By the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament passed in the 54th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the 3rd, chapter 159, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several Ports, Harbours, Roadsteads, Sounds, Channels, Bays, and Navigable Rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's Docks, Dockyards, Arsenals, Wharfs, Moorings, and Stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted, amongst other things, that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of any port, harbour, or haven of this kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, for the time being, shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by order under their hands, or the hand of their Secretary, and published in the London Gazette, to prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast upon pain of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of ten pounds.

And whereas the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom have found it necessary for the protection of the Harbour of Chichester, in the county of Sussex, to prohibit the taking of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, within one thousand yards of a post fixed on the site of the old Watch-house, on the eastern shore of the entrance to the said harbour.

Now we do therefore order, that no person or persons, whosoever, shall take or remove any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of the said harbour within 1000 yards of the said post.

Dated this 16th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1859.

R. S. Dundas.

off on the 14th March, 1859, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received at this office daily, from half-past ten till three o'clock, until the 7th day of March, 1859, inclusive.

Printed forms, containing instructions for the preparation of the lists and the arrangement of the bills, may be obtained on application at his Office.

The bearers must write or stamp their names on the face of each Bill, and they must insert their names and addresses, in each list; but where the names of holders are inserted in the bills, the indorsements of such holders must be obtained previously to their lists and bills being left for examination.

New bills, bearing interest at the rate of one penny halfpenny by the day, upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 14th day of March, 1859, may be obtained in payment of the principal of the whole, or part, of the Exchequer Bills issued under the Act above mentioned, on the claimants specifying, in their lists, the amount of new bills required by them.

The new bills, together with the interest on the bills left on or before the said 7th day of March for exchange, will be issued on the 15th day of March, 1859; the bearers must attend at this Office to sign receipts for the payment of principal and interest.

Payment, in money, may be obtained at this Office for any of the said Exchequer Bills, previously to the said 14th day of March, 1859, upon the claimants leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

N.B.—All Exchequer Bills dated prior to March, 1858, have been previously advertised to be paid off.
