DE LA WARR.

Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, April 11, 1859.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess Frederick William of Prussia of a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Great Yarmouth, beg leave with every sentiment of respect to approach the Throne, for the purpose of presenting our most sincere congratulations on the happy event of the birth to your Majesty of a Grandson, and to Her Royal Highness the Princess Frederick William, of a Son, the Heir to the Crown of Prussia.

The important position of Prussia, and its inevitable influence upon the condition and prosperity of Europe must always render that kingdom an object of the deepest interest to all your Majesty's subjects. Prussia, like the United Kingdom, is a great Protestant State, and, like the United Kingdom also, it is flourishing under, and in consequence of free institutions, and a representative form of Government. The example and influence of both countries are identical, and they are now united by that additional and endearing tie which, in the domestic walk of life, is sure to join families and friends more closely together.

But, in whatever way the birth of a Grandson to your Majesty may be regarded, the event upon which we respectfully present our congratulations seems, under the blessing of Providence, to be a subject for national rejoicing.

We fervently trust that your Majesty's bright example will produce in your descendant all the fruit which your faithful subjects fondly count upon ; that, under Divine favour, the little Prince will flourish, and will grow up to be a great and good man, and that the affections of the United Kingdom will attend him as they always attend your Majesty.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our common seal.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1859.

Notice is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed on and after Wednesday the 13th instant, until further orders.

For Captain John William Young,

War-Office, 12th April, 1859.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confirm the grant of the Decoration of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officer and Private of Her Majesty's Army, which decoration has been provisionally conferred upon them by the Commander-in-Chief in India, in accordance with the rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant instituting the same, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them during the operations under his personal command, as recorded against their names, viz.:

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which conferred.
23rd Regiment ...	Lieutenant (now Captain) Thomas Bernard Hackett Date of Act of Bravery, 18th November, 1857	For daring gallantry at Secundra Bagh, Lucknow, on the 18th November, 1857, in having with others, rescued a Corporal of the 23rd Regiment, who was lying wounded and exposed to very heavy fire. Also, for conspicuous bravery, in having, under a heavy fire, ascended the roof, and cut down the thatch of a Bungalow, to prevent its being set on fire. This was a most important service at the time.
23rd Regiment ...	Private George Monger Date of Act of Bravery, 18th November, 1857	For daring gallantry at Secundra Bagh, Lucknow, on the 18th of November, 1857, in having volunteered to accompany Lieutenant Hackett, whom he assisted in bringing in a Corporal of the 23rd Regiment, who was lying wounded in an exposed position.

HER Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Soldiers of Her Majesty's Army and Indian Military Forces, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names, viz. :

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
78th Regiment	Colour-Serjeant Stewart McPherson Date of Act of Bravery, 26th September, 1857	For daring gallantry in the Lucknow Residency on the 26th September, 1857, in having rescued, at great personal risk, a wounded Private of his Company, who was lying in a most exposed situation, under a very heavy fire. Colour-Serjeant McPherson was also distinguished on many occasions by his coolness and gallantry in action.
64th Regiment	Drummer Thomas Flinn Date of Act of Bravery, 28th November, 1857	For conspicuous gallantry, in the charge on the Enemy's guns on the 28th November, 1857, when, being himself wounded, he engaged in a hand to hand encounter two of the Rebel Artillerymen.
Bengal Horse Artillery	Captain George Alexander Renny Date of Act of Bravery, 16th September, 1857	Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, Commanding the 1st Belooch Regiment, reports that he was in command of the troops stationed in the Delhi magazine, after its capture on the 16th of September, 1857. Early in the forenoon of that day, a vigorous attack was made on the post by the enemy, and was kept up with great violence for some time, without the slightest chance of success. Under cover of a heavy cross fire from the high houses on the right flank of the magazine, and from Selinghur and the Palace, the enemy advanced to the high wall of the magazine, and endeavoured to set fire to a thatched roof. The roof was partially set fire to, which was extinguished at the spot by a Sepoy of the Belooch Battalion, a soldier of the 61st Regiment having in vain attempted to do so. The roof having been again set on fire, Captain Renny with great gallantry mounted to the top of the wall of the magazine, and flung several shells with lighted fuzes over into the midst of the enemy, which had an almost immediate effect, as the attack at once became feeble at that point, and soon after ceased there.
Bengal Army (Unattached)	Ensign (now Lieutenant) Patrick Roddy Date of Act of Bravery, 27th September, 1858	Major-General Sir James Hope Grant, K.C.B., Commanding Oudh Force, bears testimony to the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Roddy, on several occasions. One instance is particularly mentioned. On the return from Kuthirga of the Kuppurthulla Contingent, on the 27th of September, 1858, this officer, when engaged with the enemy, charged a Rebel (armed with a percussion musket), whom the Cavalry were afraid to approach, as each time they attempted to do so, the Rebel knelt and covered his assailant; this, however, did not deter Lieutenant Roddy, who went boldly in, and when within six yards, the Rebel fired, killing Lieutenant Roddy's horse, and before he could get disengaged from the horse, the Rebel attempted to cut him down. Lieutenant Roddy seized the Rebel until he could get at his sword, when he ran the man through the body. The Rebel turned out to be a subadar of the late 8th Native Infantry,—a powerful man, and a most determined character.
