*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 7, 1860.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at St. Petersburg, enclosing a copy of an Ukase issued by the Emperor of Russia, authorizing foreigners to enter the Russian commercial guilds, upon the same footing as native subjects, and conceding to them all the rights conferred by the guilds upon Russian merchants.

The ukase further grants to foreigners the right to acquire, by purchase, succession, legacy, gift, or imperial concession, all kinds of property, both real and personal, excepting always such property as the Russian hereditary nobility, and foreigners possessing equal rights, are alone able to obtain by virtue of existing laws.

Foreigners are further allowed to act as agents for occupied estates, provided the consent of the proprietors has been obtained. It is also lawful for them to farm real property under the conditions prescribed by law.

The above concessions do not apply to foreign Jews, who are subject to a special treatment.

War-Office, August 7, 1860.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Soldier of Her Majesty's Army, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of an Act of Bravery performed by him in India, as recorded against his name, viz. : —

Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
2nd Battalion, Military Train	No. 201, Private Samuel Morley Date of Act of Bravery, April 15, 1858	On the evacuation of Azimgurh by Koer Sing's Army, on the 15th of April, 1858, a Squadron of the Military Train, and half a Troop of Horse Artillery, were sent in pursuit. Upon overtaking them, and coming into action with their rear-guard, a Squadron of the 3rd Sikh Cavalry (also detached in pursuit), and one Troop of the Military Train, were ordered to charge, when Lieutenant Hamilton, who commanded the Sikhs, was unhorsed, and immediately surrounded by the Enemy, who commenced cutting and hacking him whilst on the ground. Private Samuel Morley, seeing the predicament that Lieutenant Hamilton was in, although his (Morley's) horse had been shot from under him, immediately and most gallantly rushed up, on foot, to his assistance, and in conjunction with Farrier Murphy, who has already received the Victoria Cross for the same thing, cut down one of the Sepoys, and fought over Lieutenant Hamilton's body, until further assistance came up, and thereby was the means of saving Lieutenant Hamilton from being killed on the spot.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 20).—SOUTH ATLANTIC.

The Signal Ball at Ascension.

THE Naval Officer in charge of Ascension has given notice, that, in order that vessels calling at the island may readily find the error and rate of their chronometer, a time ball is dropped daily (Sundays excepted) from a flagstaff at the Master's cottage, precisely at one o'clock of Greenwich mean time.

The Master's cottage is situated immediately to the southward of Hayes Hill, and is the only cottage near it bearing a flagstaff. The ball when hoisted ready to drop is at a height of 90 feet above the level of the sea, and may be readily seen from the anchorage.

The longitude of the flagstaff is assumed at 14° 25' 30" West, or 0h. 57m. 42s.; the ball, therefore, is dropped at 2m. 18s. after Noon, mean time at Ascension.

Vessels not intending to remain for the usual time of showing the signal may have the ball dropped at any convenient hour of Greenwich time by making a request at the Master's office at the cottage.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.
