AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Harborne Heath, in the parish of Harborne, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Harborne Heath aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Harborne, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Harborne Heath.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Harborne, in the county of Stafford, and diocese of Lichfield, wherein the Vicar of such parish now possesses exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east and north of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary of the chapelry district of Smethwick, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the turnpike-road, leading from Halesowen to Birmingham, which is opposite to the middle of the northern end of a road called Lord's Wood-road, and extending thence southward, along the middle of such last-named road, and eastward and south-eastward, along the middle of the main road leading through Harborne village, to the western end of Greenfield-lane, and extending thence eastward, along the middle of such last-named lane, to the boundary of the parish of Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, and diocese of Worcester."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Harborne Heath, in the parish of Harborne, in the county of Stafford, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint John, Harborne Heath," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
