wesleyan and Wesleyan New Connexion Independent Chapels, at Denholme, the 1st, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of the Regulations for New Burial-grounds be observed.

STEEPLE-WITH-STANGATE, ESSEX.—From and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the churchyard of the parish of Steeple-with-Stangate, in the county of Essex, also in the Independent Chapel burial-ground within four yards of the chapel.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of March next;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of March.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by, or under the directions of, the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the churchwardens, or other persons having the care of the vaults beneath the hereinafter-mentioned churches, porch, and churchyard respectively, has made a representation, stating that he was of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the said vaults from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an order should be made for the adoption of the measures hereinafter set forth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of the vaults under the undermentioned churches, porch, and churchyard respectively, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures in respect of such vaults; viz.:

1. That, where accessible, the public vault under the porch of the church of the united parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen, Old Fish-street, and Saint Gregory by Saint Paul, be freely white-washed.

2. That the coffins in the above-named vault be covered with earth and powdered charcoal.

3. That the existing entrance and grating for ventilation be closed with brick or stone work, and a ventilating tube be carried to the roof of the church.

4. That the works be effected under the superintendence of the Medical Officer of Health of the city of London; and that Mr. Dougall's powder, chloride of lime, and other disinfectants be employed whenever required.

SAINT MARY'S, STRAND.

That the coffins in the rector's vault of Saint Mary's, Strand, be completely covered with soil and charcoal, the vault built up in an air-tight manner, and a ventilating-shaft to the top of the church constructed; also, that the vaults in the churchyard be securely closed, and, to ensure the safety of the workmen employed, that the work be conducted under the superintendence of the Officer of Health.

Friday, the 21st day of January, in the twenty-second year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1859.

Vice-Chancellor Stuart.—Between William Wootten Undershell and John Undershell, Plaintiffs; Walter Casey, Defendant.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiffs, it was alleged that the plaintiffs on the 20th day of December, 1858, filed their Bill in this Court against the defendant, with an indorsement thereon, requiring the defendant to appear thereto; and it appearing by the affidavit of John Hester, filed the 19th day of January, 1859, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court, within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said defendant, personally, with a copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that from the enquiries at the usual place of abode of the said defendant, and from information received from William Casey, a brother of the said defendant, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has gone out of the realm, and absconded to avoid being served with process; it was therefore prayed, and upon reading the said affidavit this Court doth order, that the defendant do appear to the plaintiffs' bill, on or before the 21st day of April, 1859. And it is ordered, that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette within fourteen days from the date hereof, and in two newspapers published in the county of Oxford.

Notice.—Walter Casey, take notice that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own shewing.
