Northumberland.—Valuable and Important Collieries upon the River Tyne.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes of Brandling v. Plummer, Brandling v. Plummer, Brandling v. Liddell, and Brandling v. Plummer, with the approbation of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor, Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, the Judge, to whose Court the said causes are attached, by Mr. Charles Brough, who has been appointed for that purpose, at the Queen's Head Inn, Pilgrim-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on Saturday, the 8th day of October, 1859, at twelve for one o'clock, in three lots:

Lot. 1.—The extensive and well known colliery called Gosforth Colliery, for the residue of a leasehold term of 42 years, commencing from 1st January, 1860, subject to moderate fixed and tentale rents, and the engines, machinery, live and dead stock belonging to the colliery, and certain lands, buildings, and cottages, used and occupied for the purposes of the colliery, held for a leasehold term at moderate rents; both leases may be determined by the lessees at certain fixed periods.

At this colliery the High Main Coal Seam is in working, and produces coal of first-rate quality, well known in the London market, as the Gosforth Wallsend.

The lease of Gosforth Colliery confers the power of working the mines under upwards of 1,000 acres of land in North and South Gosforth.

Valuable wayleave privileges are secured to and used for the benefit of Gosforth Colliery, and the coal is conveyed along the coxlodge waggon way from Gosforth Colliery to a shipping place on the Tyne.

Lot. 2.—The royalty and fee of, and in the coal mines within the townships of North and South Gosforth, containing about 1410 acres, partly worked by, or through Gosforth Colliery, and the remaining part worked by the owners of Coxlodge Colliery, and yielding adequate, fixed, and tentale rents; the high main is the only seam or bed of coal yet worked within the Royalty, and of it there is yet a large quantity remaining entire; all the lower beds are still unopened.

Lot. 3.—The valuable colliery known as Coxlodge colliery, producing a first-class coal, known as Riddell's Wallsend, and the engines, machinery, and stock attached thereto, and the waggon way leading from the colliery to excellent shipping places on the river Tyne, along which waggon way the coals of other collieries are led, by agreement with the owners of Coxlodge Colliery who derive a considerable additional revenue from this arrangement.

The Royalties attached to this colliery, are held on valuable working leases, and comprise upwards of 5,000 acres, within which there is a considerable extent of High Main coal unwrought, and the lower seams which produce the best steam coal of the district, are entire throughout the Royalties, and can be easily opened out, and brought into working.

The Coxlodge and Gosforth collieries and Royalties offer a most eligible opportunity for investment by any party desirous of embarking capital in the coal trade of the North.

The collieries are most advantageously situated at an easy distance from a convenient and deep water place of shipment on the river Tyne, and are the principal collieries on that river in which any considerable portion of the Wallsend seam remains unwrought.
