The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY the 9th of MARCH.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1860.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-eight; and of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, sections one, eight, and twelve: duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-eight; and of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, sections one, eight, and twelve, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for authorizing the sale, purchase, and exchange of certain premises, situate in the precincts of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, or adjacent to the Episcopal House of Residence there.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette of the twentieth day of January following, we were authorized and empowered to pay and apply out of the proceeds of the sale therein also authorized of the then Episcopal residence of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, at Stapleton, such sum or sums of money as should in our opinion be necessary for rendering the said Episcopal House of residence, situate at Gloucester, a suitable and convenient residence for the Bishop of the said See.

"And whereas under the authority of the said Order, and of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, there has been paid to us, and is now in our hands as the consideration for such sale of the said Episcopal House of Residence, at Stapleton as aforesaid, the sum of twelve thousand pounds or thereabouts.

"And whereas in order to effecting such alterations and improvements of the said Episcopal House of Residence, at Gloucester, as are in our opinion necessary for rendering it suitable and convenient, it is desirable that the said Bishop should acquire possession of certain lands, messuages, tenements, and premises hereinafter particularly described, now belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church, which adjoin and greatly circumscribe the site of the said house of residence, and the offices and appurtenances thereof.

"And whereas there are now belonging to the said Bishop in right of his see, certain other parcels of land, messuages, tenements, and premises hereinafter also particularly described, situate in or immediately adjacent to the precincts of the said Cathedral Church, the acquisition whereof by the said Dean and Chapter would be conducive to the improvement of the said precincts and to the permanent benefit of the Dean and Chapter.

"And whereas we have satisfied ourselves as to the relative values of the interests of the said Bishop and the said Dean and Chapter respectively, in the said several parcels of land, messuages, tenements, and premises.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of The Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seals, we recommend and propose that the said Bishop, and Dean and Chapter, be authorized and empowered to sell or exchange, and convey mutually to each other, and mutually to purchase or take in exchange by deed or deeds duly executed according to law the respective interests of them the said Bishop, and Dean and Chapter, in the several and respective parcels of land, messuages, tenements, and premises particularly described and set forth in the schedules hereunto annexed, marked A and B respectively, and there shall be paid by us out of the monies in our hands, as hereinbefore mentioned, to the said Dean and Chapter, in the manner provided by the said twelfth section of the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, as and for equality of exchange or other consideration for the conveyance of the interest of the said Dean and Chapter, in the parcel of land, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments so described and set forth in the said schedule, marked B as aforesaid, or of part of such interest, the sum of eight hundred and fifty pounds, with interest thereon after the rate of four pounds per centum per annum, from the twenty-ninth day of September now last past, until the day of the actual completion of such sale, purchase, or exchange, and conveyance, as is hereby recommended and proposed to be authorized.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE A referred to in the foregoing Scheme.

“All that house, garden, and premises usually called or known as Beaufort House, situate at College Green, within the Cathedral precincts, and and city of Gloucester, together with the appurtenances, and now in the tenure or occupation of Hughes, his undertenants or assigns under a lease granted by the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for a term of twenty-one years from Midsummer, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for adding to, altering, and improving the Episcopal House of Residence at Salisbury, belonging to the Bishop of that See.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by The Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, that the Episcopal House of Residence at Salisbury, requires certain additions, alterations, and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient, and it has been proposed to us by the said Bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient that towards defraying the cost of effecting the said additions, alterations, and improvements, a sum of two thousand pounds, being a sum not exceeding two years' income of the See, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the herein named Acts, the sum of two thousand pounds, and as a security for the same, that the said Bishop do mortgage all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, of and belonging to his said See to the said Governors, by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of two thousand pounds, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following, that is to say; from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly and every year pay to the said Governors, their successors, or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid; and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors, and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in such manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in being at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, as every succeeding Bishop of the said see, until the principal money and interest costs and charges shall be paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of two thousand pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint Treasurers for the time being, endorsed on the said mortgage deed, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for the same to the said governors and their successors, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of two thousand pounds, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times, and in such manner, as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said additions, alterations, and improvements in the Episcopal House and Residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so soon as such additions, alterations, and improvements shall have been completed, the Bishop of Salisbury for the time being, shall at his personal charge and expense insure, and keep insured, the said Episcopal House of Residence, from loss or damage by fire in one of the public offices of assurance, in London or Westminster, to be approved by us in the sum of six thousand pounds, and that such Bishop shall within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance, shall become and be payable, and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied, and the same together with any interest and accumulations thereof shall be applied by us, towards the rebuilding or repairing, and reinstating of the said house or any part thereof, which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the Bishop of Salisbury for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments, heretofore belonging to the said succentorship or subdeanery of Saint David's, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, framed the following four Statutes on the 29th of March and 20th of May, 1859, for the regulation of Lady Margaret's Professorship of Divinity, and of the Norrisian Professorship of Divinity, and of Mr. Hulse's Foundations, in the University of Cambridge, and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Council of the Senate of the said University, and have not been objected to, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

Wm. L. Bathurst:

Statutes above referred to.

