AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of April, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Norwich in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of the same month, it was provided that there should be paid by us to the Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Norwich for the time being the annual sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said payment of one hundred pounds was fixed upon the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry, arising from fees and other emoluments, amounted to the sum of ninety-two pounds.

"And whereas a certain table of fees ordained and established by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor, and the Archbishop of York, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and was submitted to your Majesty's Privy Council on the twenty-second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and was published and set forth in the London Gazette on the twenty-fourth day of the month last mentioned.

"And whereas it has been represented to us that by the operation of the said table the Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Norwich has been deprived of certain fees and emoluments heretofore accruing to him, and that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry from such source does not now exceed the sum of eighty-four pounds.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a further annual sum should be made payable by us to the Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the annual sum of one hundred pounds, which under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, is now payable by us to the Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Norwich for the time being, shall be increased to one hundred and eight pounds, subject nevertheless, mutatis mutandis, to the conditions with respect to the payment of the said sum of one hundred pounds, which are specified in the said first-named Order, and in an Order made by your Majesty in Council on the nineteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, with reference to the same, which last-mentioned Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.
