FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1860.

India-Office, July 20, 1860.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received from the Government of Bombay a despatch, from which the following is an extract :

Bombay, January 9, 1860.

IN the copy of the minute recorded by our President, relative to the services of civilians and military officers in Civil employ during the recent troubles in India, which has appeared in the public prints in England, there is an error which we would wish to rectify. In that paragraph of the minute which alludes to the assistance which our President states he received from his colleagues there followed the words, "and from the Secretaries to Government." In the minute as published in England the passage alluded to runs thus, "and from the Secretary to Government."* This error may have occurred from a mistake of the copyist either in Calcutta or in England, or it may have been a misprint in the London Gazette, but under any circumstances we think it an act of justice to point out that our President's acknowledgments referred to all the Secretaries to Government.

contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the said office, and also at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Marks of Distinction," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.
