AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-eight, and of another Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty-one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for the endowment of the see of Peterborough, with real estates in possession.

"Whereas it was by the above recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, any arrangements might from time to time be made with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twenty-sixth day of the same month, it was provided that the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, should, in respect of his said see, enjoy a fixed annual income of four thousand five hundred pounds, and no more, being the amount contemplated by Parliament, and by another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the then following month of September, it was and is provided that the successors of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, should, in respect of the same see, enjoy the same fixed annual income of four thousand five hundred pounds, and no more.

"And whereas it has been arranged and agreed by and between us and the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, that he shall in right of his see be put into possession, in fee simple, of real estates sufficient, together with certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, the outstanding interests in which have been acquired by him as such bishop, to secure to him and his successors in the said see a clear annual income, after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including costs of management, of the amount aforesaid.

"And whereas the Bishop of Peterborough is seized in fee to him and his successors, bishops of Peterborough, of, inter alia, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the two parts of the Schedule marked B, hereto annexed, which lands, tenements, and hereditaments are for the most part subject to outstanding beneficial leases or grants.

"And whereas we are seized in fee simple in possession of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the two parts of the Schedule marked A, hereunto annexed, the property described in the first part of such Schedule having been transferred to and acquired by us from the dean and chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, under and subject to the provisions of a certain Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the second day of May then next following.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said recited Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund, as to the permanent benefit of the said bishoprick, that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments specified in such schedules should be dealt with in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal, that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the lands, hereditaments, and premises, specified or set forth in the two parts of the Schedule marked A, hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein or thereto, shall be and become conveyed and transferred to and absolutely vested in the said bishop and his successors, bishops of Peterborough, for ever, in as full and ample a manner as if such last-mentioned estate had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said see, and that in exchange for the same, the lands, hereditaments, and premises, specified or set forth in the two parts of the Schedule, marked B, hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all the right, title, estate and interest therein of the said bishop and his successors, shall be and become conveyed and transferred to and absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts, subject, nevertheless, as regards the property specified or set forth in the first part of the said Schedule marked B to the following proviso, that is to say, that until the condition contained in the said

Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall have been released by the re-endowment of such dean and chapter with real estates as therein contemplated, the lands, hereditaments, and premises so specified and set forth in the said first part of the Schedule marked B as aforesaid, shall be held or dealt with by us as if the same lands hereditaments, and premises had been acquired by us under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Order, the same lands and premises being taken by us in exchange specifically for the lands, hereditaments, and premises specified and set forth in the said first part of the Schedule marked A, as aforesaid.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-eight, and of another Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty-one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts any arrangements might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of Westminster are seized in fee in possession of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate at Launton, in the county of Oxford, and particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, which lands, tenements, and hereditaments have been heretofore accustomedly letten by the said dean and chapter, on a lease to farm for three lives, in consideration of the payment to them of a fine and of a customary annual reserved rent of forty pounds, thirteen shillings, and four pence.

"And whereas it has been represented and shewn to us that the said dean and chapter are now entitled to grant a new lease of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, for three best lives, to parties who would be willing to accept the same upon terms similar to those on which renewals of the said lease have been heretofore effected, the same being beneficial to the grantees of such lease.

"And whereas, nevertheless, the said dean and chapter have offered to transfer to us the lands and hereditaments aforesaid in consideration of the payment to the existing members of the said capitular body of a fine, proportionate according to the same terms, to a lease of the same lands and hereditaments for only twenty-one years, and in consideration of our securing to the said members of the capitular body and to their successors, members thereof for the time being, an annual money payment, equivalent to the income which the said dean and chapter might have expected to obtain from subsequent renewals of such lease for twenty-one years, at septennial periods, and from the said reserved rent of forty pounds, thirteen shillings, and four pence.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of Westminster are also seized in fee in possession of certain other pieces or parcels of ground and premises, situate at Launton aforesaid, particularly described in the said Schedule hereunto annexed, which pieces or parcels of land and premises have not been customarily granted by leases on payment of fines, but have for a considerable period been held by tenants at will at an annual rack-rent of eleven pounds, six shillings, and eight pence.

