

THE estates of James Dunlop, Wine and Spirit Merchant, in Dunlop-street, Glasgow, were sequestrated on the 29th day of September, 1859, by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire.

The first deliverance is dated the 29th September, 1859.

The meeting to elect the Trustee and Commissioners is, in terms of Deliverance dated 7th October, 1859, to be held at twelve o'clock noon, on Tuesday the 18th day of October, 1859, within the Faculty Hall, Saint George's-place, Glasgow,—which is in lieu of the meeting formerly advertised.

A composition may be offered at this meeting; and to entitle creditors to the first dividend, their oaths and grounds of debt must be lodged on or before the 28th day of January, 1860.

The said first deliverance grants a Warrant of Protection to the said James Dunlop against farther Arrest for Civil Debt, until the meeting of the creditors for the election of Trustee.

All future advertisements relating to this sequestration will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette alone.

J. MACDONALD, Agent,
101, West Nile-street, Glasgow.

Notice to the Creditors of the Company sometime carrying on business as Merchants, in Manchester, under the firm of David Laing and Co., and of David Laing, sometime Merchant, in Manchester, as a Partner of the said Company, and as an Individual.

JAMES M'CLELLAND and SON, Chartered Accountants, in Glasgow, trustees on the above estates, hereby intimate, that accounts of their intrusions with the funds of the said estate, brought down to the 8th current, and states of the funds realized, and those outstanding as at the same date, have been made up; and farther, that these accounts and states will lie at their Counting-house, No. 128, Ingram-street, for the inspection of all concerned, for one month from this date; and that on Tuesday the 22nd day of November next they will pay a second and final dividend to those creditors whose claims, with oaths of verity thereto, have been previously lodged and sustained; and the trustees farther intimate, that creditors failing to lodge their claims, with oaths of verity as aforesaid, on or before the 8th November next, will be excluded from participation in the funds now about to be divided.

JAMES M'CLELLAND and SON,
Glasgow, October 8, 1859.
