Buckingham Palace, June 7, 1859.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from Her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President, the Lord Privy Seal, the Earl of Malmesbury, officiating for the Lord Great Chamberlain (the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), the Earl Marshal, the Treasurer of the Household, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the crown was borne by the Duke of Richmond, K.G., the sword of state by the Earl of Derby, and the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esq., Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I AVAIL myself with satisfaction, in the present anxious state of public affairs, of the advice of my Parliament, which I have summoned to meet with the least possible delay.

I have directed that papers shall be laid before you, from which you will learn how earnest and unceasing have been my endeavours to preserve the peace of Europe.

Those endeavours have unhappily failed, and war has been declared between France and Sardinia on one side, and Austria on the other. Receiving assurances of friendship from both the contending parties, I intend to maintain between them a strict and impartial neutrality; and I hope, with God's assistance, to preserve to my people the blessings of continued peace,

Considering, however, the present state of Europe, I have deemed it necessary, for the security of my dominions and the honour of my Crown, to increase my naval forces to an amount exceeding that which has been sanctioned by Parliament.

I rely with confidence on your cordial concurrence in this precautionary measure of defensive policy.

The King of the Two Sicilies having announced to me the death of the King his father and his own accession, I have thought fit, in concert with the Emperor of the French, to renew my diplomatic intercourse with the Court of Naples, which had been suspended during the late reign.

All my other foreign relations continue on a perfectly satisfactory footing.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates for the year, for which provision has not been made by the late Parliament, will be immediately laid before you, together with such supplementary estimates as present circumstances render indispensably necessary for the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have directed a bill to be prepared for giving effect, so far as the aid of Parliament may be required, to certain suggestions of the commissioners whom I had appointed to inquire into the best mode of efficiently manning the royal navy, and I recommend this important subject to your immediate attention.

Measures of legal and social improvement, the progress of which in the late Parliament was necessarily interrupted by the dissolution, will again be brought under your consideration.

I should with pleasure give my sanction to any well-considered measure for the amendment of the laws which regulate the representation of my people in Parliament; and should you be of opinion that the necessity of giving your immediate attention to measures of urgency relating to the defence and financial condition of the country will not leave you sufficient time for legislating with due deliberation during the present session on a subject at once so difficult and so extensive, I trust that at the commencement of the next session your earnest attention will be given to a question of which an early and satisfactory settlement would be greatly to the public advantage.

I feel assured that you will enter with zeal and diligence on the discharge of your parliamentary duties; and I pray that the result of your deliberations may tend to secure in the country the continuance of peace abroad and progressive improvement at home.

India Office, June 8, 1859.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following papers:

No. 1.

Major-General J. Michel, C.B., Commanding Malwa Division, to the Adjutant-General of the Bengal Army.

Camp, Nulkaira,

January 2, 1859.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward a Report of Major Roche, of the 72nd Highlanders, detailing an attack made by the rebel force, under the Rao Sahib and Tantia Topee, on a small column under his command, of about 500 men, and the enemy's signal defeat.

2. Major Roche, with his small force, has been very active, and done his duty well, during the short time that he has been acting against the enemy. I trust that his conduct on the present occasion, and that of the officers and soldiers under his command, will be approved by his Lordship the Commander-in-Chief, and that his recommendations will receive such attention as they may, in his Lordship's estimation, merit.

I have, &c.

J. MICHEL, Major-General,
Commanding Malwa Division of the Army.

No. 2.

Major R. Roche, Commanding the Neemuch Field Detachment, to the Deputy Quartermaster-General of the M. D. A.

Camp, Purtabghur,

December 26, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Major-General Michel, C.B., that in compliance with your Letter, No. 52, of the 6th instant, I marched with a force (strength as per margin*), from Neemuch in the direction of Oodeypore, on the 12th instant.

2. Shortly after my departure, while encamped at Heeta, I received an express from Captain Showers, Political Agent of Meywar, stating that "certain information had been received that it was the intention of the rebels to attack the capital." I therefore pushed on to Dobuck, twelve miles from Oodeypore, the distance marched being twenty-eight miles, which was performed in twelve hours.

3. On my arrival at Dobuck, I was informed that the rebels had abandoned their intention of attacking Oodeypore, and were marching on Banda, from which place it was supposed they would proceed by Chittore across the River Chumbul.

4. In consequence of the above intelligence, I marched back at 3 A.M. the following morning to Kyrrowda. I was there informed that the rebels, having heard of my force being north of them, on the Neemuch road, had moved towards the south-east. I therefore marched the next morning to Heeta, and the following day to Burra Sadree.

