India Office, June 27, 1859.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following papers:

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDER.

*Fort William,
March 29, 1859.*

No. 423.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General in Council has much satisfaction in publishing the accompanying letter from the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, in which Lord Clyde warmly recommends the Medical and Commissariat Departments to the notice of the Government of India.

The Governor-General in Council desires to express to the Director-General, Dr. Forsyth; to the Inspector-General of Her Majesty's Hospitals, Dr. Linton, C.B.; to Colonel Ramsay, late Commissary-General; and to Lieutenant-Colonel Thomson, C.B., the present Commissary-General of the Bengal Army; and to all the officers of the Medical and Commissariat Departments, who have been employed in the field, or who have elsewhere furthered the service by their exertions in providing for the welfare and the wants of the Troops; the cordial acknowledgments of the Government of India for the important services they have rendered.

No. 2.

The Commander-in-Chief in India to the Governor-General.

MY LORD, Lucknow, February 21, 1859.

THE military operations in the Presidency of Bengal which ensued on the great mutiny of 1857, having happily been now brought to a close, I have the greatest satisfaction in recommending warmly to your Excellency's protection two great departments of the military administration to which the troops, and the officers who have commanded them in their long campaigns, are under real and great obligations. I allude to the Medical and Commissariat Departments.

The former, being composed of Officers belonging to the two services, has shone equally in the matters of general organization and of regimental arrangements. The Director-General, Dr. Forsyth, and the Inspector-General of Her Majesty's forces, Dr. Linton, C.B., in Calcutta, have worked successfully to meet the great requirements made on them; and the staff and regimental medical officers have well maintained the credit of their noble profession and the reputation for self-sacrifice which belongs to the surgeons of Her Majesty's armies, a reputation which is maintained in the field on all occasions, as well as in the most trying circumstances of the hospital.

It has been remarked throughout the army that, from the time of the slender forces taking the field against Delhi, and from Allahabad, in the summer of 1857, the system of the Indian Commissariat has been found equal to the tasks imposed on it, in spite of the extraordinary circumstances in which it was suddenly placed, and of the actual loss of the resources, viz., the great contractors and agents, with which it had been the custom to work.

For this system the army is in great measure indebted to the late Commissary-General Colonel Ramsay, and his successor, Colonel Thomson. The latter officer, being in personal charge, supplied the field force of Delhi under unexampled circumstances, when Sir A. Wilson stood before that city almost cut off from the rest of India.

The Commissary-General has been nobly supported by his subordinates; and I do but speak the truth when I affirm, that no department has ever possessed a more efficient staff of officers than those forming the establishment of the Bengal Commissariat.

I have, &c.,

CLYDE, General,
Commander-in-Chief, East Indies.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing, under their hands duly made, and bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the 19th day of July, 1852, did direct that certain rates of British postage therein mentioned should be charged and taken upon the transmission of letters between the United Kingdom and any place in the German Postal Union, and between any foreign country through any part of the German Postal Union and any place in the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium by packet-boat.

And whereas a postal convention having been recently made and entered into between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of His Majesty the King of Prussia, it has become expedient that further regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of certain letters in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us, in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows :

1. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Prussia, Austria, Bavaria, Saxony, Wurtemberg, Mecklenburg Strelitz, Oldenburg, Luxemburg, Brunswick, or Lubeck, and on every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in Prussia, Austria, Bavaria, Saxony, Wurtemberg, Mecklenburg Strelitz, Oldenburg, Luxemburg, Brunswick, or Lubeck, addressed to any place in the United Kingdom (the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium by packet-boat), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, a uniform rate of British postage of two pence halfpenny, if such respective letters be prepaid, and if such respective letters be not prepaid, an uniform rate of British postage of three pence halfpenny.

2. And on every letter transmitted as is hereinbefore mentioned, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken, progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates following, (that is to say) :

On every letter so transmitted, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken upon every letter so transmitted, two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces, shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to any of the countries or places hereinbefore in the first clause of this Warrant mentioned, or if any letter shall be posted in any of such countries or places, addressed to the United Kingdom, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the sum paid for postage thereon and the rate of postage payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant as an unpaid letter, after deducting the amount of postage so paid thereon, as aforesaid.

4. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any letters passing by the post between the United Kingdom and any of the countries or places hereinbefore in the first clause of this Warrant mentioned, viâ France, nor to any letters passing by the post between the United Kingdom and any such countries or places viâ Belgium, sent otherwise than in closed mails, nor to any letters posted in or addressed to any part of any of the countries or places hereinbefore in the first clause of this Warrant mentioned, and transmitted by the post between any part of any such countries or places and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country through the United Kingdom, nor to any letters transmitted between any foreign country through any part of the first clause of this Warrant mentioned and the United Kingdom, nor to any letters transmitted between any foreign country through any part of any of the last-mentioned countries or places and any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country through the United Kingdom, and conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium by packet-boat, all which said respective letters shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as are now chargeable and payable thereon, and as if this present Warrant had not been made.

5. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Warrant of the 19th day of July, 1852.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July; one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the hereof, postage hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas it was also duly certified to the Secretary of State aforesaid, that a copy of such notice was advertized, for three successive weeks, in one of the local Newspapers, published and circulated in the aforesaid borough, and that copies of such notice had also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such borough, to which notices are usually affixed; and whereas, within the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeals against its adoption, a petition was presented to the Secretary of State aforesaid, signed by owners of property, ratepayers, and inhabitants of the said borough, praying that such borough might be excluded from the operation of such Act: and the said Secretary of State directed inquiry to be made in the said borough into the subject matter of such petition, and such inquiry, after due notice as required by the Act, was, on the third and fourth days of May now last past, held in such borough, by Alfred Lamerte Dickens, Esq., the inspector appointed for that purpose, and he has made his report thereon:

Now, therefore, I, as Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, having taken the aforesaid petition and report into consideration, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the Local Government Act, 1858, make order as follows:

1. That the aforesaid appeal against the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, be dismissed.

2. That the Local Government Act, 1858, shall, from and after the seventh day of July, 1859, have the force of law within the borough of Scarborough, in the county of York.

Given under my hand this twenty-fifth day of June, 1859.
