GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

*Allahabad,
December 17, 1858.*

No. 585 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch, from Colonel Eveleigh, C.B., commanding a moveable force, reporting his successful attack on the fort of Simree, in Oude, on the 9th November, 1858, and its destruction.

The Governor-General highly approves of the operations of Colonel Eveleigh, C.B., and of the conduct of all the officers and men engaged on this occasion.

No. 2.

Colonel Eveleigh to Lieutenant Biddulph, Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General, Oude Field Force.

Camp at Simree,

Sir, November 12, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Major-General commanding Oude Field Force, that I started with the troops named in the margin,* from my place of encampment near Morar Mow, at 6 a.m. on the 9th instant, for the purpose of attacking the fort of Simree.

After half an hour's march, I observed the enemy's cavalry and infantry in front, who retired, however, on the approach of the column. At some little distance farther on, the enemy's infantry again appeared in the jungle and khets, and I therefore directed 3 companies of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment and 2 companies of Her Majesty's 20th Regiment to extend and clear the front, and a company of the latter regiment also to search a village to my right, whilst a troop of cavalry turned its flank.

During the time these movements were being carried out, Lieutenant Chamberlain, commanding the police force, informed me that the enemy was moving in considerable strength to my right. Fearing that his object might be to attack my baggage, I sent with that Officer some cavalry, 2 guns Royal Artillery, and 2 companies of police infantry.

The enemy, meanwhile, being driven from my immediate front, and, hearing considerable firing on the right, I at once halted the column, and, proceeding with the detachments of the 20th and 80th Regiments to Lieutenant Chamberlain's assistance, found the enemy's infantry extended in thick jungle and nullahs, and in a position most difficult to approach, even for infantry, from the nature of the ground. The fire from the guns and Enfields, however, caused them to retreat after some time, when the infantry advanced skirmishing through jungle khets and over some deep nullahs, and drove them from a strong position on a hill, where they had previously moved to.

The right flank being thus effectually cleared, I returned to the column about two miles off, whose front was also engaged with the enemy's infantry, who were firing on it from the jungle, but were driven off by the effective fire of 2 guns of horse artillery and some infantry, the whole under command of Major Miller, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, who had charge of the column during my absence.

Here I remained for more than an hour, unable to obtain any correct information as to the direct road to the Simree fort, or its position, but, on advancing about half a mile, a native pointed to a high tree, and said that the fort was in the jungle, 200 yards beyond it; but so dense was the jungle all around, that no walls were visible. On proceeding some hundred yards farther on, however, a man was observed standing on a bastion of the fort, just above the jungle, and firing at my party, and Major Bruce, who commanded the artillery of the force, was of opinion that he could shell it with the mortars.

I therefore ordered the heavy guns to be brought up, together with some infantry and 2 horse artillery guns, the remaining horse artillery guns, 4th Police Infantry, and a company of the 20th to protect the baggage, and 3 companies of the 20th, and the 2 Royal Artillery guns to proceed to a village on my right and rear, to prevent the enemy from the jungle attacking that part.

I then extended 2 companies of the 80th and 2 of the 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, with the necessary supports, and a reserve of the 7th Police Infantry; the whole under the command of Major Miller.

These I directed to advance and clear the enemy's numerous skirmishers out of the jungle (so as to enable me to approach nearer to the fort) and then to return.

In the meantime, the enemy opened fire from 2 guns in the fort on the artillery and infantry, which was returned by the 2 horse artillery guns on the left, and a few shots from our 18-pounder gun.

The skirmishers advanced, driving the enemy before them, and, to their surprise, came most unexpectedly close upon the fort, and, observing the wall in one part to be rather low, and a few bushes only in front of a wicket gate, they gave a cheer and rushed boldly on, when the enemy ran bodily from the walls and bastions into the jungle behind.

The advance of the 80th, under Captain Young, and also of the 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, under Captain Heigham, excited my warmest admiration.

The whole of the troops behaved most admirably, the infantry and guns skirmishing over a considerable distance, from 7 till 9.30 o'clock, and again from 11 till 12 o'clock, through the very worst country I ever saw. They underwent great fatigue with great cheerfulness.

I am happy to say the loss of life on our side was most trifling, only 2 killed, and 1 officer and 2 men wounded; a return of which I annex.

Two small guns were captured in the fort, together with a considerable quantity of powder, which I require to destroy the fort; also many thousands of percussion caps.

The fort of Simree is exceedingly strong by nature, is situated in a dense jungle running from 1½ to 3 miles on three sides, and the east side, by which I approached, surrounded by a narrow belt of jungle, and a strong abattis completely concealing it.

I beg to enclose a rough sketch of it made by Dr. Kelsall, Her Majesty's 20th Regiment.

I am unable to ascertain the strength of the enemy, but he was in considerable force.

His loss was not great, but was certainly about 100 men, all sepoys (the natives say 200 were killed); 30 were cut up by the police cavalry, under Lieutenant Hawkins, on my left, who found them in full retreat towards Sunkerpore.

I beg to return my thanks to all the officers and troops of the force under my command, especially to Major Miller, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, commanding Infantry; Major Bruce, Horse Artillery, commanding Artillery; and Captain Jones, 1st Seikh Cavalry, commanding the Cavalry; also to Captain Lyons, commanding the 20th Regiment; Captain Heigham, commanding 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, and Captain Young, commanding the 80th Regiment; Lieutenant Chamberlain, commanding Police Force; Lieutenant Manderson, in charge of Siege Train; and to my Staff Officer, Lieutenant Burne, Her Majesty's 20th Regiment, for the able assistance they afforded me in carrying out my wishes.

I have been busily employed during the last two days, with strong fatigue parties of Europeans and Native Infantry, destroying the fort, and blowing up the bastions, which I hope will be effectually completed before I march.

I have, &c.

Commanding Moveable Column.

No. 597 of 1858.

THE Governor-General has much pleasure in directing the publication of the subjoined account of a very gallant and successful attack made by the officers and men of the Etawah levy, upon a force of rebel soldiery, largely superior in numbers and well equipped. It was a daring exploit, and the Governor-General desires to express his warm commendation of the courage, skill, and determination which marked it. His Lordship's thanks are due to Lieutenant Forbes, commanding the levy; to Mr. Hume, the Magistrate of Etawah; to Mr. Maconochie, and Serjeant-Major Edmonds. The death of Mr. Doyle, who sold his life dearly at the head of the cavalry under his command, is a great loss to the public service. It will be a satisfaction to the Governor-General to mark, by the grant of a pension to Mr. Doyle's widow, his sense of the zeal and courage with which that officer's duties have at all times been performed.

The Governor-General desires to acknowledge the gallantry and good example of Ressaldar Mahomed Assudulah Khan, also an officer of the police cavalry. His Lordship confers upon this brave man the 1st class of the "Order of British India," with the title of "Sirdar Bahadoor."

Lieutenant Forbes, Commanding Etawah Yeomanry Levies, to W. Muir, Esq., Secretary to Government, North-Western Province, Allahabad.

*Camp, Sahson,
December 12, 1858.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of his Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General, that an engagement took place between the Etawah levies, with a troop of police cavalry, and a large body of rebels under Ferozeshah and other leaders.

On the afternoon of the 6th instant, while in camp at Deenapore, intelligence reached Mr. Hume, the Magistrate, that a body of rebels, said to be under the Nana, had crossed the Ganges. It was determined at once to march to Puppoond. The distance, 34 miles, was accomplished during the night.

During the 7th, the rebels having arrived in the Etawah district, ravaging the villages, some information was obtained as to their numbers; and as, late at night, it was ascertained that they had surrounded the fort of Sehan, where the Tehseeldar of Bidoonah resides, and parties were threatening Hurchundpore, the fort of a very loyal zeminder, hard by, it was determined by Mr. Hume and myself to move out early next morning to the latter place, and attack the enemy at once, it being extremely probable that, with their superior numbers, they would choose their own opportunity and attack us at a disadvantage.

Some reinforcements reached camp during the night, and on the morning of the 8th the force, as per margin,* left Puppoond, and just about 8 o'clock A.M. came across an outlying picket of the enemy. Their cattle, elephants, &c., were grazing in the fields about two and a half miles from their main body. It was afterwards ascertained that they were surprised, no intimation of our movements having reached them. A couple of round shot drove in the picket, and another mile brought us in sight of the main body under Ferozeshah, numbering 1,400 cavalry and between 100 and 200 infantry; the latter, men of the 28th Native Infantry, who joined Ferozeshah after the evacuation of Fort Royah. The remainder of the cavalry, 600 strong, moved off with the followers, elephants, camels, &c., to the west, some distance from the scene of action.

