FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1860.

Admiralty, August 1, 1860.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are copies, have been received by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty from Commodore William Loring, C.B., Senior Officer of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels on the Australian Station :

No. 19. Her Majesty's ship Iris, Auckland,
SIR, April 27, 1860.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, copies of reports which I have received from Captain Cracroft, of Her Majesty's ship Niger, relative to the proceedings of a part of her crew employed on shore at Taranaki, at the requisition of His Excellency the Governor of New Zealand.

The capture of the pah, as described in his letter No. 10, was, on the part of Captain Cracroft, his officers, and men, a most dashing and judiciously timed affair.

His Excellency Colonel Gore Browne informs me that it was most opportune. The death of several of the most troublesome of the Taranaki Chiefs, and of a considerable number of their followers, served not only to damp the ardour of the rebellious tribes, but also to avenge some cold blooded murders which these very people had committed only a few days previously.

And it is now known that, under God's providence, this success was also the means of saving the lives of a detachment of the Colonial Volunteers whom the Maories had beleaguered in a neighbouring house, and whose ammunition was almost expended.

Captain Cracroft has not mentioned his own personal share in the affair, but I learn that his coolness on that and on other occasions was most conspicuous, and that he did not undertake this very hazardous service in a spirit of headstrong gallantry, but from a deliberate conviction that it was necessary that the attempt should be made, and therefore it was done, and done most successfully.

Under these circumstances I trust that their Lordships will authorise me, in accordance with the request of Captain Cracroft, in his letter No. 11, to decorate William Odgers, leading seaman, with the Victoria Cross. These Maori natives are by no means a contemptible foe,—man to man they are equal to ourselves ; and in the storming of the pah it could only have been by eager and determined gallantry that success could have been attained.

I also beg to call their Lordships' attention to his letter No. 12, enclosing a letter from the Colonel in command of the troops in another part of the field, and also a letter from Colonel Gold, Commanding-in-Chief.

Lieutenant W. H. Blake's conduct, as Senior Lieutenant of Her Majesty's ship Niger, has been uniformly correct and efficient, and whilst on shore, in command of fifty-five seamen, he has shown himself a gallant leader.

I much regret to state that his wound is of a serious nature ; and I beg very respectfully and strongly to recommend him to the notice of their Lordships as an officer whose conduct has rendered him worthy of promotion.

I have, &c.,
WILLIAM LORING, Commodore.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

No. 10. Her Majesty's ship Niger, Taranaki,
SIR, New Zealand, March 31, 1860.

AT 1 P.M., on the 28th instant, I received the enclosed requisition from Colonel Gold ; you are aware through my letter of proceedings, No. 8, that 55 men belonging to this ship under the command of the first Lieutenant were already landed to assist in the defence of the town, but as the case appeared urgent and the weather was fine, I did not hesitate in complying with it, and landed at 2 P.M., with the force detailed in the margin*.

2. We had scarcely taken up a position pointed out to me by Colonel Gold, when intelligence arrived that Colonel Murray was hard pressed by the natives and short of ammunition, and Colonel Gold requested me to advance to his support. I therefore proceeded to the Omata Blockhouse, about four miles on the great South-road, from whence I was enabled to obtain a good view of the country, and of a Pah constructed on the crown of a hill, about a mile beyond, which displayed flags, and from which a continual fire of musketry was kept up upon Colonel Murray's force on my right; here I found Lieutenant Blake, first Lieutenant of the Niger, just brought in dangerously wounded by a ball through the breast.

3. I immediately sent Mr. W. H. Hyde, Assistant Paymaster, doing duty as my aide-de-camp, to inform Colonel Murray of my arrival; and as it was half-past five, and there was only half an hour's daylight left, I determined to attack this Pah at once.

4. Accordingly I planted the 24 pounder rocket tube about 700 yards from it, and, after a few discharges, the men stormed the Pah under a heavy fire, in the most gallant style,—William Odgers, leading seaman, doing duty as my coxwain, being the first man in it; and having captured the flags, and destroyed everything living in the trenches, as far as could be ascertained in the dark, I returned to the blockhouse.

5. In performing this service I am thankful to say that I had only four men wounded, which may be in some measure accounted for by the rapidity of the attack, taking the enemy completely by surprise, and giving no time for the usual Maori tactics; while the increasing darkness also favoured our small force, and prevented a good aim being taken by their sharpshooters.

6. It was impossible for me to estimate the number opposed to us, nor could their exact loss be ascertained—16 dead were counted inside the entrenchment, 11 or 12 were lying in the road outside; but no doubt many of the wounded succeeded in crawling away unobserved.

7. After a short rest at the blockhouse I returned to town, placed the wounded in military hospital, and re-embarked my men, as I did not consider the ship safe without them at this exposed anchorage.

8. I cannot speak too highly of the conduct of all engaged in this sharp and decisive affair, more especially the conduct of William Odgers, leading seaman, to which I shall bring your more particular notice in another letter.

9. I beg to enclose the Surgeon's report of casualties in the party landed.

I have, &c.,

No. 11. Her Majesty's ship, Niger, Saranaki, New Zealand, March 31, 1860.

WITH reference to paragraph No. 4 of my letter No. 10, 1860, I beg leave most respectfully to lay before you a statement of the conspicuous gallantry of William Odgers, leading seaman, upon the occasion of the capture of the Pah, in having been the first to enter it, in the face of the heavy fire opened upon us.

He also assisted in hauling down the enemy's colours, in which act of daring, which was performed under my own eye, three other men equally participated, viz: Robert Glanville, captain foretop, William Older, A.B., and William Clarke, supernumerary marine, belonging to the Iris carrying your broad pendant.

And I should wish to submit for your consideration, whether all these men are entitled equally with William Odgers to the decoration of the Victoria Cross, and if not, then I should beg leave to recommend William Odgers for it, as being the most deserving, for the reason first mentioned.

It would be proper to add that Robert Glanville and William Clarke were both severely wounded in the Pah.

I have, &c.,

Captain and Senior Officer in New Zealand.

No. 12. Her Majesty's ship, Niger, Taranaki,
SIR, March 31, 1860.

REFERRING to my letter No. 10 of this date, reporting the service upon which Lieutenant W. H. Blake, Senior Lieutenant in charge of a detachment of seamen and marines, had been employed with the force under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Murray, 65th Regiment—

I have now the honour to enclose a letter and its enclosure, received from the Lieutenant-Colonel—expressing his high sense of the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Blake, at the action at Omata, on the 28th instant, in which that officer was dangerously wounded, as also of the steady good conduct of the petty officers, seamen and marines upon this occasion, under Mr. C. B. Theobald, Midshipman, upon whom the command had devolved.

In requesting you to bring the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Blake to the favourable notice of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, I beg to recommend him to their lordships as a most zealous, active officer, who has always merited my entire confidence, and is well worthy of promotion.

The name of Lieutenant Blake has been before mentioned to their lordships in despatches, as being the Senior Lieutenant present at the destruction of a formidable Chinese piratical stronghold and junks in March, 1859.

SIR, New Plymouth, March 31, 1860.

I CONSIDER it due to you to express the high sense I entertain of the gallant services rendered by Lieutenant Blake, and the officers and men of Her Majesty's ship Niger, who formed part of the force under my command, employed against the rebel natives at the village of Omata, on the 28th instant,

I was myself an eye-witness of the steadiness with which the gallant blue jackets advanced in skirmishing order over a difficult piece of country, compelling their opponents to retire before them; and, from the information that has reached me since, their force told severely.

I beg to add that it was with extreme regret that I beheld their gallant leader taken to the rear dangerously wounded. My regret was the greater, from the feeling of friendship I entertained for that officer, occasioned by the perfect cordiality which existed between us on all matters of duty since he has been attached to the garrison under my command.

I beg further to inform you that the men of the Niger, when ordered to retire, displayed the same steadiness under the command of Mr. Theobald, who seemed to possess the coolness of a veteran.

I herewith enclose a return of casualties in the Naval Brigade.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) G. F. MURRAY,

Brevet-Lieutenant-Colonel.

Commanding Her Majesty's Ship Niger.

Lieutenant W. H. Blake, dangerous bullet wound in right breast.

Brigade Office, Taranaki,
March 29, 1860.

COLONEL GOLD, commanding the Forces, wishes to express to Captain Cracroft, of Her Majesty's Ship Niger, Senior Naval Officer on the Station, Lieutenant-Colonel Murray, 65th Regiment and Captain Brown, of the New Plymouth Militia, and the officers, non-commissioned officers, warrant and petty officers and men, who were engaged yesterday with the enemy, his high sense of the gallantry displayed, which led not only to the rapid destruction of a Pah, but also to a considerable loss on the part of the insurgents. The Colonel Commanding will not fail to report most favourably to higher authority their distinguished valour and most active exertions.

By command,

(Signed) JOHN PAUL,

Captain 65th Regiment, Acting Major of Brigade.

In consideration of his services, as mentioned in these despatches, Lieutenant William Hans Blake has been promoted to the rank of Commander, with Seniority, from 26th June, 1860.

William Odgers has also been offered a Warrant as a Gunner or Boatswain, provided he be found competent, War Office, 3rd August, 1860.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Forces, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, in consideration of their gallantry and Distinguished Conduct during the operations of the Expeditionary Force in Persia in 1856-57, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
20th Bombay Native Infantry	Captain John Augustus Wood Date of Act of Bravery, 9th December, 1856.	On the 9th of December, 1856, Captain Wood led the Grenadier Company, which formed the head of the assaulting column sent against Bushire. He was the first man on the parapet of the fort, where he was instantly attacked by a large number of the garrison, who suddenly sprang on him from a trench cut in the parapet itself. These men fired a volley at Captain Wood and the head of the storming party, when only a yard or two distant from that Officer; but, although Captain Wood was struck by no less than seven musket balls, he at once threw himself upon the enemy, passed his sword through the body of their leader, and, being closely followed by the men of his company, speedily overcame all opposition, and established himself in the place. Captain Wood's decision, energy, and determined valour, undoubtedly contributed in a high degree to the success of the attack. His wounds compelled him to leave the force for a time; but, with the true spirit of a good soldier, he rejoined his regiment, and returned to his duty at Bushire before the wounds were properly healed.
3rd Bombay Light Cavalry	Lieutenant and Adjutant Arthur Thomas Moore, and Lieutenant John Grant Malcolmson Date of Acts of Bravery, 8th February, 1857.	On the occasion of an attack on the enemy on the 8th of February, 1857, led by Lieutenant-Colonel Forbes, C.B., Lieutenant Moore, the Adjutant of the Regiment, was, perhaps, the first of all by a horse's length. His horse leaped into the square, and instantly fell dead, crushing down his rider, and breaking his sword as he fell amid the broken ranks of the enemy. Lieutenant Moore speedily extricated himself, and attempted with his broken sword to force his way through the press; but he would assuredly have lost his life, had not the gallant young Lieutenant Malcolmson, observing his peril, fought his way to his dismounted comrade through a crowd of enemies to his rescue, and, giving him his stirrup, safely carried him through everything out of the throng. The thoughtfulness for others, cool determination, devoted courage, and ready activity shewn in extreme danger by this young Officer, Lieutenant Malcolmson, appear to have been most admirable, and to be worthy of the highest honour.

