Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1859.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the district of Halsetown, in the county of Cornwall, and in the Diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of June in the same year, the district of Halsetown was constituted out of the parish of Saint Ives, in the said county of Cornwall.”

“And whereas such district has not yet become a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, as contemplated by the before-mentioned Act.

“And whereas no special assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the Minister of the said district, or, so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid, of the perpetual curate thereof, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

“And whereas Robert Hichens, of Threadneedle-street, in the City of London, and of the Grove, East Dulwich, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, has paid the sum of one thousand pounds into an account kept by us at the Bank of England, upon the understanding that the arrangements hereinafter mentioned should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose, in consideration of the payment to us of the said sum of one thousand pounds, that the whole right of patronage of the district or New Parish of Halsetown, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, or of the perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day upon which such Order shall be published in the London Gazette, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Robert Hichens, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of one thousand pounds shall be applied by us in or towards the erection of a parsonage house as a residence for the perpetual curate for the time being of the said district or New Parish of Halsetown, upon certain land which has been secured for that purpose, and which is situate within such district.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, section six, of an Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section sixteen, and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, section six, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section sixteen, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette of the thirtieth day of November in the same year, a portion of the ancient parish of Rochdale in the said county and diocese, was duly assigned as a district for the consecrated Church of Saint John, situate at Smallbridge aforesaid.

"And whereas the said district was called the Chapelry District of Saint John, Smallbridge, and such chapelry district has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, section fourteen, become a new parish such as is contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, section fifteen.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that the boundaries of such new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, limited as they now are by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette of the eleventh day of the same month, should be altered so as to include in such new parish a part of the hamlet of Wuerdle which now belongs or is reputed to belong to the ancient parochial Chapelry of Littleborough in the said parish of Rochdale.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, patron in right of his see of the said parish of Rochdale, of the Reverend John Edward Nassau Molesworth, Doctor in Divinity, vicar of the same parish, and, as such vicar, patron of the said new parish of Saint John Smallbridge and of the said ancient parochial chapelry of Littleborough, and of the Reverend Robert Keningale Cook, incumbent of the said new parish of Saint John Smallbridge, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John Smallbridge, limited as they are as aforesaid, should be altered so as to include within such new parish all that part of the hamlet of Wuerdle in the parish of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, which now belongs or is reputed to belong to the ancient parochial chapelry of Littleborough, in the same parish, county, and diocese, and which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary between the said hamlet of Wuerdle and the township of Blatchinworth and Calderbrook, in the middle of a lane called Starring Lane and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-named lane to the middle of the turnpike road leading from Littleborough to Smallbridge and extending thence south-westward, along the middle of such last-named road to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of a lane called Holiday Lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-named lane to the boundary of the said hamlet of Wuerdle, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured blue.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed addition to and alteration of the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Smallbridge, delineated in the said map or plan, be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the vicarage of Newport Pagnell, in the county of Buckingham, and diocese of Oxford, for the patronage of the vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, in the county of Sussex, and diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the patronage of the said vicarage of Newport-Pagnell, is vested in your Majesty and your successors in right of the crown, and the value of the said vicarage does not exceed twenty pounds in the King's Book; and whereas the Right Reverend Samuel Bishop, of Oxford, is seised in right of his see of the patronage of the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, and the value of such last-mentioned vicarage does not exceed twenty pounds in the King's Book.

And whereas, the Right Honourable Frederic Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange and the relative value of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty, that having regard to the more onerous nature of the duties to be performed by the incumbent of the said vicarage of Newport-Pagnell, as compared with those to be performed by the incumbent of the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, the value of the said vicarage of Newport-Pagnell, is equivalent, as nearly as may be, to the value of the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, and that the particulars of such benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, in testimony whereof the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any further or other assurance or conveyance in the law, the patronage of or right of nomination to the said vicarage of Newport Pagnell, shall be assigned and transferred from your Majesty and your successors in right of the crown, and shall become and be vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the said see, and that in exchange for the same, the patronage of or the right of nomination to the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said Bishop and his successors, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by your Majesty and your successors in right of the crown.