Our infantry and guns advanced in line, the left being covered by the Etawah cavalry, the right by a company of infantry in skirmishing order, and the 13th troop Police Cavalry.

When within 600 yards of the enemy, the guns were brought into action to the front, and, the rebels shifting a large body of cavalry to our right, the skirmishers were recalled, and the Etawah Cavalry and the 13th Troop rapidly exchanged positions. The Etawah Cavalry were advanced against the enemy under cover of the guns, which, under the able direction of Mr. Hume, who acted as second in command during the day, played on them to the last moment.

The cavalry, under their gallant leader, Mr. Doyle, charged a large division of the rebels. A desperate struggle took place, Mr. Doyle distinguishing himself by the same skilful swordsmanship and daring bravery which gained him so conspicuous a name in all the affairs of the Agra Militia during 1857; when, his horse being severely wounded, he was dismounted and cut to pieces. On this, about 50 of the men, pressed on all sides by superior numbers, gave way, and, pursued by the rebel cavalry, swept down on our right flank. A like number got completely separated from our force, and, being prevented from rejoining by the crowd of the enemy's horsemen, made their way into Etawah; the remainder, for nearly ten minutes, made a desperate stand over the body of their leader, and at last retired in good order.

The loss of so distinguished an officer rendered our subsequent success most dearly bought.

Meanwhile, a party of the enemy came down on our left flank, but were stopped by two successive charges of the 13th troop Police Cavalry, under the able leadership of the Ressaldar Mahomed Assudoo'ah Khan, himself desperately wounded. This brave man, a model of a native soldier, is worthy of reward, and I have the honour to request you will be good enough to move his Lordship, in order that some recognition of his distinguished services may be made; other men of this troop also signalised themselves in hand to hand encounters.

The partial success of the rebels on our right emboldened them. A third detachment, leaving men to engage the 13th troop, swept round to our left rear, and attacked the Infantry Ammunition Guard; they were repulsed with loss on both sides. A fourth party, avoiding the charge of the Etawah Cavalry, passed by our right flank to the rear, and succeeded in driving off three camels. These were speedily recaptured by a company of infantry, who, extending in skirmishing order, advanced rapidly over the plain, retook the camels, and, closing up again, moved back to the guns, threatened in front and flank by the rebel cavalry, who seemed ubiquitous.

During their absence, Mr. Hume was left in command of the guns, and few remaining infantry. He was charged, front, left flank, and rear, by the rebels in great force. Three times they forced their way boldly down on the guns, which, supported by infantry, were brought into action in the above directions; each time they were driven off with loss. This was the critical period of the fight.

The infantry and artillery, reserving their fire, behaved to the admiration of all. Mr. Maconochie directed two of the guns, and Sergeant-Major Edmonds, conspicuous for his address, contributed mainly to the repulse of the last charge, by swinging round the 12-pounder gun he was serving, and taking the enemy in their flank with a volley of grape. Such clouds of dust and smoke were raised, that, except the flashing of the sabres and the noise of the horses, little could be perceived of the movements of the enemy, until they were almost into the square of guns and infantry.

After these repulses, they seemed to have had enough of the fight, and sheered off in all directions. The affair lasted three hours.

We gathered up our dead and wounded, and, intelligence (which proved false) having been received of the advance of a large body of infantry, it was deemed prudent to move on to our destination, Hurchundpore.

The enemy on the field numbered 1,400 cavalry, and between 100 and 200 infantry. The only large individual bodies of men were of the 1st and 2nd Regular, and 11th, 12th, and 15th Irregular Cavalry; the remainder were made up of men of every mutinied cavalry regiment in the service, with 150 Seiks and Affghans, all well armed, the cavalry well mounted.

Their loss was 58 killed and about 25 severely wounded, who were subsequently carried off in the doolies they had with their force; many more were wounded and went off on their horses. Moorad Ally Khan, an ex-Nazim of the Nawab of Furruckabad, and one of their leading resaldars were killed, Goo'am Ghah Peerjee (a disciple of the Moulvie killed at Powayn) severely wounded. These and other particulars were verified by the statements of one of the rebel sowars subsequently taken prisoner.

Our loss was heavy, and is detailed below.

Some carbines, muskets, and a large number of horses remained in our possession. The rebels, encouraged by our small numbers, fought with great energy and determination. They probably comprise the best body of cavalry in the field against us. Full particulars of the week's operations have been detailed in a report submitted by Mr. Hume.

I have, &c.

No. 598 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, C.B., Commanding Artillery Field Force, reporting the operations of a light column from Brigadier Troup's brigade, and an affair with the rebels at Mehndi on the 18th November, 1858.

These operations are highly approved of by the Governor-General.

No. 10.

*Lieutenant-Colonel James Brind, to Major Cox,
Major of Brigade, Brigadier Colin Troup's Field Force.*

Camp Mehndi,

November 20, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the satisfaction of reporting, for the information of Brigadier Colin Troup, commanding field force, the successful operations of the light column as per margin, entrusted to my command. For the more perfect understanding of the performances of this detachment, I consider it necessary to faintly trace the progress of the column from Mittowlie. The Brigadier broke ground at about 7 o'clock on the morning of the 17th, with his moveable column, in the order shown in margin. Crossing about  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile of open space, our course for 3 miles was through thick trees and underwood jungle, when the country was found tolerably open for a considerable distance, here and there narrow belts of jungle, and extensive groves of mangoe and other trees, with villages and cultivation scattered over a beautifully undulating expanse, to the small town of Secundrabad, distant from Mittowlie 11 miles, which we reached about 10 $\frac{1}{2}$  A.M. Here the force rested, and took refreshment, for an hour. From this to Jellalpoore the scenery is very similar to that south of Secundrabad; rich and picturesque. There is a gurra or fort at this place, of the general Oude character, surrounded by thick bamboo fences, and grown over with low jungle, which the brigadier had carefully examined previous to the force passing by it and through the village, north of which, for a mile or two, high grass and patches of forest and cultivation are the principal features, up to the dense belt of jungle, through which we passed the last three miles of the road to the Oel Nuddee, without any event worthy of record, a little before sunset. The distance travelled to this point is about 25 miles. Whilst fording the river, having evidence of the enemy being in force at Ally Gunge and neighbouring villages, distant 3 miles to the north; in accordance with orders, I advanced at as rapid a pace as the cattle were equal to over heavy ground. The enemy opened fire upon my detachment (consisting of 4 guns of the 3rd troop, with brigade staff, 1 squadron of 6th Dragoon Guards, under Lieutenant-Colonel Custance, and the Mooltanee Horse, under Major Cureton). When we were about 16 hundred yards from their position, 4 light guns discharged a few shot, which fell harmless about us. The night was closing in upon us, so, if only to secure safety of our force during the night's bivouack, I determined to dash forward to 600 and 300 yards from the villages, &c., a telling range for round shot and shrapnell, which we poured into the flying foe, until I perceived that the Mooltanee Cavalry I had sent on was sufficiently advanced to fall upon their rear. To our right flank I turned the fire of our guns, and by the admirable practice of Captain Mercer and his officers, the jungle in that direction was also cleared, and I waited the return of the Mooltanee Horse. Major Cureton could not trace the rebels, owing to the jungle and dusk; so I moved towards the main force and made my report to the Brigadier at about 7½ P.M. Major Cureton was as energetic and able in the reconnoissance, which, but for the late hour, would have been turned into a pursuit, as were the Horse Artillery in discomfiting and dislodging the rebel force, of whatever strength, from the country around the open space selected for our bivouack. In the morning, the entire force marched to the encamping ground selected for a day's rest; but the Commanding Officer, having satisfied himself that the rebel army, under command of their leaders, Prince Ferozeshah, Ismail Khan, Mosa Ali Khan, Waliyat Ali, the Peer Zadah and other minor Sirdars, who had been the previous day compelled to retire from Ally Gunge, had passed the night at and near to Choukutta, a village 5 miles to the east, determined on sending a light column in pursuit.

At 10 A. M., I received orders to move in command of the Column as per margin,* and in half an hour the force marched. We found Major Cureton's information perfectly correct; at, and about, the village of Chowkutta was abundant evidence of a large force having lately encamped there with guns, and many elephants, camels, &c. Up to the village of Mohsimabad, I followed in the track of the united rebel forces; for, although they had tried very skilfully to mislead, by diverging with their guns to the right and left, and sweeping the wheel marks from the surface with bramble, &c., the attempts to mislead merely added to our labours; and during our half hour's halt at Bullareeah village, to refresh horse and man, we ascertained that Khan Ali and another Sirdar had taken the direct road to Keuree, viâ Mahowagunge, with some of the guns and the principal number of elephants, camels, &c., &c., whilst Ferozeshah and the other chiefs had made for Tendoon, having with them ten or eleven guns and about 3,000 troops of sorts. I at once decided upon pursuing this force, as the nature of the soil, grass jungle, &c., prevented the possibility of our losing the many gun tracks, where, as along the line of ploughed country over which the Khuree force had passed, the gun tracks were obliterated by the prints of animals' and men's feet.