HER Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Seaman of the Royal Navy, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, in consideration of an Act of Bravery which he performed in the recent operations against Rebel Natives in New Zealand, as recorded against his name ; viz. :—

Name and Rank.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
William Odgers, Leading Seaman of Her Majesty's Ship Niger. Date of Act of Bravery, 28th March, 1860	On the 28th of March, 1860, William Odgers displayed conspicuous gallantry at the Storming of a Pah during operations against Rebel Natives in New Zealand; having been the first to enter it under a heavy fire, and having assisted in hauling down the enemy's colours.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering "more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in "Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the county of Worcester, in quarter sessions assembled, at the Shirehall, Worcester, on the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the eastern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Hagley, the Hayes, Feckenham, and Bredon, may be declared additional polling places for the said division, within which such places are situate :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the said parishes, townships, hamlets, or places of Hagley, the Hayes, Feckenham, and Bredon, shall be additional polling places for the eastern division of the county of Worcester; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said eastern division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for regulating the number and emoluments of the vicars choral or minor canons in the cathedral church of Bangor.

" Whereas it has been represented to us by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bangor, that there are at present two vicars choral or minor canons in the said cathedral church, both of whom have been appointed since the passing of the herein-named Act, and that the said vicars choral or minor canons are each endowed with, or entitled to receive a portion of, the proceeds of certain tithe rent-charges arising within the parish of Llandinam, in the county of Montgomery, and producing an average yearly income of sixty-five pounds.

" And whereas it has been proposed to us by the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the number of vicars choral or minor canons in the said cathedral church should be fixed at two.

" And whereas the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church are not possessed of any corporate revenues.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bangor, testified by their having hereunto affixed their chapter seal, we humbly recommend and propose that the number of vicars choral or minor canons in the said cathedral church of Bangor shall from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be two.

" And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund, specified in the herein-mentioned Act, to each of such vicars choral or minor canons, in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, the annual sum of eighty-five pounds.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or either of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ' An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues ;' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled ' An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Totness, in the diocese of Exeter :

" Whereas by the first recited Act, it is enacted that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, provided that no archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any endowment, or augmentation, or other emolument, as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless he shall be resident for the space of eight months in every year, within the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence, which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities, and the residence of the clergy in the same Act mentioned; and it is by the said first-recited Act further enacted, that, upon the endowment of an archdeaconry being made under the provisions thereof, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage), belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment, may with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, and by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of the same Act:

"And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is declared and enacted, that in the case of any archdeaconry which shall no longer be held by the archdeacon, who was at the time of the passing of the said first recited Act in possession thereof, the provisions of the same Act, which relate to the transfer to us of the estates of any archdeaconry upon its endowment in either of the modes therein provided, shall be construed and held to authorize such transfer, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of the archdeacon in possession of the archdeaconry at the time:

"And whereas the said archdeaconry of Totness is endowed with an annual payment, out of the corporate estates of the dean and chapter of Exeter, variable every ten years, according to the price of corn, such annual payment being the consideration for the transfer to the said dean and chapter of a house, situate in the city of Exeter, and heretofore forming part of the endowment of the archdeaconry, and the amount of the same annual payment for the current period of ten years, commencing from the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, is fifty-three pounds and thirteen shillings:

"And whereas the net annual income of the said archdeaconry, derived from fees and other payments, does not exceed the annual sum of thirty-eight pounds:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and of the Venerable John Downall, the present archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Totness, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the said common fund, to the said John Downall, and his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, the annual sum of one hundred and sixty-two pounds on the first day of January in every year, and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being; that the said John Downall, or his successor for the time being in the said archdeaconry, has duly resided as aforesaid, during the preceding year, or on the production to us of a licence of non-residence, and that the first such yearly payment shall be made on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, and further that the annual money payment charged upon the Exeter capitular estates, as aforesaid, and all lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, whatsoever now forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Totness, shall forthwith be disannexed therefrom and become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Highmore, in the parish of Rotherfield Greys, in the county and diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the parishes of Bix and Rotherfield Greys, in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous parts of the said parishes of Bix and Rotherfield Greys should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Highmore, in the parish of Rotherfield Greys aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, the bishop of the diocese, and of the Right Honourable Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme, Earl of Macclesfield, the patron of the rectory and parish of Bix aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and of the President and Fellows of Trinity College, within the University of Oxford, the patrons of the rectory and parish of Rotherfield Greys aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their corporate or common seal), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Bix and Rotherfield Greys, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon respectively coloured pink and brown, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Highmore aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Highmore.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme, Earl of Macclesfield, and the said President and Fellows (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Highmore, shall belong to and be exercised by the rector or incumbent, for the time being, of the said parish of Rotherfield Greys.

"We therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of SAINT PAUL, HIGHMORE, being—

"All that part of the parish of Rotherfield Greys, in the county and diocese of Oxford, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such parish and the parish of Rotherfield Peppard, at a point in the middle of the high road, leading from Nettlebed to Reading, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such road for a distance of four hundred and sixty-two yards to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence which divides the enclosure, numbered 93 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Rotherfield Greys, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the enclosure, numbered 322 on the same maps, and extending thence northward to and along the middle of such fence, and across the road leading from Nettlebed aforesaid to Henley, to and along the middle of the fences which divide the enclosures, numbered respectively 164 and 153 on the before-mentioned maps, from the enclosures, numbered respectively 165, 196, 197, 198, and 199, on the same maps, to the middle of the fence which divides the enclosure, numbered 152 on the said maps, from the enclosure, numbered 199 as aforesaid, and thence extending first eastward and then northward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to the boundary of the said parish of Rotherfield Greys.

"And also all that part of the parish of Bix, in the same county and diocese, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Rotherfield Greys, at a point in the middle of Rockey-lane, opposite to the southern end of the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 7, on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Bix, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the enclosure numbered 8, on the same maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence and eastward along the middle of the fence which divides the said enclosure numbered 8 as aforesaid, from the enclosure numbered 164 on the said last-mentioned maps to the middle of the fence which divides the last-named enclosure, from the enclosure, numbered 9 on the same maps, and extending thence in a direction generally northward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence and of the fence which divides the aforesaid enclosure, numbered 164, from the enclosure numbered 10, on the said maps, to the middle of the fence which divides the said enclosure, numbered 164 from the enclosure, numbered 157, on the same maps, and thence extending south-westward along the middle of the same fence, and southward along the middle of the fences which divide the said enclosure, numbered 164 as aforesaid, from the enclosures, numbered respectively 158 and 159, on the said last-mentioned maps, to the middle of the fence which divides the enclosure, numbered 159 as aforesaid, from the enclosure, numbered 160, on the said last-mentioned maps, and thence extending westward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and across a certain occupation road leading to Bromsdon Farm to the middle of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the enclosure, numbered 168, on the said last-mentioned maps, and thence extending southward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence, and westward along the middle of the fence which divides the same enclosure from the enclosure numbered 164 as aforesaid, to the boundary between the said parish of Bix, and the parish of Rotherfield Greys, and extending thence first southward and then north-eastward along the said boundary to the point where the last-mentioned imaginary line commenced.

"And also all that part of the said parish of Bix, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Rotherfield Greys, at a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence which divides the enclosure, numbered 181 on the said last-mentioned maps, from the enclosure, numbered 182 upon the same maps, and thence extending northward to and along the middle of the said fence to the middle of the fence which divides the last-named enclosure from the enclosure, numbered 219a on the said maps, and thence extending westward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to the middle of the fence which divides the enclosure, numbered 192 on the said maps, from the enclosure numbered 182, as aforesaid, and thence extending south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and of the fences which divide the enclosure, numbered 192 as aforesaid, from the enclosures, numbered 188, 190, 189, 184, and 185, on the same maps, to the boundary dividing the parish of Bix from the parish of Rotherfield Greys aforesaid, and extending thence eastward along the said boundary to the point where the last-mentioned imaginary line commenced."

"And also all that part of the said parish of Bix, which lies to the southwest of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the road leading from Highmore Cross to Nettlebed."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Highmore, in the parish of Rotherfield Greys, in the county of Oxford, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the rector or incumbent, for the time being, of the said parish of Rotherfield Greys; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Flockton, in the parish of Thornhill, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the parishes of Thornhill and Kirkheaton, in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous parts of the said parishes should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Flockton, in the parish of Thornhill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon (the bishop of the diocese), of Michael Bruce, of Number 74, Lower Grosvenor-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, the patron of the rectory and parish of Thornhill aforesaid, of the Reverend George Alderson, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage and parish of Hornby, in the said county of York, and of the Reverend Samuel Wildman Yates, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage and parish of Saint Mary, Reading, in the county of Berks, the patrons of the rectory and parish of Kirkheaton aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Thornhill and Kirkheaton, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, (all which parts together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon respectively coloured pink and yellow), should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint James, situate at Flockton aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Flockton cum Denby Grange.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Michael Bruce, George Alderson, and Samuel Wildman Yates (testified as aforesaid) that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Flockton-cum-Denby Grange shall belong, or continue to belong to, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the five persons next hereinafter mentioned, or by a majority of such persons; that is to say: by the Reverend Henry Torre, rector or incumbent of the said rectory and parish of Thornhill; the Reverend John Sharp, perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Horbury, in the said county of York; the Reverend John Heaton Micklethwait, perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Chapelthorpe, in the county of York aforesaid; Sir John Lister Lister Kaye, of Denby Grange, in the said county of York, Baronet; and Arthur Lister Kaye, a Captain in your Majesty's Royal Artillery; or by such persons not exceeding five in number, or by a majority of such persons as may from time to time be duly appointed as heretofore trustees of the right of presentation and appointment of a minister to serve the said church of the said consolidated chapelry.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Flockton-cum-Denby Grange, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Thornhill, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within the township of Flockton.

"And also all that part of the township of Shitlington, in the said parish of Thornhill, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing at a point marked A on the map hereunto annexed, on the boundary of the said township of Shitlington, where the boundary between the hamlets of Over Shitlington and Middle Shitlington joins the said township boundary, and extending thence in a direction generally south-easterly along the said boundary between the said hamlets of Over Shitlington and Middle Shitlington to the middle of Chapel Hill Lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of such lane, and of the bridge road leading from the same lane to the road or lane leading by the moat near New Hall to New Hall Lane, and thence continuing in the same direction along the middle of such road or lane, and of New Hall Lane aforesaid to the middle of the Barnsley and Grange Moor Trust Turnpike Road, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line to the boundary of the said township of Flockton.

“And also all that part of the parish of Kirkheaton, in the same county and diocese which is comprised within the hamlet of Denby Grange.”

