TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time after the passing of that Act, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters, or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us, in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. On every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post direct between any place in the United Kingdom and Hamburg or Bremen (the sea conveyance being by private ship) there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage heretofore chargeable on such letters, a British postage of four-pence halfpenny.

2. And on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every such letter, exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter, exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces, in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter, exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces, in weight, six rates of postage.

On every such letter, exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces, in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with, under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing in this Warrant contained shall in anywise alter, prejudice, or affect the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, nor in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which officers, seamen, and soldiers, employed in Her Majesty's Service, now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

5. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

6. The Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 26.) CHANNEL ISLANDS.

Lights in Braye Harbour, Alderney.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice, that on and after the 1st day of August, 1859, two red leading lights will be exhibited at the head of Braye harbour, on the north coast of Alderney, to mark the fairway channel into the harbour.

The lower light will be a fixed light, placed on the parapet of the old pier at Braye, at an elevation of 25 feet above the level of high water at ordinary springs, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 5 or 6 miles. It will be screened in the direction of the dangers on either side of the harbour.

The upper light, also fixed, will be placed at the north-east corner of Braye Reading-room, about S.W. by W., distant 370 yards from the lower light. It will be elevated 55 feet above high water, and visible at about 8 or 9 miles to seaward.

Directions. In approaching Braye harbour from the north-east by night, shape a course direct for the red lights, allowing for the set of the tide. Coming from the north-west and north, do not bring the Casquets to the northward of West until the Braye lights are brought in line, about S.W. by W.

On approaching from the southward or from the Race of Alderney, steer to pass about 3 miles from Cape de la Hague light, not hauling to the westward until it bears S.E. by E. Cape de la Hague light kept on this bearing, or the Casquets kept just open north of Burhou island, W. by N., will clear the dangers off the north-east end of Alderney, and lead up to the Braye lights, which must be brought in line before shutting the Casquets in with Burhou.

Steer in with the Braye lights in line until the Casquets are obscured by the parapet of the breakwater, when if bound higher up the harbour open the lights a little either way in order to avoid the Half-tide rock, which is marked by a beacon. the lower light, however, must not be lost sight of, or the lights opened more than quarter of a point, on account of the rocky patches of the Aiguillons and off Roselle point on the south, or off the breakwater on the north.

[The Bearings are Magnetic. Variation 22° West in 1859.]

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

TAKE NOTICE, that I demand all fines due and payable under a Lease of the 8th of July, 1719, out of all that and those the town and lands of Munganstown, situate in the barony of Farbill, and county of Westmeath, and that a renewed Lease be taken out within three months from this date, to save a forfeiture of rights.—Dated this 26th day of July, 1859.

THOMAS JAMES SMYTH,

Valuable Farm in East Lothian for Sale.
Entry immediate.

To be exposed to sale, by public roup, on Wednesday, the 31st August current, at two o'clock P.M., within the sale-rooms of Messrs. Dowells and Lyon, No. 18, George-street, Edinburgh.

THE valuable leasehold property of Murrays, in the parish of Ormiston and county of Haddington, consisting of 335 imperial acres or thereby of excellent land, in a high state of cultivation. The lands are held of the Earl of Hopetoun, under a perpetually renewable lease, originally granted in the year 1718 (and renewable for ever, every nineteen years, on payment of a fine or grassum of £100) at the now almost nominal rent of £64 6s. 8d. per annum, and as the lease comes under the operation of the Act of Parliament recently passed for the registration of long leases, the title is in all essential particulars as good as freehold.

The farmstead is commodious and substantial, and the house, though at present in disrepair, is capable of being made a very agreeable residence to any gentleman desirous of farming his own property, in a beautiful district of East Lothian.

The purchaser will have an opportunity of buying such part of the present crop, horses, implements of husbandry (including a steam plough), as he may desire, as it is intended, after the farm is sold, to expose the crop, implements, &c., to public sale.

The lands have not been let for many years, but they are estimated as worth about £680 per annum, clear of every deduction. The investment is highly eligible, therefore not only those wishing to farm their own land, but also to those desirous merely of investing their capital on landed property of so desirable a description, which may at the same time be expected to yield a return of nearly five per cent. per annum.

The distance from Haddington is about eight, and from Dalkeith, six miles.

For further particulars application may be made to Messrs. Duncan and Dewar, W.S., No. 6, Hill-street, Edinburgh; or to Messrs. Young, Vallings, and Jones, Solicitors, No. 2, St. Mildred's-court, Poultry, London, E.C.; or Messrs. J. and W. Galsworthy, Solicitors, No. 12, Old Jewry-chambers, London.