We found arms and other munitions of war in the villages and huts in every direction, and secured many armed villagers, from whom I obtained valuable information, under threat of their being treated as rebels, with whom they had evidently been serving, though probably on compulsion. The same evidences of attempts to mislead were found throughout our progress, but at last, after a journey of 25 miles, wandering from south round by east, and north to west, we found the enemy retiring from the forests and villages to our front upon Mehndee, when they drew up in as good a military position as they could select; a branch of the Chokha river secured their left flank from being turned, and high grass jungle in the rear to cover their retreat. At a distance of 1600 yards, they fired their first gun upon a detachment of 4th Irregular Cavalry, which I had sent round to ascertain whether the village of Burrageon was clear of inhabitants, ere I fired upon the rebel advance picket. Disposing of a few of the enemy, I moved the artillery and whole line of cavalry in admirable order to the front, disposing of the native cavalry in extended order, so as to show an imposing front, whilst it afforded as trifling a mark for the enemy's fire as possible.

The squadron of 6th Dragoon Guards was admirably kept, in support of our guns, by its gallant and most active commander Captain Bott, assisted by Lieutenant Stoddard, throughout the fight; whilst Captain Ellis equally distinguished himself, aided most ably by Lieutenant Cox, in disposing of his skirmishers as supports to the guns, whether in battery or echelon of half troops. I put up with the enemy's fire in our rapid advance over the first 600 yards, keeping the sub-divisions of the troop at double intervals, and giving their artillerymen but little time to take aim. Though the fire from 10 pieces of ordnance was very heavy, we did not lose a man. At this point a perfect shower of shot and shell was poured into the enemy's position from our 6 guns, for about 10 minutes; the rifles dismounted from the guns, advancing on our flanks in oblique line, so as to aid us with their fire. On perceiving that the enemy was breaking, I advanced the guns in echelon of half batteries, so as to bring an oblique fire upon their artillery; and, throwing forward the right of the right half troop, Captain Mercer was enabled to enfilade the rebel battery, just moving in retreat, with a smashing fire from the 3 guns, obliging them to leave them in their position; the left half troop and supports, dashing up to the front, prevented the possibility of their being carried off. Before our second advance, the enemy commenced withdrawing two of their guns, but we compelled the rebels to drop one of these about half a mile in the direction we were pressing them, after firing its last shot. It is said that one gun, drawn by horses, escaped, on the night overtaking us. Leaving a guard over the captured guns, I kept up the pursuit in the same order for several miles, through long grass jungle, and over ground of a very broken character, attacking their various groups, and giving the fugitives no rest, so long as light favoured us. The execution done by our grape and rifle fire at close quarters must have been even greater than that which our round shot and shell effected at the longer ranges. Another hour or two of daylight would have made our victory still more complete, and enabled us to come up to the fugitives as they were attempting to cross the rapid Chokha river, in which it is reported many men and cattle were drowned. For the security of the captured guns, now three miles in the rear, our own safety, and in the hope of obtaining food for man and horse, I was necessitated to retire the entire force upon the village of Mehndi, where in open ground I placed our own and the rebel guns, and large quantity of ammunition in position, and, with the 6th Dragoon Guards and Rifles, we shared a few biscuits and the last dram per man; some straw was found, which answered for our bed and only covering from the heaviest dew I can call to mind. Our horses remained saddled and in traces, with girths and bits loosened by their only attendants, their gallant European riders. The 4th Irregular Cavalry and Mooltanee Horse bivouacked in a tope and village on our flanks, and the only cause of regret was our being compelled to leave the battle-field to the few of the enemy, who were observed, during the night, in their invariable occupation after battles, burying and burning their dead, and removing what they could.

* Head-Quarters and 3rd Troop 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery; 1 Squadron 6th Dragoon Guards under Captain Bott; 1 Squadron Mooltanee Horse under Captain Dixon; the 4th Irregular Cavalry 300 Sabres, commanded by Captain Hall, and 80 of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, commanded by Captain Ellis.

It was not possible to prevent this; my troops had, between 10½ A.M. and dusk, made a tour of 35 miles, the last 8 or 10 of which, during a two hours' fighting, pursuit, and retirement in like order, firing to the rear; we could not leave nor move our prize, the enemy's artillery, and no preventive measures could have been taken over miles of high grass jungle, interspersed with deep pits and pools of water. I am at a loss for words to express my admiration of the unsurpassed performances of the light column I had the privilege of commanding. Taking advantage of all favourable ground, we must have trotted 8 or 9 miles of the first 25, and during the five miles' pursuit from first sight of the enemy, the trot and gallop were our only paces; strength and energy were most fully tested, and, through God's blessing, not found wanting; 65 miles over a most difficult and unknown country had been accomplished by this portion of Brigadier Troup's field force, between 7 A.M. of the 17th, and dusk the following evening, under circumstances but faintly described.