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Flockton, in the parish of Thornhill, in the county of York, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall belong to and be exercised jointly by the five persons next hereinafter mentioned, or by a majority of such persons; that is to say: by the Reverend Henry Torre, rector, or incumbent of the rectory and parish of Thornhill, in the county of York; the Reverend John Sharp, perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Horbury, in the said county of York; the Reverend John Heaton Micklethwait, perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Chapelthorpe, in the county of York aforesaid; Sir John Lister Lister Kaye, of Denby Grange, in the said county of York, Baronet; and Arthur Lister Kaye, a Captain in Her Majesty's Royal Artillery; or by such persons, not exceeding five in number, or by a majority of such persons as may from time to time be duly appointed as heretofore trustees of the right of presentation and appointment of a minister, to serve the said church of the said consolidated chapelry.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation, as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Sarn, in the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, and diocese of Saint Asaph.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Kerry, and of the parish of Churchstoke, in the counties of Montgomery and Salop, and in the diocese of Hereford, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

“Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, of the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of Hereford, of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, the patron in right of his see of the vicarage and parish of Kerry aforesaid, and of the Right Honourable Edward James, Earl of Powis, the patron of the perpetual curacy and parish of Church Stoke aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Kerry and Churchstoke which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon respectively coloured pink and green, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Sarn aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Sarn.’

“And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, and Edward James, Earl of Powis, testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Sarn, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, and his successors, bishops of the same see, for ever.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order, in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of the HOLY TRINITY, SARN, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, and diocese of Saint Asaph, which is comprised within the several townships of Goitre, Caliber Ucha, Caliber Issa, Gwernygo, Cefnyberin, Gwenthrew, and Bahaithlou.

“And also all that part of the parish of Churchstoke, in the counties of Montgomery and Salop, and in the diocese of Hereford, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within the several townships of Hopton Ucha and Hopton Issa.

"And also all that part of the township of Weston Maddoc, in the said parish of Churchstoke, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the turnpike-road leading from Montgomery to the turnpike-road leading from Kerry to Churchstoke.

"And also all that part of the township of Brompton, in the said parish of Churchstoke which is situate to the west and south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between the said township of Brompton and the township of Bachelde, in the said parish of Churchstoke, at a point in the middle of the brook called Cabitre, which is opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 300 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said township of Brompton, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 301 on such maps; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of such fence, and along the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 299 on the same maps, from the said close numbered 301 on such maps, to the middle of the said turnpike-road leading from Kerry to Churchstoke, and extending thence, westward, along the middle of such last-mentioned turnpike-road, to the middle of a brook called Mellinywern, and extending thence, northward, along the middle of such last-named brook to the boundary between the said township of Brompton and the said township of Caliber Issa.

"And also all that part of the township of Bachelde, in the said parish of Churchstoke, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary of the said township of Bachelde, in the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 174 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said townships of Hopton Issa and Bachelde, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 246 on the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence, to the middle of the road leading northwards, towards Pentrenant, and extending thence southward, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 166 on the said last-mentioned maps, from the close numbered 49 on the same maps, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned fence, and in the same direction along the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 51 on the said maps, from the said close numbered 166, to the boundary of the said township of Bachelde."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned, for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Sarn, in the parish of Kerry, in the county of Montgomery, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate, to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall belong to, and be exercised by the said Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, and his successors, bishops of the same see, for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Saint Asaph and Hereford.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Meliden, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, and for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of that parish, and the parish of Llanasa, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas all the separate estates and endowments formerly belonging to the treasurer'ship of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph have become vested in us under the provisions and for the purposes of the said first-named Act; and such estates and endowments comprise, inter alia, the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes of the appropriate rectory of the said parish of Meliden, and the same are now in possession.

"And whereas the present endowment of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Meliden is of small amount, and it appears to us to be expedient that the same should be augmented in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said parishes of Meliden and Llanasa hereinafter mentioned and described, such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all those parts of the said parishes of Meliden and Llanasa, described in the first schedule hereunto annexed (all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are respectively delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also an-nexed), shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be together constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Prestatyn.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the minister of the district so recommended to be constituted shall be permanently endowed with the portion of the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes of the appropriate rectory of the said parish of Meliden, which is set forth and described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, and that such portion of the said tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, and all our estate and interest therein shall accordingly without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, such minister, so soon as he shall be appointed and licensed, and in his successors.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so soon as the district so recommended to be constituted shall have become, according to the provisions of the herein secondly-named Act a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, the perpetual curate thereof shall be further permanently endowed with the portion of the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes of the appropriate rectory of the said parish of Meliden, which is set forth and described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, and that such portion of the said tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, with their appurtenances, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the said perpetual curate and his successors.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Edward Hughes, Clerk, the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Meliden, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the portion of the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes of the appropriate rectory of Meliden, which is set forth and described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Meliden, provided always, that the same tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes to be so vested as last mentioned, shall be and be deemed to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of twenty-five pounds, payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent in respect of the estates within the same parish, formerly belonging to the said trusteeship of the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and of the annual sum of eleven pounds, payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and shall also be and be held to be in discharge of and full satisfaction for any claim which the said present perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy or his successors may hereafter have, under the provisions of the herein secondly-named Act, to compensation for loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments, in respect of the formation of the district hereinbefore recommended to be constituted.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The District of Prestatyn, being :—

"All those parts of the parish of Meliden in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph which are comprised within the townships of Prestatyn and Nant.

"And also all that part of the parish of Llanasa, in the same county and diocese, which is situate to the north and west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between the said parishes of Meliden and Llanasa at a point marked A. on the map hereunto annexed, where a boundary-stone marked with the letters and figures "P.N.P. 1860. No. 1." has been placed, and extending thence south-eastward in a straight line across the road which leads from the village of Gwaenysgor to the road which connects the town of Gronant with that of Prestatyn, to the middle of the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 147 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the parish of Llanasa, and on the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 148 on such maps, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such fence, and of the fences which divide the said close numbered 148 from the closes numbered respectively 146, 129, 128, 127, 123, and 122, on the said maps to the fence which divides the said close numbered 122 from the close numbered 121 on the said maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and of the fences which divide the said close numbered 121 as aforesaid, and the closes numbered respectively 119 and 118 on the same maps, from the closes numbered respectively 124, 133, 134, 135, and 136, on the said maps to the middle of the road leading from the town of Gronant to Prestatyn aforesaid, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned road for a distance of forty-seven yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 24 on the said maps, from the close numbered 23 on such maps, and extending thence in a direction generally northward to and along the middle of such last-mentioned fence, and along the middle of the fences which divide the said close numbered 23 as aforesaid and the closes numbered respectively 10 and 9^c on the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 21, 22, 11, and 13 on the said maps to the northern extremity of the same fences, and extending thence in a straight line due north to the middle of the Chester and Holyhead Railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such railway for a distance of nine hundred and eighty-five yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary-stone marked with the letters and figures "P.N.P. 1860. No. 2." which has been placed on the northern side of the said railway, and extending thence in a straight line due north to the boundary of the said parish of Llanasa.

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, been duly transmitted to the incumbents, and to the patron of the churches of the several parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbents and patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church called Saint Peter, situate near the Oldham-road, in the new parish of Saint George, Manchester, and within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that a district, for spiritual purposes, should be set out and constituted for, and annexed to, the said church called Saint Peter, situate near the Oldham-road aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said new parish of Saint George, Manchester (heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester), which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parish of Saint George, Manchester, and shall be set out and constituted for, and annexed to, the said church called Saint Peter, situate near the Oldham-road aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Oldham-road.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of SAINT PETER, OLDHAM-ROAD, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint George, Manchester (heretofore part of the parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Oldham-road."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the church of the new parish, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted, shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Greenhow Hill, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York, and diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the parishes of Ripon, Hampsthwaite, and Burnsall, in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous parts of the said parishes should be formed into a consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Greenhow Hill, in the parish of Ripon aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, of the Reverend Thomas Shann, of Boston Spa, near Tadcaster, in the said county of York, Clerk, of Charles Shann, of Tadcaster aforesaid, Esquire, and of George Shann, of the city of York, Esquire, patrons of the vicarage and parish of Hampsthwaite aforesaid, of John Edward Thorley

Graham, of Union Court, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Esquire, patron of the first mediety of the rectory and parish of Burnsall aforesaid, and of the Right Honourable William, Earl of Craven, patron of the second mediety of the said rectory and parish of Burnsall (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon, patrons of the said parish of Ripon (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their capitular seal), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Ripon, Hampsthwaite and Burnsall which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon respectively coloured yellow, brown and green, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Greenhow Hill aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Greenhow Hill.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said dean and chapter, Thomas Shann, Charles Shann, George Shann, John Edward Thorley Graham, and William, Earl of Craven, testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Greenhow Hill, shall belong to and be exercised by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the township of Bewerley, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such township and the township of Stone Beck Down, in the middle of Ashfold Side Beck, at a point marked A on the plan hereunto annexed, which is opposite to a boundary stone placed on the southern bank of such Beck, and marked with the letters 'G. H. C. C.' and extending thence southward in a straight line to the boundary stone on the Skipton and Pateley Bridge Turnpike Road, which is marked with the letters and figures 'B. M. 1123,2,' and extending thence eastward in a straight line to the point of junction of two streams respectively known as Sand Gill and Raven's Gill, and extending thence southward up the middle of such last-named stream to the boundary between the said township of Bewerley and the township of Dacre.

"And also all that part of the township of Thornthwaite-with-Padside, in the parish of Hampsthwaite, in the said county and diocese, which is situate to the west and north of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such last-named township and the township of Dacre aforesaid at the boundary stone marked with the letters and figures 'B. M. 11123,' near the south-west end of a road or path known as Plumpton Way, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line to a point in the middle of the River Washburn, which is marked B on the said plan, and which is opposite to a boundary stone placed on the eastern bank of such river, and marked with the letters 'G. H. C. C.' and extending thence up the middle of such last-named river to the point where such river joins a stream called Tarn Gill, and extending thence up the middle of such last-named stream to Blow Tarn, and extending thence along the north-eastern bank of such Tarn to the boundary between the said township of Thornthwaite-with-Padside and the township of Appletreewick, in the parish of Burnsall, in the hereinbefore mentioned county and diocese.

"And also all that part of the said township of Appletreewick which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing on the northern bank of Blow Tarn aforesaid on the boundary between the said township of Appletreewick and the said township of Thornthwaite-with-Padside, and extending thence north-westward in a straight line to the boundary stone near Stub Cross, which is marked with the letters and figures 'B. M. 10864,' and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line to a point near Jack Hull, on the boundary between the said townships of Appletreewick and Bewerley, which is marked C on the said map hereunto annexed, and which is indicated by a boundary stone marked with the letters 'G. H. C. C.'"

