TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1859.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 11, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Levee, announced to be held upon Monday the 20th instant, is postponed until the following Friday, the 24th instant.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, at the Levee on the 24th instant.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

The same regulations apply to the presentation of Addresses or Petitions.

A card containing a statement of the object of the Addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The members of a Deputation, who have not previously attended Court, must be presented to The Queen.

DE LA WARR,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Hugh, Viscount Gough, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty was graciously pleased, by Her Royal Proclamation, bearing date the thirtieth day of April last, to promise and declare that the Bounties of Ten Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Five Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for Her Majesty's Service, should be paid, in the manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the age of forty-five, nor under the age of twenty years, who should, on or before the fifteenth day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Her Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising men for the service of the Royal Navy: and whereas Her Majesty was also graciously pleased by Her said Proclamation to declare that all Able-bodied Landsmen, not above the age of twenty-five, nor under the age of twenty years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the sum of Forty Shillings each man as Her Majesty's Royal Bounty:

And whereas the time limited by the said Proclamation for payment of the said Bounties will expire upon the fifteenth day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for Her Majesty's service that the said Bounties should, so far as they relate to Able Seamen and Ordinary Seamen, be continued to be paid for some time longer, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the time limited for payment of the said Bounties of ten pounds to Able Seamen, and of Five Pounds to Ordinary Seamen, be prolonged and extended from the said fifteenth day of this instant June to the thirty-first of July next inclusive; Whereof all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Wm. L. Batkurst.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE PARISH OF LILLINGTON, WARWICKSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted by the parish of Lillington, in the county of Warwick, on the 5th day of May, 1859, and notice of such adoption has been duly given in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertised for three successive weeks in the "Royal Leamington Spa Courier, and Warwickshire Standard," that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid parish, and that copies of such notice had also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such parish to which notices are usually affixed; and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act by such parish has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said parish of Lillington, in the county of Warwick, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such parish.

Given under my hand this eleventh day day of June, 1859.

Whitehall, April 30, 1859.

The Right Honourable Sir Alexander Edmund Cockburn, Bart., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed William Emerson Chapman the younger, of Horbling, in the county of Lincoln, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the Parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 19.)—MEDITERRANEAN.—COASTS OF SICILY
AND GREECE.

Light on Cape Murro Di Porco.

THE Sicilian Government has given Notice, that on and after the 1st of July, 1859, a light will be exhibited from the lighthouse recently erected on Cape Murro di Porco, in the province of Noto, on the eastern coast of Sicily.

The light will be a revolving light, eclipsed every half minute; and, being placed at an elevation of 108 English feet above the sea, should in clear weather be visible at a distance of 20 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the third order.

The form, height, and colour of the lighthouse are not stated. It stands in latitude 37° 0' 10" N. longitude about 15° 19' East of Greenwich.

Lights on Cape Themistocles.

The Minister of Marine of Greece has given notice, that on and after the 1st of June, 1859, two lights would be exhibited all night from a mast at Cape Themistocles, the western point of the peninsula of the Peiræus, in the Gulf of Athens.

The lights are fixed lights, the higher white and the lower red; they are placed vertically at the elevation respectively of 43 and 33 English feet above the level of the sea, and the white light should be visible from a distance of at least 3 miles.

The lights will be shown from the mast, which stands at 27 yards within the point, until a more substantial erection is constructed. Their position is with the light on Lipso or Psytallie island, distant 1½ miles, and the lights at the entrance of the Peiræus, distant 6 cables' lengths.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
4th June, 1859.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Mediterranean, General, No. 2158; Sicily, General, No. 165; Sicily, General, No. 165; Sicily, East Coast, No. 176; Archipelago, General, No. 1650; Sheet 1, No. 1651; Salamis Bay, 1513; the Peiræus, No. 1520. Also, Mediterranean Lights List for May, 1859, Nos. 154, and 232*.

Carnarvon District, Tanymaes Chapel.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Tanymaes, situated at Tanymaes, in the parish of Llanfairisgaer, in the county of Carnarvon, in the district of Carnarvon, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of June, 1859, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the oats and peas (not less than 2 quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of contract, which may be seen at the said office, as well as at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

JOS. THOS. COMMISSIONG,
Receiver of Unrepresented Estates.