All our movements and firings were executed with admirable regularity; difficulties were encountered but to be overcome with an enthusiasm and spirit by the European portion of the force, peculiarly British. The Mooltanee Horse, commanded by Captain Dixon, was most admirably directed by as active and gallant a young officer as I would wish to serve with. Unhappily I had but a sufficient number to perform the important duty of feeling the country to our front and flanks. The 4th Irregular Cavalry advanced, as desired, with great regularity, and showed a very imposing front; it is splendidly horsed. It appeared to the European portion of the force, that a most favourable opportunity for this young regiment to distinguish itself in the fight was neglected; but Captain Hall has described the obstacles, and shown that the orders sent, owing to the difficulties of the jungle, &c., did not reach him. Lieutenant Cadell, who had a detachment of this regiment on the left of the guns, was most anxious to carry out my orders, and proved himself a zealous and intelligent officer. At our most advanced position, whilst Captain Mercer with the right half troop and rifle supports, was showering his grape into cover at 250 yards to his front, where a large number of the rebel rifle and matchlockmen were secreted, two mounted leaders stole through the grass to their right. I perceived them galloping towards the left half troop, which was firing round shot and shrapnell upon the more distant foe. Doubtful as all were whether the horsemen belonged to us or the enemy, I galloped towards Lieutenant Cadell's detachment, called out to him and the artillery to look out, for I now observed the fanatics, who came right through the guns, and were at length shot down by our revolvers, or the 4th Cavalry carbines, firing at the same time. The slain were very handsome men, one a Resseldar of the 14th Irregular Cavalry, and the other wore the 12th Cavalry pouch, a native officer of some grade. I distinctly saw the matchlockmen and other soldiers at the ghat and in cover, falling under the discharges of grape from the right half troop and riflemen (here Captain Mercer was ably aided by Lieutenant Hume), as I did the more distant horsemen, from the shot and shell most skilfully thrown by Lieutenants Taylor and Warter. The admirable practice and its effects throughout the engagement were perceived by all, owing to our open order and consequent freedom from smoke, but to none more perfectly than myself and two incomparable Orderly Officers, Captain Bishop, my able staff, and Lieutenant Moncrief, Bengal Engineers, who offered his services. To this most promising young officer I am especially indebted for the great intelligence and pluck he evinced in carrying my orders in an unmistakable manner to the various branches of my command. Lieutenant Moncrief's correctness of eye and judgment for field movements enabled him, on his untiring horse, to carry out my orders with marvellous rapidity, and I can only hope that Brigadier Troup will appreciate Lieutenant Moncrief's voluntary aid as I do. All the European Officers and soldiers in the field upheld the honour of their country to my satisfaction, for I desire to judge all with reference to the material at their disposal and opportunities offered! New levies cannot be expected to evince the zeal of tried veterans, nor can the Hindoostani soldier, under the influence of fanaticism and superstitious awe of their teachers, be expected to act against their brethren (except when quite guarded against such influence) as with the Mooltanee, Sikh, and Afghan, against our common enemy. And I feel confident that Brigadier Troup, in forwarding this report to the Commander-in-Chief, will do me the justice of assuring his Lordship, that whilst I write and speak strongly, but faithfully, I act towards all in accordance with my estimate of their zeal and faithfulness in the discharge of duty, rather than by the amount of work they may have the ability and opportunity of performing. The following day we were engaged, as soon as the fog cleared off, in scouring the battlefield, and collecting information. About 50 dead bodies, principally killed by grape, were counted, one group of 20 having been dragged together, but the evidence of a wounded soldier, some prisoners, and the inhabitants far and wide, goes to prove that the rebel army suffered great loss of men and cattle from our fire, and in attempting to cross the treacherous and rapid Chokha. Their discomfiture, all engaged can certify, was most complete, and after (reliable) evidence, proves that the proud rebel army of 4 P.M. of the 18th November, was before nightfall scattered in all directions before us, and their chiefs powerless fugitives. Captain Dixon, with his Mooltanee, tracked them the following day many miles in various directions, and brought in reliable information to the above effect. Captain Clark's (Assistant Commissioner,) inquiries and observations were most valuable, and generally in support of Captain Dixon's information. I am much indebted to Captain Clark for the spirit and discriminating ability he aided me with throughout the 18th and 19th. Ensign Bird, doing duty with the 3rd troop 3rd brigade Horse Artillery, Provost Marshal of the force, accompanied my column, and was most useful in the intelligence department. In conclusion, I beg to bring to favourable notice the gallant European soldiers who directed and aided, as I have tried to describe, under God's guidance and blessing, gained for Brigadier Troup's Field Force (any detachment from which, under corresponding circumstances, would have executed his orders in like spirit), this glorious victory. The energy, pluck, and unanimity evinced by all our countrymen engaged, could not be surpassed, and must ever be remembered by me with feelings of deep gratitude and pride. I have now the happiness of thus publicly thanking Captain Hall, and his officers united with us in desire to perform their duty in a necessarily difficult command. Captain Bott and his officers, who with his 80 sabres of the distinguished 6th Dragoon Guards, freed us from all anxiety as to cavalry support to the guns, is as gallant as he is energetic. Lieutenant Dixon, commanding detachment Mooltanee Horse, notwithstanding the serious injury lately received, and only partially recovered from, claims my highest praise for thus representing his gallant commander, Major Cureton; of Captain Ellis and his most active subaltern, Lieutenant Cox, who, when the two half troops worked independently or in echelon, shared the command with him, I need but remark that they do honour to that honoured corps (which has been so long and gloriously united in work and spirit with the Bengal Artillery), Her Majesty's 60th Rifles. 2nd Captain C. Mc. W. Mercer, who commanded the troop (owing to Lieutenant Colonel Remington's illness), with his three most zealous subalterns, performed their work to the admiration of all, without an accident or hesitation throughout the day, notwithstanding the pace we kept up over rough and jungle country, interspersed by difficulties so greatly hidden from view, requiring great skill in directing and driving; and, when it is borne in mind that the 36 riflemen had to keep their seats on the ammunition boxes, our freedom from accident entitles Captain Mercer and his noble troop to the highest praise. To the medical officers, Drs. Davenport, Jones, and Oliver, I am much indebted for the zealous performance of their duties whilst exposed, as other officers, to the dangers of the battle. Dr. Oliver took charge of the artillery hospital (on my soliciting Dr. Bowhill to remain with the headquarters of the field force in his important charge) and gave me much satisfaction. Of my staff, Captain Bishop, I have so frequently had occasion to write and speak in the highest terms of praise, that I will merely remark that on this occasion too, he aided me with his usual spirit and ability, meriting my gratitude.

FORWARDED, by order of the Commander-in-Chief to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, with Lord Clyde's approbation.

W. MAYHEW, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 600 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from the Adjutant-General of the Army, forwarding a despatch from Brigadier Douglas, C.B., commanding the disturbed districts of Behar and Ghazee-pore, narrating the final dislodgment of the rebels from the jungles of Jugdees-pore, in Shahabad, and their pursuit into the Kymore Hills.

The Governor-General cordially concurs with the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief in the unqualified approbation his Excellency has expressed of the perseverance and constancy of Brigadier Douglas, C.B., and of the prudent measures adopted by him in attaining this object. His Lordship also highly approves of the conduct and gallantry of the other officers, and of the whole of the men engaged in these operations.

The Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to the Government of India.

Allahabad, December 18, 1858

SIR,

No. 1475.

I HAVE the honour, by order of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, in submission to the Right Honourable the Governor-General, a despatch from Brigadier J. Doug-

C.B., in which that officer narrates the final dislodgment of the rebels from the jungles of Jugdeespore in Shahabad, and their pursuit into the Ky-more Hills.

2. His Excellency would take this opportunity of bringing to the special notice of the Government the perseverance and constancy of the Brigadier commanding, who, after a most harassing and anxious campaign of many months, has at length obtained complete success, by the prudence of his measures, and the indefatigable exertion of himself and the troops under his command, in carrying them into execution.

3. It has been his lot to contend against a hostile country, as well as against the bodies of mutineers and other rebels who found harbourage in it. The difficult duty of clearing the district, delayed for a long time by the impossibility of acting in a satisfactory manner, while the district was absolutely flooded by the late rains, could not be attained by sudden or hasty measures. It was necessary for the Brigadier to proceed gradually and surely, enclosing the enemy in a system of posts, which at last he was able to press forward simultaneously, and so put an end to the struggle in Shahabad.

4. The pursuit which afterwards ensued is of very remarkable character.

5. His Excellency strongly recommends to the protection of the Governor-General the officers mentioned with distinction by Brigadier Douglas.

I have, &c.,

W. MAYHEW, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

Brigadier Douglas, C.B., commanding the disturbed districts of Behar and Ghazee-pore, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Mohuneea, October 31, 1858.

IN continuation of my letter of the 27th instant, I have now the honour to report, for the information of the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, the further operations, since the 14th instant, of the various columns acting in Shahabad under my orders.

To explain the relative position of the rebels and my own columns, I must premise that the enemy, estimated at 4,000 Sepoys of the old Bengal army, and from 400 to 500 cavalry, were, on the 9th instant, when I commenced my movement from Dinapore, distributed over the district, in five large divisions, as follows :—

One at Jugdeespore.

Another between Buruhpore and Chunguen; a portion of these said to be entrenched, with two guns in position, at Buruhpore.

A third at Peeroo, south of Jugdeespore.

A fourth at Karee Sath, north-east of Jugdeespore. And the fifth at Balawur, fourteen miles due east of Jugdeespore. To operate against these several bodies, and with a view of driving them towards the common centre, Jugdeespore, I had issued orders for the following movements. On the 13th October four columns were to move from Buxar, and, driving the enemy before them, to form in conjunction with the force under Colonel Turner, advancing from Sasseram, a connected line from the Ganges to the Soane, and thus close the enemy into the jungle on the west and south sides. These four columns were composed and commanded as follows :—

One under Major Lightfoot, 84th Regiment

(strength as per margin)* to march to Puhareepore on the direct Arrah and Buxar road.

The second, under the personal command of Colonel Dunsford, C.B. (hitherto commanding at Buxar, and to whom the details of the operations on the west side of the jungle were entrusted) to Peepradh.

The third under Captain Snow, 84th Regiment, to Peeharee Chuk.

The fourth under Major Carr, Madras Rifles, to Ekil.

The above columns were directed to be in position by noon on the 15th instant, driving all before them towards the jungle, and to form a connected line of infantry, with advanced cavalry posts in the intervals. Colonel Turner was to form three posts to the south, thus completing the chain from the Ganges to the Soane, and he himself with a moveable column was to drive in the southern division of the enemy at Peeroo. Colonel Walter was to take up his position to the east of Jugdeespore, he having previously driven into the jungle the Balawur division of the rebels.

The operations up to the 14th October, including the skirmish on that date near Karee Sath, have already been reported. On that day the guns of the rebels were heard from the direction of Buruhpore, and the report from Colonel Dunsford received next day (forwarded herewith) shewed that the portion of the general plan entrusted to him had been promptly and skillfully executed. The same success had attended Colonel Turner's and Major Carr's columns, as also that of Colonel Walter and my own, as previously reported.

Finding that complete success had attended these operations, on the night of the 15th instant, I sent orders for the whole of the posts to close towards the jungle. These had to be conveyed through a country swarming with the enemy, the road lying in some places actually through their pickets in the jungle. I accordingly entrusted their transmission to selected detachments, respectively, under Troop Serjeant Major John Shiel and Serjeant William Bird, of the 2nd Battalion Military Train. As this was a duty of a very peculiar nature, and most important, I hope to be excused in mentioning by name every individual employed;† for right well did these excellent non-commissioned officers, and the gallant men under their command, fulfil their errand; they passed in safety through great dangers, reaching their destination at the time appointed, carrying the instructions to the advancing columns, thereby enabling them to co-operate as desired.