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Greenhow Hill, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon for the time being; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in Upper Avenue-road, in the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate in Upper Avenue-road aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hampstead, and also all that part of the district chapelry of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead (heretofore part of the said parish of Hampstead), described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Hampstead.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being; provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Ainger, incumbent of the said parish of Hampstead, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees, which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices, in the said church of Saint Paul, Hampstead, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said Thomas Ainger.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Paul, Hampstead, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between the parish of Saint Marylebone and the parish of Hampstead aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Springfield-road; and extending thence northward along the middle of such road, and across the boundary road to a point in the middle of the southern end of Bridge-road, leading from the boundary road aforesaid to Belsize-road; and extending thence north-westward along Bridge-road aforesaid, to a point in the middle of the Belsize-road aforesaid; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road to a point opposite to the southern end of North End-road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-named road till it meets the boundary line which divides the estate belonging to Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson, Baronet, from the estate belonging to the Trustees of the late Henry Samuel Eyre, Esquire; and extending thence, first northward and then eastward, along the said boundary line of the said estates to its point of junction with the boundary line of an estate belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Westminster; and extending thence, first southward and then eastward, along the boundary line which divides such last-named estate from the estate belonging to the Trustees of the late Henry Samuel Eyre, Esquire aforesaid, until it meets the western boundary of the district chapelry of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along such last-mentioned boundary as far as the boundary dividing the parishes of Saint Marylebone and Hampstead aforesaid: and also all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line commencing at a point on the western boundary of such district chapelry, where a boundary stone marked D, and referred to in the Order of Her Majesty in Council assigning such district chapelry, which was published in the London Gazette of the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, is placed; and extending thence south-eastward from such last-mentioned point along the boundary of the estate belonging to the Provost and Fellows of Eton College, and coinciding with the fences in the rear of the houses and premises on the eastern side of the Avenue-road, until it meets the boundary of the said parish of Saint Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in Upper Avenue-road, in the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Hampstead," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of the reign of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Cardigan, in the diocese of Saint David's:

“Whereas the said archdeaconry of Cardigan is endowed with the prebend of Llandyfriog, in the cathedral church of Saint David's, and the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments thereunto belonging, now demised on a lease for years, and there do not appear to be any other emoluments belonging to such archdeaconry:

“We, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of Saint David's, and of the Venerable John Hughes, the present Archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Cardigan, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the said common fund, to the said John Hughes and his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside, in accordance with the provisions of the said first-mentioned Act, the annual sum of two hundred pounds on the first day of January in every year, and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being, that the said John Hughes, or his successor for the time being in the said archdeaconry, has duly resided as aforesaid during the preceding year, or on the production to us of a licence of non-residence, and that the first such yearly payment shall be made on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and further, that all lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever, whether belonging to the said prebend or otherwise, at any time heretofore annexed to, and now forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Cardigan shall forthwith be disannexed therefrom, and become and be absolutely transferred to, and vested in us, or the purposes of the said Acts, as from the first day of January now last past:

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Folkestone, in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury.

“Whereas the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, is in right of his see, patron of the vicarage and benefice of Folkestone, and also of the vicarage and benefice of Lydd, in the said county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury.

“And whereas the present endowment of the said vicarage of Folkestone, is inadequate to the requirements of the said parish, and it has been proposed to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the following arrangement should be made for apportioning the income of the said vicarage of Lydd between the vicars of such parish and of the parish of Folkestone,

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury (as such patron as aforesaid, and also as such archbishop, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the next avoidance of the said vicarage of Lydd, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes issuing, arising and payable out or in respect of certain lands, tenements and hereditaments, situate within the said parish of Lydd, and now forming part of the endowment of the said vicarage and benefice of Lydd, which are set forth and described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall be transferred from such last-named vicarage and benefice to the said vicarage and benefice of Folkestone, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the then vicar thereof and his successors, as part of the endowments of the same vicarage and benefice.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of West Tarring, in the county of Sussex and now vested in us.

"Whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said sinecure rectory of West Tarring (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said rectory, which occurred on or about the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, by the decease of the Reverend William Vaux, the then sinecure rector, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases, or grant or grants thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments or endowments, heretofore belonging to the said sinecure rectory of West Tarring, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester. Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Appledore, with the chapelry of Ebony annexed, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas the Archbishop of Canterbury is patron in right of his see of the vicarage and benefice of Appledore, with the chapelry of Ebony aforesaid, and also of the vicarage and benefice of Lydd, in the said county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury.

"And whereas the present endowment of the said vicarage of Appledore with the chapelry of Ebony, is inadequate to the requirements of the said parish and chapelry, and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the following arrangement should be made for apportioning the income of the said vicarage of Lydd, between the vicar of such parish and the incumbent of the said parish of Appledore, with the chapelry of Ebony annexed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury (as such patron as aforesaid, and also as such archbishop in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the next avoidance of the said vicarage of Lydd, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, issuing, arising, and payable, out or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate within the said parish of Lydd, and now forming part of the endowments of the said vicarage and benefice of Lydd, which are set forth and described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall be transferred from such last-named vicarage and benefice to the said vicarage and benefice of Appledore, with the chapelry of Ebony annexed, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the then incumbent thereof and his successors, as part of the endowment of the same vicarage and benefice and chapelry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Asaph, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph.

“ Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Asaph hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth :

“ And whereas the tithes or commutation rentcharges in lieu of tithes, mentioned and set forth in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, issuing and arising and payable out or in respect of certain lands and hereditaments situate within the townships of Bodelwyddan, Pengwern, and Vaynol, otherwise Faenol, in the said parish of Saint Asaph, and formerly belonging to the prebend of Vaynol in the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, have become vested in us under the provisions and for the purposes of the said first-mentioned Act, subject (with other hereditaments) to a certain lease dated the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, granted for three lives, of which two now survive :

“ And whereas the Right Honourable Margaret, Dowager Lady Willoughby de Broke, has paid to us the sum of six thousand two hundred and fifty pounds, upon the understanding that the whole of the said tithes, or commutation rentcharges in lieu of tithes, should be granted and appropriated as and for the endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, subject, however, to the said lease of the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight :

“ And whereas by a deed, bearing date the tenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and made between the said Margaret, Dowager Lady Willoughby de Broke, of the first part, Sir Hugh Williams, of Bodelwyddan, in the county of Flint, Baronet, of the second part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, the said Sir Hugh Williams has granted and secured to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall have been appointed and licensed, a clear rentcharge or annual sum of two hundred pounds, to be charged upon and issuing and payable out of certain lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the said deed, and to continue payable until the expiration or other determination of the said hereinbefore mentioned lease of the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight :

“ And whereas the said Margaret, Dowager Lady Willoughby de Broke, has provided a church which is intended to be offered for approval by us, and for consecration as the church of the said district, and for the use of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and has also provided a message or tenement, with suitable out-buildings, for the residence of the minister of the said church :

“ And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Margaret, Dowager Lady Willoughby de Broke, and Sir Hugh Williams, and it appears to us to be expedient that in consideration of the benefactions aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister of the same, should be assigned to the said Sir Hugh Williams, his heirs and assigns :

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Asaph which are described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that such district shall be named ‘ The District of Bodelwyddan :’

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Sir Hugh Williams, his heirs and assigns, for ever :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that upon and from the day next following the day of the expiration or other determination of the said lease of the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and reserving always to us and our successors our right to the whole of the rents and to the benefit of the covenants, conditions, and agreements reserved and contained by and in the said indenture of lease, the tithes or commutation rentcharges in lieu of tithes, so issuing and arising and payable out or in respect of certain lands and hereditaments situate within the said townships of Bodelwyddan, Pengwern, and Vaynol, otherwise Faenol, within the said parish of Saint Asaph, and mentioned and set forth in the said First Schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances (being part of the premises comprised in the said indenture of lease), shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the minister for the time being of the said district hereinbefore recommended to be constituted, and his successors for ever :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

"SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The district of Bodelwyddan, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Saint Asaph, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, which are comprised within the townships of Bodelwyddan, Pengwern, and Vaynol, otherwise Faenol."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, been duly transmitted to the respective vicars or incumbents, and to the patron of the parish of Saint Asaph (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such vicars or incumbents and patron have severally consented to the said scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate in the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Preston, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Preston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said chapelry district of Saint Paul, Preston, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Preston.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that baptisms and churchings should be performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Preston, being:—

"All that part of the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Preston, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Deepdale-road."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate in the chapelry district of Saint Paul, Preston, in the county of Lancaster, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Preston," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the performance of baptisms and churchings in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation, as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Chad, situate in the parish of Malpas, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Chad, situate at Malpas aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those portions of the said parish of Malpas, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Chad, Malpas.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Chester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that baptisms, churchings and burials, should be performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of SAINT CHAD, MALPAS; being:—

"All those several portions of the parish of Malpas, in the county and diocese of Chester, which are respectively comprised within the townships of Agden, Bradley, Chidlow, Macefen and Tushingham-cum-Grindley.

"And also all that portion of the township of Bickley, in the same parish, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary between the said township and the township of Tushingham-cum-Grindley aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road, leading from Whitechurch to Cholmondeley, and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of eight hundred and sixty-three yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the brook, called Bickley Brook, flowing from Bar Mere, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such brook to its junction with Bar Mere aforesaid, and extending thence northward in a direct line across Bar Mere to a point on the eastern side of Bickley Mill Pond, where a boundary stone is placed, inscribed 'M. St. C. D. C., 1860, No. 1,' and extending thence in a direct line north-westward to a point in the middle of the road leading from Bickley to Norbury, opposite to a boundary stone placed on the western side of the said road and inscribed 'M. St. C. D. C., 1860, No. 2,' and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of four hundred and thirty-two yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the brook, called Bickley or Brade Meadow Brook, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the same brook to the boundary of the said township of Bickley.

"And also all that portion of the township of Hampton, in the same parish, which is situate to the south and east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such township and the township of Bickley aforesaid, at a point opposite to the middle of the fence which divides the enclosure, numbered e 13 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Malpas, and on the map hereunto annexed from the enclosures numbered respectively g 5 and g 6 on the same maps, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such fence, and of the fences which divide the enclosures numbered respectively e 12, e 11, e 10 and e 8, on the said maps, from the enclosures numbered respectively g 7, d 2, e 5, e 6 and e 7, on the same maps, and across the road leading from No Man's Heath to Hampton Post, to the middle of a certain stream flowing by Goff's Heath into Bradley Brook, and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the middle of the last-mentioned stream to the boundary of the said township of Hampton.

