Launceston Union.—Parish of Stokeclimsland.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Stokeclimsland, in the county of Cornwall;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Stokeclimsland, in the county of Cornwall, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons:

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry held at the present Vestry Room, in the said parish of Stokeclimsland, after public notice in that behalf, on Friday the fourteenth day of October last, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to “issue an Order, under their Seal of Office,
“directing that the Act passed on the 5th
“August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vic., cap. 57),
“entitled, ‘An Act to prevent the holding
“of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches,
“and for regulating the Appointment of “Vestry Clerks,’ shall be applied to, and “put in force within this parish as regards
“that portion of it only which relates to the “providing of accommodation for holding
“Vestry Meetings.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows:

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,” as relates to the providing of a new room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings for the transaction of any business of, or relating to, the said parish of Stokeclimsland, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within, the said parish.

ARTICLE II.—That a copy of this order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twenty-fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.
