PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

“ We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the first Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same Schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and premises, situate within the parish of Figheldean, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Salisbury, and particularly described in the second Schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered 1, and also the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising out of or upon lands situate within the same parish, and particularly described in the said second Schedule, and therein numbered 2, with their appurtenances, forming part of certain estates formerly belonging to the treasurership of the cathedral church of Salisbury, which have become vested in us under the authority and for the purposes of the said Act, and of certain title rentcharges which have also become vested in us under and by virtue of an Order of exchange of tithe rentcharges and hereditaments within the said parish of Figheldean, made by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, under the provisions of “ The Acts for the inclosure, exchange, and improvement of land,” and bearing date the fourteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Figheldean, and that the same lands and premises, and tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, to be so vested as last-mentioned, shall be and be deemed to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and in discharge of the annual sum or stipend of ten pounds, now payable by us to the said vicar or incumbent, in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the said treasurership.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose; and that, if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that, instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any such benefice or church, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the dignity or office of the Precentorship of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and now vested in us.

"Whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments and endowments, formerly belonging to the said dignity or office (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) became vested in us on the vacancy of the said dignity or office, which occurred on or about the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, by the decease of the Reverend Thomas Hill Lowe, Clerk, the then Precentor, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said dignity or office of Precentor, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Carmarthen in the diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the eighteenth day of the same month, it was provided, inter alia, that there should be paid by us, out of the common fund, created by the hereinbefore-named Act, to the Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Carmarthen for the time being the annual sum of one hundred and eighty pounds:

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and eighty pounds was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry, arising from fees and other sources, amounted to twenty pounds.

"And whereas, since the passing of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council, it has been made to appear to us, that the income which the said archdeacon derives from fees is exceeded by the amount expended by him in the collection of the same; and that the only income enjoyed by such Archdeacon, in right of his archdeaconry, is the hereinbefore mentioned grant of one hundred and eighty pounds.

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the annual sum of one hundred and eighty pounds, which, under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, is now payable by us to the holder of the said archdeaconry of Carmarthen, in the diocese of Saint David's, for the time being, shall be increased to two hundred pounds, subject nevertheless to the same conditions as are specified in the said Order with respect to the payment of the said sum of one hundred and eighty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Davids.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.