"And also all that portion of the township of Malpas, in the same parish, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary between the said township and the township of Hampton aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the last-mentioned stream flowing by Goff's Heath into Bradley Brook and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said stream as far as the middle of the road leading from Malpas to No Man's Heath, and extending thence first westward and then south-westward along the middle of such road, to a point opposite to the middle of the stream, called Baw Brook, and extending thence northward along the middle of such brook as far as a point opposite to the middle of the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 659 on the before-mentioned maps, from the enclosures numbered respectively 649, 650 and 652 on the same maps, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such fence to a point opposite to the middle of the fence, which divides the enclosure numbered 653 on the said maps, from the enclosure numbered 652 as aforesaid, and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to the middle of the road leading from Malpas to No Man's Heath aforesaid, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such road for a distance of forty-nine yards or thereabouts, to the middle of Baw Brook aforesaid, and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the middle of such brook, and along the middle of Bradley Brook aforesaid, to the boundary of the said township of Malpas."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Chad, situate in the parish of Malpas, in the county of Chester, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Chad, Malpas," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the performance of baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts: and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Crossens, in the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John situate at Crossens aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, testified by his his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of North Meols, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Crossens.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Chester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being:

"We therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

The District Chapelry of SAINT JOHN, CROSSENS, being:—

"All that part of the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Chester, which is bounded on the north-west by the Irish sea and the estuary of the Ribble, and which is bounded on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of Long Ditch (called also Waring's Ditch), opposite to the middle of the easternmost end of the ditch which divides the closes numbered 2184 and 2183 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 2182 on the same maps; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of such ditch, and along the middle of the ditches dividing the closes numbered, respectively, 1831 and 1830, on the said maps from the closes numbered, respectively, 1833, 1832, and 1829, on the same maps, to the middle of the ditch dividing the close numbered 1826 on the said maps from the close numbered 1825 on such maps, and extending thence, first southward and then westward, along the middle of the ditches dividing the said close numbered 1825, and the closes numbered, respectively, 1822, 1821, 1819, 1818, and 1814, on the same maps, from the said close numbered 1830 and the close numbered 1813 on such maps to the middle of Mere-lane, east of the stream called 'the Sluice,' and extending thence, northward, along the middle of such lane to the middle of Bobbiners-lane, and extending thence, eastward, a few yards along the middle of the last-named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Gravel-lane, and extending thence, first northward and then westward, to and along the middle of such last-named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the ditch dividing the close numbered 1722 on the aforesaid maps from the close numbered 1721 on such maps, and extending thence, northward, to and along the middle of such last-mentioned ditch, and along the western side of a certain pond numbered 1721a on the same maps to the middle of the ditch dividing the said close numbered 1722 from the close numbered 1712 on the said maps, and extending thence, westward, along the middle of such last-mentioned ditch to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of the ditch dividing the close numbered 1711 on the said maps from the said close numbered 1712 on such maps, and extending thence, northward, to and along the middle of such last-mentioned ditch to the middle of the ditch dividing the said close numbered 1711 on the said maps, from the close numbered 1710 on such maps, and extending thence westward along such last-mentioned ditch to the middle of an occupation road leading from Brick Kiln-lane into the said close numbered 1,711, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned occupation-road to the middle of Brick Kiln-lane aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-named lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southernmost end of High-lane, and extending thence, first northward and then westward, to and along the middle of such last-named lane, and northward along the middle of the lane leading to the Old New Ground to the middle of the ditch dividing the close numbered 1,687 on the said maps from the close numbered 1,662 on such maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned ditch, and along the middle of the ditches dividing the said close numbered 1,687 and the close numbered 1,659 on the same maps from the closes numbered respectively 1,661 and 1,660 on the said maps to the middle of Ralph's Wife's-lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-named lane as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southernmost end of Martha's-lane, and extending thence northward to and along the middle of such last-named lane to the end thereof, and extending thence north-eastward, in a direct line, to a point on the eastern side of Charnley-lane, where a boundary stone, marked 'Crossens,' has been placed, and which point is opposite to the northern end of the middle of the ditch dividing the close numbered 2,609 on the said maps from the close numbered 2,589 on the same maps, and extending thence, in a direct line, due north-west to the western boundary of the said parish of North Meols, and which is bounded on the south-east, in part, by an imaginary line extending south-westward along the middle of Long Ditch (called also Waring's Ditch) aforesaid to its point of junction with the stream called the Sluice, as aforesaid, and in other part by an imaginary line extending from such last-mentioned point south-westward across the Sluice aforesaid, and in the same direction along the middle of the ditch which divides the close numbered 2,188 on the aforesaid maps from the close numbered 2,191 on the same maps to the middle of Mere-lane, west of the Sluice, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-mentioned lane to the middle of the Ring Ditch of Martin Mere, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such last-named ditch to a point opposite to the middle of the ditch which separates the close numbered 1,008 on the said maps from the close numbered 987 on such maps, and which is bounded on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing in the middle of the Ring Ditch of Martin Mere aforesaid, at a point opposite to the middle of the ditch which divides the said closes numbered 1,008 and 987 as aforesaid, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such last-mentioned ditch to the middle of the ditch dividing the close numbered 1,008 as aforesaid from the close numbered 1,007 on the said maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named ditch as far as a point opposite to the middle of the Moss Field-lane, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of Moss Field-lane aforesaid to the middle of New-lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane to the middle of Straight Up-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the southernmost end of North-lane, and extending thence north-eastward and northward to and along the middle of such last-named lane to the middle of Dolly's-lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of Dolly's-lane to the middle of the westernmost of the ditches known as the Three New Ditches, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named ditch to a point opposite to the middle of the southernmost end of the ditch which divides the close numbered 1,295, on the aforesaid maps, from the close numbered 1,373 on the same maps, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such last-mentioned ditch to Bankfield-lane, and extending thence north-westward across the last-named lane, and along the middle of a certain occupation road called Flax Butts-lane, to a ditch called the New Pool, and extending thence, in the same direction, in a direct line, across the said New Pool, to Dock-lane, and extending thence, still in the same direction, in a straight line across such last-named lane to the estuary of the river Ribble aforesaid.

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Crossens, in the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint John, Crossens," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the

Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the ninth day of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighteenth day of July last ; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the thirteenth day of August instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows ; viz. :

LATIMER. — Forthwith beneath the parish church, except in the vault belonging to Lord Chesham, on condition that the existing entrance to the vault from the interior of the church be built up in an airtight manner, and a new external entrance made, that ventilating openings to the exterior be constructed, so as to ensure a thorough current of air through the vault, and that each coffin be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed ; and from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the parish churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, in which each body shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work, properly cemented.

ALBERBURY, SALOP. — Forthwith in the parish church ; and, except in now existing vaulted and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an airtight manner, in all those parts of the churchyard which do not lie to the north or the north-east of the church ; and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the last-mentioned parts of the churchyard, with the like and also with the following exceptions ; namely : except in existing family graves, and in other graves for the parishioners of Alberbury alone, provided in every case that no foul soil be disturbed, or bones exposed.

PINNER, MIDDLESEX. — Forthwith beneath the church, except in the family vault of the late Henry James Pye, the Poet Laureate, whose widow may be buried with her deceased husband when the occasion shall arise ; and from and after the second of August instant, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves which can be opened without disturbing soil that has already been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work, properly cemented.

ILFORD, ESSEX. — Forthwith beneath the chapel of Saint Mary's Hospital, and in the Baptist Chapel ; also in their respective burial-grounds, with the exception of now existing vaults and graves which can be opened without the disturbance of human remains, and on condition that in the vaults and brick graves, each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work, properly cemented, and that in family earthen graves, no body shall be buried without a covering of four feet of earth.

HEVERSHAM, WESTMORELAND. — Forthwith under the church of the township of Cross-thwaite and Lythe ; also in that part of the churchyard which lies on the south side of the church or chapel, with the exception of now existing family graves, which can be opened without the disturbance of human remains, and in which the only bodies interred shall be those of the husbands and wives of persons already buried therein, and also within four yards of the free grammar school ; and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, wholly, with the exception of such existing family graves which shall be used on the conditions above specified.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows ; viz. :

In ARDLEIGH Churchyard, from the first of September next to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, subject to the regulations contained in an Order in Council of the twenty-third of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in respect of the said churchyard ;

In so much of CROYDON Churchyard as is called the New Burying-ground, from the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, subject to the regulations contained in an Order in Council of the eleventh of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in respect of the said churchyard ;

In the churchyard of the parish of HALTWHISTLE, Northumberland, from the first of July to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty ;

In the churchyard of HARTING, Sussex, from the first of August to the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, subject to the regulations contained in an Order in Council of the twenty-third of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in respect of the said churchyard ;

In such parts of the Independent, Wesleyan Association, and Primitive Wesleyan Chapelryards as are not within three yards of any building, and in Trinity Churchyard, and in the Lower Independent Chapelryard, all in OVER DARWEN, in the parish of Blackburn, from the first of July to the thirty-first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty ;

In the parish churchyard of OTLEY, Yorkshire, from the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one ;

In the Minster churchyard of BEVERLEY, from the first of July to the thirteenth of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty ;

In the burial-ground of the parish of Holy Trinity, in Castle-street, KINGSTON-UPON-HULL, from first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one ;

In the churchyard of KIRKBY STEPHEN, Westmoreland, from the first of January to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one ;

And whereas by an Order in Council, of the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, burials were directed to be discontinued forthwith in the vaults and catacombs beneath St. Margaret's church, LEE, in the county of Kent, and that the entrance to the vaults be closed with brickwork, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to Order, and it is hereby Ordered, that burials under the said church shall be discontinued, and that the openings of the several vaults and catacombs thereunder be closed with brickwork properly cemented.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 1st day of August, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ; and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications, DUNSTABLE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church, the Old Baptist Chapel, and the Wesleyan Chapel ; and from and after the first October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the parish churchyard and the burial-grounds of the particular Baptist Chapel, Tabernacle Chapel, Old Baptist Chapel, and Wesleyan Chapel, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves in which each body shall be separately entombed in stone or brickwork properly cemented ; also with the exception of now existing family earthen graves, in which no body shall be buried within four feet of the general surface of the ground— which vaults and family graves shall be used only on condition that, when opened, no human remains shall be exposed.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of September next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of September.

Arthur Helps.

Council-Office, Whitehall, August 1, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the three following Statutes, dated the 16th day of May, 1860, respecting the Bye Foundations at MAGDALENE COLLEGE, in the said University of Cambridge ; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act ; And NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

Arthur Helps.

STATUTES CONCERNING BYE-FOUNDATIONS AT MAGDALENE COLLEGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the four following Statutes with respect to the several Fellowships, Scholarships, and Exhibitions at Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, therein enumerated :

1. Statute concerning Mr. Dennis's and other Bye-Fellowships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, there shall be no further election to either of the two Fellowships at Magdalene College, founded by Hugh Dennis, L. q., nor to the Fellowship at the same College, founded by Mr. Spendluffe, nor to the Fellowship at the same College, founded by Frances, Countess of Warwick, nor to either of the two Fellowships founded by Dr. Goch, nor to either of the two Fellowships founded by Mr. John Smith, nor to the Fellowship founded by Sir Christopher Wray in 1592, commonly known as Lady Anne Wray's Fellowship.

The emoluments derived by the College from the Foundation of the several Benefactors above enumerated shall (subject and without prejudice to any existing interests therein) be carried to the general fund for Open Scholarships, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

2. Sir Christopher Wray's Fellowships.

In any future election to either of the two Fellowships at Magdalene College, founded by Sir Christopher Wray in 1587, it shall not be necessary for the Master and Fellows of the College to have regard to any special restriction or limitation imposed by the Founder upon the same ; but the election shall be made in all respects in the same manner as that to the Foundation Fellowships of the College.

The Fellows hereafter elected on the Foundation of Sir Christopher Wray shall be subject to the same rules and conditions, as to residence and tenure of their Fellowships, as the Foundation Fellows of the College, and shall be subject to no other restrictions or limitations than the other Fellows of the College.

The emoluments derived by the Collège from the Benefaction of Sir Christopher Wray shall (subject and without prejudice to any existing interest in the same) be carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

[3 Withdrawn.]

