FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1859.

India Office, October 3, 1859.

THE Secretary of State for India has received the following Paper from the Government of India :

Minute of the Governor-General of India regarding the Services of Civil Officers and others, during the Mutiny and Rebellion.

1. THE bloodshed, strife, and general disorganization, consequent upon the mutiny of the Bengal Army, which declared itself two years ago, are drawn to a close.

Here and there a few bands of turbulent and disaffected marauders still remain in arms ; but there is no unity amongst the enemies of the State ; and, although the complete and universal security which prevailed before the outbreak has not in all places returned, there is no part of the Queen's Indian possessions to which civil government has not been restored.

A day of solemn thanksgiving for this happy result has been appointed.

2. This being so, it becomes my grateful duty to bring to the notice of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, the names of those earnest, devoted men, by whose abilities, sound judgment, and unexampled labours, the civil authority of the British Government has been upheld or re-established.

3. Although civilians by profession, or holding for the time civil offices, the duties which they have performed have been, for the most part, full of peril and toil.

Only some few of them have been called on occasionally to take part in the operations of the army, and have thereby had the satisfaction of seeing honour done to their names in the Gazettes of the day. But there are others who have been distinguished by conduct in front of an enemy which would make any army proud of them.

They have organized levies and led them ; defended stations ; kept in check large disaffected communities ; reassured the wavering ; and given confidence to the loyal.

Many of them have, in the service of the State, carried their lives in their hands for months together.

Their position has been such as to try not only their physical courage, but the judgment, intelligence, and self-reliance of each individual, and to keep these qualities unceasingly on the strain.

4. The most anxious part of their long task is now at an end, and I confidently claim for them from Her Majesty's Government the same respect, admiration, and gratitude, as have been so deservedly bestowed upon their fellow labourers of the Army.

5. The Return which accompanies this Minute, shows some of the services of those who have been most actively engaged, but very briefly and imperfectly.

6. I will speak first of Bengal.

The value of the services rendered by the late Lieut.-Governor, Mr. Halliday, is as well known to the Home Government as to myself. With a charge of enormous extent and responsibility, and called upon to take a large share of the work by which troops and munitions of war were forwarded from Calcutta to other Local Governments, Mr. Halliday was the right hand of the Government of India for many months. The efficient aid given by Mr. Halliday to the Government, the watchfulness and sound judgment which marked his advice in regard to affairs within his own jurisdiction, and the promptitude and completeness with which he carried out all the precautionary and defensive measures sanctioned by the Government of India, effectually checked the spread of rebellion in Bengal. And although in this province, the people are for the most part less warlike and turbulent than those of Upper India, there are in it many dangerous centres of fanaticism, and many wide, and not easily accessible, tracts, where an outburst of rebellion would have sorely crippled the small means at the disposal of Government, and where peace was to be maintained more by good management than by show of force.

As the head of the Government, I feel myself deeply indebted to Mr. Halliday for his most useful aid, and I confidently trust that the Secretary of State will not be forgetful of his services.

7. Of the officers of the Bengal Government who have been brought to notice by Mr. Halliday, I wish to recommend to the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government Mr. G. Yule, the Commissioner of Bhaugulpore ; Mr. A. Money, Magistrate of Shahabad and Gya, whose good service has already attracted the notice of the Home Government ; Mr. S. Wauchope, Commissioner of Police in Calcutta, who has had a most irksome and difficult post, and has discharged the duties of it fearlessly and excellently ; Mr. E. A. Samuells, the late Commissioner of Patna ; and Mr. H. C. Wake, Magistrate of Shahabad.

8. The following officers have also well deserved the notice of Her Majesty's Government : Mr.

W. J. Allen, Member of the Board of Revenue, on Deputation at Cheera Poonjee; Mr. G. F. Cockburn, Commissioner of Cuttack; Mr. R. L. Mangles, Assistant in Shahabad; Mr. E. Jackson, the Superintendent of Supplies on the Trunk Road; Mr. C. Hollings, Sub-Deputy Opium Agent at Gya; Mr. F. B. Drummond, Magistrate of Purneah; Mr. E. McDonnell, Sub-Deputy Opium Agent in Sarun; Mr. E. Baker, Deputy Magistrate of Sasseram; Mr. C. Carnac, Magistrate of Dacca; Mr. W. McDonnell, Magistrate of Sarun, and attached to Sir E. Lugard's Column; Mr. J. D. Gordon, Assistant Magistrate of Jelpigoree; Mr. W. Brodhurst, Magistrate of Shahabad; Mr. Garstin, Deputy Magistrate of Sasseram; Mr. Boyle, Mr. R. de Courcy, Mr. J. Cockburn, and Mr. J. Wemyss, gentlemen not connected with Government, but who have given to it valuable aid; and Mr. J. Todhunter and Mr. W. McIntyre, both of the Telegraph Department.

