Naples, February 8.

TH E 4th Instant a Courier arrived here from Madrid, with Orders about the establishing a Fond for the Allowances of the Marquis de Cogolludo, named by his Catholick Majesty to be his Ambassador Extraordinary at Rome, which are to be paid out of the Revenues of this Kingdom. We have Advice by several Barques arrived from the Morea, that the Turks continuè, by their frequent Incurfions, to incommodè the Garifons of the Places conquered by the Venetians, whom they endeavor to deprive of the means of subsisting, by the Ravage they make in the Neighbouring Countries. And that they exercise great Cruelties upon the Greeks, who have put themselves under the Protection of the Republick.

Rome, Febr. 26. The Pope having, upon the death of the Duke d'Estrees Ambassador of France, resolv'd to put in execution the Regulation he formerly made about the Quarters of Ambassadors, the Franchises of the Palace Farnese were accordingly taken away, and the Sbirres or Officers of Justice have since very often appeared in that Quarter. The Cardinal d'Estrees retired after the death of the Duke his Brother to the Palace of Pamphilio near the Gate of St. Pancrace. The Queen of Sueden has voluntarily quitted the Franchises of the Quarter adjoining to her Palace, which the Sbirres have likewise taken possession of. Signior Imperiale, Treasurer General of the Chamber, is gone to Civita Vecchia, to give Orders about fitting out the Gallies that are to serve against the Turks this Summer, which are to be ready to sail by the beginning of May. The Senator Lando, Envoy Extraordinary from the Republick of Venice, had this week Audience of his Holiness, to whom he gave an account of the Preparations that are making by the Republick for the prosecution of the War.

Venice, March 1. The Elector of Bavaria having taken his leave of the Duke of Savoy, who is still here, parted from hence the 27th of the last Month for Padua, intending to return home by the way of Vorona and Trent. A Vessel is arrived here from the Levant, which met Signior Venier cruising with five Men of War in the Archipelago. A great Convoy is preparing here for the Morea.

Vienna, March 6. The Marquis de Villars, Envoy Extraordinary from the M. C. King, had, the first Instant, Audience of their Imperial Majesties, to whom he made the Compliments of Condoleance upon the death of the Empress Dowager. We have an Account from Olmitz, That the Ambassadors of Moscovy arrived there the 2d of this month. The Letters from Esperves of the 26th past inform us, That the Deputies of the Prince and States of Transilvania were arrived there with a Convoy of 10000 Sacks of Wheat, as many of Oats, and 100 thousand Florins in Money, with which they pretended to satisfie the Treaty they lately made with General Caraffa, for the taking off the Winter-quarters assigned upon that Country; But that the said General had let them know; that if they did not make good all they had promised, he would send his Troops to lodge upon them; That the Deputies had thereupon sent an Exprest to Prince Abafsi, and had prayed General Caraffa to defer the Execution he threatned till his return, which he had consented to. The same Letters say; that an Intelligence which Teckley had with some of the chief Inhabitants of Bartfeld and Esperves had been discovered; and several persons imprisoned for the same. The Imperialists have lately defeated a party of the Garifon of Montgatz, of whom 26 were killed, and 6 taken Prisoners. The Empress was this Afternoon brought to Bed of a Princess.

Cologne, March 15. The Prince de Nassau Great Prouit of the Cathedral Church of this City, is returned hither from Strasburgh. The States of Juliers and Beygs, are again assembled at Duseldorpe, to consider of what has been proposed to them about making a Present of 50000 Crowns to the future Queen of Portugal.

Hamburg, March 11. They write from Dresden of the 8 instant, that the Elector of Saxony had, upon the Instances of the Imperial Minister at his Court, promised to assist the Emperor with a considerable Body of Men to serve in Hungary the next Summer, but that the number of these Succors was not yet declared. And we are told by Letters of the 9th from Pfisdam, that the Elector of Brandenburg has likewise promised to lend a Body of his Troops, to the Emperor's assistance. The Letters from Copenhagen tell us, that a Regiment of Dragoons, and three of Foot, are raising in Norway, for the Service of the King of Denmark.

Brussels, March 7. Our Governor General parted from hence yesterday for Gauit, to visit the new Fortifications that are making for the security of that City. The Letters from Vienna of the 23d of the last Month, give an account that the great Convoy was safely arrived at Five Churches; The Turks of Siget and Canisa, who joined together with a design to attack it, retiring with great precipitation, after having made several unsuccessful Attempts upon the Imperial Troops that conducted the said Convoy. That in Upper Hungary General Heusser continued to have a very watchful Eye upon the Turks, to hinder their succouring of Agria; And that he had so posted the Troops under his Command, that it would be almost impossible for them to execute their design. That the same care had been taken for the blocking up of Montgatz, to prevent the Excursions of that Garifon, who according to the Report of some Deserters, were plentifully provided with all things necessary for their Subsistence. The same Advices say, that the Bassa of Bosnia had assembled 6000 Men, and that the Bass
