IV.—Provision in case of Changes in Value of Money.

If at any time it shall appear to the Master and Fellows that, by reason of any change in the value of money, the specific sums fixed by these Statutes, or which may hereafter be fixed in exercise of any power given by these Statutes, have become insufficient or excessive, and that such insufficiency or excess is productive of injustice or hardship, or is injurious to the general interests of the College, they may, by an instrument under the seal of the College, and with the sanction of the Visitor, for the purpose of correcting or obviating such injustice, hardship, or injury, direct that such annual sums shall be increased or diminished as they shall think fit, and the increased or diminished sums shall thenceforth be substituted for and stand in the place of the sums originally fixed as aforesaid.

Council Office, Whitehall, June 30, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statute dated the 31st day of May, 1859, for the appointment of Boards of Studies in the University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statute has been laid before the Council of the Senate of the University, and no objection has been made thereto, and has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statute, or of any part thereof.

We, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the 6th at Eton," do hereby in execution of the powers given to us by the said Act make the following Statute.

STATUTE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF BOARDS OF STUDIES IN THE SAID UNIVERSITY.

1. The University shall appoint a board, to be called the Board of Theological Studies, consisting of all the Professors of Divinity, the Regius Professors of Hebrew and Greek, and such other persons as may be determined from time to time by grace of the Senate, to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them, in every year, by the Professors of Divinity, and to approve of the said schemes, or to remit the same from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein; and it shall be the duty of the said Board to provide that the subjects of the said lectures be from time to time so determined as to distribute the various branches of Theological learning (including Ecclesiastical History), among the said Professors.

2. The University shall appoint Boards for reviewing the more important departments of study recognized in the University, and reporting thereon to the Senate, which Boards shall severally comprise the Professors and Public Lecturers whose duties connect them with such departments, as well as such other persons as may be determined from time to time by grace of the Senate. And it shall be the duty of such Boards to consider the schemes for lectures submitted to them in every year by such Professors and Public Lecturers, and to approve of the same, or to remit them from time to time for further consideration or revision, with amendments or alterations therein.

Given under our common Seal, this thirty-first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.