Mounted Detachment 10th Foot, No. 2393, Private James Stone; No. 3485, Private John Little. 12th Irregular Cavalry, Duffadar Ameer Ali; Nishan Burdar Ajeem Oollah Khan.

On the 16th instant, the force as per margin,* under my personal command, moved from Arrah and arrived at Beeheea (at the north-east corner of the jungle) on the morning of the 17th instant.

17th at 10 o'clock A.M., I was in communication with Major Lightfoot's column on the west; a connected line of posts was at once established along the railway embankment, passing through and closing the north of the jungle. My cavalry, and the mounted rifle detachment of the 10th Foot, were pushed on to the village of Roophan further south, about two miles east of the village of Dawa, and were employed the whole day in skirmishing with detached parties of the enemy, who appeared in the skirts of the jungle, either from a wish to break out towards the Soane or to discover our intentions. During the afternoon, I pushed forward, in support, a company of the 35th Regiment, under command of Captain Browne, who, in conjunction with the cavalry and mounted riflemen, held the enemy in check during the night. I purposely kept their attention engaged in this quarter, to give time for the completion of the closing movements of my converging columns, with all of whom I was in frequent communication. At 1 P.M., I sent orders to Colonel Walter and Colonel Turner (the former then actually at Arrah, but supposed to be at Ukgaon on the Soane, the latter at Peeroo), directing them to be, Colonel Walter at Musondhee, three miles east of Jugdeespore, by noon on the 18th, and Colonel Turner in communication with the force of Major Carr, then stationed on the west of the jungle, to form a connected line across it, the left of which was to rest at Jumwan on the west, the right on the plain to the east of the jungle. On the line being formed, it was to advance skirmishing up the jungle direct on Jugdeespore, so as to arrive there by noon. My column, in conjunction with that under Major Lightfoot, was to skirmish south to Jugdeespore, and attack the entrenchments on the north and east, while Colonel Dunsford, advancing from Hetumpore, attacked on the north-west.

The above rough sketch of the movements and distribution of my several columns (most minute details, too long to enter into here, had been issued to, and acknowledged by, the several officers commanding) will show that I entertained no unreasonable expectation in hoping to hem the rebels into their stronghold by noon on the 18th instant, and then, by a simultaneous assault on all sides, to end the campaign in Shahabad at one blow.

The whole of the arrangements, with one exception, were completed almost beyond my expectation, considering that my chain of posts extended over about sixty miles.

Colonel Walter, who had been directed to take up his position at Musondhee, three miles east of Jugdeespore, unfortunately found it necessary (in consequence of the unfavourable reports he had received of the inundated state of the country) to make a circuit of some thirty miles viâ Arrah, and hence did not reach his post until late in the afternoon; the gap thus left open was only too readily taken advantage of by the enemy. Colonel Turner from the south, and Colonel Dunsford from the north-west, encountered considerable opposition in their advance on Jugdeespore, as is shewn by their several reports; my own advance was almost without opposition, and we arrived at Jugdeespore to find it evacuated by the enemy, whose rear guard left their entrenchments on one side, as we entered them on the other. The rebels had fled, abandoning two guns and their immense earth-works (surprising from their extent and the time and labour evidently expended on their construction), having finally made but a feeble resistance. For some time no trace of the main body could be discerned, as none of Mr. Money's numerous spies had returned with information. About 3 P.M., receiving what appeared reliable information that the enemy had fled south, leaving Colonel Dunsford's column to garrison Jugdeespore, I pushed on with my own and Lightfoot's column towards Jhitowra, and, meeting Colonel Turner, I directed him to proceed at once to Suhar on the Soane, to anticipate any movement of the enemy across the river into Behar. It subsequently transpiring that the enemy had turned eastward, I therefore, at 8 P.M., despatched Major Sir Henry Havelock, with all the disposable cavalry and mounted riflemen of the 10th Foot, directing him to march rapidly through Arrah, and then proceed up the left bank of the Soane; at 10 P.M., I despatched Colonel Walter, with his infantry only, to follow the cavalry towards Nansagor, moving direct on that place, and thus taking a more northerly line than that on which the rebels were marching; they would have a force both north and south moving parallel to them, while Major Sir H. Havelock's force, moving along a good road the whole way, would, I anticipated, be in time to turn them off from the Soane. Orders were also sent to the four companies of Madras Rifles, on the right bank of the Soane, to be on the alert. Halting during the night of the 18th at Narainpore, I marched at daybreak on the 19th, to Arrah (where I left the Madras battery guns and the mortars), with a view of crossing the Soane at Koelwar ghat if necessary.

During the night I heard that the rebels, headed and turned by the forces which had been sent in pursuit,* had halted during the night of the 18th, at Bullageon, about (6) six miles east of Jugdeespore, and had moved the next day to Gudhune, towards which place I followed them on the 20th sending orders to Colonel Walter, who had remained the whole of the 19th near Gudhune, to follow up the enemy, who, on my approach, turning south-east from that place to Sheopore, had eventually gone due south towards Baruth. Having first been misled by false information to Sheopore, I myself regained the Peeroo road, and marched so as to move on the right flank of the enemy, and halted that night at Peeroo (thirty-three miles' march). Sir Henry Havelock meanwhile, having also heard at Nansagor, at 3 A.M., that the rebels had passed the night of the 19th at Gudhune, had marched at 7 A.M., direct for that place, and thence after me to Sheopore, from which place I now despatched him in pursuit of the enemy towards Baruth. His report will describe the successful skirmish at Nonadee, in which, by his co-operation, Colonel Turner's column was enabled to hem in and kill 400 of the rebels, besides 100 more who made direct for the Soane, retracing their steps on finding themselves cut off from the main body, and who were ridden down and sabred almost to a man by his cavalry near Pooruhura. Colonel Walter, following the main body due south, bivouacked that night to the south of Nonadee, near Sukreta, where Colonel Turner's and Sir Henry Havelock's forces were also assembled. 21st October, intelligence reaching me during the night that the enemy had gone to Suhejee, I marched from Peeroo in pursuit at 5 A. M., but about 6-30 A. M., I ascertained that they had turned west, and were supposed to be making for the south of the jungle; it was some hours before certain information could be obtained. I then learnt that the enemy had gone to Koath Kas, for which place I immediately marched. The cavalry had now reached Suhejee, from which place Sir Henry Havelock rode over to my force for orders. About noon I desired him to proceed to Koath Kas. This he did, and, reaching it about 4-30 P. M., engaged the rebels, whom he found cooking, and drove them through the town in an easterly direction, killing and wounding a great many. About this time, 5 P. M., the column under my command, which had been marching all day, came in view of the enemy, who, pressed by the cavalry from the west, were in considerable commotion, and evidently preparing to move off from the strong position they had taken up. A walled village, surrounded by a deep moat, and a succession of enclosed gardens, covered their left, and a mass of dense topes of trees flanked their right. A small party of the enemy's cavalry were drawn up to my right front, and appeared disposed to threaten the baggage, which I immediately closed up, and forthwith prepared for action. A strong body of about 400 rebels, who were occupying a tope of trees on my left, evincing a resolute determination to hold their position, I ordered up Captain Simeon's guns, covered by a company of the 84th under Major Lightfoot. A smart fire was poured upon the guns. The artillery practice was excellent, and several shells, bursting in the very midst of the rebels, threw them into confusion, and the company of the 84th, rushing forward at this opportune moment, speedily cleared the enclosure, and drove the rebels headlong before them. In the meantime, the 35th Regiment, in skirmishing order, advanced rapidly on the main body, who were retiring by our right, still pressed closely by the cavalry. I continued following the rebels for some little distance, when the darkness of the night, and the heavy nature of the ground, rendering further pursuit useless, I halted and bivouacked in front of the village of Mujbowlee. In this affair the enemy's precipitate flight and the lateness of the day saved them from severe loss, but they left some thirty sepoys dead on the field. 22nd October, information having reached me that the enemy had fled south through Huldheea, I accordingly moved, at 7 o'clock A. M., in that direction. Here I found Major Sir Henry Havelock, who, having passed the night at Lethan, had marched at daybreak for Huldheea.