"And whereas, after full enquiry and calculation, we estimate at the sum of seven thousand and five hundred pounds the fine which should be paid to the said dean and chapter, as the consideration for the grant of a lease for twenty-one years from the present time, of the said lands and hereditaments which have been so accustomedly leased for lives as aforesaid; and we also estimate that the sums which the said dean and chapter might have expected to derive from annual reserved rents, and from future fines upon renewals, are equivalent to an annuity of two hundred and four pounds.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, together with the other said pieces or parcels of ground and premises, should be transferred from the said dean and chapter to us, and that a money payment to the said dean and chapter should forthwith be substituted for their interest in the same.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have consented to accept a money payment accordingly, and that the same shall be the sum of seven thousand and five hundred pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, and also a perpetual annual payment of two hundred and four pounds in respect of the sums which they might have expected to have received from fines or future renewals, and from the rents hereinbefore mentioned, and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit to arise from all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so to be transferred.

Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all those the lands and tenements, pieces or parcels of ground, hereditaments and premises, particularly described in the said Schedule hereto annexed, shall, as from the twenty-fourth day of October last, be and become conveyed and transferred from the said dean and chapter of Westminster, and shall be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as part consideration for the transfer to us of such lands and tenements, pieces or parcels of ground, hereditaments, and premises, there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter the sum of seven thousand and five hundred pounds aforesaid, and that there shall, as a further consideration, be paid by us to the said dean and chapter the said perpetual annual sum of two hundred and four pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-fifth day of April, and the twenty-fifth day of October in every year, the first of such half-yearly payments or a proportionate part thereof, to be made on the twenty-fifth day of April or the twenty-fifth day of October, as the case may be, which shall happen first after the publication in the London Gazette of such Order of your Majesty in Council as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"SCHEDULE.

"All those messuages or tenements and lands, hereditaments, and premises, situate in the parish of Launton, in the county of Oxford, comprising the mansion-house of the manor of Launton, and containing by recent admeasurement four hundred and ninety-two acres, one rood, and six perches, or thereabouts, which lands and premises were lately, with other hereditaments, demised to the

Most Noble John, Duke of Bedford, and George Bainbridge, of Winchfield, in the county of Hants, Esquire, by a lease for lives now expired, which was granted to them by the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, on the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, which lands and premises were at the expiration of the said lease, and are now, in the occupation of William Pullin, John Reynolds, and William Coles.

"And also all those two allotments or plots of ground, situate in the field or meadow called the Peasebreach, in Launton aforesaid, containing together by recent admeasurement nine acres, three roods, and fourteen perches, all which lands and allotments have been, since the expiration of a lease of the same premises for fourteen years from the twenty-eighth day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, which was granted by the said dean and chapter to the Right Honourable George, late Earl of Jersey, occupied by the late Reverend William Frederick Browne, Doctor in Divinity, and his representatives, as tenants at will under the said dean and chapter, upon payment of a rack-rent of eleven pounds six shillings and eight-pence per annum."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of the following month of December, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said dean and chapter, excepting certain portions thereof, in such Order particularly described, and excepting all rights of ecclesiastical patronage, became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases, or grant or grants thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments or endowments, heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester, and now as aforesaid vested in us, under the provisions of the said Order, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the Isle of Dogs, in the parish of Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate in the Isle of Dogs aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Poplar described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Poplar.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell Bishop of London, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, which is situate to the south of the southern boundary of the premises which now form the property of the East and West India Dock Company, and are now used by such Company either as docks or in connection therewith."

into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:

LONG SUTTON, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church of Long Sutton, in the county of Lincoln, and in the churchyard within five yards of all dwelling-houses; and from and after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the rest of the churchyard, with the exception of vaults and brick graves which were in existence on the tenth of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and in which each body shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and also with the exception of reserved family grave-spaces which can be opened without exposing human remains.