5. While the force was encamped at the latter place, Captain Hutchinson, Political Agent, sent an express, stating that the force under Colonel Benson at Purtabghur, had been obliged to move southward, and requested that that place might be held by a detachment from Neemuch.

* Royal Artillery, 1 9-pounder gun, 1 24-pounder howitzer; 2nd Bombay Light Cavalry, 62 sabres; Sikh Horse, 75 sabres; Her Majesty's 72nd Highlanders, 143 rank and file; Her Majesty's 95th Regiment, 44 rank and file; 13th Regiment Native Infantry, 106 rank and file.

6. As Oodeypore by this time was protected by a force under Captain Muter, 2nd Grenadiers, and another under Lieutenant-Colonel Boyle, 89th Regiment, I marched my force via Chota Sadree and Jeeran to Purtabghur, and arrived there on the morning of the 24th instant.

7. At about 4 P.M., on the evening of the 24th, a sowar, who had been sent out by Captain Showers to procure information of the rebels, galloped into camp, and stated that the enemy was in full advance on Purtabghur, and was then distant about three miles.

8. I instantly ordered the force to get under arms, and, to prevent its impeding the movement of the troops, I directed the camp to be struck, and the whole of the baggage and camp-followers to be sent into the fort.

9. While this was being done, I sent the cavalry forward to reconnoitre.

10. In consequence of numerous reports having been received from them of the rapid advance of the enemy, in three columns, I determined to take up a position in front of the town, on a ridge running perpendicular to the line of the enemy's advance; my right flank, which was the one threatened, being protected by a tank and nullah, and the front, sloping gently off, afforded favourable ground for a sweeping fire from the artillery and Enfield rifles.

11. I placed the guns in the centre of the infantry on both flanks, and the cavalry in the rear of the left.

12. The enemy appeared in view, at a distance of about half a mile, steadily advancing; the centre division, which was chiefly composed of infantry, in line, preceded by skirmishers, bore down directly on our front; while the right division threatened the left flank; and at the same time the left division was seen marching towards our right rear.

13. The officer commanding the artillery having reported that the enemy was within range, I directed the gun to open on them, and, on their nearer approach, I ordered the infantry to commence firing with their Enfield rifles.

14. The enemy advanced to within about 400 yards, when they halted, and a heavy fire was kept up on both sides for nearly an hour and a half, when the darkness of the night rendered further firing useless.

15. For a short time a large number of the enemy got possession of a top of trees on our right, and opened a severe fire on the force; but a few shells from the artillery, and a continuous fire of musketry from the 13th Regiment of Native Infantry, soon made them abandon their position.

16. When the night became quite dark, the enemy retreated in a north-east direction, taking all their wounded along with them; they must have suffered very severely, but their loss cannot be ascertained, as every endeavour was evidently made to conceal it. Several of their killed have been found on their line of retreat, some with ropes attached to them by which they had been dragged away; 22 horses and numerous bodies were left on the field dead.

17. Our casualties are as follows:—

Killed none.

Wounded—

Royal Artillery, Captain Bolton, slightly (remained in action until the termination of the affair), and 1 gunner.

72nd Highlanders, 3 rank and file.

13th Regiment Native Infantry, 4 rank and file.

18. Owing to the darkness of the night, and the consequent uncertainty of the enemy's movements, pursuit, with my small body of cavalry, was quite impracticable.

19. The steadiness and gallant conduct of the officers and men, both native as well as European, was most conspicuous.

20. A correct estimate of the enemy's number could not be formed, but I consider that it could not have been less than 3,500 cavalry, and 1,500 infantry, and probably many more.

21. Some prisoners who fell into our hands stated that Rao Sahib, Tantia Topee, and Nawab Raheem Ali, of Kamouni, were in command of the three divisions opposed to us.

22. I received the most ready assistance from the officers commanding the several detachments, viz., Major Simpson, 2nd Bombay Light Cavalry; Captain Adams, 13th Regiment Native Infantry; Captain Bolton, Royal Artillery; Captain Brooke, 95th Regiment; Lieutenant Cameron, 72nd Highlanders; Lieutenant Bannerman, Sikh Horse; also from Captain Malcolm, Bombay Engineers, who acted as my Staff Officer.

23. I also beg to add, that Captain Showers, Political Agent of Meywar, who has accompanied the force the greater part of the time that it has been in the field, and was present with it during the engagement, has invariably furnished me with the most valuable information and advice, and rendered me every assistance in his power.

