

burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the tenth day of May last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-sixth day of June instant; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the tenth day of July next (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

GRINTON, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith in the parish church of Grinton, in the county of York, and in the Independent Chapel, Reath, and from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the Parish Churchyard and in the burial-ground of Saint Mary's Chapel, Muker, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, in which each body shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

LAVINGTON, WILTS.—Forthwith in the parish church of Lavington, in the county of Wilts, and on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the parish churchyard, the Independent and Baptist Burial-grounds, except in existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or bones.

LEE, KENT.—Forthwith in the vaults and catacombs beneath Saint Margorel's Church, Lee, in the county of Kent, and that the entrance to the vaults be closed with brick-work:—That, with the exception of family vaults and graves, the burials in the Old and New Churchyards be restricted to the bodies of parishioners; and, with the same exception, that only one body be buried in each grave, and that no new grave be made except in unoccupied ground.

STAMFORDHAM.—Forthwith in the parish church, and on and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the parish churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep which can be opened without the exposure of bones and coffins.

KINGSTON-ON-HULL.—Wholly on and after the first July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the burial-ground of the parish of Holy Trinity, in Castile-street.

SAINT JOHN'S BERWICK, WILTS.—Forthwith beneath the parish church.

GREAT CARFORD, DORSET.—In the several churches and chapels within the parish, and in the churchyards of Parkstone and Longfleet and in the Independent Burial-ground, except so far as may be compatible with the observance of the Regulations for New Burial-grounds: and the churchyard of Parkstone to be drained, so that no water shall accumulate in any vault or grave, and an outfall for the drainage to be carried into the stream below the neighbouring wells.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of June, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discon-
