

1. The Master's dividend and money allowances, and the estimated annual cost of any of his other allowances, except of the free occupation and repairs of the lodge.

2. The dividends and money allowances, and the estimated annual cost of any other allowances, of the Fellows, Scholars, and Exhibitioners, including commons and rent of rooms, exclusive of the repairs thereof.

3. The stipends and like allowances of any person holding the office of Dean, Prælector, Chaplain, Librarian, Bursar, or any other College Office.

4. The stipends and like allowances of any College Lecturer or Tutor (exclusive of the payments of Students for tuition).

Provided that the payment hereby directed to be made to the University Chest shall not be compulsory until a similar clause, directing a like payment, shall have been incorporated in the Statutes of all other Colleges in the University, and in the mean time there may be paid in lieu thereof such sum as may be directed by the Master and Fellows.

XXXV.—Religious Worship.

Divine Service shall be celebrated in the College Chapel according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, at least daily during full Term, unless for some grave cause to be approved by the Master and Fellows at a College Meeting.

The Master and Fellows may make such regulations as they may deem expedient for the due celebration of the same, and for requiring or dispensing with attendance on the same, and may vary such regulations from time to time.

XXXVI.—Of Notice.

Every Fellow shall, upon or immediately after his admission, and may from time to time afterwards, leave with such person as the Master and Fellows shall appoint a place of address to which all notices intended for him are to be sent; and in all cases in which by these Statutes notice is required to be given to any Fellow, it shall be sufficient that the notice be sent to his last address by post or otherwise.

XXXVII.—Admission of Students.

The Master and Fellows may from time to time make such orders as they shall think fit as to the admission of students not on the Foundation of the College.

XXXVIII.—Of the Visitor.

The Bishop of Ely for the time being shall be, as heretofore, Visitor of the College, and shall have power to redress all injuries and correct all excesses committed therein; and nothing in these Statutes contained shall prejudice any right of appeal to the Visitor.

XXXIX.—Of existing College Orders.

All College Orders and Ordinances which are contrary to these Statutes are hereby repealed; those which are not contrary shall remain in force until they be repealed by the authority of the Master and Fellows.

The Master and Fellows may make new orders for the good administration of the College and the advancement of religion and learning, provided they be not in any respect contrary to these Statutes.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATUTES.

I.—Preservation of Rights of existing Fellows.

The emoluments, tenure of office, and other interests of a pecuniary nature of the present Master, and of all Fellows elected before the confirmation of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council, shall be regulated by the previously existing Statutes; provided that if the Master or any such Fellow shall elect to be placed in these respects under the operation of the present Statutes, it shall be lawful for him to signify such election to the Master and Fellows by writing under his hand, and his rights in such respects shall be thenceforth governed by the present Statutes accordingly; and if he shall make the declaration required by Statute XX, entitled Vacation of Fellowships, within twelve months after the confirmation of the Statutes, it shall be deemed to have been made within twelve months after his election.

The Master shall have power to admit the present probationary Fellows in the same manner as Fellows who shall be hereafter elected.

The Master and Fellows shall have power to make a scheme for assigning to each Fellow hereafter to be elected a proportion of the dividends for the first year after his election, so as to bring the provisions of these Statutes, whereby probationary Fellowships are abolished, into gradual operation without prejudicing the rights of existing Fellows.

II.—Disposal of Accumulations from vacant Scholarships.

The Master and Fellows shall apply one-tenth part of the accumulations which shall have arisen from vacancies in Scholarships up to the time of the confirmation of these Statutes to the Domus Fund, and shall carry the remainder thereof to the Open Scholarship Fund.

III.—Power of bringing the new Statutes gradually into operation.

When and so soon as the interests to be regulated by the previously existing Statutes shall have expired, or otherwise determined to such an extent as may in the judgment of the Master and Fellows enable the distribution herein-before described to be partially carried into effect without prejudice to such of those interests as may not have expired or otherwise determined, the Master and Fellows shall from time to time, as circum-
