

that the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia in England or Wales should not exceed twenty-one days in any year, save as was thereafter provided; and whereas it was by the said Act enacted, "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time where, with the advice of her Privy Council, she might see fit so to do, to extend or reduce the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia, so as the whole period of training and exercise in any year should not exceed fifty-six days nor be less three days:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to extend the period of training and exercise of the Militia, in England and Wales, in the present year one thousand eight hundred and sixty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the period of training and exercise of all the regiments and corps of the Militia in England and Wales be extended for and during the present year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, so that the whole period of training and exercise of the said regiments and corps, in the said year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall not in any case exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and be transmitted to the respective lieutenants of the counties, ridings, and places in England and Wales, in order that they should proceed upon the same in pursuance of the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

And the Right Honourable Sidney Herbert, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending the laws relating to the Militia, and raising a Volunteer Militia Force, in Scotland," it was provided that the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia in Scotland, should not exceed twenty-one days in any year, save as was thereafter provided; and whereas it was by the said Act enacted, "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, where, with the advice of Her Privy Council, she may see fit so to do, to extend or reduce the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia, so that the whole period of training and exercise in any year should not exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days:"

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to extend the period of training and exercise of the Militia in Scotland, in the present year, one thousand eight hundred and sixty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the period of training and exercise of all the regiments and corps of the Militia in Scotland be extended for and during the present year, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, so that the whole period of training and exercise of the said regiments and corps in the said year, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall not in any case exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and be transmitted to the respective lieutenants of the counties and places in Scotland, in order that they should proceed upon the same in pursuance of the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

And the Right Honourable Sidney Herbert, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 33rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every pilotage authority by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section;

And whereas the trustees of Swansea Harbour, being the pilotage authority for the harbour of Swansea within the meaning of the said recited Act, have made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty certain bye-laws with respect to the pilotage of the Swansea harbour pilotage district (a copy whereof is set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed); And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws are proper and reasonable;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify her consent to the said bye-laws of the said trustees of Swansea harbour with respect to the pilotage of the Swansea harbour pilotage district.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Schedule referred to in the above Order.

SWANSEA HARBOUR.

Bye-Laws made by the Trustees of Swansea Harbour.

1. The master or mate of any ship, upon giving due notice and depositing in the hands of the treasurer of the trustees the amount of fees hereinafter mentioned, shall be examined by the harbour-master of the trustees as to his capacity to pilot the ship of which he is master or mate, or any one or more ships belonging to the same owner within the pilotage jurisdiction of the trustees, and if found competent a pilotage certificate under the common seal of the trustees shall be granted to him, and thereupon he may lawfully pilot the ship or any of the ships specified in that certificate of which he is acting as master or mate at the time, within the pilotage jurisdiction of the
