AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the vicarage of Newport Pagnell, in the county of Buckingham, and diocese of Oxford, for the patronage of the vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, in the county of Sussex, and diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the patronage of the said vicarage of Newport-Pagnell, is vested in your Majesty and your successors in right of the crown, and the value of the said vicarage does not exceed twenty pounds in the King's Book; and whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is seised in right of his see of the patronage of the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, and the value of such last-mentioned vicarage does not exceed twenty pounds in the King's Book.

And whereas, the Right Honourable Frederic Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed,

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange and the relative value of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty, that having regard to the more onerous nature of the duties to be performed by the incumbent of the said vicarage of Newport-Pagnell, as compared with those to be performed by the incumbent of the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, the value of the said vicarage of Newport-Pagnell, is equivalent, as nearly as may be, to the value of the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford, and that the particulars of such benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, in testimony whereof the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any further or other assurance or conveyance in the law, the patronage of or right of nomination to the said vicarage of Newport Pagnell, shall be assigned and transferred from your Majesty and your successors in right of the crown, and shall become and be vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the said see, and that in exchange for the same, the patronage of or the right of nomination to the said vicarage of Sutton with Seaford shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said Bishop and his successors, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by your Majesty and your successors in right of the crown.

And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."