4. General Statute as to Bye-Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, there shall be no further election to any of the Scholarships or Exhibitions enumerated in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

All the emoluments derived from the Foundations of the said several Benefactors for the maintenance and support of the Scholarships and Exhibitions enumerated in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall be carried to the general fund for Open Scholarships, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

SCHEDULE TO THE ABOVE.

Seven Scholarships founded by Sir Christopher Wray.
Two Scholarships founded by Lady Anne Wray.
Two Scholarships founded by Mr. Spendluffe.
Two Scholarships founded by Countess of Warwick
Six Scholarships founded by Mr. John Smith.
One Scholarship founded by Mr. Hughes.
Three Scholarships founded by Mr. Roberts.
Two Scholarships founded by Dr. Peckard.
Four Scholarships founded by Mr. Duport.
Three Exhibitions founded by Mr. Groom.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, August 1, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following body of Statutes, Nos. I to XXIII inclusive, dated the 16th day of May, 1860, for the future Government and Regulation of Magdalene College, in the said University of Cambridge ; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act ; And NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or any part thereof.

Arthur Helps.

WE the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth, at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statutes for the future government and regulation of the College of St. Mary Magdalene, in the University of Cambridge, and for making further provision for maintaining and improving the discipline, studies, and good government of the said College, which Statutes are numbered from Statute I to Statute XXIII in the copy hereunto annexed ; that is to say :—

STATUTES OF MAGDALENE COLLEGE.

STATUTE I.

The Master's qualification and duties.

The Master of the College shall be a Master of Arts of the University, or of some superior degree, and at least thirty years of age or thereabout at the time of his election. He shall be a Member of the Church of England, and in Deacon's Orders within one year after his election, and in Priest's Orders within two years after his election. He shall be a person of good character, discretion, learning, and piety, and qualified to secure the good government of the College as a place of education, religion, and learning. It shall be the duty of the Master to superintend and control the several officers of the College in the execution of their duties, to enforce the observance of the Statutes, and to maintain discipline and good order in the College. All members of the College shall shew him becoming reverence and obedience.

STATUTE II.

Period of the Master's Residence.

The Master shall be required to reside in the College five months at least in each year, during term, or six months between the first day of October and the end of the Easter term following; unless on account of sickness or other urgent cause, to be signified by him to the Governing Body within one month before or after the expiration of the period of his absence, and to be approved by a majority of them. If the Master without such approval fails to reside as aforesaid, the Visitor, upon the representation of any one or more of the Fellows, and after due inquiry, shall, if the complaint is established to his satisfaction, admonish the Master; and if after three such admonitions a fourth complaint of such non-residence is made and established, the Visitor shall forthwith deprive the Master of his Office, and nominate a new Master in his stead.

STATUTE III.

Power of removing the Master.

If the Master openly secedes from the Church of England, the Visitor shall, with all convenient speed, inquire into the fact: and if it is established, shall forthwith deprive the Master of his Office, and nominate a new Master in his stead.

If the Master has been convicted by a Court of competent jurisdiction of any crime whatever, the Visitor may enquire into the fact of such conviction; and if it is established, may deprive the Master of his Office, and nominate a new Master in his stead.

If any two or more Resident Fellows of the College make to the Visitor a charge against the Master, either of disgraceful conduct or of malversation in his Office, rendering him unfit to be Master of the College, the Visitor shall, with all convenient speed, inquire into the facts of the case; and if the charge is established, shall forthwith deprive the Master of his Office, and nominate a new Master in his stead.

STATUTE IV.

The President and his Office.

The Master shall appoint one of the Resident Fellows of the College to the office of President.

It shall be the duty of the President to attend under the Master to the good government of the Fellows, Students, Officers and Servants of the College, to enforce the observance of the Statutes, and, in the absence of the Master, to exercise, as his deputy, the functions prescribed by these Statutes. When the President is absent from College the Senior Fellow present in College shall in all cases be his locum-tenens.

He shall be continued in office during the Master's pleasure, and shall receive from the funds of the College such Stipend as the Governing Body from time to time determines.

STATUTE V.

Tutors and Lecturers.

There shall be such number of Tutors and Lecturers in the College, as the Governing Body from time to time determines.

The Master shall appoint the Tutors, and the Tutors shall appoint the Lecturers, subject to the approval of the Master.

The Master shall have power to remove a Tutor or Lecturer, but subject to the approval of a majority of the Governing Body.

The Tutors shall be responsible for all payments due from their pupils for College and University charges.

The Governing body shall determine from time to time the amount of tuition money to be paid by Members of the College in Statu pupillari, and the proportion in which the same shall be distributed among the Tutors and Lecturers.

STATUTE VI.

The Dean and his office.

The Master shall appoint one of the Clerical Fellows of the College to the office of Dean.

It shall be the duty of the Dean to provide for the decorous performance of divine worship in the College Chapel. It shall also be his duty to maintain discipline and good order amongst the Undergraduates of the College, especially in respect of attendance and behaviour at the College Chapel.

He shall receive such stipend as the Governing Body from time to time determines.

STATUTE VII.

The Bursar and his office.

The Governing Body shall elect annually from among themselves a Bursar. The Bursar shall have the care of the property of the College, receive all rents and monies due to the College, and make payments from the same under the direction of the Governing Body. He shall superintend the buildings, offices, rooms, courts, cloisters, and gardens of the College, and provide under the direction of the Governing Body what is necessary for their maintenance and repair. The money of the College received by the Bursar shall be kept by him in some Bank or Banks, or otherwise invested under the direction of the Governing Body, and no loan or temporary or other investment shall be made by him except in conformity with such direction.

He shall receive such stipend as the Governing Body from time to time determines.

STATUTE VIII.

The Steward and his office.

The Governing Body shall elect annually from among themselves a Steward, whose duty it shall be to superintend the supply of provisions for the public table, to receive and make the requisite payments whether for Commons or other charges connected with his office, and to keep account thereof.

He shall receive such stipend as the Governing Body from time to time determines.

STATUTE IX.

Fellowships.

Whereas there are at present four Fellowships on the Foundation of the College and fourteen Bye-Fellowships it is hereby declared, that from the date of the confirmation of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council.

- (1) No person shall hereafter be elected to any Bye-Fellowship now existing in the College.
- (2) There shall be hereafter eight Open Fellowships on the Foundation of the College.
- (3) The four additional Fellows shall be elected with all convenient speed according to the expiration of existing interests.

- (4) Such four Fellows and their successors shall be denominated respectively the Spendluffe, Wray, Drury, and Millington Fellows, in commemoration of the benefactions made to the College by Mr. Spendluffe, Sir Christopher Wray, the Rev. Drue Drury, and Dr. Millington.

STATUTE X.

Election and admission of Fellows.

Every vacancy occurring in the Fellowships of the College shall, except for some special cause, be filled up within a year, and in every case within two years.

The Governing Body shall be the Electors to Fellowships, and shall elect in all cases such Candidates as they deem best qualified in respect of learning and character, being Graduates of the University.

Before proceeding to elect, the Electors shall severally make the following declaration.

"I A. B. do solemnly declare that I will vote for that person who is (or those persons who are) in my judgment best qualified in respect of learning and character."

Every Fellow elect shall previously to his admission make the following declaration:

"I A. B. do solemnly declare that I am bonâ fide a member of the Church of England. I do solemnly promise and declare that I will faithfully and diligently observe the Statutes of this College, and maintain as far as in me lies the observance of them by other Members of the College."

After this declaration the Fellow or Fellows elect shall be admitted in the usual form by the Master.

STATUTE XI.

The Tenure of Fellowships.

1. Except in the cases hereinafter mentioned every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at the end of ten years from admission to the same, or on marriage, or on appointment to any benefice, ecclesiastical endowment, or office tenable during life or good behaviour, the clear annual value of which is not less than £300, or upon appointment to the Living of Aldrington.

a. Where he has held office as Tutor, Lecturer or Dean in the College, or as Lecturer in another College with the approval of his own College, the time during which he has held any of such offices, shall not be reckoned as part of the aforesaid ten years, except in the case of his marrying under the provisions of clause γ or clause δ , of this Statute.

β . Where a Clerical Fellow has not held or been called upon to hold one of the College Offices aforesaid he shall not vacate his Fellowship by lapse of time, until he has had the offer of a College Living of the value of not less than £300 per annum, or of the Living of Aldrington.

γ . After a Fellow has held a Fellowship for five or more years, he shall be allowed to marry, vacating, ipso facto, any College office he holds, provided that such Fellow shall in all cases vacate his Fellowship at the end of ten years from admission to the same.

δ . After an unmarried Fellow being a Lecturer in the College has held a Fellowship for ten years, he shall be allowed, with the consent of two-thirds of the Governing Body to retain his Fellowship, without the obligation of celibacy, provided that he is willing to continue to hold a Lectureship in the College and resides in the University.

e. After a Fellow has held a Fellowship for twenty years, during fifteen of which he has held office as Tutor, Lecturer or Dean in the College, or as Lecturer in another College with the approval of his own College, he shall be allowed to retain his Fellowship for life, without any obligation of celibacy or residence.

Provided that not more than three married Fellows shall enjoy the privileges granted under clauses δ and ϵ of this statute at the same time, and that all married Fellows whatsoever shall forfeit their right of pre-option to College Livings, from the time of their marriage, if in Holy Orders, and shall vacate their Fellowships on appointment to any benefice, Ecclesiastical endowment, or office tenable during life or good behaviour, the clear annual value of which is not less than £300.

2. A Clerical Fellow, who at any time refuses after due notice to hold one of the College offices aforesaid, shall forfeit his right of pre-option to a College Living from the time of such refusal.

3. A Resident Fellow may with the consent of two-thirds of the Governing Body, and of the Visitor of the College, retain his Fellowship, although not holding any College Office, and the time of such residence shall not be reckoned as part of his ten years.

4. All Fellows vacating their Fellowships, except by death, shall be allowed a year of grace, provided that such year falls within their allotted period of tenure. Where the whole year of grace does not fall within the allotted period of tenure, such part of it as does fall within the period shall be allowed to the Fellow.

5. Any Fellow of the College shall vacate his Fellowship if elected to be Master or Fellow of any other College, but he shall not vacate his Fellowship on account of his election to any Professorship or office in the University, the clear annual value of which does not exceed £500 a year.

6. Any Fellow of the College may hold a Professorship together with a Fellowship without the obligation of celibacy, provided that not more than one married Fellow holds a Professorship, and that such Professorship does not exceed the annual value of £500.

7. When, upon the occurrence of a vacancy in a Fellowship, there are not more than two Fellows in Holy Orders (exclusive of married Fellows and non-resident Fellows who have refused to accept office, or who are non-resident under the provisions of Clause ϵ of this Statute), the Governing Body may require an undertaking from a Candidate previously to his election to a Fellowship, if such Candidate is not already in Priest's Orders, that he will be in Priest's Orders within two years after such election; and if such Candidate, having been afterwards elected Fellow, fails to fulfil such undertaking he shall ipso facto vacate his Fellowship.

STATUTE XII.

Residence of Fellows and College Officers.