KIRKLINGTON, CUMBERLAND.—Forthwith in the parish church of Kirklington, in the county of Cumberland; and from and after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and family graves which can be opened without exposing human remains, and in which no body shall be buried without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the general level of the churchyard.

Council Office, Whitehall, February 22, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 81, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following eight Statutes, dated the 9th day of November, 1859, in substitution for certain Statutes originally framed by them for the future government and regulation of the College of St. John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge, and which were objected to by two-thirds of the governing body of the said College; and whereas the said eight Statutes have been laid before the governing body of the said College, and before the visitor thereof, as required by the said Act, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Statutes above referred to.

We, the Commissioners, appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers given to us by the said Act, make the several Statutes next following for the future regulation of the College of Saint John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge; that is to say:

STATUTES FOR ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE.

STATUTE XVII.

The Prælectors.

There shall be such number of Prælectors as shall be fixed from time to time by the Master and Seniors. They shall give lectures in such subjects as the Master and Seniors shall from time to time determine.

Such lectures shall not necessarily be confined to Students of the College, but shall be open, if the Master and Seniors shall so determine, to other Students of the University.

The Prælectors shall be elected by the Master and Seniors from among Fellows of the College, or Persons who have been Fellows of the College, or, if the Master and Seniors shall deem it expedient, from any other persons. They shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Master and Seniors.

The Educational Board hereinafter appointed may, whenever a vacancy of a Prælectorship occurs, recommend to the Master and Seniors such candidate or candidates as they may think most competent to fill the same.

The Prælectors may hold their office in conjunction with Professorships or Public Lectureships in the University, if expressly permitted to do so by the Master and Seniors; and in such case shall be entitled to the privileges given by these Statutes to other Professors and Public Lecturers of the University; but, if holding a Professorship or Public Lectureship in the University, they shall not hold the office of Tutor, or any other office in the College, except that of President.

No person shall be ineligible to the office of Prælector on account of his being married, nor shall any Prælector vacate his office by marriage, but he shall remain subject to the same rules as other Fellows in regard to the tenure of his Fellowship.

Each of the Prælectors, if a Fellow of the College, shall receive from the general funds of the College, in addition to his Fellowship, such stipend as shall be assigned to him by the Master and Seniors, together with such fees from Students of other Colleges or Hostels, and in respect of Students of the College such sum out of the Tuition money as the Master and Seniors shall determine.

Each of the Prælectors, if not a Fellow of the College, shall so long as he shall continue to hold such office receive from the Tuition money an annual payment equal to the dividend of a Fellow, and also the same stipend and other emoluments as are hereinbefore provided for Prælectors who are Fellows of the College, together with such other benefits and advantages as the Master and Seniors may assign to him.

STATUTE XXIV, A.

Retention of Fellowships by Lay Professors, &c.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in the 24th chapter of the College Statutes made in the 12th year of Her Majesty's reign, with reference to the taking of Holy Orders by Fellows of the College, no Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship by reason only of his not taking Holy Orders whilst and so long as he holds a Professorship or Public Lectureship of the University, the clear annual value of which does not exceed 800*l.*, or the office of Public Orator, Librarian, or Registrar in the University.

STATUTE XXIV, B.

Retention of Fellowships by Lay Lecturers, &c.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in the 24th chapter of the College Statutes made in the 12th year of Her Majesty's reign, with reference to the taking of Holy Orders by Fellows of the College, no Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship by reason only of his not taking Holy Orders whilst and so long as he holds the office of Tutor, Prælector, Lecturer, or Senior Bursar in the College: Provided that at the time when he would otherwise vacate his Fellowship he shall have held such office for at least two years.

STATUTE XXIV, C.