24. A company of the Meywar Bheel Corps, which accompanied Captain Showers from Oodeypore, assisted greatly during the action, in protecting the left flank of the column, and also in furnishing piquets and sentries during the night.

25. Two of the enemy's elephants have fallen into our hands: it is also reported, by some prisoners taken, that Rao Sahib was wounded, and his cousin and Wuzer killed; the supposed body of the former was found without its head.

I have, &c.,

R. ROCKE, Major 72nd Highlanders,
Commanding Field Force.

SIR,

IN acknowledging the receipt of your memorandum, No. 199, dated 28th January, 1859, forwarding a letter from Major-General J. Michel, C.B., commanding Malwa Division, with a report from Major Roche, 72nd Highlanders, detailing an attack made on his column by the Rao Sahib and Tantia Topee, and the enemy's signal defeat, I am directed to state for the information of the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief that the same has been laid before Government.

No. 5.

Lieutenant-Colonel Reece, 3rd Madras European Regiment, to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, Saugor District.

Camp, Kurrapore,

December 21, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour, in continuation of my letter No. 45, of the 12th instant, to report, for the information of Brigadier Wheeler, Commanding Saugor district, that, the fort of Burreeta having been as much demolished by Mr. Thornton's men as means at hand would allow, I marched en route to Patrakota, via Saugor, and, having received instructions through the Major of Brigade, at Dulputpore, to march to Banda, I marched there on the 17th, at which place I was joined by Brigadier Wheeler, who requested me to make arrangements to attack Patrakota the following morning.

2. I accordingly detailed two columns of infantry, strength as per margin each,* from the detachment, to proceed by the routes of Beekumpore and Lowagee, and also directed Captain Dickens with his police to move to Ninagurh. These three columns were to enter the jungle, and be as near Patrakota, by dawn of day, without discovering themselves, as possible, thus investing that stronghold on the west, north, and east sides; a copy of letter of instructions to the officers commanding is appended.

3. I moved my own column with the guns from Banda at 1 o'clock, intending to arrive, if possible, before the infantry, on the south side, the ground of which commanded Patrakota, but the delay of the guns caused me to be some few minutes later, and, as my instructions to the officers were, that if (after daylight had well set in) they heard no firing from my side, they were to approach the hill, Captain Grant from the north side advanced and ascended it; Lieutenant-Colonel Ottley moved in skirmishing order from the west, and Captain Dickens from the east, disturbing some few in the works on the hill (about 50 men of the rebel Sodun Singh, who was in possession) taken by surprise, and who immediately commenced retreating by the west rear face through the jungle bounding the river and hill.

4. At this moment a few shots were fired by the rebels and returned briskly by the north and west columns; a few of the enemy were shot down; one man wounded and taken prisoner; the rest escaped; no casualties on our side.

5. The Brigadier being personally present with me on the south side, it is unnecessary for me to enter into further particulars.

6. I beg, however, to observe, that the several columns moved with promptitude and punctuality to the points indicated in my letter of instructions.

* Lieutenant-Colonel Ottley, 3rd Madras European Regiment, commanding: 3rd European Regiment; Lieutenant Peet, Ensign Oley, 35 rank and file: 50th Regiment, Native Infantry; Captain Keating, 75 rank and file.

Captain W. D. Grant, 50th Regiment, Native Infantry, commanding: 3rd European Regiment; Lieutenant Bedingfield, Ensign Chrystie, 35 rank and file: 50th Regiment, Native Infantry; Ensign Gilchrist, 75 rank and file.

7. A native officer's party of the 31st Bengal Light Infantry arrived, and took their posts on the Hill of Patrakota, by Brigadier Wheeler's orders, to protect Mr. Thornton's workmen while destroying the works on my departure.

8. The 18-pounder gun and 8-inch mortar would have been of no avail had they been required, as they did not arrive until about 11 A.M.

I have, &c.,

W. REECE, Lieut.-Col.
Comdg. Field Detachment.

No. 6.

SIR,

WITH reference to Field Detachment Orders of this date, detailing a detachment under you to move to Beekumpore, I have the honour, by order, to request that you will move, via Neehani, without beat of drum, at 12 midnight this night.

2. A guide will be furnished you to Neehani and thence.

3. The village of Beekumpore is stated to be a post wherein a rebel picquet is stationed: you will therefore approach it with caution.

