DE LA WARR,

Whitehall, May 31, 1859.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in General Assembly, beg leave to approach the Throne with our humble but warm and affectionate congratulations on the recurrence of the day which gave your Majesty birth.

We account it a special blessing to the British Empire that it has pleased God to raise up and to preserve, in the person of your Majesty, a Sovereign, whose public administration of Government, and whose private virtues have secured the continued admiration, respect, and love of her subjects.

That your Majesty may be long spared to receive from year to year expressions of devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and Government; that the children whom God has given you may adorn their exalted station and minister largely to your Majesty's domestic comfort, and that of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, by their exhibition of all Royal and Christian graces; and that, after a prosperous reign on earth, your Majesty may inherit the kingdom that passeth not away, are the fervent prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, and obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

John Cook, Moderator.

Edinburgh, 24th May, 1859.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne, to present our assurances of devoted attachment to your Majesty, not only as our rightful Sovereign, but a Sovereign eminent for the virtues which dignify royalty, and secure universal respect.

We deeply deplored the treachery and barbarity of the late revolt in India, which occasioned, as is well known, profound grief to your Majesty. The war which followed was distinguished by innumerable proofs of the bravery of your Majesty's troops, the heroism and patient endurance of your faithful subjects, and, finally, the complete success which, through the blessing of Almighty God, crowned your Majesty's arms.

It is with unfeigned satisfaction that we tender to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the happy issue, and our fervent hope that the peace and order which now prevail in India may long continue under your Majesty's benignant rule.

That it may please the Father of all our mercies to lift on the British Empire, in all its dependencies, the light of His gracious countenance, and to preserve the life of your Majesty to reign long over a free, a loyal, and a religious people, is the sincere prayer of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, loyal and obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

John Cook, Moderator.

Edinburgh, 24th May, 1859.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Free Church of Scotland, in General Assembly convened, rejoice in the opportunity which the return of this auspicious day affords of approaching your Majesty's Throne with renewed assurances of attachment to your Majesty's person, of loyalty to your Majesty's Government, and of regard for every member of your royal house.

Although no longer connected with the State as an Ecclesiastical Establishment, we remain unchanged in our devotion to the great principles of the British Constitution, and give thanks to God for the civil and religious freedom which are thereby secured to all your Majesty's dutiful subjects.

We congratulate your Majesty on the termination of the war in India, on the success of your Majesty's Arms in suppressing rebellion throughout that wide region of your Majesty's dominions, and on the restoration of peace under circumstances which have so manifestly called for hearty thanksgiving to Almighty God.

It is our joy that we are warranted to hope that both India and China, through the changes which have recently occurred in our relations to those continents, have now been opened up, as they never were before, to the extensive introduction of "the glorious Gospel of the grace of God."

We watch with deep anxiety the progress of that war which the Almighty, in His sovereign providence has permitted to break forth on the Continent of Europe; and while acknowledging, with grateful and adoring hearts, the Lord's mercy to this nation in so often, in former conflicts, keeping the battle from our gates, we rejoice to learn the determination of your Majesty, in full accordance with the will and wishes of your people, to maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers; and we doubt not that your Majesty, while thus abstaining from all armed intervention, will seize every opportunity of employing the whole influence and moral power of this country, for the purpose of restoring peace to Europe, and at the same time securing the blessings of freedom of conscience to those who, in Italy, have so long groaned under civil oppression and ecclesiastical tyranny.

That your Majesty's precious life may be long spared; that spiritual and eternal blessings may richly endow you; and that when you have finished your course on earth, you may receive that crown which the Lord the Righteous Judge alone can give, is the earnest and united prayer of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Free Church of Scotland, in General Assembly convened.

Signed in name and by appointment of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, at Edinburgh, the 23rd day of May, 1859 years, by Thos. Cunningham, D.D., Moderator.

Saturday, the 23rd day of April, 1859.

By his Honour Henry Edward Sharpe, Local Commissioner.

UPON reading the Petition of the above-named Catherine French and George Power, the schedule of property and the schedule of incumbrances upon the lands therein particularly mentioned, together with an abstract of title and affidavit accompanying the said petition, I do order, that the Prospect Estate, situate in the parish of Saint George, in the Island of Saint Vincent, formerly the property of Sir William John Struth, deceased, containing two hundred and eighty-two acres, or thereabouts, with the mansion house, boiling-house, windmill and other buildings, be sold by auction, by me, at the Court-house, in the town of Kingstown, and Island of Saint Vincent, on Monday the 7th day of November, 1859, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon precisely, in one lot, unless sufficient cause be shewn to the contrary, on or before Thursday the 8th day of September, 1859. And I do order, that the following persons or their personal representatives be served with copies of this Order, that is to say:—Charles Cuthbert Harrison and Emily, his wife, Emma Louisa Reece (formerly Emma Louisa Stracey), the widow and relict of Charles Struth, deceased, and the children (if any) the issue of her marriage with the said Charles Struth, Edward Edwards, John Green Elsey, Henry Hewitt Kennard and Thomas Browne, Assignees of the late firm of Cruikshank Melville and Company, and Robert Ramsay, some time a partner therein, and that an abstract of the 11th rule of this Court be given when notification made of the sale.

The Prospect Estate was formerly in sugar cultivation, and possesses many local advantages, and might at moderate outlay be again converted into a sugar property. It has great facilities for the shipment of produce, being near the shipping port of Calliaqua, and traversed by the Windward High-road. By Rule 11 of Court, any party desirous of shewing cause against an order of the Court, must lodge a notice in the office of the Local Commissioners, siting at foot or on back thereof his grounds, and on whom notices for him are to be served, and no variance from such grounds will be allowed on the hearing except by special leave of the Court, and on such terms as the Court may impose.