9. In respect of Military Officers in Civil employ, I have to call to notice the excellent services of Captain Dalton, Commissioner at Chota Nagpore; of Lieutenant J. Graham, Assistant Commissioner in Palamew; of Lieutenant Birch, Assistant Commissioner of Chota Nagpore; Lieutenant R. Stuart, Superintendent of Cachar; and Lieutenant Stanton, Executive Engineer of the Grand Trunk Road at Shergotty.

10. Of the value of the assistance received from Mr. A. R. Young, Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Mr. Halliday has spoken forcibly. I can add nothing to what he has said on this head, but I have pleasure in confirming it.

11. I proceed to mention the services of the Officers of the North-West Provinces.

The lamented death of the late Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. Colvin, under the weight of his great and anxious labours, was not only a heavy loss to the Government of India, but the cause of throwing, upon many of its officers, an unusual but unavoidable responsibility.

12. In the Central Provinces, the Government for some months availed itself most beneficially of the ability and energy of the Honourable Mr. J. P. Grant, then a Member of the Supreme Council, and now Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, whose exertions contributed greatly to recall things to order.

13. In the Upper Provinces at Agra, the Government was long cut off from regular communication with the Government of India, and, during that time, and subsequently, the experience and public spirit of Mr. E. A. Reade, Senior Member of the Board of Revenue; and, when military authority became necessary, the zealous services of Colonel Fraser, who, unhappily, has not survived; were of great value.

14. The Central and Upper Provinces were reunited from the beginning of February, 1858, when I assumed the government of the North-west Provinces, at Allahabad.

15. The pressure of the revolt upon these Provinces was severer and longer than in any other part of India, Oude alone excepted; but, whilst in Oude our Government was entirely swept away, in the North-west Provinces it retained its hold of many chief points of the country. These were held single and isolated in a sea of rebellion, and that this was possible is due to the indomitable courage, devotion to duty, and fertility of resource which have marked the conduct of the Officers of the Civil Service of India throughout this terrible time.

They have been worthily aided and rivalled by military officers on detached employ, and by many gentlemen not connected with the Government; but it is due, primarily, to the Officers of the Civil Service that the landmarks of British authority throughout the districts of the North-west Provinces were not overborne in the flood.

16. It is now my duty to recommend to the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government the following officers.

Mr. J. Cracroft Wilson, Judge of Moradabad. I name this gentleman first, because he has the enviable distinction of having, by his own obstinate courage and perseverance, saved more Christian lives than any man in India. He did this at the repeatedly imminent peril of own life. He has since left the service of the Indian Government, and is retired to New Zealand, whither I respectfully hope that the favour of the Crown may follow him.

Mr. Henry Carre Tucker, late Commissioner, and Mr. Frederick B. Gubbins, Judge (and now Commissioner) of Benares. The firmness, calmness, and excellent judgment of Mr. F. Gubbins in dealing with the great dangers which beset that city were most remarkable. Mr. C. J. Wingfield, Commissioner of Goruckpore, since raised to the Chief Commissionership in Oude, where there is a wider field for the exercise of his high qualities; Mr. A. H. Cocks, Judge of Mynpoorie; Mr. B. Sapte, Magistrate of Bolundshuhur; Mr. R. Alexander, Commissioner of Rohilkund; Mr. R. H. Dunlop, Magistrate of Meerut; Mr. F. O. Mayne, Magistrate of Banda; Mr. A. O. Hume, Magistrate of Etawah; Mr. J. H. Bax, Joint Magistrate of Ghazepore; Major Erskine, Commissioner of Saugor; Major G. Williams, commanding the Volunteers, and afterwards head of the whole Police of the North-western Provinces; Major H. Ramsay, Commissioner of Kumaon; and Captain Pinckney, Commissioner of Jhansi.

