

9. It shall be the duty of the Professors to deliver to the Vice-Chancellor once in every year, before the end of the Easter Term, a statement in writing of the number of lectures given by them during the preceding year, and of the times of delivery, together with the number of weeks in each of the three terms during which they have resided within one mile and a half of Great St. Mary's Church.

10. If any one of the Professors be elected Vice-Chancellor of the University, a deputy shall be appointed to discharge the duties of his Professorship for that year, such deputy to be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and to receive one half of the clear annual income of the Professor.

11. If by reason of sickness, necessary absence from the University, or other sufficient cause, any Professor desire to have a deputy to discharge the duties of his Professorship, he shall be required to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting in accordance with sect. 4, ch. 7, of the Statutes of the University, such consent to be given in writing, and to specify the time for which the deputy is to be appointed; and such deputy shall in every case be nominated by the Professor and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one third, nor more than one half, of the proportional part of the whole annual income of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed.

12. If it be certified to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons that any Professor is become unable to discharge his duties by age, ill health, or other serious impediment, and if the Vice-Chancellor and said six persons shall deem the inability to be sufficiently proved, they shall have the power of requiring a deputy to be appointed for any time, not exceeding twelve calendar months; which appointment, if necessary, may be renewed from time to time; and the deputy in every such case shall be nominated by the Professor, and approved by grace of the Senate, and shall receive such stipend as may be also approved by grace of the Senate, being not less than one-third, nor more than one one half of the proportional part of the whole annual income of the Professorship for the time for which the deputy is appointed. If the Professor fail to nominate a deputy within three months after being required to do so, or if the Senate do not approve the person nominated by him, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor, subject to the like approval.

13. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor and the six persons elected and acting as aforesaid, that any Professor has been wilfully neglectful of his duties, or guilty of gross or habitual immorality, it shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor and the said six persons to admonish such Professor, or to deprive him of his office, as the case may seem to them to require; and if the sentence of deprivation be thus passed upon him, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void; but in every case, whether of admonition or of deprivation, an appeal to the University shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of ch. 8 of the Statutes of the University.

14. It shall be competent to the Vice-Chancellor, if at any time he shall see occasion to do so, to require any one of the three Professors appointed under this Statute to subscribe to the three articles of the Thirty-sixth Canon, in the form prescribed by the Statutes of the University for Candidates for Degrees in Divinity; and if, after three requisitions, such Professor shall refuse so to subscribe, his Professorship shall thereupon become ipso facto void.

15. The new Statute shall come into force instead of the now existing Statute "De officio trium lectorum publicorum qui in scholis academicæ prælegunt," (being Chapter 41 of the Statutes of Trinity College, as confirmed by the Letters Patent of Her present Majesty, in the seventh year of Her reign), in respect to each Professorship on the next vacancy of that Professorship, or at such earlier time as the existing Professor may declare in writing to the Vice-Chancellor his acceptance of the same, and in the meantime each Professor shall be bound by the provisions of the now existing Statute.
