

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of June, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, by command of Her Majesty, signified by the Right Honourable Earl Granville, Lord President of the Council, Arthur Helps, Esquire, was sworn Clerk of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of June, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Edmund Stephen Harrison, Esquire, to exercise all the powers, and to perform all the functions of the Clerk of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary, during his absence; and the usual oaths were thereupon administered to him accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of June, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the see of Peterborough, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-fourth day of that month, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, formerly belonging to the said see of Peterborough, and particularly described in the two parts of the schedule marked B, annexed to the said Order of your Majesty in Council, became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases, grant or grants thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said see of Peterborough, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of June, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the spiritual duties of the chapelry of Moreton Sea, in the parish of Hodnet, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas Algernon Charles Heber Percy, of Hodnet Hall, in the said county of Salop, Esquire, and Emily Heber Percy, his wife, are the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Hodnet, and the Reverend Samuel Herrick Macaulay is the Rector or Incumbent of the said rectory, and as such is the patron of the said chapelry of Moreton Sea.

"And whereas the tithes, or rent charges in lieu of tithes, hereinafter mentioned and described,