We, the Commissioners, appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intitled "An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers given to us by the said Act, make the following Statutes for the future regulation of the Lady Margaret's Professorship of Divinity, and the Norrisian Professorship of Divinity, in the said University, and for altering and modifying the provisions of the foundation deeds thereof respectively, and also for altering and modifying the trusts and directions contained in the will of the late Reverend John Hulse, affecting the endowment of the offices of Christian Advocate and Christian Lecturer, and for converting the office of Christian Advocate into a Professorship of Theology.

I.—Statute for the Lady Margaret's Professorship of Divinity.

1. The provisions of the Foundation Deed of the Lady Margaret's Professorship of Divinity, dated the Nativity of the Virgin Mary, in the eighteenth year of the reign of King Henry VII., excepting so far as they are re-enacted by the present Statute, are hereby repealed.
2. The electors to this Professorship shall be the Doctors and Bachelors of Divinity, who are also members of the Senate.
3. In case of a vacancy of the Professorship the Vice-Chancellor shall give public notice of the vacancy, and of the day for electing a new Professor, by fixing a written or printed paper on the door of the Public Schools as soon as the vacancy is made known to him, or on the first day of the following Term, according as the vacancy occurs in Term time or out of Term time; and the day of election shall be not sooner than fourteen days, nor later than twenty-eight days, after the date of the notice.
4. On the day and at the hour named for such election, the Vice-Chancellor, together with the Senior Doctor of Divinity and the Senior Bachelor of Divinity present, shall stand in scrutiny, and receive on written papers the votes of the other electors, in addition to their own. When the scrutiny is over, that person shall be elected who has the greatest number of votes; and if the number of votes given for two or more persons are equal, and also greater than those given for any other candidate, that one of the two or more such persons shall be elected for whom the Vice-Chancellor shall give his casting vote.
5. The present and future Professors shall be entitled to hold the Professorship for life.
6. It shall be the duty of the Professor to give lectures in every year, and to order as well the subject of such lectures, as the times and places of delivery, according to schemes to be approved by the Board of Theological Studies to be hereafter constituted.
7. It shall be the duty of the Professor to reside in the University, within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church, eighteen weeks at least during Term time in every year, six of such weeks being in the Michaelmas Term, and the remaining twelve being in the Lent and Easter Terms.
8. It shall be the duty of the Professor to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by him during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three Terms during which he has resided within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church.
9. If the Professor be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of the Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.
10. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, the Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of the Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 7, of the Statutes of the University; such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall, in every case, be nominated - by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third nor more than one half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.

11. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that the Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons shall deem the inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months, which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may also be approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third nor more than one half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.
 12. If it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that the Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish the Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or of deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 of the Statutes of the University.
 13. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require the Professor to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, the Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.
 14. The Professorship shall not be tenable with a Deanery, or any ecclesiastical preferment with cure of souls.
 15. This present Statute shall come into force on the next vacancy of the Professorship, or at such earlier time as the existing Professor may declare in writing to the Vice-Chancellor his acceptance of the same.

II.—Statute for the Lady Margaret's Professorship and the Norrisian Professorship of Divinity in common.

III.—Statute for the Norrisian Professorship of Divinity.

1. The provisions prescribed by Mr. Norris, for the regulation of the Professorship founded by him, and subsequently adopted by Dr. Chapman and Lord Wodehouse in their benefactions thereto, excepting so far as they are re-enacted by this Statute, are hereby repealed.
2. The present and future Norrisian Professors shall be entitled to hold the Professorship for life.
3. The electors to this Professorship shall be the Heads of the several Colleges of the University.
4. In case of a vacancy of the Professorship, the Vice-Chancellor shall give public notice of the vacancy, and of the day for electing a new Professor, by fixing a written or printed paper on the door of the Public Schools as soon as the vacancy is made known to him, or on the first day of the following Term, according as the vacancy occurs in Term time or out of Term time; and the day of election shall not be sooner than fourteen days, nor later than twenty-eight days, after the date of the notice.
5. No election of a Professor shall take place unless eleven at least of the electors are present and vote, and that person shall be elected who has a majority of all the votes; and if after two scrutines no person has such a majority of votes, a third scrutiny shall take place, when that person shall be elected who has the greatest number of votes; but if, in this last scrutiny, the same number of votes are given for two or more persons, which are also more than those given for any other candidate, that one of the two or more such persons shall be elected for whom the Master of Trinity, or in his absence the Provost of King's, or in the absence of both the Master of Gonville and Caius, shall give his casting vote.
6. It shall be the duty of the Professor to give lectures in every year, and to order as well the subject of such lectures as the times and places of delivery, according to schemes to be approved by the Board of Theological Studies to be hereafter constituted.
7. It shall be the duty of the Professor to reside in the University, within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church, eighteen weeks at least during Term time in every year, six of such weeks being in the Michaelmas Term, and the remaining twelve being in the Lent and Easter Terms.
8. It shall be the duty of the Professor to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by him during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three Terms during which he has resided within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church.