4. After the day is well broke, if you hear firing, you will approach towards Patrakota as near as you can, keeping under cover of the jungle to avoid observation from the enemy: if, on the other hand, you hear no firing, you may conclude that the place is evacuated, and that the enemy have escaped; and thence advance into the plain towards the hill itself; of course you will do so in skirmishing order and with caution.

5. Captain Grant's party will accompany you as far as Neehani.

I have, &c.,

No. 535 of 1859.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General in Council has much satisfaction in publishing the following letter from the Adjutant-General of the Army, with inclosures, giving details of an engagement with the rebels by a detachment under command of Brigadier Faddy.

The Governor-General in Council desires to record his thanks to the Brigadier commanding and to the troops employed on the occasion, and more particularly to Captain Boileau and the party of the 2nd Sikh Cavalry under his command, and to Captain Wright of the same corps.

No. 12.

The Adjutant-General of the Army, to the Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR,

Calcutta, April 6, 1859.

I HAVE the honour, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to his Excellency the Governor-General, the accompanying letter, in original, No. 167, of the 12th ultimo, from Major-General G. C. Whitlock, commanding the Saugor Field Division, with annexures, relating to an engagement with the rebels at Kentee, in Bundlecund, and I am to beg you will express Lord Clyde's approbation of the conduct of Brigadier Faddy, and the troops engaged under his command.

2. His Lordship desires specially to recommend for favourable notice the conduct of Captain Boileau, and the party of 2nd Sikh Cavalry under his command; also to express his approval of the services of Captain Wright, commandant of the 2nd Sikh Cavalry, as brought to notice by Major-General Whitlock.

3. The Commander-in-Chief desires further to recommend the admission to the Order of Merit, of the men named in the 17th paragraph of Brigadier Faddy's despatch.

I have, &amp;c.

Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 13.

*Major-General G. C. Whitlock, commanding
Saugor Field Division, to the Chief of the Staff.*

SIR,

Camp near Nagode, March 12, 1859.

I HAD the honour to communicate to the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, in my letter No. 60, and dated 3rd March, to the address of the Quartermaster-General, my having detached every available soldier from this place to try to fall in, if possible, with the rebels under Munzoor Ally and Runmutt Sing, who had committed two murders and other atrocities in this neighbourhood. I beg now to inclose a copy of a despatch from Brigadier Faddy, who had the good fortune to encounter them in force at the village of Kentee. The prompt and decisive measures taken on this occasion by the Brigadier, the gallantry with which that officer's orders were executed, call for the highest commendations, and I do indeed most cordially and warmly recommend to the special notice of his Lordship, Brigadier Faddy and those officers named in his despatch. A detachment of the A Troop Horse Artillery well merit the praise bestowed upon them by the Brigadier. I well know the keen disappointment it must have been to them not to have brought their guns into action.

The columns under Lieutenant-Colonel Oakes, Her Majesty's 12th Lancers; Major Chichester, Her Majesty's 97th Regiment; Major Middleton, of the 17th Native Infantry; Major Babington, of the 17th Native Infantry; although not having met with the rebels, still performed the responsible duties allotted to them in the most satisfactory manner. Captain Wright, commanding the 2nd Sikh Cavalry, and his gallant body have done their duty well. Captain Wright has been on the constant move, and kept that part of the country entrusted to his care quite free from rebels. A roll shall be sent to the Commander-in-Chief of the men recommended for the Order of Merit. I have been in constant communication with Mr. Mayne, the Collector of Banda, whose information again has been most useful to me. Brigadier Faddy has recorded his sense of the services of Lieutenant Osborne, the political agent of Rewah, in enabling him to learn the movements of the rebels.

I would beg permission to mention, that the information that I have received from a valuable and intelligent officer, Mr. Coles, the deputy political agent at Nagode, was of the greatest assistance to me.

I have, &c.

G. C. WHIFFLOCK, Major-General,
Commanding Saugor Field Division.

Brigadier P. P. Faddy, commanding Artillery Brigade and Field Detachment, Saugor Field Division, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Saugor Field Division, Nagode.

Sir, Camp, Kentee, March 5, 1859.

ON the 3rd instant, I reported my arrival at Rewah. I have now the honour to state that at 2 P.M. on that afternoon, I marched for Simereah with the half A Troop Madras Horse Artillery and one squadron of Sikh Cavalry, strength as per margin*, arriving there by 9 P.M.