17. I would also invite the notice of Her Majesty's Government to the excellent services of Mr. C. Chester, Commissioner of Allahabad; Mr. M. H. Court, Magistrate of Allahabad; Mr. G. F. Harvey, Commissioner of Agra; Mr. C. Raikes, Civil Commissioner in the camp of the Commander-in-Chief; Mr. F. Williams, Commissioner of Meerut; Mr. C. Daniell, Assistant Magistrate of Etah; Mr. A. Lyall, Assistant Magistrate at Bolundshuhur; Mr. A. Shakespear, Magistrate of Bijnour; Mr. G. D. Turnbull, Judge of Meerut; Mr. M. B. Thornhill, Magistrate of Muttra; Mr. F. M. Lind, Magistrate of Benares; Mr. St. George Tucker, Magistrate of Mirzapore; Mr. H. Vansittart, Officiating Judge of Agra; the Hon. R. J. Drummond, Magistrate of Agra; Mr. J. Power, Magistrate of Mynpoorie; Mr. R. H. Davies, Magistrate of Azimgurh; Mr. R. Spankie, Magistrate of Saharunpore; Mr. A. R. Pollock, Joint Magistrate of Benares; Mr. W. Probyn, Officiating Magistrate of Furruckabad; Sir T. Metcalfe, Assistant Magistrate at Delhi; Mr. R. M. Edwards, Joint Magistrate of Mozuffurnuggur; Mr. G. Palmer, Joint Magistrate of Bijnour; Mr. F. Bird, Joint Magistrate of Goruckpore; Mr. H. Robertson, Assistant Magistrate of Saharunpore; Mr. H. Willock, Assistant Magistrate at Allahabad; Mr. L. Probyn, Assistant Magistrate at Ghazepore; Mr. S. S. Melville, Assistant Magistrate at Bolundshuhur; Mr. A. L. Phillips, Joint Magistrate of Etah; Mr. C. Jenkinson, Assistant Magistrate of Jounpore; Mr. G. Freeing, Joint Magistrate of Azimgurh; Mr. J. Simson, Joint Magistrate of Mirzapore; Mr. C. Grant, Joint Magistrate of Mozuffurnuggur; Mr. G. Lane, Acting Magistrate at Etawah; Mr. W. M. Low, Assistant Magistrate at Bareilly; and Mr. H. G. Ross, Assistant Magistrate at Azimgurh.

18. Of military officers in civil employ, notice is first due to Lieutenant-Colonel Baird Smith, Superintendent of Roorkee; but this officer's most signal services were rendered in a military capacity, and are already known and appreciated by Her Majesty's Government.

There are, besides, Captain Waddington, Deputy Commissioner of Mundla; Captain Teran, Deputy Commissioner of Jaloun; Captain Drummond, Superintendent of the Ganges Canal; Captain Read, Superintendent of Forest Agency; Captain Maclean, Deputy Commissioner of Baitool; Lieutenant Fenton, Deputy Commissioner of Chanderee; and Lieutenant Brownlow, Deputy Superintendent of the Jumna Canal; Lieutenant Eckford, of the Mynpoorie levy; and Lieutenant de Kantzow, whose service in the field has been partly under civil, partly under military authority.

19. Of gentlemen not in the covenanted service of the Indian Government, notice is claimed especially for Mr. P. Carnegy, Deputy Collector of Jounpore; Mr. P. Saunders, and Mr. A. Tonnochy.

20. The valuable services rendered by Mr. Dunne, Mr. Walewski, Mr. A. Walewski, Mr. Legge, and Mr. D. Churcher, and Mr. G. Jones, —gentlemen upon whose aid the Government had no claim,—are also deserving of the notice of Her Majesty's Government.

21. If it be thought that the number of officers whom I have brought to the attention of Her Majesty's Government for distinguished service in the north-west provinces is large, I beg that it may be remembered that the services have been rendered over a country of 73,000 square miles in area, and peopled by 30,000,000 of inhabitants, nearly every corner of which has been searched out by rebellion.

22. It only remains for me, as regards the north-west provinces, to bring before the Secretary of State the able and indefatigable services of the Secretary to the Government, Mr. W. Muir: I cannot speak too highly of them.

The services of Mr. C. B. Thornhill, who acted as Secretary to the Government at Agra during the first nine months of the mutiny, and subsequently as Commissioner of Allahabad, also claim notice.

23. In Central India, the officers of Government were tried by great and long-continued difficulties and dangers.

I desire to bring prominently before Her Majesty's Government the very important services of the two distinguished men who have had charge of the affairs of Central India, during that time.

24. The first thanks of the Government are due to Lieutenant-Colonel Durand, C.B., who, at the time of the outbreak, was officiating as the Agent of the Governor-General. Colonel Durand's conduct was marked by great foresight and the soundest judgment, as well in military as in civil matters. He had many points to guard, and the trustworthy force at his disposal was almost hopelessly small; but, by a judicious use of it, and the closest personal supervision of its movements, Colonel Durand saved our interests in Central India, until support could arrive.

25. In December, 1857, Sir Robert Hamilton returned to Indore, and Colonel Durand resigned his charge. At the same time, Sir Hugh Rose moved into Central India.