9. If the Professor be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of the Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.
10. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, the Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of the Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 7, of the Statutes of the University; such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall in every case be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third or more than one half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.
11. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that the Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons shall deem this inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months, which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third nor more than one half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve of the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.
12. If it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that the Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish the Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8, of the Statutes of the University.
13. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require the Professor to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, the Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.
14. The Professorship shall not be tenable with a Deanery, or with any ecclesiastical preferment with cure of souls.

15. This present Statute shall come into force on the establishment of the scheme for an additional endowment from the funds of the Lady Margaret's Professorship, or at such earlier time as the existing Professor may declare in writing to the Vice-Chancellor his acceptance of the same.

IV.—Statute for Mr. Hulse's Foundations.

Whereas it is expedient, with the view of more effectually carrying out the purposes contemplated by the late Rev. John Hulse in his Foundations, to make various changes in the provisions of his will for regulating the same, more especially by converting the Office of Christian Advocate into a Professorship of Theology, modifying the duties of the Lecturer, and altering the distribution of the funds assigned to the Christian Advocate or proposed Professor, the Lecturer, and the Dissertator, it is ordained as follows, that,—

1. Instead of the office of Christian Advocate, there shall on the next vacancy thereof be established a Professorship of the University, tenable for life, the holder of which shall have the title of the Hulsean Professor of Divinity.
2. The electors to the Professorship shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Trinity College, the Master of St. John's College, the Lady Margaret's, Regius, and Norrisian Professors of Divinity; and if either the Master of Trinity College or the Master of St. John's College be Vice-Chancellor, his place shall be supplied by the Regius Professor of Greek. In case the votes of the electors should be equally divided, the Vice-Chancellor shall have a casting vote.
3. At the next vacancy of the office of Christian Advocate, and at all future vacancies of the Hulsean Professorship as established by this Statute, the Vice-Chancellor shall give public notice of the vacancy, and of the day for electing a new Professor, by fixing a written or printed paper on the door of the Public Schools as soon as the vacancy is made known to him, or on the first day of the following Term, according as the vacancy occurs in Term time or out of Term time; and the day of election shall be not sooner than fourteen days, nor later than twenty-eight days, after the date of the notice.
4. It shall be the duty of the Professor to give lectures in every year, and to order as well the subject of such lectures as the times and places of delivery, according to schemes to be approved by the Board of Theological Studies to be hereafter constituted.
5. It shall be the duty of the Professor to reside in the University, within one mile and a-half of Great St. Mary's Church, eighteen weeks at least during Term time in every year, six of such weeks being in the Michaelmas Term, and the remaining twelve being in the Lent and Easter Terms.
6. It shall be the duty of the Professor to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by him during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three Terms, during which he has resided within one mile and a-half of Great St. Mary's Church.
7. If the Professor be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of the Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.

8. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, the Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of the Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 7, of the Statutes of the University, such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall in every case be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one-third nor more than one-half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.

9. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that the Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons shall deem the inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months, which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one-third nor more than one-half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.
10. If it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that the Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish the Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or of deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 of the Statutes of the University.
11. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require the Professor to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, the Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.
12. The Professor shall print and publish at least six lectures in the course of every six years of his tenure of office, reckoning from one year after his appointment; and, in case he should fail to publish such six lectures within the time specified, he shall forfeit one-half of his stipend in the seventh and every succeeding year, until such publication shall have taken place.
13. The Hulsean Lecturer shall hold his office for one year only, but shall be capable of re-election after an interval of five years.

14. The Lecturer shall be chosen and appointed from time to time by the Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Trinity College, the Master of St. John's College, and the Lady Margaret's, Regius, Norrisian, and Hulsean Professors of Divinity; and if either the Master of Trinity or the Master of St. John's shall be Vice-Chancellor, his place shall be supplied by the Regius Professor of Greek. In case the votes of the electors should be equally divided, the Vice-Chancellor shall have a casting vote. Public notice of the election shall be given as in the case of the Hulsean Professor, and the election shall take place not sooner than fourteen, nor later than twenty-eight days, after such notice.
15. The University shall have power to alter and determine from time to time, by grace of the Senate, the time when the Lecturer is to be appointed.
16. The lecturer shall preach at least four sermons during his year of office, at such times as shall be prescribed by the authority of the University. He shall not be required to print or publish his sermons.
17. Any candidate shall be capable or being chosen Professor or Lecturer who is 30 years of age or upwards, and in Holy Orders, and a Master of Arts, or of some higher degree in the University of Cambridge.
18. The Professorship shall not be tenable with a Deanery, or any ecclesiastical preferment with cure of souls.
19. The whole net income in every year arising from Mr. Hulse's Benefaction, and applicable to the offices of Christian Advocate, Lecturer, and Dissertator, shall be divided into ten equal parts, eight of which parts shall be assigned to the Professor for his stipend, one to the Lecturer, and one to the Dissertator.
20. This Statute shall come into force upon the next vacancy of the office of Christian Advocate; provided that, if the office of Lecturer be not then also vacant, the Lecturer for that year shall receive the stipend to which he would have been entitled if the office of Christian Advocate had not become vacant.

