[The following Order in Council is substituted for the Order published in the London Gazette of 3rd July, 1860.]

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of June, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the tenth day of May last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-sixth day of June instant; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the tenth day of July next (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

GRINTON, YORKSHIRE. — Forthwith in the parish church of Grinton, in the county of York, and in the Independent Chapel, Reath, and from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the Parish Churchyard and in the burial-ground of Saint Mary's Chapel, Muker, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, in which each body shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

LAVINGTON, WILTS. — Forthwith in the parish church of Lavington, in the county of Wilts, and on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the parish churchyard, the Independent and Baptist Burial-grounds, except in existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or bones.

LEE, KENT.—Forthwith in the vaults and catacombs beneath Saint Margaret's Church, Lee, in the county of Kent, and that the entrance to the vaults be closed with brick-work :—That, with the exception of family vaults and graves, the burials in the Old and New Churchyards be restricted to the bodies of parishioners ; and, with the same exception, that only one body be buried in each grave, and that no new grave be made except in unoccupied ground.

STAMFORDHAM.—Forthwith in the parish church; and on and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the parish churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of bones and coffins.

KINGSTON-ON-HULL.—Wholly on and after the first July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the burial-ground of the parish of Holy Trinity, in Castle-street.

SAINT JOHN'S BERWICK, WILTS.—Forthwith beneath the parish church.

GREAT CANFORD, DORSET.—In the several churches and chapels within the parish, and in the churchyards of Parkstone and Longfleet and in the Independent Burial-ground, except so far as may be compatible with the observance of the Regulations for New Burial-grounds : and the churchyard of Parkstone to be drained, so that no water shall accumulate in any vault or grave, and an outfall for the drainage to be carried into the stream below the neighbouring wells.

Arthur Helps.

Council-Office, Whitehall, July 13, 1860.

WHEREAS, in the Gazette of the sixth of July instant, notice was given that an Ordinance, framed by the Oxford University Commissioners in relation to the College of Saint John the Baptist, as well as the Report relating to it from the said Commissioners, the objections of the Governing Members of the College, and any Petitions relating to such Ordinance which might be presented within the time prescribed in the Act of twenty-third Victoria, chapter twenty-three, would be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirty-first of July instant. And whereas it has been represented to their Lordships, that it will be difficult for some of the parties interested, to prepare their cases within the period defined ; Notice is therefore hereby given, that the hearing of the case relating to the Ordinance affecting the College of Saint John the Baptist, will not be taken into consideration on the thirty-first of July instant, and that such hearing is postponed until some period after October next, of which due notice will be given.

And notice is hereby further given, that Petitions in favour of or against the approbation of the said Ordinance, must be presented on or before the twenty-fourth of this instant July.

Imperial Brazilian Sinking Fund.

5 per cent. Loan of 1843, for £732,600, entitled Brazilian Empire Fund.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by the tenor of the general bond for this loan, an annual sinking fund for its redemption is provided equal to £36,600, or one-twentieth part of the said loan, the same to be employed by means of purchases on the market, when at or under par, and when above par, by drawings by lot on the 1st July, each year. In conformity with this stipulation, there have been purchased on the market thirteen hundred pounds of the said loan, being all that could be obtained, leaving a balance of £35,300 to be drawn by lot.

His Excellency the Commandeur F. J. de Carvalho Moreira, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the Emperor of the Brazils at this Court, and Messrs. N. M. Rothschild and Sons, acting as agents for this fund, accompanied with Mr. William Webb Venn, Notary Public, did accordingly draw by lot, with the usual formalities, the following bonds, viz.:—

3 Bonds, letter A . .	£1,000	£3,000
22 " " B . .	500	11,000
35 " " C . .	200	7,000