A Fellow shall be considered non-resident who does not reside in the University during the major part of the Term.

No unmarried Fellow, holding an Office in College, shall be absent from College for more than seven days during two-thirds of each Term, without the sanction of the Governing Body.

STATUTE XIII.

Discipline of Fellows.

If any Fellow openly secedes from the Church of England, the Master shall, with all convenient speed, assemble a Meeting of the Governing Body, and the Governing Body so assembled shall proceed to inquire into the case, and if the fact is established, shall declare the Fellowship vacant.

If any Fellow is convicted by a Court of competent jurisdiction of any crime whatever, the Master shall, with all convenient speed, assemble a meeting of the Governing Body; and the Governing Body so assembled shall enquire into the case, and if the fact of such conviction is established, the Master may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the whole Governing Body, either deprive such Fellow of the emoluments of his Fellowship for a limited time, or, it necessary, expel him altogether from the College and declare his Fellowship vacant.

If any two Fellows of the College make to the Master a charge against any Fellow of disgraceful conduct, rendering him unfit to reside in College, or to be a Fellow of the College, the Master shall, with all convenient speed, assemble a meeting of the Governing Body: and the Governing Body so assembled shall inquire into the case, and if the charge is proved, the Master may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the whole Governing Body, either deprive such Fellow of the emoluments of his Fellowship for a limited time, or, if necessary, expel him altogether from the College and declare his Fellowship vacant.

If the Master thinks fit to cause an inquiry to be instituted, as to whether the conduct of any Fellow has been disgraceful and such as to render him unfit to reside in College, or to be a Fellow of the College, he may call a meeting of the Governing Body; and the Governing Body so assembled shall investigate the case, and if such disgraceful conduct is proved, the Master may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the whole Governing Body, either deprive such Fellow of the emoluments of his Fellowship for a limited time, or, if necessary, expel him altogether from the College and declare his Fellowship vacant.

STATUTE XIV.

Scholarships and Exhibitions.

Whereas there are at present many Scholarships and Exhibitions in the College subject to local or other restrictions, it is hereby declared that (excepting those Scholarships and Exhibitions, the right of preference to which is preserved by Act xix and xx Vict. c. 88, to particular Schools) such restrictions shall be entirely removed and the total annual amount of such Scholarships and Exhibitions shall form a General Fund for open Scholarships. This Fund shall be so far augmented from the revenue accruing to the College by the abolition of Bye-Fellowships, that there shall be hereafter three open Scholarships of at least £60, three of at least £40, and six of at least £20 a-year each.

Two of the three Scholarships of £60 a year, each shall be denominated the Peckard Scholarships, and the third shall be denominated the Warwick Scholarship, in commemoration of the Benefactions made to the College by Dr. Peckard and the Countess of Warwick.

Two of the three Scholarships of £40 a year, each shall be denominated the Smith Scholarships, and the third shall be denominated the Wray Scholarship, in commemoration of the Benefactions made to the College by Mr. Smith, and Lady Anne Wray.

The six Scholarships of £20 a year each shall be denominated respectively the Dennis, Hughes, Roberts, Dupont, Groom, and Dongworth Scholarships, in commemoration of the Benefactions made to the College by Mr. Dennis, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Roberts, Dr. Dupont, Mr. Groom, and Mrs. Margaret Dongworth.

Where the right of preference to a Scholarship or Exhibition is preserved to a particular School or to particular Schools by Act xix and xx Vict., such right of preference shall be limited to persons who have been educated at least two years at such School or Schools.

STATUTE XV.

Election and Admission of Scholars.

There shall be at least one Examination of Candidates for Scholarships in each year.

The Governing Body shall be the Electors to Scholarships and shall in all cases elect such Candidates as they deem best qualified.

Where Candidates are equal or nearly equal in merit, the Electors may equalize or proportion the pecuniary value of Scholarships, and where after due notice has been given of the Examination, no Candidate has shewn sufficient merit to be elected into a vacant Scholarship, the Electors may postpone the Election to such Scholarship until the following year.

Before proceeding to elect, the Electors shall severally make the following declaration:

"I, A. B. do solemnly declare that I will vote for that person who is (or those persons who are), in my judgment, best qualified."

After the Election the Scholar or Scholars elect shall make the following declaration:

"I, A. B. promise that I will faithfully and diligently observe the Statutes and ordinances of this College."

After this declaration the Scholar or Scholars elect shall be admitted by the Master in the usual form.

STATUTE XVI.

Discipline of the College.

All persons in statu pupillari shall shew due reverence and obedience to the Master, and other Officers of the College; they shall conduct themselves in a quiet and orderly manner within the College, shall observe the Statutes, and shall conform to all such Orders and Regulations as are made from time to time by the Governing Body for the good government of the College. If any such person (not being a Fellow of the College) does not observe the Statutes, or the Orders and Regulations above referred to, or is guilty of any offence contrary to discipline and good order, or tending to bring scandal upon the College, he shall be punished by the authorities of the College in such manner (short of removal from the College) as the offence appears to them to deserve. The penalty of temporary or final removal from the College, or, in the case of a Scholar, of deprivation of his Scholarship, or temporary forfeiture of the emoluments and advantages thereof, may be inflicted by the Governing Body.

STATUTE XVII.

The Governing Body and its Meetings.

The Governing Body shall consist of the Master and all Fellows on the foundation of the College, except non-resident married Fellows.

Any Fellow who is non-resident, under the provisions of Statute XI, Clause e, shall not during his absence from College be a Member of the Governing Body.

The Master may call a meeting of the Governing Body.

The Master shall call a meeting of the Governing Body on the requisition of two other Members thereof for a specified purpose.

Where it is required by these Statutes that a question shall be decided by a majority or by two-thirds of the Governing Body, or by a majority of the Master and Fellows, the Master and Fellows shall each have a single vote; and, in case of equality of votes, the Master shall have a casting vote.

In all other cases the Master shall have two votes, and each Fellow a single vote; and in case of equality of votes, the Master shall have a casting vote.

STATUTE XVIII.

Emoluments of the Master and Fellows.

After deduction of all stipends and allowances to the Officers of the College, and of the payment to the Scholarship Fund prescribed in these Statutes, and of all expenses belonging to the management of the College property, and all other needful and reasonable general expenses, and also of such payment (if any) as may become due to the University chest, to be applied to purposes for the benefit of the University at large, the surplus annual revenue of the College (exclusive of the Peckard Fund) shall be divided into ten equal parts, of which the Master shall receive two, and each of the Fellows one. Provided that when such Annual Surplus Revenue exceeds £3000, the excess shall be applied in such proportion as the Governing Body thinks fit, either to the increase of the number of Fellowships or to the increase of the number or emoluments of the Scholars or to such other purposes as are considered most advantageous to the College.

The Annual Revenue arising from the Peckard Fund shall be divided into six equal parts, of which the Master shall receive two, and each of the four Senior Fellows one.

Every Resident Fellow shall be entitled to Rooms in College, free of charge, and to such allowance for Commons during residence, as the Governing Body from time to time determines.

The Master's allowance for Commons, during residence, shall be double that of a Fellow.

STATUTE XIX.

Power of Leasing.

The Governing Body of the College may lease any lands tenements, tithes or hereditaments, belonging to the College, for any period not exceeding twenty years.

STATUTE XX.

Provision in case of Changes in Value of Money.

If at any time it appears to the Master and Fellows that, by reason of any change in the value of Money, the specific sums fixed by these Statutes, or which may hereafter be fixed in exercise of any power given by these Statutes, have become insufficient or excessive, and that such insufficiency or excess is productive of injustice or hardship, or is injurious to the general interests of the College, they may, by an instrument under the seal of the College, and with the sanction of the Visitor, for the purpose of correcting or obviating such injustice, hardship, or injury, direct that such annual sums be increased or diminished as they think fit, and the increased or diminished sums shall thenceforth be substituted for and stand in the place of the sums originally fixed as aforesaid.

STATUTE XXI.

Rights of present Master and Fellows.

Nothing in these Statutes contained shall interfere with the Emoluments or term of residence of the present Master or with the Emoluments, Tenure of Office, or other Interests of a pecuniary nature of any Fellow elected before the confirmation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council: provided that if the Master or any such Fellow elects to be placed in all these respects under the operation of these Statutes the Master may at any time after the confirmation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council signify such his election by writing under his hand in the Book of College orders, and any such Fellow may signify such his election at any time after the confirmation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council by writing under his hand addressed to the Master; and all the Rights and Interests of the Master or Fellow who has so signified his election shall thenceforth be governed by these Statutes.

STATUTE XXII.

Power of interpreting Statutes.

If any question arises as to the interpretation of these Statutes, it may be decided by a majority of the Governing Body.

STATUTE XXIII.

Power of altering Statutes.

The Master and Fellows may from time to time (but subject to the provisions of Section 43 of Stat. xix. and xx. Vict. c. 88) by instrument under the College Seal, alter or repeal any of these Statutes, or any part of them; Provided that the College Seal shall not be affixed to any proposal for such alteration or repeal, until a General Meeting has been held of the Master and Fellows, at which such proposal has been sanctioned by a majority of the whole body of the Master and Fellows.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, 1st August, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statutes, dated the 16th day of May, 1860, for the future regulation of the several Bye Foundations at Sidney Sussex College, in the said University of Cambridge. And whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: And NOTICE is hereby given that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

Arthur Helps.

STATUTES CONCERNING BYE FOUNDATIONS AT SIDNEY SUSSEX COLLEGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in virtue of the powers given to us by the said Act, make the following ten statutes with respect to the two Scholarships founded by Mr. Edward Montagu at Sidney Sussex College, in the said University, and to the Fellowship founded by Mr. Leonard Smith at the said College, and to the Fellowship founded by Sir John Hart at the said College, and to the Scholarship founded by Mr. Leonard Smith at the said College, and to the Fellowship and two Scholarships founded by Mr. John Freestone at the said College, and to the two Fellowships and two Scholarships founded by Mr. Peter Blundell at the said College, and to the four Fellowships founded by Sir Francis Clerk at the said College, and to the Emoluments derived by the said College under the will of Mr. Francis Combe, and to the three Scholarships founded by Mr. Downham Yeomans at the said College, and to the two Scholarships founded by Dr. Paul Micklethwaite at the said College, respectively.

1.—Mr. Edward Montagu's Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute, the right of the heirs of Edward Montagu, Esquire, to nominate two Scholars to the Scholarships at Sidney Sussex College founded by the said Edward Montagu shall cease and determine, and no further election shall be made to either of the said Scholarships.

In lieu of the said two Scholarships there shall be established at Sidney Sussex College one Exhibition of the annual value of Twelve Pounds.

The right of nomination to such Exhibition shall belong to the Master of the College for the time being.

2.—The Smith or Fishmonger Fellowship.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute the right of the Warden and Company of Fishmongers to nominate to the Fellowship at Sidney Sussex College founded by Mr. Leonard Smith shall cease and determine, and the election to such Fellowship shall be made in the same manner as the election to the other Fellowships of the College.