After he had halted two hours, I sent him south to Looloonee. In the meanwhile the rebels, on the evening of the 21st, enabled, by their superior local knowledge, and having the whole country in their interests, to elude us, had doubled due west, making for Dinareh and Kochas, a party of them moving through Bhanpore. This, however, was not ascertained for some hours afterwards, and, supposing that they had gone south, I regained the direct Sasseram road, and marched to Bickrumgung, whilst Colonel Walter was ordered to move parallel to me, three miles distant on my right flank. The cavalry meanwhile had moved from Looloonee, nearly due west to Bhanpore, and thence to Dinareh, and, Major Sir Henry Havelock sending back his information to Colonel Walter, that officer followed in support towards Dinareh. Resting four hours at Dinareh, the cavalry pressed on to Kochas; and, hearing that Major Havelock had reached that place, and thence proceeded south, I marched on the morning of the 23rd from Bickrumgunge to Khuradee, which I reached about 8 P. M. Colonel Walter halted that night about four miles to the south of Kochas. The final skirmish between the rebel force and the cavalry had now taken place near the village of Gourie, thirteen miles north of the Grand Trunk Road, with only partial success, and without having turned them off their line of march for the hills. After this, their flight was continued due south to the Grand Trunk Road, but they were so closely pursued by the cavalry that they had no time to do the slightest damage. Colonel Turner, now at Jehanabad on the Grand Trunk Road, was warned too late of their approach. He made an attempt to cut them off, but, his guns and cavalry coming unexpectedly on an impassable nullah, he was compelled to abandon the pursuit. The column under my command arrived at Jehanabad on the morning of the 24th, about twelve hours after the cavalry, and was followed that same evening by Colonel Walter; both columns halted. Colonel Turner had already despatched the cavalry under Sir H. Havelock towards the hills, to which point he was himself about to follow; they returned next morning, not having been able to overtake the rebels. I then directed Colonel Turner to take his column along the left bank of the Soane to watch the passes in the Kymore hills, and to prevent the enemy crossing into Palamon. I also detached three posts from my own column to watch the passes on the Shahabad side of the hills.

Although it has been to me a source of some regret that my plans for surrounding and compelling the enemy to fight in his entrenchment at Jugdeespore, which had been concerted after the most careful and anxious deliberation, should have been frustrated by the unavoidable absence of one of my columns on the morning of the assault, yet I venture to flatter myself that the pursuit which subsequently followed was sustained by such unwearied energy and vigour, and was marked by a success so signal, that I was more than compensated for my previous disappointment, and I have no hesitation in saying that this pursuit would have been still more destructive to the enemy, had they not been artfully screened by the inhabitants, every individual of whom, throughout the length and breadth of the district, systematically attempted to mislead and deceive us, and it was only by the most rigid and searching enquiry that we were enabled to keep on the trail of the fugitives. In the various encounters that took place throughout my operations, between 700 and 800 of the enemy have fallen, besides numbers wounded; and those who, by their wonderful endurance, succeeded in eluding my pursuing columns, only escaped with their bare lives, an utterly broken, disheartened, and demoralized rabble.

And I am happy to add, that the district which was so lately infested by an enemy that could be numbered by thousands, and had held the whole country in terror, is now clear of every armed rebel.

It is now my duty and gratification to bring to his Lordship's notice the names of those who have given me such cordial support, not only during the present operations, but during the whole time I have had the honor to command these districts; and in such an extensive command, numbering a body of upwards of 8,000 men, I trust I may be pardoned for mentioning so many officers.

I have to thank Lieutenant-Colonel Turner, C. B., for the very able manner in which he has watched the Grand Trunk Road during the time it has been under his charge. I must also thank this energetic and tried officer for his conduct in repeated engagements, particularly lately at Nonadee, where he nearly annihilated the enemy opposed to him. Colonel Turner, C. B., makes favorable mention of Major Ross, commanding Camel Corps; Captain Luxmore, commanding detachment, 37th Regiment; Captain Rattray, commanding 1st Bengal Police Battalion; Lieutenant Currie, commanding detachment of 20th Punjab Infantry; Lieutenant Franklyn, commanding detachment Royal Artillery; Lieutenant Baker, commanding Cavalry, 1st Bengal Police Battalion; Lieutenant Gordon, 29th Regiment, Staff Officer; Captain Nicholson, Commissariat Officer; and Mr. Coles, Deputy Magistrate.

To Colonel Dunsford, C. B., I had entrusted very important and responsible duties. He had in the first instance to attack and dislodge an enemy strongly entrenched in position at Burrah-pore, and afterwards to direct the movement of the columns on the west side of the jungle. The admirable way in which these services were performed by this excellent officer merits my warmest approbation. I regret much that he was severely wounded in attacking the entrenchment of Jug-deespore. Colonel Dunsford, C. B., makes favorable mention of Major Fowler, who commanded 4th Madras Cavalry at the action of Buruhpore; Lieutenant Edwards, commanding detachments 20th Punjab Infantry; Major Lightfoot, commanding 84th; Major O'Brien, 84th Regiment; Captain Morris, 4th Madras Cavalry; Captain Pratt, commanding wing 84th; Ensign Lightfoot, commanding detachment, 20th Punjab Native Infantry; Assistant-Surgeons Elliot and Eteson, respectively of the 4th Madras Cavalry and 20th Punjab Infantry; and Gregory, 84th Regiment.

Mr. Garstin, Deputy Magistrate, and Captain Lloyd, Stud Department.

My thanks are also due to Colonel Hutchinson, 35th Regiment, who led his corps gallantly, and I regret that severe illness should have compelled him to relinquish his command. Colonel Walter, 35th Regiment, has displayed much zeal during his command at Arrah, and has been successful in several affairs with the enemy, and I beg to tender to this officer my acknowledgments for his co-operation in the recent operations. Colonel Walter mentions favorably Major Butler, commanding detachment, 2nd Battalion 60th Rifles; Captain Orme, commanding detachment 10th Foot; Captain Baring, Staff Officer; Lieutenant Ross, 35th Regiment, commanding detachment 1st Bengal Police Battalion; Assistant-Surgeon Patterson, 35th; and Lieutenant Shaw, 2nd Battalion 60th Regiment, Field Adjutant.

Major Sir Henry Havelock, detached in command of the cavalry, mentions most favourably Captain Bartholomew, mounted detachment 10th Foot, and Lieutenants Thompson, Bodkin, Corbet, and De Vine, of the 2nd Battalion Military Train, (the first especially), and the distinguished gallantry of Lieutenant Beadon, 3rd Sikh Cavalry. He also mentions Lieutenant Baker, commanding cavalry 1st Bengal Police Battalion; Mr. Dunne, indigo planter, and Ressaldars Futteh Sing and Fyzoolah Khan, 3rd Sikh Cavalry.

Major Carr, commanding Madras Rifles; Major Lightfoot, commanding 84th Regiment; and Captain Snow, 84th, had all charge of columns, and discharged the duties devolving upon them to my entire satisfaction. Major Carr, in addition to his services on the present occasion, has for some time commanded at Buxar, during which he has more than once encountered and defeated the rebels, and Major Lightfoot has commanded his regiment throughout this and the former campaign. To Captain Lisdall, who succeeded to the command of the 35th Regiment on the retirement of Colonel Hutchinson; to Captain Gibb, of the Bengal Artillery; Captain Robertson, Madras Artillery; and to Captain the Honourable D. Arbuthnott, Shahabad Police Battalion; Captain Wyatt, Military Train; Dr. Chambers, 35th Regiment, senior medical officer, I am much indebted for the assistance they have afforded me, as also to Captain Simeon commanding Bengal Artillery and Officiating Commissary of Ordnance to the force; to Captain Browne, 35th Regiment, Deputy Judge Advocate to the force; and Lieutenant Champain, Bengal Engineers. Lieutenant Champain has displayed great ability as an engineer officer, and has rendered me great service.

To the officers comprising my Staff, Major Sir H. M. Havelock, Bart., 18th Regiment, Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General; Major Stevenson, 79th Highlanders, Brigade Major; and Captain Wilkinson, 4th European Light Cavalry, Deputy Assistant-Quartermaster-General, I am under the greatest obligations. But for their cordial assistance, I could not have carried on the duties entrusted to me, and I can safely say, that three more zealous, untiring and intelligent staff officers are not in Her Majesty's army, and I beg to be allowed to commend them to his Lordship's notice. I cannot conclude without mentioning the name of Mr. Alonzo Money, collector of Shahabad, who accompanied me and was of great service in giving information. This gentleman is as distinguished for his gallantry in the field as for his qualities as a magistrate.