Throughout the campaign in that country, and through the hot season of 1858, Sir Robert Hamilton accompanied Sir Hugh Rose's force to the Jumna and Gwalior, and was present in several actions. By his thorough knowledge of the chiefs and people with whom he had to deal, and by the personal influence which he has known how to establish with them, he contributed largely to the rapid movement and signal successes of the troops, and laid the groundwork of the general pacification of that part of India.

26. I recommend to the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government the services of Major Macpherson, Political Agent at Gwalior. Holding a post of great importance, far removed from his immediate superior at Indore, and often struggling against sickness, he has discharged his difficult duties with complete success.

As also the very remarkable services of Captain Willoughby Osborne, Political Agent in Rewah. Few servants of the Government have laboured more courageously or successfully, against difficulties of every kind, to maintain the influence of the British Government, and to repress disloyalty, than this distinguished young officer.

27. Of other Political officers whose services in Central India deserve notice, there are Major Ellis, Political Agent in Bundelcund; Major Nixon, Political Agent at Bhurtore; Major Keatinge, Political Agent in Nimar; Lieutenant Hutchinson, lately Bheel Agent; Captain Gordon Cumming, Deputy Bheel Agent; Captain Shakespear, First Assistant at Indore; and Mr. G. Coles, Assistant to the Political Agent in Rewah.

28. In Rajpootana, I have to recommend to the favourable consideration of the Secretary of State, the claims of Colonel George Lawrence, who has acted as Agent for the Governor-General throughout the disturbed times.

29. The services in those States of Major Eden, Political Agent in Jyepore, and now officiating for Colonel Lawrence; of Captain Lloyd, the Superintendent at Neemuch; and of Major Brooke, commanding the Meywar Corps, well deserve the notice of Her Majesty's Government.

30. The difficulty of the position which the Resident at Hyderabad, Lieutenant-Colonel Davidson, has had to maintain is well known to the Home Government. I trust that favourable consideration may be given to the merits of this able officer, whose courage and good judgment have been conspicuously shown on more than one critical occasion during the last two years.

31. He has been most efficiently aided by Major Briggs, the Military Secretary, and Captain Thornhill, the first Assistant; to the former of whom the successful defence of the Residency was mainly due in 1857, when its fall would have led to the rising of the whole Deccan.

I beg to ask that the merits of these officers may not pass without notice.

32. To Sir Richmond Shakespear, the Government of India is indebted for the perfectly good understanding maintained with the Guicowar and the Baroda Durbar, at a time when the disaffection and intrigues of the Mahrattas in Western India threatened to be most dangerous to our hold of that part of the country. It has given me pleasure to advance Sir R. Shakespear, from his late post of Resident at Baroda, to the more important charge of Central India; but I would further ask, that his good service may receive favourable consideration from the Queen's Government.

33. Of the respective claims of the officers in Nagpore, I am unable to speak with sufficient certainty. The Commissioner has not yet furnished me with satisfactory means of doing so.

34. There remains the large and important Province of the Punjab.

The merits of the officers to whose courage and ability the preservation of that country is due, have been set forth by the distinguished chief, Sir John Lawrence, with a fulness which leaves little to be added.

Of what is due to Sir John Lawrence himself, no man is ignorant. Through him, Delhi fell, and the Punjab, no longer a weakness, became a source of strength; and but for him, the hold of England over Upper India would have had to be recovered at a cost of English blood and treasure which defies calculation. It is difficult to exaggerate the value of such ability, vigilance, and energy, at such a time.

35. Next, but not inferior to any man in his claim to the gratitude of his country, is Mr. Montgomery, the present Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab. I know but one opinion of the value of his prompt and courageous counsels, tempered as they always have been with the soundest and most generous judgment. Before he received charge of the great government of the Punjab, I claimed the benefit of his experience and ability in the reorganization of Oude. I shall have to speak elsewhere of his services as Chief Commissioner of that Province: here it is sufficient to say, that they have largely enhanced his high reputation, and his claim to the favour of the Government.