2. Early on the morning of the 4th, intelligence was received by Captain Osborne, the political agent, that the rebels had moved from their positions at Mynhna and Kutchereca with the intention of proceeding towards Nyagurhec. Orders were sent off to Major MacDonell, 27th Madras Native Infantry, commanding the infantry detachments at Rewah, to proceed immediately to Mungowah on the Mirzapore road, and there await orders, and I marched at 10½ A.M. with horse artillery and Sikhs towards Kentee. At four miles from camp I received intelligence that the rebels had been at a village about six miles a head, and were then encamped at a village a short distance beyond. I pushed on a troop of cavalry to reconnoitre, following as rapidly as I could with the artillery and remaining troop.

3. About three miles on we crossed the Tons River, a most difficult passage for the guns; and three miles further on, met the River Beehur or Gogur, a branch of the Tons. Here we were delayed a considerable time, the usual ford at the village of Chachye being impassable for guns: another ford was found half-a-mile lower down, by which we crossed, the artillery with excessive difficulty being obliged to drag the guns up nearly a perpendicular bank by hand.

4. While the guns were crossing, I pushed on the cavalry to Sirmoul, and, shortly after, had the gratification of hearing from Captain Boileau, who commanded them, that the enemy were halted a short distance ahead of him.

5. As soon as the guns were over the River, I again pushed on at a sharp trot, and came up with the cavalry, halted about one mile from the village of Kentee, where the enemy were in position.

6. I moved on to the attack, the cavalry on the right, and guns on the left, but was brought up by the Mahanna Nuddee, a wide and rocky branch of the Tons River, with very steep banks.

7. The enemy were drawn up in position, with this river on their front, flanked by the village of Kentee on their right, and a deep impassable nullah on their left.

8. On first approaching the river, they seemed inclined to stand, but, on the guns nearing them, they moved off slowly towards the village.

9. I proceeded with the cavalry across the Nuddee and up the bank of the nullah, which I crossed about a quarter of a mile in rear of the enemy's first position, with the intention of keeping them in view till the guns could be brought up, the river and nullah forming almost an impracticable hindrance for guns.

10. Having crossed the nullah and got well in rear of their position, I brought my right shoulders forward, and halted in line to watch the enemy's movements. After a few minutes we observed the enemy advancing from the village to take possession of a tope in our front.

11. From the dense mass in which the enemy came on, I should estimate their numbers at from twelve to sixteen hundred men, including a few Sowars.

12. On reconnoitring their position in the tope, it was observed the enemy were moving out and showed intention of coming down on the cavalry, but, suddenly changing their direction, they moved off in a compact body to their left, apparently in the direction of Gurb. I immediately sent back an officer to the rear to bring up the guns with the utmost expedition, but by this time it was near 4 P.M., and, no signs of the guns coming on, and fearing from the lateness of the hour, I should be unable to inflict any punishment on the enemy were I to wait for them, I determined to attack with the cavalry, strength as per margin,* and accordingly ordered them to form up in line, and, placing myself at their head, accompanied by Captain Howlett, Lieutenants Ward and Shaw, I directed their commanding officer, Captain F. W. Boileau, to charge; and from personal observation can testify to the dashing manner in which the squadron carried out my orders, led by their gallant commander.

13. After a gallop of 400 yards we crossed a high bank with a ditch on the other side, from behind which we were greeted with a heavy discharge of musketry, but this had no effect in checking the advance of the Sikhs, who plied their swords most vigorously and effectually, continuing the pursuit for about two miles, when I considered it prudent to recall them, and we rejoined the guns at about half past five, just as they were dragging the last one across the nullah. I think the Major-General will agree with me, that the dashing charge of so small a body of cavalry against such superior numbers was a most gallant exploit, and reflects the greatest credit on the Sikh Cavalry.

14. I cannot speak too highly of the manner in which the half A Troop Madras Artillery overcame every difficulty and brought their guns over ground which, had they not effected it, I should have considered impassable for artillery, and which requires to be seen to form a correct idea of the obstacles they surmounted. It is to me a matter of the deepest regret that, after all their exertions, they had not an opportunity of showing the enemy what metal they were made of, and I feel well assured that very few of the enemy would have escaped, had this desirable point been effected; as it was, 102 bodies were counted dead

* Artillery.—Captain Menagan; Lieutenant Anderson; Troop Quartermaster Knox; 3 Sergeants; 49 rank and file; 83 horses; 2 6-pounder guns; 1 12-pounder howitzer.

2nd Sikh Cavalry.—Captain Boileau; 6 native officers; 162 Non-Commissioned rank and file.