When the enemy escaped from Jugdeespore, I looked about for the officer whom I thought most capable of conducting a rigorous and difficult cavalry pursuit. Sir Henry Havelock was the man I fixed upon, as being, by his intimate knowledge of the native language and character, his peculiar aptitude for obtaining information, and his indefatigable perseverance, the most fitted for such a command. I need hardly say I am not disappointed. The cavalry under their able and energetic leader were scarcely out of their saddles for five days, during which time they traversed upwards of two hundred miles, over a country so deep that the horses were constantly up to their saddle girths in water. This is the first occasion on which mounted infantry have been employed in pursuit of a flying enemy, and I can safely say that the experiment was most satisfactory. To the officers non-commissioned officers and men who so cheerfully supported me in long and harassing marches, frequently wading up to their knees through swamps and water, without tents or baggage of any description, I am under the deepest obligations, and to each and all I beg to offer my sincere thanks for their exertions during the past operations.

I beg to forward reports from Colonel Turner, C.B., Colonel Dunsford, C.B., Sir H. Havelock and Colonel Walter, as also a general return of the casualties which have occurred during the operations.

I have, &c.,

No. 604 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Major-General Whitlock, commanding Saugor Field Division, forwarding a report from Lieutenant Clemons, 3rd Madras European Regiment, of a successful attack made by a detachment of Madras troops under his command, in concert with a detachment of Bombay troops, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Partridge, on a party of rebels in the village and fort of Putna.

The Governor-General highly approves of the energetic and gallant conduct of Lieutenant Clemons on the occasion.

SIR

No. 591.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for submission to the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, copies of letters reporting the success of an attack made by Lieutenant Clemons, 3rd

Madras European Regiment, on a party of rebels in the village and gurhee of Putna, which I trust will meet with his Lordship's approbation.

I have, &c.

Saugor,

SIR,

No. 887.

I HAVE great pleasure in forwarding a letter from Lieutenant Clemons, 3rd Madras European Regiment, commanding a detachment which left Saugor on the 8th instant with treasure, together with copies of two letters from Lieutenant-Colonel Partridge to him, the one asking the Lieutenant for co-operation in an attack on rebels, and the other thanking him for such co-operation.

Lieutenant Clemons seems to have taken a very active and prominent part in this affair, and to have gained the entire approbation of Lieutenant-Colonel Partridge.

Putna is a fortified town and hill, with a deep jungle on one side, and some jungle on all sides. It was stormed in May last by a detachment of 31st Bengal Native Infantry, under Captain Finch and Lieutenant Fellowes; but the town was not destroyed as it should have been. It is one of the resorts of Jahgurrh Bundeelas, and will probably be reoccupied by them in a week.

I have, &c.,

F. WHEELER, Brigadier, Commanding
Saugor District.

Lieutenant C. R. Clemons, Commanding Detachment to the Brigade-Major, Saugor District.

Camp Narheet,

SIR, November 14, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Brigadier commanding, that, on the morning of the 13th instant, at the request of Lieutenant-Colonel Partridge, with a force as per margin,* I marched to act in concert with him against the rebel village of Putna, situated at the foot of a hill, and surrounded by impenetrable jungle, with a fort commanding it above.

2. From information received I learnt that the strength of the rebels was about 1,500; they had apparently abandoned the village, and had advantageously posted themselves in large numbers in the fort, and among the rocks surrounding it.

3. On the arrival of the detachment within about 400 yards of the hills, and while Colonel Partridge, commanding the force, and Major W. Lamb, Assistant Adjutant-General, Lahore Division, who had kindly volunteered his services for the occasion, were reconnoitring the enemy's position, a heavy fire was opened upon them from the fort, upon which Colonel Partridge returned to the advanced party, and led them on to the attack, and directed Major Lamb to take the reserve through the village, and advance up the other side of the hill.

4. The skirmishers advanced up the hill in a most dashing style, with the usual cheer, driving the enemy with rapidity from rock to rock, and in less than half an hour the outworks and fort were in our possession. The rebels, retreating into the dense jungle, were closely followed up; their loss cannot be determined upon with anything like accuracy, on account of the thickness of the jungle, but some bodies were found.

5. I am happy to say that there were no casualties in our detachment.

6. The conduct of officers and men met with my warmest approbation.

I have, &c.

C. R. CLEMONS, Lieutenant,

are much disturbing the country, it occurs to me that we should hardly be performing our duty to Government without attacking them.

If, therefore, you will favour me with your co-operation to the extent of 100 rank and file, half European and half native, I think our united resources will be sufficient for their discomfiture and dispersion, and in such a cause I feel assured the Brigadier commanding at Saugor will fully approve of such a proceeding.

OUR little affair of yesterday against the village and gurhee of Putna being over, and such an example made of the insurgents as will, I hope, lead to their dispersion, will you allow me the liberty of personally congratulating you upon the part taken by yourself, officers and men in the attack?

As leader of the advance party, we may fairly attribute to you our success in the first place; and the steady conduct of your officers and men, under the sharp fire they encountered, I myself witnessed.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch from Major-General Michel, C.B., commanding the Malwa Division, reporting an action with the rebels at Kurai on the 25th October last.

No. 30.

Major-General Michel, Commanding Malwa Division, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp Kurai,

26th October, 1858.

SIR,

No. 392.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, for the information of his Lordship the Commander-in-

Chief, that, having arrived at Lullutpoor on the 22nd instant, with force as per margin,* information was brought to me that the enemy had been checked at the Syrus Ghât of the Betwah, and had rapidly returned to Jaclone. This place is about 8 miles south south-west of Lullutpore.

2. Without guns or wheeled carriage, the rebels were able to move through the mountains and dense jungle, which comprises the country from Jaclone, proceeding via Pauly, Narhut, Balabert, to Kunjea. I was therefore compelled to move by Malthon and Doojee by forced marches.

3. On the night of the 24th, I heard that the enemy was at Kinlasa; knowing that he would move during the night, I moved on Kurai at 2 A.M., and at dawn on the 25th we discerned the rebel army crossing our front, just beyond Kurai.

4. As I was desirous of bringing my infantry into action, I had ordered their march one hour before the cavalry; the consequence was that the cavalry had only just come up in the rear, when the infantry, under Colonel Lockhart, having cut the enemy's line of march in half, had wheeled to the right, and part advanced skirmishing. The infantry had already dispersed the enemy, who were not formed up in order of battle when the cavalry arrived.

5. Their duty then consisted in rapid pursuit; the ground was of so broken a nature that this could not be easily effected.

The cavalry accordingly, in three different directions, pursued different bodies of the enemy.

* 1st Column.—Fighting men: 3rd troop Bombay Horse Artillery, 60, and 4 guns; Her Majesty's 8th Hussars, 118; Her Majesty's 17th Lancers, 90; 1st Bombay Lancers, 93; 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry, 98; Her Majesty's 95th Regiment, 20; Mayne's Horse, 150; total, 629.

2nd Column.—3rd Bombay Light Cavalry, 50; Bombay Artillery, 80, and 4 guns of 2-6; Her Majesty's 71st Highlanders, 210; Her Majesty's 92nd Highlanders, 320; 19th Regiment Native Infantry, 550; total, 1,190. Grand total, 1,819.

Colonel Curtis, on the right, did not come up with any body of the enemy, who were on his side principally cavalry, and was unable to advance very far, as the enemy threatened our long line of baggage. Captain Sir W. Gordon, commanding a body consisting of the 17th Lancers, and 3rd Light Cavalry under Captain Oldfield, pursued for about 6 miles, and as usual did his duty very efficiently and well, cutting up numbers of the enemy.

Captain Mayne, with about 60 of his Horse, did thorough good service, pursuing the enemy for 9 or 10 miles, and killing about 150.

6. The infantry followed about 5 miles, clearing villages of the enemy, and occasioning them some loss. The result of the day's proceedings was the cutting off, and driving to the north, about 3,000 of the rebels, of which about 350 were killed: one-half of the remainder threw down their arms, and the remainder were so spread over the face of the country as to make it a matter of difficulty again to reassemble.

7. The main body, under Tantia Topce, passed Kurai about two or three hours before our arrival, on march to the south.

8. It will be seen by the map that the enemy, on the night of the 23rd, were 8 miles nearer Kurai by the jungle route; and as this could not be traversed by the force under my command, so the enemy were, in fact, at least 20 miles nearer to Kurai than ourselves.

9. The infantry, by 1 o'clock P.M. on the 25th, had traversed 62 miles in sixty hours, 12 miles of which was over broken ground, skirmishing with the enemy.

I solicit to bring this fact prominently to the notice of his Lordship, as a proof of the excellent spirit and devotion of the soldiery.

Commanding Malwa Division.

While the conduct of the officers and men engaged in these operations has given the Governor-General the highest satisfaction, his Lordship regrets that it has been accompanied by the loss of Captain C. SIR,

No. 1682.