The Fellow so elected shall enjoy the same privileges and emoluments as the Foundation Fellows, and shall be subject to no other restrictions or limitations than the other Fellows of the College.

3.—Sir John Hart's Fellowship.

All the emoluments derived from the bequest of Sir John Hart, and from the gift of his descendant Sir John Bolles shall be consolidated and carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

4.—Mr. Smith's Scholarship.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute, the right of preference of a Scholar of Holt School in the election to the Scholarship at Sidney Sussex College founded by Mr. Leonard Smith, and also the right of the Warden and Company of Fishmongers to nominate two Candidates for such Scholarships in default of a Scholar from Holt School, shall cease and determine; and the election to such Scholarship shall be made in the same manner as the election to the two other Scholarships of the College.

5.—Freestone Fellowship and Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to the Fellowship at Sidney Sussex College founded by Mr. John Freestone, nor to either of the two Scholarships founded by him at the same College.

All the emoluments derived from the Foundation of the said Mr. John Freestone shall be consolidated and carried to the general funds of the College to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

6.—Mr. Blundell's Foundation.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute (but subject and without prejudice to any existing interest of any person elected under the previously existing Statutes), the right of preference heretofore enjoyed by scholars from Tiverton School in the election to the two Fellowships at Sidney Sussex College founded by Mr. Peter Blundell shall cease and determine, and the election to such two Fellowships shall be made in the same manner as the election to the other Fellowships of the College.

The Fellow so elected shall enjoy the same privileges and emoluments as the Foundation Fellows, and shall be subject to no other restrictions or limitations than the other Fellows of the College.

There shall be no further election to the two Scholarships at the same College founded by the said Mr. Peter Blundell, but in lieu thereof there shall be established at Sidney Sussex College three Exhibitions of the annual value of Sixty Pounds each.

The elections to the said three Exhibitions shall be held at Mr. Peter Blundell's school at Tiverton, in the county of Devon, on such day in each year between the 15th and 29th days of June both inclusive, as the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College, in conjunction with the Master and Fellows of Balliol College, Oxford, shall appoint, after a competitive examination of the candidates in subjects connected with the studies of the said school. Such examination shall be conducted by three Examiners, one to be appointed by the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College, another (not being a Master of Tiverton School) by the Feoffees of Mr. Blundell's estate, and the third by the Master and Fellows of Balliol College in the University of Oxford, or in default of appointment by them, by the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College. The expenses of the Examiner or Examiners to be appointed by Sidney Sussex College shall be defrayed out of the general revenues of the College. The Examiners shall elect that candidate (being a scholar of the said School, educated therein for the two years immediately preceding the election), who after such examination shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be an Exhibitioner of the College. The Examiners shall immediately after each election notify to the Head Master of the School the subjects of examination for the ensuing year. Notice of the day appointed for the election shall be given not less than thirty days previously by the Master of the College to the Head Master of the School.

If no duly qualified candidate be found at Tiverton School, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Examiners, to be elected to such Exhibition, the Exhibition then vacant shall be treated by the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College as open to general competition.

Each of such Exhibitions shall be tenable for the space of three years, and no longer; but such Exhibition shall be vacated if the Exhibitioner fail to reside in College, during the greater part of any one term, except for some grave cause to be approved by the Master and Fellows.

Any person elected into one of such Exhibitions shall be eligible for any Scholarship of the College, and in the event of his being elected to such Scholarship, his Exhibition shall be tenable with the same.

Every Exhibitioner shall be subject to such regulations as to instruction, discipline and attendance on Divine worship as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine; and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Master and Fellows for any misconduct which shall in their judgment merit deprivation, but with liberty to appeal to the Visitor of the College.

Subject to the charge for the payment of such Exhibitions, all the emoluments derived from the bequest of Mr. Peter Blundell, and the deed of endowment of 1616 made in pursuance thereof, shall be consolidated and carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

7.—Sir Francis Clerk's Foundation.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to any of the four Fellowships founded by Sir Francis Clerk at Sidney Sussex College for persons born in the county of Bedford, nor to any of the eight Scholarships founded by the said Sir Francis Clerk at the same College.

All the emoluments derived by the College from the benefaction of the said Sir Francis Clerk shall be consolidated and carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

8.—Mr. Combe's Benefaction.

Subject to the legal rights of any persons beneficially interested under the will of Francis Combe, Esq., all the emoluments derived by Sidney Sussex College from the estate at Abbott's Langley, in the county of Hertford, devised by the said Francis Combe in his will, shall be carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

9.—Mr. Yeomans' Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to any of the three Scholarships at Sidney Sussex College founded by Mr. Downham Yeomans for three scholars from Bedfordshire.

All the emoluments derived by the College from the benefaction of the said Mr. Downham Yeomans shall be consolidated and carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

10.—Dr. Micklethwaite's Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no election to either of the two Scholarships at Sidney Sussex College founded by Dr. Paul Micklethwaite in 1627.

In lieu of the said Scholarships there shall be established at Sidney Sussex College one Exhibition of the annual value of Ten Pounds.

Such Exhibition shall be bestowed in such manner as the Master and Fellows may think fit for the encouragement or support of any Student of the College whom they may consider to be the most deserving.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, August 3, 1860.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Major Stokes, the British Commissioner of the European Commission of the Danube, enclosing a copy of a new provisional tariff* which has been adopted by the Commission, fixing the charges to be levied at the Sulina mouth, on vessels navigating the Danube, from and after the 1st September next.

The charges in question include the pilotage, lighthouse, and river improvement dues, and have been fixed according to the tonnage of the vessel and to the depth of water at the bar, at rates varying from 75 centimes per ton for vessels of more than 30 and of less than 100 tons, to 3 francs 25 centimes for vessels of more than 300 tons, requiring more than 15 feet of water; the average charge for the present being computed by the Commission at 1 franc 50 centimes, the depth of water obtained this season, being estimated at only 12 feet.

A reduction of 40 per cent. representing engine room, &c., is to be made for steamers.

Further information respecting the arrangements to be definitively adopted will be made public as soon as received.

* Erroneously printed "provincial tariff," in the Notice which appeared in the London Gazette of the 31st ult.

CONTRACT FOR SHOES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, July 26, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 9th August next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, Shoes, 35,550 pairs, Deptford ; 21,500 pairs, Gosport ; 28,500 pairs, Plymouth ; one-third of each quantity to be delivered in two months, another third in three months, and the remainder in four months from the date of contract, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the shoes.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose and which may be obtained on application at the said office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Separate tenders must be made for each place, and no attention will be paid to any offer not so made.

Patterns of the shoes may be seen at the said office, and also at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, and also at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary to the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Shoes," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR SHEATHING PAPER.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 30, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 21st August next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards, with

IMPERIAL CAP OR BROWN SHEATHING PAPER.

A sample of the paper, and a form of the tender may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Sheathing Paper," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR WHEAT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset House, July 27, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 6th August next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned article: viz.:

Wheat, 4,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the wheat.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent or his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Wheat," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACT FOR TIN MESS CANS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 21, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 6th August next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such TIN MESS CANS for the ROYAL MARINES, as shall from time to time be demanded for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

A pattern can may be seen at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of one and four.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tin Mess Cans," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR TARRED CLOTH.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 21, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 6th August next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be demanded for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

A sample of the tarred cloth may be seen at the said Office,

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tarred Cloth," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200 for the due performance of the contract

CONTRACT FOR HAIR FELT.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) of Messrs. Jacobs, Son, and Vaughan, Solicitors, Crosby-square, London; and of Messrs. Debenham and Tewson, Auctioneers and Estate Agents, No. 80, Cheapside, London.

In Somersetshire, the Chedzoy Manor and Estate, nearly 1,600 acres in extent, very compact, and within three miles of the market-town, port, and railway-station of Bridgwater.

TO be sold by auction, by Wainwright and Heard, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Porter v. Porter, at the Clarence Hotel, Bridgwater, on Tuesday, the 28th day of August, 1860, at twelve o'clock at noon, in one or more lots:

The very important and desirable freehold estate, known as the Manor, or reputed Manor, of Chedzoy, situate in the rich vale of the Parrett, in the most favoured part of Somersetshire, comprising nearly the entire parish of Chedzoy, and extending to upwards of 1,563 acres, more or less, of very excellent land, lying for the most part within a ring-fence, divided into ten compact and well arranged dairy, grazing, and corn farms, let to highly respectable tenants, and producing, with the cottages and minor holdings, a well paid-up yearly rental of £4,023 1s. 2d.

This important estate possesses peculiar claims, worthy the attention of a gentleman seeking a secure investment, every acre being productive of rental. The arable lands are some of the finest in the county, the soil being of a deep sandy loam, of inexhaustible fertility, and capable of producing heavy crops, being easily worked at all seasons. The meadows, and pastures are of corresponding richness and fertility. Several of the farm-houses are of modern erection, and the farm buildings are ample for the profitable occupation of the land. Near the church is a newly-built comfortable residence, called the Manor House, which is occupied by the Steward, and contains accommodation available for a proprietor on his visits to view the estate, or to enjoy some good partridge shooting. The estate is free of land-tax, and will first, if desired, be submitted in one lot, and if not sold will be then offered in several lots, for the accommodation of purchasers. The capital market town and port of Bridgwater, with its railway-station, is within three miles of the estate, commanding the best markets in the West of England, and also affording opportunities of daily transport to Bath, Bristol, London, and the Welch markets.

The estate may be viewed on application to Mr. Laurie, at the Manor House, Chedzoy aforesaid.

Printed particulars, with plans and conditions of sale, may be had of George Annesley, Esq., No. 64, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, Solicitor; of C. H. Moore, Esq., No. 22, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, Solicitor; of H. S. Russell, Esq., of Mitre-court-chambers, Temple, London, Solicitor; at the Clarence and Railway Hotels, Bridgwater; the Castle Inn, Taunton; the London Inn, Exeter; of Mr. Laurie, at Chedzoy; and of Messrs. Wainwrights and Heard, Auctioneers and Surveyors, Shepton Mallet.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Mathew v. Jennens, with the approbation of the Master of the Rolls, in one lot, by Mr. Robert Reid, the person appointed by the said Judge, at Garraway's, Change-alley, Cornhill, London, on Friday, the 7th day of September, 1860, at one o'clock precisely:

The valuable goodwill of the business of button and military and naval ornament manufacturers, established upwards of half a century, and now carried on by Messrs. Jennens, at No. 56, Conduit-street, Regent-street, London, and at the manufactory, in Old Meeting-house-yard, Deritend, Birmingham, together with all the stock in trade, tools, dies, and fixtures; also the lease of the business-premises, No. 56, Conduit-street aforesaid, held for an unexpired term of fourteen years, at the low yearly rent of £145, and the interest in the premises in Old Meeting-house-yard, held from year to year, at a rent of £60 per annum. The goodwill is extremely valuable, the average annual net profits exceed £4,000 per annum, and the connection, which is of the highest class, and includes many of the first London houses, is capable of being increased to almost any extent.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be obtained of Messrs. Walker and Harrison, Solicitors, No. 5, Southampton-street, Bloomsbury, London, W.C.; of J. C.