Cavalry.—1 officer, Captain Boileau; 61 sabres.

on the field, most of whom were Sepoys; and several wounded men have since been brought in.

15. Sixty stands of arms, nearly all percussion, one Enfield rifle, 17 matchlocks, and 15 swords have been collected from the field, and the Sikh Cavalry have had the high honour of capturing the Regimental Colour of the late 30th Bengal Native Infantry; also several articles, the property of the engineers who were lately murdered by these rebels, have been recovered.

16. I beg to enclose a return of killed and wounded which, considering the smallness of the body engaged, I regret to say is heavy.

17. Captain Boileau has brought prominently to my notice the undermentioned men: Naib Rissaldar Khan Sing, 6th Troop; Jemadar Acbar Khan, 5th Troop; Jemadar Goolab Sing, 6th Troop; Duffadar Mahomed Khan, 5th Troop; and Lance Duffadar Shiojee Sing, 6th Troop; and I beg that Major General Whitlock will do me the favour to recommend them to the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, as fitting candidates for the Order of Merit.

18. I cannot speak too highly of the cheerfulness and alacrity with which all ranks of the small column under my command have undergone the fatigues of the severe marches from Nagode, a distance of 106 miles, which we have accomplished in 69 hours, the last 15 being across-country, at a trot and a canter.

19. I beg to bring to the favourable notice of the Major-General the officers who acted on my Staff, namely: Captain A. Howlett, 27th Madras Native Infantry, Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master-General; Captain C. H. Harrison, Madras Artillery, Brigade Major; Lieutenant Ward, Madras Rifles; and Lieutenant Shaw, Madras

Artillery, Orderly Officers, whose zeal and energy deserve every commendation; and my best thanks are also due to Captain Henegan, commanding the Artillery, and Captain Boileau, commanding the Sikhs.

20. I would also wish to bring to notice Dr. Abbott, of the Bengal Service, whose kindness and attention to the wounded have been unremitting.

21. I must not omit to mention that the whole of this success must be attributed to the excellent information afforded by Captain Osborne, Political Agent of Rewah, to whom I beg to tender my sincere thanks.

22. I march this evening from Kentee to Gurlh, where the Infantry under Major MacDonell have been ordered to join, and where I hope Captain Osborne will receive further intelligence by which I shall be guided.

23. Hoping that these movements will meet with the Major-General's approval,

I have, &c.

P. P. FADDY, Brigadier,
Commanding Artillery Brigade, and Field
Detachment, Saugor Field Division.

P.S.—Since my despatch was written, Captain Osborne has succeeded in gaining the following specific intelligence from some of the prisoners who were examined separately, that Rummatt Sing is the Commander-in-Chief of the Rebel Army, and Mundroog Sing, Commander of the Mutineers, who are men of the 2nd Grenadiers, 7th, 11th, 30th, 38th, 40th, and 53rd Regiments Native Infantry, to the number of 500, and that Fuzund Ally and Lopal Sing, with a party of 50 mounted men, keep half a mile in advance of the main body, to reconnoitre.

No. 483.

HER Majesty's 84th Regiment of Infantry will embark to-day from Calcutta, on their return to England.

Of all the regiments of the Royal Army which, in 1857, were drawn to Bengal from distant stations, the 84th is that which was first in the field.

The good work of this regiment is recorded in many Gazettes, from the first outbreak of mutiny, through the capture of Lucknow, and, finally, in the arduous and exhausting campaign of Behar during the summer of last year.

The Governor-General in Council requests the officers and men of Her Majesty's 84th Regiment to accept his best thanks for their valuable and protracted service, and he cordially congratulates them upon having closed their career of seventeen years in India with marked distinction and honour.

The 84th Regiment will be saluted from the battery of Fort William upon leaving Calcutta.

By order of his Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council,

R. J. H. BIRCH, Major-General,
Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 502.

AFTER a long and brilliant career in India, the 9th (Queen's Royal) Lancers are on the eve of leaving Calcutta for England.

From the beginning of the hostilities in which the British Army in India has recently been engaged, this regiment has held a foremost place in the contest.

Its name is inseparably connected with the siege of Delhi, during which, the services rendered by its officers and men were various and most important; and in the later campaigns in Rohilcund and Oude it has closed its term with much honour.

In taking leave of the 9th Lancers, the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council desires to offer to this distinguished regiment his hearty thanks, not only for its good service before the enemy, but for the admirable example which it has presented to the young soldiers of the Indian Army by its perfection of discipline, conduct, and efficiency.

