TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1859.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council, upon a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, is pleased to appoint the Reverend Joseph Woolley, M.A., and LL.D., late Fellow of Saint John's College, Cambridge, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools; and to order that his appointment bear date the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, situate partly in the city of London, and partly in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the patronage of the church of the said parish is vested in, and belongs to Robert Sutton, of No. 44, Queen Ann-street, Cavendish-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, and he is willing and has agreed to transfer such patronage to the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors, Bishops of London.

"And whereas, with a view to making better provision for the incumbent for the time being of such parish, the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, has paid to us the sum of one hundred pounds, which monies were subscribed by the parish of Aldgate, upon the understanding and faith that we the said Commissioners should submit to your Majesty in Council, the recommendations with respect to the patronage of the church of the said parish, and the annual payment to the incumbent of such parish, which are hereinafter accordingly made.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and Robert Sutton, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the advowson and perpetual right of patronage and presentation to the said parish, and parish church of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, aforesaid, and all the estate right, title, use, trust, property, claim and demand therein, of the said Robert Sutton, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, be assigned to and absolutely vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors, Bishops of London, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of the said church, the fixed annual sum of three pounds six shillings and four pence, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year, and that the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of November next.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Wellington, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, called Christ Church, situate at Wellington aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wellington, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Wellington.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being:

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those portions of the townships of Arles-tone and Lugomery in the parish of Wellington in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield, which are situate to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Great Western Railway.

"And also all that portion of the township of Watling-street, in the same parish which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the road which leads from Hunting-ton through Steeraway into the Watling-street turnpike-road; and also all that portion of the township of Wellington in the said parish of Wellington, which lies to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Great Western Railway aforesaid, and to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the street called Smithfield-street, over the said railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last named street, and along the middle of Nailor's Row, and of a passage called White Horse Passage leading from such last named Row to New-street, to the middle of New-street aforesaid, and extending thence northwestward along the middle of such last named street, to a point opposite to the middle of the Northern end of a new road called Robinson's-road, and extending thence southwestward along the middle of such last named New Road to the middle of Jarratt's-lane, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last named lane, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence which divides the close, numbered 1269 on the Tithe Map of the said parish of Wellington, and on the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 1276, 1277, and 1278, on such maps, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last mentioned fence, to the middle of a footpath leading from Brewery-street, to Wrekin-road, and extending thence southeastward along the middle of the said last mentioned footpath to the middle of Brewery-street aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last named street, to the boundary between the said townships of Wellington and Watling-street."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Christ Church, situate in the parish of Wellington, in the county of Salop, to be called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Wellington," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate in the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull.'

"And with the like consent of the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Healey Bromby, incumbent of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint Stephen, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said John Healey Bromby.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county and diocese of York, which is bounded on the west by an imaginary line extending from the middle of Spring Bank, along the middle of the West Parade to the middle of the Anlaby Road, on the south by an imaginary line extending along the middle of such last-named road, and on the north and east by the parish of Sculcoates, in the same county and diocese, and by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such last-named parish and the said parish of the Holy Trinity, in the middle of Prospect-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-named street, and along the middle of Carlisle-street, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of West-street; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of such last-named street to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of South-street; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-named street to the middle of the Anlaby Road aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate in the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of York, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Hull," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-ground or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation, shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish :

And whereas the Right Honourable Thomas Sotherton Estcourt, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the vaults beneath the church of CHRIST CHURCH, SURREY ;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixth of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth of July instant, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued, from and after the eighth day of August next, in the vaults beneath the said church of CHRIST CHURCH, SURREY.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard and burial-ground be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard and burial-ground be postponed, as follows ; viz. :

In the churchyard of All Saints, Chorlton, in MANCHESTER, from the first of July instant, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, on the same conditions as those specified in an Order in Council of the second day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, varying a former Order in respect of this churchyard ;

In Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in MANCHESTER, from the thirtieth of June last, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, on condition that all the regulations prescribed by certain Orders in Council of the seventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in reference to this burial-ground, be strictly observed.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications :

WROCKWARDINE, SALOP.—Forthwith in the churchyard, except in soil which is free from water and human remains ; no coffin to be buried less than four feet below the surface, or within one foot of any other coffin, unless deposited in a vault or walled grave which is free from water, and in which each coffin shall be entombed in an air-tight manner.

