

15. This present Statute shall come into force on the establishment of the scheme for an additional endowment from the funds of the Lady Margaret's Professorship, or at such earlier time as the existing Professor may declare in writing to the Vice-Chancellor his acceptance of the same.

IV.—Statute for Mr. Hulse's Foundations.

Whereas it is expedient, with the view of more effectually carrying out the purposes contemplated by the late Rev. John Hulse in his Foundations, to make various changes in the provisions of his will for regulating the same, more especially by converting the Office of Christian Advocate into a Professorship of Theology, modifying the duties of the Lecturer, and altering the distribution of the funds assigned to the Christian Advocate or proposed Professor, the Lecturer, and the Dissertator, it is ordained as follows, that,—

1. Instead of the office of Christian Advocate, there shall on the next vacancy thereof be established a Professorship of the University, tenable for life, the holder of which shall have the title of the Hulsean Professor of Divinity.
2. The electors to the Professorship shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Trinity College, the Master of St. John's College, the Lady Margaret's, Regius, and Norrisian Professors of Divinity; and if either the Master of Trinity College or the Master of St. John's College be Vice-Chancellor, his place shall be supplied by the Regius Professor of Greek. In case the votes of the electors should be equally divided, the Vice-Chancellor shall have a casting vote.
3. At the next vacancy of the office of Christian Advocate, and at all future vacancies of the Hulsean Professorship as established by this Statute, the Vice-Chancellor shall give public notice of the vacancy, and of the day for electing a new Professor, by fixing a written or printed paper on the door of the Public Schools as soon as the vacancy is made known to him, or on the first day of the following Term, according as the vacancy occurs in Term time or out of Term time; and the day of election shall be not sooner than fourteen days, nor later than twenty-eight days, after the date of the notice.
4. It shall be the duty of the Professor to give lectures in every year, and to order as well the subject of such lectures as the times and places of delivery, according to schemes to be approved by the Board of Theological Studies to be hereafter constituted.
5. It shall be the duty of the Professor to reside in the University, within one mile and a-half of Great St. Mary's Church, eighteen weeks at least during Term time in every year, six of such weeks being in the Michaelmas Term, and the remaining twelve being in the Lent and Easter Terms.
6. It shall be the duty of the Professor to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by him during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three Terms, during which he has resided within one mile and a-half of Great St. Mary's Church.
7. If the Professor be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of the Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.

8. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, the Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of the Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with Section 4, Chapter 7, of the Statutes of the University, such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall in every case be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one-third nor more than one-half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.

9. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that the Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons shall deem the inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months, which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one-third nor more than one-half of the proportional part of the whole annual stipend of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.
10. If it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that the Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish the Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or of deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 of the Statutes of the University.
11. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require the Professor to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, the Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.
12. The Professor shall print and publish at least six lectures in the course of every six years of his tenure of office, reckoning from one year after his appointment; and, in case he should fail to publish such six lectures within the time specified, he shall forfeit one-half of his stipend in the seventh and every succeeding year, until such publication shall have taken place.
13. The Hulsean Lecturer shall hold his office for one year only, but shall be capable of re-election after an interval of five years.
