TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1859.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of
October, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the twenty-seventh day of October instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the fifteenth day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Clifton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Clifton, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Clifton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that baptisms and churchings should be performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always that so long as the Reverend John Hensman, Incumbent of the said parish of Clifton, shall continue to be such incumbent, all such fees shall be paid by the incumbent of the said church, to the said John Hensman.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, wherein the perpetual Curate of Clifton now possesses exclusive cure of souls, which lies to the east of an imaginary line commencing in the middle of the Queen's-road, on the boundary between the said parish of Clifton, and the parish of Saint Michael, Bristol, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of another road or street called Richmond-hill, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned road or street, across the said Queen's-road and along the middle of Pembroke-road, and to the south of an imaginary line, extending from