KNAPTON, NORFOLK.—Forthwith in the vaults and graves beneath the parish church ; and also that the vault abutting on the north wall of the chancel be filled with earth and powdered charcoal.

LUDGVAN, CORNWALL.—In the parish burial-ground, on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be entombed in an air-tight manner.

EAST STONEHOUSE, DEVON.—Forthwith in the new part of the parish churchyard of Saint George, Stonehouse ; and that the surface be covered with fresh mould, and a growing vegetation maintained thereon.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twelfth day of September next ;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations, one month before the said twelfth day of September.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the BIRKENHEAD IMPROVEMENT COMMISSIONERS, appointed under certain Acts of Parliament in that behalf, for the townships of Birkenhead and Claughton-cum-Grange, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that, in the month of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, an Order in Council was made for closing the burial-grounds therein mentioned within the said township of Birkenhead, subject to the exceptions or qualifications therein set forth; that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the above-named townships under the powers of the Acts passed in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-five, and in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; that the district of the said Commissioners is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district; and praying that powers should be vested in the said Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners for providing such place or places of burial as may be requisite for the inhabitants of the said townships of Birkenhead and Claughton-cum-Grange, under the provisions of the said Acts.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twelfth day of September next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Commissioners as aforesaid, one month at least before the said twelfth day of September.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE GOVERNMENT DEBENTURES,

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
12th May, 1859.

THE Government of the Cape of Good Hope will be prepared to receive, at the Audit Office, Cape Town, on or before the 30th September next, at noon, Tenders for Government Debentures, to the extent of £80,000, to be issued in pursuance of Acts of the Legislature of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, No. 8, of 1857, and No. 16, of 1858, passed for the introduction into the Colony of Immigrants from Europe:—such debentures to bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly, the principal and interest constituting a first charge on the general revenue of the colony, and the debentures not being redeemable until after six months' previous notice in the Government Gazette of the colony, and in the London Gazette.

Each debenture will, at the option of the person tendering, be issued for the sums of fifty or one hundred pounds sterling, and the half-yearly interest due on the 15th January and 15th July in each year, will be payable either at the Colonial Treasury, Cape Town, or at the Office of the Agents General for Crown Colonies, London, at the option of the holder.

The tenders for such debentures to specify the number and amount of debentures required, the name of the person tendering, and his residence, or that of his agent in Cape Town, and to be addressed "Tenders for Cape of Good Hope Government Debentures"

By command of His Excellency the Governor, Rawson W. Rawson, Colonial Secretary.

For all further information required apply to the Agents General for Crown Colonies, No. 6, Adelphi-terrace, Strand, W.C.
London, 29th June, 1859.

In the Matter of Letters Patent, granted to William Eccles, of Blackburn, Power Loom Manufacturer, William Crook, of Livesey, Hand Loom Weaver, and William Lancaster, Power Loom Weaver, of Blackburn, all in the county of Lancaster, bearing date at Westminster, the 18th day of September, 1845, for "certain improvements in looms for weaving."

NOTICE is hereby given, that the said William Crook, part proprietor of the said letters patent, and Thomas Gore, of the city of Manchester, Machine Maker, assignee, proprietor of the other part, of the said letters patent, have applied to Her Majesty's Solicitor-General, for leave, certified by his fiat and signature, to enter with the Clerk of the Patents for England, a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration of certain parts of the specification of the said letters patent.—Dated this 30th day of July, 1859.

CONTRACTS FOR SUET, RAISINS, COCOA, TEA, SUGAR, PEPPER, AND SPLIT PEAS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, July 29, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 9th August next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Suet, 50,000 lbs.; one-fifth to be delivered on 20th August next, and the remainder in four equal weekly deliveries afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 25 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 200 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper, 15 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 800 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The raisins, cocoa, tea, sugar, and pepper to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Samples of the raisins (not less than three pounds), of the cocoa (not less than two pounds), of the tea (not less than two pounds from the bonded warehouse), of the pepper (not less than two pounds), and of the peas (not less than two quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the samples tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset House.
