TUESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1859.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 12th day of August, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Charles Anthony Hamilton, Esquire, to exercise all the powers, and to perform all the functions of the Clerk of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary, during his absence; and the usual oaths were thereupon administered to him accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 12th day of August, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the county of WORCESTER, in general quarter sessions assembled at the Shire Hall, Worcester, on the twenty-seventh day of June last, have presented two petitions to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the said county of Worcester is insufficient, and praying that the parish or township of Redditch and the township of Oldbury, respectively, may be declared polling places for the said division, within which such places are situate:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petitions into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the said parish or township of Redditch and the said township of Oldbury shall be polling places for the eastern division of the county of Worcester; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 12th day of August, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the 5th part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every pilotage authority, by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section;

And whereas the Trinity House Corporation, being the pilotage authority under the said Act, for the Trinity House outport district called the Dartmouth District, the limits whereof now are from Bob's Nose to Bolt Head, and vice versa, and into and out of all ports and places