And, we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of All Saints, Southampton, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"And whereas a desire has been expressed to us by the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, and also by the Venerable Joseph Cotton Wigram, the present Rector of the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary, Southampton, and it appears to us to be expedient, that arrangements should be made for apportioning the income of the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary, Southampton, between the rector thereof and the rector of the said rectory or benefice of All Saints, Southampton, in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, and of the said Joseph Cotton Wigram, Rector of the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary, Southampton, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such Order, the whole of the lands, tithes, or rent-charges, in lieu of tithe, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments now forming part of the endowments of the said rectory or benefice of Saint Mary, Southampton, which arise or are situate within the limits of the said parish of All Saints, Southampton, shall be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the rector of the said rectory or benefice of All Saints, Southampton, and his successors, rectors of the same benefice, and shall form part of the endowments thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and to fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant under their hands, bearing date the 18th day of January, 1859, did order and direct, that on every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Mauritius, and on every letter posted in the Mauritius addressed to the United Kingdom, the postage thereof should be paid at the time of the same being posted; and that if any letter should be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the Mauritius, without any postage having been paid thereon, or having thereon or affixed thereto, a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which should be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, would be liable under the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter should, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine inclusive, be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence, and from and after the said thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, every such letter, instead of being forwarded, should be detained and opened, and be either returned or given up to the sender thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that a further regulation should be made as to the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the Mauritius, without any postage having been paid thereon, or having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, would be liable under the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall, until the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine inclusive, be forwarded, charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of sixpence; and from and after the said thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, every such letter, instead of being forwarded, shall be detained and opened, and be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, as directed by the said recited Warrant of the 18th day of January, 1859.

2. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Warrant of the 18th day of January, 1859.

3. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the eleventh day of July, 1859.

John Bagwell.
E. H. Knatchbull Hugessen.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letter sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letter sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post-office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by divers Warrants under their hands, fixed, made, and established certain rates of British postage, payable on the transmission by the post of certain colonial letters therein respectively mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain other Warrant under their hands, bearing date the 15th day of January, 1858, did make regulations for the prepayment of the several rates of postage payable on letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any of the colonies therein mentioned, and on letters posted in any of such colonies addressed to the United Kingdom.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said last-mentioned Warrant to letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Newfoundland, and to letters posted in those colonies addressed to the United Kingdom.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Newfoundland, and on every letter posted in any of such colonies, addressed to the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, or Newfoundland, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

3. If any letter shall be posted in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Newfoundland, addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, or Newfoundland, or be posted in any of such colonies, addressed to the United Kingdom, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

5. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to Members of each House of Parliament, to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, nor the privilege granted to printed votes or proceedings of Parliament; nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's Service now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

6. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under or by virtue of the 7th, 8th, and 9th clauses of this Warrant, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

13. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the 6th, 7th, and 8th clauses of this Warrant, shall, in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any such packet, or the cover or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if any such packet shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations hereinbefore in the 9th clause of this Warrant contained, every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof; and every such respective packet, on being so returned or given up, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

14. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the 8th clause of this Warrant, from the United Kingdom to the Kingdom of the Mosquitos (any such packet posted in London and sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account, only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom without any postage paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet is liable under and by virtue of the regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or exceeding in length, or breadth, or width the dimensions of two feet.

15. The respective letters and packets transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to re-directed rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be re-directed and again forwarded by the post.

16. The rates of postage chargeable on letters, books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

17. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any letters, newspapers, books, publications, or works of literature or art, or other printed papers sent between the Kingdom of the Mosquitos and France, or sent otherwise than in closed mails between the Kingdom of the Mosquitos and any foreign country or British colony through France.

18. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

19. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions, hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

20. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.