In the Court of the Commissioners for Sale of Incumbered Estates in the West Indies (Saint Vincent).

In the Matter of the Estate of Sir William John Struth, of Prospect Estate, in the parish of Saint George, in the said Island of Saint Vincent, deceased; Catherine French and George Power, petitioners.

Saturday, the 23rd day of April, 1859.

By his Honour Henry Edward Sharpe, Local Commissioner.

UPON reading the Petition of the above-named Catherine French and George Power, the schedule of property and the schedule of incumbrances upon the lands therein particularly mentioned, together with an abstract of title and affidavit accompanying the said petition, I do order, that the Prospect Estate, situate in the parish of Saint George, in the Island of Saint Vincent, formerly the property of Sir William John Struth, deceased, containing two hundred and eighty-two acres, or thereabouts, with the mansion house, boiling-house, windmill and other buildings, be sold by auction, by me, at the Court-house, in the town of Kingstown, and Island of Saint Vincent, on Monday the 7th day of November, 1859, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon precisely, in one lot, unless sufficient cause be shewn to the contrary, on or before Thursday the 8th day of September, 1859. And I do order, that the following persons or their personal representatives be served with copies of this Order, that is to say:—Charles Cuthbert Harrison and Emily, his wife, Emma Louisa Reece (formerly Emma Louisa Stracey), the widow and relict of Charles Struth, deceased, and the children (if any) the issue of her marriage with the said Charles Struth, Edward Edwards, John Green Elsey, Henry Hewitt Kennard and Thomas Browne, Assignees of the late firm of Cruikshank Melville and Company, and Robert Ramsay, some time a partner therein, and that an abstract of the 11th rule of this Court be given when notification made of the sale.

ALLAN LEWIS, Local Secretary.

The Prospect Estate was formerly in sugar cultivation, and possesses many local advantages, and might at moderate outlay be again converted into a sugar property. It has great facilities for the shipment of produce, being near the shipping port of Calliaqua, and traversed by the Windward High-road. The land, which is highly productive, lies compact, and the crops can easily be taken off.

For further particulars, apply at the chambers of the Local Commissioners, Kingstown, St. Vincent; to Messrs. Boys and Tweedie, No. 6, Ely-place, London; or to Mr. L. C. Ross, the Solicitor having the carriage of the sale, Kingstown, St. Vincent.

By Rule 11 of Court, any party desirous of shewing cause against an order of the Court, must lodge a notice in the office of the Local Commissioners, stating at foot or on back thereof his grounds, and on whom notices for him are to be served, and no variance from such grounds will be allowed on the hearing except by special leave of the Court, and on such terms as the Court may impose.

WHEREAS by a Decree made by his Honour the Primary Judge in Equity of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, in a cause wherein William Kearney and Mary Banks Kearney are plaintiffs, and John Davis, John McEncroe, Francis Murphy, and the Attorney-General of New South Wales, are defendants, it was amongst other things referred to the Master in Equity of the said Court, to enquire and state to the said Court who is or are the next of kin of John Coyle, formerly of Liverpool, in the county of Lancashire, afterwards of Manchester in the said county, and late of Sidney in the aforesaid colony, Tailor and Draper, who died at Sidney, on the 2nd day of July, 1846, and in case any of them had since died who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying: any person or persons claiming to be the next of kin of the said John Coyle living at the time of his death, and in case any of them have since died, the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, are by his, her, or their Solicitor or Solicitors, on or before the 30th day of December, 1859, to come in before the said Master at his Chambers, Supreme Court House, King-street, Sydney, New South Wales; and make out his, her, or their respective claim or claims, or in default thereof are to be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—Dated this 12th day of April, A.D., 1859.

GEORGE HIBBERT DEFFELL,
Master in Equity of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

N.B. Communications in respect of the above matter may be made to Messrs. Dunsmore and Stafford, Solicitors, for the defendants, 159, Castlereagh-street, Sidney, New South Wales; and to Alexander Chaffers, Esq., Solicitor, 43, Bedford-row, London.
