

weather should be seen from a distance of about 16 miles.

The illuminating apparatus will be dioptric, or by lenses of the first order.

On the exhibition of the light from Godrevy Lighthouse, the light-vessel now moored in the channel between Godrevy Island and the Stones will be taken away.

Floating Beacon off the Stones.

Also, that the buoy placed in March, 1858, near the rocks called the Stones, in Saint Ives Bay, has been taken away, and a floating beacon is now moored there instead.

The beacon is 25 feet high above the water, and lies in 12 fathoms, at 3 cables' lengths to the northward of the outer Stones, with Godrevy Lighthouse S. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., and Knill's monument S. W. by W.

(The bearings are Magnetic. Variation 24° West in 1858.)

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
28th January, 1859.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts—West Coast, of England, Sheet 1, No. 35; English Channel, No. 1598; Saint Ives Bay, No. 1987. Also, British Islands Lights List for June, 1858, No. 300; Channel Pilot, Part 1, Pages 19 and 20.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, January 31, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of proceeds and tonnage bounty arising from the William Clark, captured on the 22nd August, 1857, by Her Majesty's ship Firefly.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.
