LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER ON APPEAL: DAWLISH, DEVONSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was adopted by the parish of Dawlish, in the county of Devon, on the 30th day of June, 1859, and notice of such adoption was duly given in writing to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department as required by such Act; and whereas it was also duly certified to the Secretary of State aforesaid that a copy of such notice was advertised for three successive weeks in one of the local newspapers, published and circulated in the aforesaid parish, and that copies of such notice had also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such parish to which notices are usually affixed. And whereas a petition was presented to the Secretary of State aforesaid, signed by owners of property and rate-payers of the said parish, praying that the said Act should not be adopted in the said parish, or if adopted by any part, that it should only be adopted within such portion thereof as forms the town of Dawlish. And whereas the said Secretary of State directed inquiry to be made in the said parish into the subject matter of such petition, and such inquiry, after due notice as required by the Act, has been duly held in such parish by Henry Austin, Esq., the Inspector appointed for that purpose, and he has made his report thereon.

Now, therefore, I, as Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, having taken the aforesaid petition and report into consideration, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the Local Government Act, 1858, make order as follows:

That the Local Government Act, 1858, be not adopted by the whole of the parish of Dawlish aforesaid.

Given under my hand this eighth day of October, 1859.

G. C. Lewis.

Home-office, Whitehall.

CONTRACTS FOR TRAIN OR PILCHARD OIL AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, September 30, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 18th October next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

TRAIN OR PILCHARD OIL AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Distributions of the oils and forms of the tenders may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract for train or pilchard oil, and in the sum of £150 for the due performance of the contract for pale seal oil.

CONTRACT FOR VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, October 1, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 13th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:—

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in four weeks, and the remainder in four weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Vinegar," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

Phoenix Fire Office,

London, E.C., October 7, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Quarterly General Meeting of the Proprietors of this Office will be held at their House, in Lombard-street, on Wednesday, the 19th instant, at half past one o'clock precisely.
