

Equitable Assurance Office,
Bridge-street, Blackfriars.

SPECIAL General Courts of this Society will be holden here on Tuesday, the 13th, and also on Thursday, the 15th of December instant, at eleven o'clock precisely, for the consideration of the following Resolutions, which are recommended for adoption by the Court of Directors.

"That a further addition of £1 15s. per cent. to be computed on the sums assured, be made to the claimants for every Premium paid and become due before the 1st day of January, 1860, on all assurances then existing, which have been made prior to the 1st day of January, 1817; and also that a further addition of £1 15s. per cent., to be computed on the sums assured, be made to the claimants for every Premium paid and become due before the 1st day of January, 1860, and subsequently to their several periods of admission to a participation of profits, on all Assurances for the whole continuance of life then existing, which have been made between the 1st day of January, 1817, and the 1st day of January, 1855; upon all of which not less than six annual payments of premium will have become due and been made before the 1st day of January, 1860; and also that a further addition of £1 15s. per cent., to be computed on the sums assured, be made to the claimants for every premium paid and become due before the 1st day of January, 1860 and subsequently to their several periods of admission to a participation of profits, on all Assurances for the whole continuance of life then existing, which have been made on and after the 1st day of January, 1855, and prior to the 1st day of January, 1859 (all such Assurances having been duly reported as within the oldest five thousand),—so soon as six annual payments of premium shall have become due and been made upon them, the present value of all which additions does not exceed two-thirds of the present surplus.

"That as the prospective addition of £2 per cent. agreed to be made to the claims for every Premium paid after the 1st day of January, 1850, will cease on the 1st day of January, 1860, an addition of £1 15s. per cent., to be computed on the sums assured, be allowed to the claimants for every payment of premium become due and made on and after the 1st day of January, 1860; such additions to cease on the 1st day of January, 1870; but under the same restrictions as to the Assurances made and to be made on and after the 1st day of January, 1855, as are contained in the existing Bye Laws."

Arthur Morgan, Actuary.