The regiment will be saluted by the guns of Fort William on its departure.

By order of his Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council,

R. J. H. BIRCH, Major-General,
Secretary to the Government of India.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

“ We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Ebberston, with the chapelry of Allerston annexed, in the county and diocese of York, the annual sum of forty-one pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the lands, messuages, hereditaments, and premises situate within the parish of Llangwm, in the county of Denbigh, and diocese of Saint Asaph, and described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered one, and also the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the said first schedule, and therein numbered two, arising out of, or upon, lands situate within the same parish, with their appurtenances, forming part of the estates lately belonging to the sinecure rectory of Llangwm, in the said diocese of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Llangwm.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Acton Warburton, Clerk, D.C.L., the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Iffley, in the county and diocese of Oxford, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises situate within the said parish of Iffley, and described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and also the soil of the churchyard of the said parish, forming part of the estates formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Oxford, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of the parish of Iffley aforesaid; provided always that the same messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises to be so vested as last mentioned, shall be charged and chargeable with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the church of the said parish, and shall also be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, and discharge of, the annual sum or stipend of seven pounds six shillings and eight pence, payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates within the said parish formerly belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Oxford.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Richard Wilton, Clerk, B.A., the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Kirkby Wharfe, in the county and diocese of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the township of Ulleskelf, in the said parish, with their appurtenances, forming part of the estates formerly belonging to the Prebend of Wetwang, in the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Saint Peter, at York, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Kirkby Wharfe aforesaid; provided always, that the same tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, to be so vested as last mentioned, shall be charged and chargeable with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel called or known as ‘the Wetwang Chancel’ of the church of the said parish of Kirkby Wharfe.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose; and that, if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice or church, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

6th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for providing a house of residence for the use of the canons residentiary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas we are seized in fee simple in possession of a messuage and premises situate in the parish of Saint Asaph, and mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and it appears to us that the said messuage and premises would form a fit and convenient residence for the canons residentiary of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Asaph.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Asaph, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate or capitular seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such order, the messuage and premises, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall become and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Asaph, in trust, to be appropriated and used as and for a canonical residence, and to be occupied by the canons residentiary of the said cathedral church in succession, for and during the respective periods of their statutory residence.

"And we further recommend and propose that so soon as the said messuage and premises shall have become a canonical residence for the canons residentiary of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, as aforesaid, the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church shall insure, and keep insured, the said canonical residence from loss or damage by fire, in one of the public offices of assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in the sum of two thousand pounds, and that the treasurer or other proper officer of the said cathedral church shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same; and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said residence, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance, shall become and be payable, and be paid to, and deposited with us, in trust to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or reinstating of the said house of residence, or of any part thereof, which may have so suffered loss or damage.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said treasurer, or other proper officer of the said cathedral church, be hereby authorized to deduct in each and every year, from the share of the corporate revenues of the said chapter, which may be payable to each of the canons residentiary appointed after the passing of the hereinbefore secondly named Act, a proportionate part of the yearly costs and expences of keeping the said canonical residence insured from loss or damage by fire as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

"All that piece or parcel of land, with dwelling-house, offices, and outbuildings, erected thereon, situate near the cathedral church in the parish of Saint Asaph, bounded on the north side thereof by premises formerly belonging to the holder of the precentorship of the said cathedral church with the prebend of Vaynol, and now belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, at present in the occupation of the Reverend Thomas Brown; on the east side thereof by the Mount-road; on the south side thereof by the High-street; and on the west side thereof by premises belonging to the said Commissioners, and now or late in the occupation of their lessee, D Evans, Esq., his undertenants, or assigns."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in the parish of Allhallows, Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, of Saint Paul, situate at Tottenham aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Allhallows, Tottenham, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Tottenham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: provided always, that so long as the Reverend William John Hall, Incumbent of the said parish of Allhallows, Tottenham, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint Paul, Tottenham, shall be paid by the Incumbent thereof to the said William John Hall.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Allhallows, Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, wherein the incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is situate to the east of an imaginary line, extending along the middle of the high-road leading from London to Edmonton, and to the north of an imaginary line commencing at a point marked A on the map hereunto annexed, in the middle of the stream known as the 'Old River Lea,' opposite to a boundary stone marked 'T. St. P,' placed on the eastern bank of the said river, and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the branch stream which connects the last-named river with the stream known as the 'New River Lea,' as far as the middle of the said New River Lea, and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-named stream to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the Moselle River, and extending thence, westward, along the middle of such last-named river to the middle of the said high-road leading from London to Edmonton.

