

relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of MELBOURNE, Derbyshire, and in the Friends' Burial-grounds, in the New Jerusalem Chapel Burial-ground, and in the Baptist Chapel Burial-ground, in the same parish, from the first of February, to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty;

In the churchyard of Christ Church, in St. Clements, Norwich, from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, provided that with the exception of family vaults and graves only one body be buried in each grave, and that, with the same exception, no grave be reopened;

In that part of the churchyard of the parish of OUNDL, which is not within five yards of the Grammer School and of all dwelling-houses and workshops, from the first of March, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty;

In SAXMUNDHAM churchyard, and in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, in that parish, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" beyond the limits of the metropolis, and "to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:

LONG SUTTON, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church of Long Sutton, in the county of Lincoln, and in the churchyard within five yards of all dwelling-houses; and from and after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the rest of the churchyard, with the exception of vaults and brick graves which were in existence on the tenth of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and in which each body shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and also with the exception of reserved family grave-spaces which can be opened without exposing human remains.

KIRKLINGTON, CUMBERLAND.—Forthwith in the parish church of Kirklington, in the county of Cumberland; and from and after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and family graves which can be opened without exposing human remains, and in which no body shall be buried without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the general level of the churchyard.

EAST MOLESEY, SURREY.—Forthwith beneath the parish church of East Molesey, in the county of Surrey; and from and after the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the parish churchyard,
