LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY CUCKFIELD, SUSSEX.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 12th day of June, 1860, by the district of Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, within the boundaries of that district as settled for the purposes of the hereinbefore recited Act; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertized for three successive weeks in the Sussex Express, that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid district, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such district to which notices are usually affixed, and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act, by such district, has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said district of Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, and that in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such district.

Given under my hand this 7th day of July, 1860.

G. C. Lewis.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT, BY THE TOWNSHIP OF AUSTONLEY, YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was adopted by the township of Austonley, in the county of York, on the twenty-ninth day of March, 1860, and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertized for three successive weeks in the Huddersfield Chronicle and the Huddersfield and Holmfirth Examiner, being two of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid township, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such township to which notices are usually affixed; and whereas certain owners and ratepayers of the township aforesaid did, on the 17th day of April last, appeal to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, against the said adoption of the said Act by such township, and such appeal has been now withdrawn:

Now, therefore, I do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the said township of Austonley, in the county of York, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, from and after the date hereof, have the force of law within such township.

Given under my hand the ninth day of July, 1860.

G. C. Lewis.

Home-Office, Whitehall.