36. The officers for whose services I solicit the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government, are Mr. Macleod, the Financial Commissioner; Lieutenant-Colonel Herbert Edwardes, the able and fearless Commissioner of Peshawur; General Van Cortlandt, who, with a small force of police, recovered and held Hurrianah; Captain James, the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawur; Major Becher, the Deputy Commissioner of Hazara; Captain Henderson in Kohat; Mr. G. C. Barnes, the experienced Commissioner of the Cis-Sutlej States; Mr. G. H. M. Ricketts, Deputy Commissioner at Loodianah, for whom I earnestly request that an error committed elsewhere in quieter times may not be an obstacle to the acknowledgment of his remarkable service in the crisis of the Punjab's danger; Mr. A. Roberts, the Commissioner of Lahore; Mr. F. Cooper, the Deputy Commissioner of Umritsur, who, I hope, will be judged by his acts done under stern necessity, rather than by the narrative of them; Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, Military Secretary; and Lieutenant-Colonel R. Lawrence, at first Captain of the Lahore Police, and afterwards commanding the Cashmere Contingent; Mr. T. Forsyth, Deputy Commissioner of Umballa; and Major Marsden, Deputy Commissioner at Ferozepore.

37. Sir John Lawrence has borne grateful testimony to the manner in which the officers of the Punjab of all grades did their duty.

Major Hamilton, Commissioner of Mooltan, Captain Briggs, Captain Lewis, and Lieutenant Dobbin, rendered service in the transport of troops and stores which deserves special notice.

38. There is one department of the Civil Government, which, though established in Calcutta, has concern with all parts of Bengal where troops are in the field, or in movement,—the department of the Superintendent of Marine.

The calls for exertion and watchfulness in this department have been constant, from the time when the transports with English troops began to arrive in the river, up to the present moment, when the despatch of supplies and stores by the inland steamers is only just slackening.

To Mr. Howe, in the first instance, and to Captain Rennie, from the time when he took up his appointment at the beginning of 1858, great praise is due for the manner in which the duties of the office have been discharged.

I trust that the services of these two officers will receive notice from Her Majesty's Government.

39. Lastly, I must request that due acknowledgment and honour be given to the gentlemen who, during these times of difficulty and anxiety, have discharged the onerous duties of the Secretariat of the Government of India.

40. As might be expected, the heaviest burden has, perhaps, fallen upon the Secretary to Government in the Military Department, Major-General Birch, C.B. I cannot speak too highly of the ability and assiduity with which his work has been performed. For the clearness and precision with which he has conducted very complicated duties, and the hearty zeal with which he has given his days and nights to the extraordinary press of labour that has come upon, and still rests upon, his department, he has my warmest thanks.

Major Atkinson, the Under Secretary in the same department, had responsibilities thrown upon him, during this year, when his superior was absent with me from Calcutta, which were much beyond the ordinary scope of his duties; and he discharged them in a manner which has given great satisfaction to the Government of India.

41. The post of Secretary to the Foreign Department was filled, up to the 20th January, 1859, by Mr. G. F. Edmonstone, now the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-West Provinces. I can give to this valuable servant of the Government no higher praise than to say that the performance of the duties which fell upon him, and which were heavily increased by the state of affairs that has prevailed in the many large and important districts superintended through the Foreign Office, has been exactly what might have been expected from those who knew the character of his former service. It has been admirable, and I rejoice to have been able to mark my own sense of it, and my confidence in him, by naming him to the highest office which the Governor-General of India in Council can bestow.

Mr. Edmonstone has been zealously and indefatigably seconded by Mr. Robert Simson, the Under Secretary of the department, whose thorough knowledge of his work has been of great value to the Government.

42. The labour of the Secretary of the Home Department, Mr. Cecil Beadon, has been rendered unusually heavy and anxious from the very commencement of the Mutinies: much work connected with transport by land and water, and with the despatch of the Naval Brigades, beginning with that under the late Sir W. Peel, was thrown upon his department, and the efficiency with which it was done, although for the most part of a very novel nature, has been most creditable to him.

I desire to record my very high appreciation of the value of Mr. Beadon's services.

43. In the office of the Financial Secretary, Mr. Lushington, the pressure of the times has been felt, especially of late. In his own department, and in those under its control, particularly in that of the Accountant-General, the Honourable Mr. Drummond, the business of Government has been zealously discharged.

44. There remains the office of Secretary in the department of Public Works.

From the moment that it became certain that a vast increase of accommodation, temporary and permanent, for the English troops, would be necessary, the labours of this office in prescribing the work, and in directing and controlling the staff of Engineers engaged upon it, have been greatly augmented.

The staff has, for various reasons, been short-handed, and there is no branch of the duties of the Government in which rapid and judicious action has been more necessary, and in which we have been compelled so constantly to have recourse to makeshifts, and to make the best of imperfect means, both in agency and materials. In surmounting these difficulties, the intelligence and earnestness of Lieutenant-Colonel Yule have been the main help of the Government; and the thanks, not only of the Governor-General in Council, but of the English Army in Bengal, are well deserved by him.
