

would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Chirbury, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Marton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Renn Dickson, Bishop of Hereford, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Wilding, incumbent of the said parish of Chirbury shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint Mark, Marton, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said James Wilding.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those portions of the parish of Chirbury, in the county of Salop, and diocese of Hereford, within which the incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and which are comprised within the townships of Marton and Stockton."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Marton, in the parish of Chirbury, in the county of Salop, to be called "The District Chapelry of Marton," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate in the parish of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas, Bishop of Durham, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Berwick-upon-Tweed, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Berwick-upon-Tweed.'

"And with the like consent of the said Bishop of Durham, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in the county of Northumberland, and diocese of Durham, which is bounded on the east by the German Ocean, on the west by the River Tweed, on the south by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary of the said parish at a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the public footway leading from Greenses Harbour towards that portion of the ancient walls of the town of Berwick which is known as the Brass Bastion, and extending thence westward along the middle of the said public footway for a distance of three hundred and sixty yards to a point opposite to the middle of the easternmost end of the ancient wall which divides the close numbered 182 from that numbered 183 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Berwick, and on the map hereunto annexed, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last mentioned wall, and in the same direction along the middle of the outer wall of the said Brass