Council Office, Whitehall, March 7, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statute, dated the 20th day of May, 1859, for the regulation of the Regius Professorships of Divinity, Hebrew, and Greek, in the University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statute has been laid before the Council of the Senate of the said University, and has not been objected to, and has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statute, or any part thereof.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Statute above referred to.

We, the Commissioners, appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled

“An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton,” do hereby, in the execution of the powers given to us by the said Act, make the following Statute for the Regulation of the Regius Professorships of Divinity, Hebrew, and Greek in the said University.

1. There shall be three Professors in the University, to be called respectively the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, and the Regius Professor of Greek; they shall be from time to time chosen and appointed by the Council of the Senate.

2. No one shall be capable of being elected the Professor of Divinity who has not taken the Degree of Bachelor or Doctor in Divinity.

3. In case of a vacancy of any one of the Professorships, the Vice-Chancellor shall give public notice of the vacancy and of the day when the Candidates are to attend in person before the Electors, by fixing a written or printed paper on the door of the Public Schools, as soon as the vacancy is made known to him, or on the first day of the following Term, according as the vacancy occurs in Term time or out of Term time; and the day of attendance of the Candidates shall be not sooner than fourteen days, nor later than twenty-eight days, after the date of the notice.

4. Every Candidate shall, on a day to be assigned by the Electors, expound openly in the Public Schools for the space of one hour, a part of Holy Scripture, or of a book written in the Hebrew or Greek language, according as the Professorship vacant is that of Divinity, Hebrew, or Greek; such part of Holy Scripture, or of a book written in the Hebrew or Greek language, being assigned to him by the Electors.

5. The Electors shall meet to elect the Professor on the day following that on which the last of the Candidates has expounded as aforesaid. No one shall vote in the election who has not attended the expositions of all the Candidates. The person who has a majority of the votes of the members of the Council present, and entitled to vote, shall be deemed to be elected; and if, after three scrutinies, no Candidate has such a majority, the appointment of the Professor shall for that time be made by the Vice-Chancellor of the University and the Master of Trinity College, or, if the Master of Trinity College be Vice-Chancellor, by the Vice-Chancellor and the Provost of King's College. If, however, the Vice-Chancellor and the Master of Trinity College, or the Vice-Chancellor and the Provost of King's College, do not agree in appointing the same person, the appointment shall then be made by the Chancellor of the University.

6. The Professorship of Divinity shall not be tenable with a Deanery or any ecclesiastical preferment with cure of souls, except that which is annexed to the Professorship by the Statute 10 Anne, c. 45.

7. It shall be the duty of the Professors to give lectures in every year; and to order as well the subject of such lectures as the times and places of delivery, according to schemes to be approved, in the case of the Professor of Divinity, by the Board of Theological Studies to be hereafter constituted, and in the case of Professors of Hebrew and Greek respectively, by the Boards of Studies (to be hereafter constituted) connected with their departments.

8. It shall be the duty of the Professors to reside in the University, within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church; twenty weeks at least during Term time in every year.

9. It shall be the duty of the Professors to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by them during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three terms during which they have resided within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church.

10. If any one of the Professors be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of his Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.

11. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, any Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of his Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with sect. 4, ch. 7, of the Statutes of the University, such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall in every case be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third, nor more than one half, of the proportional part of the whole annual income of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.

12. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that any Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and said six persons shall deem the inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months; which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one-third, nor more than one one half of the proportional part of the whole annual income of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.

13. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that any Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties, or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish such Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or of deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of ch. 8 of the Statutes of the University.

14. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require any one of the three Professors appointed under this Statute to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon, in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, such Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.

15. The new Statute shall come into force instead of the now existing Statute "De officio trium lectorum publicorum qui in scholis academiae prælegunt," (being Chapter 41 of the Statutes of Trinity College, as confirmed by the Letters Patent of Her present Majesty, in the seventh year of Her reign), in respect to each Professorship on the next vacancy of that Professorship, or at such earlier time as the existing Professor may declare in writing to the Vice-Chancellor his acceptance of the same, and in the meantime each Professor shall be bound by the provisions of the now existing Statute.
