Whitehall, March 10, 1859.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess Frederick William of Prussia of a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Carlisle in Council assembled, beg leave to tender our respectful and most cordial congratulations to your Majesty upon the kind Providence which has blessed your Majesty's Royal Daughter, the Princess of Prussia, with a Son, and has given an Heir to the Throne of Prussia.

We trust and pray that this happy event may tend to strengthen and cement the bonds of union and friendship which already exist between this country and the illustrious nation of Prussia, and that the young Prince, when called by Providence to ascend the Throne of his ancestors may prove a blessing to the country over which it may be his destiny to rule.

We earnestly pray that Europe may be preserved from being again involved in the horrors of war; and that the union which happily subsists between two such powerful nations as England and Prussia may prove beneficial in tending to preserve to the nations of Europe the blessings of peace.

That your Majesty may yet long be spared to reign over a prosperous and contented people, and may have the comfort of seeing your numerous offspring in the enjoyment of all the blessings which a gracious Providence has in store, is the sincere and heartfelt prayer of your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects.

And, as in duty bound, we shall ever pray, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post, of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things), to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letter sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letter sent by the post, to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post-office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by divers Warrants under their hands, fixed, made, and established, certain rates of British postage, payable on the transmission by the post of certain colonial letters therein respectively mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain other Warrant under their hands, bearing date the 15th day of January, 1858, did make regulations for the prepayment of the several rates of postage, payable on letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any of the Colonies therein mentioned, and on letters posted in any of such Colonies, addressed to the United Kingdom.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said last-mentioned Warrant to letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Canada, and to letters posted in Canada, addressed to the United Kingdom.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows; that is to say:

If any letter shall be posted in Canada, addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. 5. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations, in lieu thereof.

No. 19, King's Arms-yard, Moorgate-street, London, 2nd March, 1859.

THE insufficiency of shares represented having rendered the Special General Meeting, advertised for the 12th October last, incompetent to ratify the convention with the Great Northern of France, for the construction of the Namur to Dinant Line (whereby this Company will become relieved from this obligation), the Directors have the honour to convene the Shareholders for a Special General Meeting, to be held in Brussels, No. 9, Montagne de l'Oratoire, the 4th day of April next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, for the purposes following:—

1stly. To approve the provisional convention entered into by the Directors with the Northern of France Railway Company, for the construction and working, by the latter Company, of the line from Namur to the French frontier by Dinant.

2ndly. To make, in the existing statutes, the additions and modifications which are rendered necessary.

3rdly. To authorise the Directors to enter into a definitive convention with the Belgian Government for the introduction of certain alterations in the stipulations of the "Cahier des Charges," for the concession of the line from Namur to Liège.

To prevent further delay and expense in carrying out this important arrangement, which has already been ratified in London, the Directors respectfully urge on Shareholders who will be unable to attend in Brussels, the necessity for their making application to the Agent in London, for forms of proxies.