Retention of Fellowships by Lay ex-Professors, &c.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in the 24th Chapter of the College Statutes made in the 12th year of Her Majesty's reign, with reference to the taking of Holy Orders by Fellows of the College, no Fellow who shall have discharged the duties of a Professor or Public Lecturer of the University, or of Public Orator, Librarian, or Registrary in the same, for ten years consecutively, shall vacate his Fellowship by reason only of his not being in Holy Orders.

STATUTE XXIV, D.

Retention of Fellowships by Lucy ex-Lecturers, &c.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in the 24th chapter of the College Statutes made in the 12th year of Her Majesty's reign, with reference to the taking of Holy Orders by Fellows of the College, no Fellow who shall have discharged the duties of Tutor, Prælector, Lecturer, or Senior Bursar in the College for ten years consecutively, shall vacate his Fellowship by reason only of his not being in Holy Orders.

STATUTE XXIV, E

Retention of Fellowships notwithstanding a change of office.

No Fellow who by these Statutes is entitled to retain his Fellowship in virtue of any College or University office, notwithstanding that he be not in Holy Orders, shall forfeit that privilege by changing from one such office to another, nor by vacating one such office merely for the purpose of accepting another, provided that he shall actually accept and hold such other office within ten days after vacating the former.

STATUTE XXV.

Vacation of Fellowships by Marriage.

Every Fellow hereafter elected shall vacate his Fellowship upon marriage, unless he hold a Professorship or Public Lectureship in the University, or the office of Public Orator, Librarian, or Registrary in the same.

No married Fellow shall in any case reside in College, nor be nor act as a Senior.

STATUTE XLVIII.

Distribution of Revenues.

From and after the expiration or sooner determination of the interests to be regulated by the previously existing Statutes, the income of the College, after payment of the ordinary expenses, including all commons allowed by these Statutes, and of such stipends and salaries to the officers and servants of the College as shall have been fixed by the Master and Seniors, shall be paid, applied, and distributed as follows, that is to say :—

To the Master a fixed annual stipend of 790*l.*, as already provided by the Statute for that purpose.

To the President a fixed annual stipend of 100*l.*
To each of the Scholars such annual payment, not being less than 50*l.*, as the Master and Seniors shall determine.

To each of the Minor Scholars such annual payment, not being less than 50*l.*, as the Master and Seniors shall determine.

To each of the nine Sizar such annual payments as the Master and Seniors shall from time to time determine.

To each of the Prælectors such annual stipend as the Master and Seniors shall determine.

To each of the College Lecturers such sum (if any) as may be fixed from time to time by the Master and Seniors.

And subject to these payments, and to such payment (if any) as may become due to the University Chest to be applied to purposes for the benefit of the University at large, and to such other payments as in the judgment of the Master and Seniors may be required for the purposes of the College, and the management or improvement of its estates and property, there shall be paid :—

To every Fellow of the College, not being one of the Seniors, such sum as the Master and Seniors shall fix for the dividend of the year.

To the Master a sum equal to three times the amount of such dividend.

To each of the Seniors one such dividend, and a sum equal to one half of such dividend in addition.

Provided, that if any person shall have been Master, Senior, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer of the College, for a part only of the year, he shall be entitled only to one-fourth part of his annual stipend, dividend, or allowance for each quarter of the year, or part of a quarter greater than a half, during which he may have been Master, Senior, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer.

All Fellows of the College shall be entitled, in addition to such dividend as is above provided, to rooms and commons, if in residence, or to such pecuniary allowances in lieu thereof as the Master and Seniors shall from time to time determine.

When and so soon as the interests to be regulated by the previously existing Statutes shall have expired or otherwise determined to such an extent as may in the judgment of the Master and Seniors enable the distribution hereinbefore prescribed to be partially carried into effect without prejudice to such of those interests as may not have expired or otherwise determined, the Master and Seniors shall from time to time, as circumstances will permit, bring into operation so much and such part or parts of the prescribed distribution as they shall deem most expedient.

Given under our Common Seal this ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.