I HAVE the honour, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, a letter in original, from Lieutenant-Colonel M. Galwey, C.B., 1st Madras Fusiliers, commanding Field Detachment, dated 24th ultimo, with annexments, reporting the capture of two small forts in the vicinity of Mahonah; and I am to express Lord Clyde's regret that Captain Scott, of the Madras Engineers, who had already achieved a good reputation as an officer, should have fallen in these operations.

W. MAYHEW, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 34.

Lieutenant-Colonel Galwey, C.B., to the Major of Brigade with Brigadier Horsford, C.B.

SIR,

Camp Koolee, November 24, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier Horsford, C.B., that, agreeably to instructions received, I marched from Mahonah with the troops as per margin,* at daybreak yesterday, and at about half-past eight o'clock, arrived before the small fort of Rehora, situated on the right bank of the Goomtee, about nine miles from Mahonah.

I halted the troops, while Captain Steel, the civil officer with the detachment, sent Her Majesty's proclamation into the fort, with an intimation to the rebels, of whom there were about 200 (50 or 60 being sepoys of the regular army), that on their laying down their arms they would be spared. An answer was shortly received to the effect, that the fort and all the munitions of war it contained would be surrendered without opposition. Captain Steel accordingly entered the fort, followed by the detachment of the Punjab Rifles, but found that many of the rebels were escaping with their arms, some across the Goomtee, which runs close under the wall of the fort, and some towards Koolee, a fort about two miles higher up the river. The Punjabees poured a fire into them, and followed the latter along the bank of the river in the direction of Koolee, while I took the horse artillery guns, supported by cavalry and infantry, round to intercept the fugitives, but, owing to the numerous ravines intersecting the high bank, did not arrive in time to do more than throw a few shells into such bodies as were still within range on the opposite side.

I had decided on encamping here with a view to demolishing as much of the fort as possible, when a report reached me from the officer commanding the Detachment Punjaub Rifles, who, in the heat of pursuit, had followed the rebels in the direction of Koolee, that he had suddenly come under the fire of that fort, and requested support.

It being still early in the day, and Captain Steel having arranged with the Karinda of the Chowdry of Lorabela for the demolition of the Fort of Rehora, I considered it an object to have an additional day to dismantle that of Koolee before rejoining the Brigadier; as also more advisable to support the Punjabees than to withdraw them from such a distance.

I, therefore, resumed my march, and about half-past twelve o'clock arrived before Koolee, which, according to the information I received, was held by from 100 to 200 rebels, of whom some 50 or 60 were said to be regular sepoys.

A similar offer of terms was made, but rejected.

A village between the road by which we approached and the fort, was then cleared by the fire of the two mortars and of two companies of the Madras Fusiliers, whom I placed on the bank of the river to watch the ghat, and also prevent the rebels from doubling back. I then moved, with the mortars and the remainder of the Fusiliers, round the village to the west face of the fort, of which I obtained a view at a distance of about 350 yards.

While a fire was kept up by the mortars and the supporting company of the Fusiliers, the place was more closely reconnoitred by Captain Scott, Field Engineer, and myself, until we discovered the approach to the gate, and a position from which the artillery fire would be more effective.

To this latter the mortars and the two guns were brought; and the latter in a short time opened a practicable breach in the wall in front of the gate, but as this only served to disclose the fact of the approach being strongly flanked by defences, on which the artillery with me could have little effect, and as I did not consider the speedy possession of a place of this nature worth the sacrifice of life it must have entailed, I decided on suspending operations till I should receive further instructions from the Brigadier, and withdrew the troops to camp which had been pitched about a mile from the fort, and from which pickets were thrown out to prevent the egress of the rebels on this side the river.

* Detachment F. Troop, Royal Horse Artillery, 1 6-pounder gun; 1 12-pounder howitzer; 1 officer 52 men. Detachment 2nd Company, Royal Artillery, 2 5½-inch mortars; 1 officer, 13 men. Madras Sappers, 1 officer, 41 men. Detachment 7th Hussars, 4 officers, 78 men. Detachment Hodson's Horse, 1 native officer, 25 men. 1st Madras Fusiliers, 28 officers, 566 men. 5th Punjab Rifles, 2 officers, 3 native officers, 137 men.

About midnight, information reached me that the rebels had evacuated the fort, crossed the Goomtee, and fled to Kyarnowgong. The former intelligence I found this morning to be correct.

About 40 of the rebels were killed in the pursuit from Rehora; their loss at Kooelee I have been unable to ascertain.

It grieves me deeply to have to report the loss on our part of Captain Scott, Field Engineer, who was shot while endeavouring more nearly to reconnoitre the gate. I need not dilate on his value, as it was well known to the Brigadier, but must express my sorrow at being unable to return him my thanks for his zealous and active services during the day.

I have nothing further to report than that the conduct of both officers and men was admirable, although they were under arms for a protracted period, without being allowed that full play to their efforts, which would have secured them instant success. The artillery and the supporting companies of Fusiliers worked gallantly and steadily under a harassing fire.

Captain Steel, Assistant Commissioner, afforded me every assistance in his power.

I have the honour to enclose a return of casualties, as also of the captured munitions of war.

I have, &c.,

M. GALWEY, Lieutenant-Colonel
Madras Fusiliers,
Commanding Field Detachment.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law, on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas by a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 21st day of January, 1859, it was ordered and directed that British newspapers might be transmitted by the post between the places therein mentioned, subject to the several rates of postage and regulations therein contained.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Warrant should be repealed, and that such rates of postage should be charged, and such other regulations made with respect to certain British newspapers sent by the post as are hereinafter contained.

1. Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct that the said Warrant, dated the 21st day of January, 1859, and the several rates of postage, and the several orders, directions and regulations therein mentioned and set forth, relating to the transmission by the post of certain British newspapers shall cease and determine, and shall be, and the same are hereby repealed and revoked.

And we do further order, and direct as follows :

2. That every British newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies, may be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to the East Indies, by packet boat via Southampton and Egypt, at a rate of postage of twopence each.

3. That on every newspaper transmitted under this Warrant, as hereinbefore is mentioned, exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, rates of postage, as follows ; that is to say :

On every such newspaper, exceeding four ounces in weight, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, a rate of three pence.

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such newspaper above the weight of eight ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an additional rate of postage of one penny, and every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight, shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum of one penny.

4. That every British newspaper posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to China, Hong Kong, Siam, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, Japan, and Australia, may be transmitted by the post to China, Hong Kong, Siam, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, Japan, and Australia by packet boat, via Southampton and Egypt, at a rate of two pence each.

5. That every newspaper posted in Hong Kong, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post to the United Kingdom by packet-boat via Egypt and Southampton at a rate of two pence each.

6. That every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper, shall for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant be deemed a distinct newspaper unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

7. That every newspaper which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein-after contained; that is to say:

No such newspaper shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet: Every such newspaper shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or, in a cover, or envelope, open at the ends or sides:

There shall be no word or communication printed on any newspaper, transmitted by the post under the provision of this Warrant, after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of such newspaper and the name and address of the publisher, newsvendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof.

There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be printed and published at intervals, not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

Upon every newspaper posted in the United Kingdom for transmission by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, the postage thereof shall be paid in stamps at the time of the same being posted, and upon every newspaper posted in Hong Kong for transmission by the post under the provisions of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

8. If any newspaper shall be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission via Southampton and Egypt, addressed to the East Indies, Hong Kong, Ceylon, the Mauritius or Australia, having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such newspaper would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the sum of one penny, every such newspaper shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such newspaper would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny; but if any newspaper shall be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission via Southampton and Egypt, addressed to the East Indies, Hong Kong, Ceylon, the Mauritius, or Australia, without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, every such newspaper may be detained and be returned or given up to the sender thereof.

9. If any newspaper shall be posted in Hong Kong for transmission via Egypt and Southampton addressed to the United Kingdom with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such newspaper would be liable under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned newspaper shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of one penny.

10. If any newspaper shall be sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations, hereinbefore in the seventh clause of this Warrant contained, the same may be detained and be returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

11. That the rates of postage chargeable on printed newspapers, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

12. That the respective newspapers transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage, respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected, and again forwarded by the post.

13. That nothing in this Warrant contained shall be deemed, or construed to extend to any newspapers transmitted through France.

14. That the term "British Newspapers" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean newspapers printed in the United Kingdom, whether they bear a newspaper stamp or not; and that the term "East Indies" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (China, Hong Kong, Siam, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Japan excepted), and that the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed, to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

15. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treas-sure, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates, of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates, orders, regulations, conditions and restrictions in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

16. That this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1859.
