PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to comprise certain portions of the parishes of Inworth, Messing, Tollesbury, Tolleshunt D'Arcy, Tolleshunt Knights, and Great Wigborough, all in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester; and also all that extra-parochial place called or known as Long Legs, situate in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said parishes of Inworth, Messing, Tollesbury, Tolleshunt D'Arcy, Tolleshunt Knights, and Great Wigborough respectively hereinafter mentioned and described, and also all that the said extra-parochial place called or known as Long Legs, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas a church has been erected within the limits of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and has been approved by us, and has been consecrated by the name of the Church of Saint Luke, Tiptree Heath, and it has been proposed to us that such church should be appropriated and used as and for the parish church of the said district.

"And whereas, by a Deed, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend Charles Lawrence, Rector of the rectory and parish church of Tolleshunt Knights, in the county of Essex, and diocese of Rochester aforesaid, of the first part; your most Gracious Majesty, Patron of the said rectory, and the Right Honourable Frederic Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, of the second part; the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Rochester, within whose diocese the said parish and rectory are situate, of the third part; and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part; which Deed is enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster, a clear annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been granted and secured to the incumbent for the time being of the church of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and to his successors, by means of a rentcharge to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon, or being part of the rectory or parsonage of Tolleshunt Knights, and the glebe lands, tithes, or tithe commutation rentcharges, hereditaments, and other emoluments belonging to the said rectory or parsonage.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of the grant of the said rentcharge of one hundred and fifty pounds, as last mentioned, the right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, and to the church thereof, should be assigned to and be vested in your Majesty and your successors in right of the Crown, to be exercised in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, as Patron of the said Rectory of Tolleshunt Knights, of the said George, Bishop of Rochester, and of the said Charles Lawrence, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all those parts of the said parishes of Inworth, Messing, Tollesbury, Tolleshunt D'Arcy, Tolleshunt Knights, and Great Wigborough respectively, and also all that extra-parochial place called or known as Long Legs, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed (all which parts and place, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed), shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be together constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Tiptree Heath,' and shall be included in and form part of the deanery of Witham, in the archdeaconry of Colchester, and diocese of Rochester.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the church which has been so approved by us, and consecrated by the name of the Church of Saint Luke, Tiptree Heath, as aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be the parish church of the said district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto and to the church thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and absolutely vested in your Majesty and your successors in right of the Crown, to be exercised in the same manner as is the patronage of livings not above the value of twenty pounds in the King's Books.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE