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Tottenham, in the parish of Allhallows, Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, to be called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Tottenham,' be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Prebendary of Sneating, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, for the property belonging to him as such prebendary.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the prebend of Sneating, will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required.

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

“And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Thomas Hartwell Horne, the present holder of the said prebend, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

“We, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Hartwell Horne, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) now belonging to the said Thomas Hartwell Horne as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Thomas Hartwell Horne to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Hartwell Horne, the sum of two hundred and nine pounds; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall since the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Thomas Hartwell Horne.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London,

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage."

And whereas another Act of Parliament was passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post office."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, by a certain Warrant, in writing, duly made, and bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the 21st day of July, 1857, did order, direct, and declare (amongst other things) that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the schedule A to the said now reciting Warrant annexed, and that all such respective packets should be so transmitted, in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions therein-after respectively mentioned and contained; and that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof respectively should be that which was mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said Schedule A, and that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage thereafter mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in further exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said several before-recited Acts of Parliament, by a certain other Warrant in writing duly made, and bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the 19th day of June, 1858, and reciting (amongst other Warrants) the said hereinbefore-recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, did make and declare certain other regulations, orders, directions, and conditions therein mentioned respecting such packets as should consist of letters, notices, and other communications, partly printed or partly lithographed and partly written respectively.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said two hereinbefore recited Warrants (except as hereinafter mentioned), to packets of a like kind to be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and the ports of Mossel Bay (Alliwal), and Port Elizabeth, (Algoa Bay), both within the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare, as follows :

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the Colonial Legislatures, which may be transmitted by the post, under or by virtue of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom, and the ports of Mossel Bay and Port Elizabeth, within the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, as aforesaid, (except only such letters, notices, and other communications as are hereinafter mentioned), if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission thereof respectively, as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of three pence ; and on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, as aforesaid, (except only such letters, notices, and other communications as are hereinafter mentioned), if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, such progressive and additional rates of postage as are directed to be charged, taken, and paid, on and in respect of the several packets mentioned, and contained in, and authorized to be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857.

2. All packets to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this present Warrant (except only such letters, notices, and other communications as are hereinafter mentioned), shall be so transmitted respectively in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, contained in the said recited Warrant, of the 21st day of July, 1857, with respect to the several packets therein mentioned (except such as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies, or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies, or New South Wales, addressed to the United Kingdom), and all such packets so to be transmitted under the provisions of this present Warrant (except only such letters, notices, and other communications as are hereinafter mentioned), shall be subject as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage aforesaid, as also to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except as aforesaid), respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant, of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom, and the several places mentioned in the said schedule A. to the said recited Warrant annexed, in like manner, in all respects, and as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the said several progressive and additional rates of postage, and the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except such only as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies, or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies, or New South Wales, addressed to the United Kingdom), respectively mentioned and contained in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant, of the 21st day of July, 1857, were contained, inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant, and as if the said ports of Mossel Bay and Port Elizabeth, respectively, with a single rate of postage of three pence, set forth against each of such ports, had been and were mentioned, and contained, and included in the said Schedule A., annexed to the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857.

3. Any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or the regulations, orders, directions, conditions, or rates of postage herein respectively contained, or hereunto extended or made applicable. And every such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, relating to letters, and communications in the nature of letters posted and addressed in like manner, anything in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, relating to any such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

4. If any question shall arise, whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post, under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, or as a communication in the nature of a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereon shall be final.

5. The rates of postage chargeable on books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

6. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed in like manner as the like terms and expressions used in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as they are consistent with, and are not contrary or repugnant to the intent and meaning of this Warrant.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, may by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke, any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

8. And we do further order and direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1859.

Her Majesty's Stationery Office,
June 4, 1859.

THE Comptroller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office, begs to intimate that forms of tender for the supply of

PAPER,

Tenders to be addressed to the Comptroller of the Stationery Office, Princes-street, Storey's-gate, to be marked on the cover "Tender for Paper," and to be delivered on Tuesday the 21st June, 1859, before twelve o'clock, after which day and hour no tender can or will be received.

CONTRACTS FOR OATS, SPLIT PEAS, AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, June 4, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 16th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Oats, 300 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the oats and peas (not less than 2 quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of contract, which may be seen at the said office, as well as at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