"The District of TIPTREE HEATH, being,

"All those parts of the parishes of Inworth, Messing, Tollesbury, Tolleshunt D'Arcy, Tolleshunt Knights, and Great Wigborough respectively, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, and also all that extra-parochial place called or known as Long Legs, situate in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the high road leading from Maldon to Messing, where it is intersected by the high road leading from Tolleshunt Knights to Inworth, and thence extending towards the north along the middle of the first-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of a cartway leading from such road to the road leading by Squashe's Corner to Pater Noster or Padminster Heath, and thence extending towards the east and south-east along the middle of the said cartway and of the last-named road as far as the middle of a brook called or known as Newbridge Brook, and thence continuing towards the east and north-east along the middle of the said brook until it is joined by a brook running from the waterfall at the north-western side of the farm premises called or known as Viners Farm, and thence continuing towards the north along the middle of the last-named brook to the before-mentioned waterfall, and thence extending towards the east in a direct line to a stone marked "T. H. D. B. No. 1," at or near the north-east end of the farm premises aforesaid, and thence continuing towards the south in a direct line to another stone marked "T. H. D. B. No. 2," at or near the entrance to the same farm premises, and thence continuing towards the west in a direct line to the middle of a private road leading from the said farm premises, and called or known as The Chase, and thence extending towards the south-east along the middle of the said private road as far as the middle of the New Bridge Brook aforesaid, and thence extending towards the north-east and south-east along the middle of the last-named Brook to its point of junction with a brook called or known as Brookhall Brook, and thence continuing towards the south-west and west along the middle of the last-mentioned brook towards its source, until it is joined by a watercourse issuing from the premises called or known as Tiptree Hall, and thence continuing towards the west and north-west along the middle of the said watercourse towards Tiptree Hall as far as the middle of a private road leading to the same premises, and thence extending first towards the south-west and then towards the north-west and west along the middle of the said private road to a cartway leading from such private road across the racecourse in the parish of Tolleshunt D'Arcy, and thence extending towards the west along the middle of the said cartway to the high road leading from Maldon to Messing aforesaid, thence crossing the said high road and continuing towards the north-west along the middle of a lane known as Unwin's-lane or Stony-lane, and along the middle of a footpath leading from the last-mentioned lane, and of a private road called or known as Thorp's-road, to the middle of the road leading by Grange Hill to the high road leading from Braxted to Colchester, and thence extending towards the north-west and north along the middle of the said road leading by Grange Hill to its point of junction with the high road leading from Braxted to Colchester aforesaid, near the premises called or known as Chedingsell Grange, and thence continuing first towards the north-east and then towards the east and north along the middle of the last-named road as far as the point where it is intersected by the high road leading from Tolleshunt Knights to Inworth aforesaid, and thence extending towards the south-east along the middle of the last-named road to the middle of the high road first named in this Schedule where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly and thirdly mentioned Acts, been delivered or transmitted to the incumbents and patrons of the churches of the several parishes, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and no objections have been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

TAKE notice, that this Honourable Court will be moved, before the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, on Wednesday, the 20th day of July, 1859, or so soon after as Counsel can be heard, by Mr. Speed, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the Bill filed in this cause on the 20th day of December, 1858, may be ordered to be taken pro confesso against the above-named defendant, Walter Casey, pursuant to the Orders of this Honourable Court, bearing date the 8th day of May, 1845.—Dated this 15th day of June, 1859.

Yours, &c.,

HAYES, TWISDEN, PARKER, and Co., 60, Russell-square, Agents for Hester and Hazel, of the city of Oxford, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

To Mr. Walter Casey, the above-named Defendant.

Vice-Chancellor Kindersley.—Wednesday the 15th day of June, in the 22nd year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1859, between Marcus William Davies, and Jane Lucy Davies, Spinster, and Arthur Charles Davies, Edmund John Davies, Alfred Henry Davies, and Anthony Hart Davies, Infants, by the said Marcus William Davies, their brother and next friend, Plaintiffs; John Gregson, Anne Howard Barber, Michael Bentley, Henry Bentley, the Reverend John Humphrey Davies, Clerk, and Elizabeth Martha Davies his Wife, and Antonia Hart Davies, Spinster, Defendants.

UPON motion, this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiffs, it was alleged that the plaintiffs, on the 27th day of May, 1859, filed their printed Bill in this Court against the defendants, having an endorsement thereon, in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and it appearing by the affidavit of Charles John Dimond and Edmund Williamson Mivart, filed the 11th day of June instant, that the defendant, the Reverend John Humphrey Davies, has been within the jurisdiction of this Court, within two years next before the filing of the said Bill; and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said defendant personally with a copy of the said Bill, but without effect; and that the defendant, John Humphrey Davies, is not to be found, so as to be served with process; and from inquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable that the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that he has absconded, or is keeping out of the way, to avoid being served with process. It was therefore prayed, and upon reading the said affidavit, this Court doth order, that the defendant, John Humphrey Davies, do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 16th day of July next; and it is ordered, that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette within fourteen days from the date thereof, and in the Times Newspaper.

To the above-named Defendant,

The Reverend John Humphrey Davies.

Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may be entitled to on their own showing.

SIMPSON and DIMOND, Plaintiffs Solicitors,
Henrietta-street, Cavendish-square.
